

HOTEL METROPOLE

OAKLAND

For the past 10 or 15 years, the Metropole has enjoyed a standing among those of the traveling public who appreciate real comfort that no other hotel in this part of the state can boast of.

For many years we've had the pleasure of entertaining and serving the same guests for a short stay whenever in our city—travelers who have enjoyed our generous hospitality, our careful, painstaking, unobtrusive service, our splendid cuisine and the environment of real comfort that surrounds the Metropole have never failed to come to us again if ever in Oakland.

Guests are with us today who have been with us steadily for 10 or 15 years and they still enjoy each day and each moment of each day in the quiet, homelike atmosphere of this splendid hostelry.

Such stability of patronage proves wonders, for it is the test of time that counts in hotel management. Its the "come-back-again" guest that proves satisfaction. Its the permanency of the monthly guest that proves the real attractiveness of a hotel.

The Metropole can boast of a prestige of nearly a score of years of continued success.

And all this means much to the man or woman who seeks a permanent hotel home, for if the Metropole so well satisfies those who are here why shouldn't it be equally pleasant to the guests of the future?

Cor. 13th & Jefferson, Oakland—Phone Oak. 5746, R. M. Briare, Prop.