CHURCHES.

BAPTIST.

First Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Eddy Street between Jones and Leavenworth. Rev. G. T. ABBOTT, Pastor; residence, 929 Tyler Street.

This church was organized in June, 1849, under the labors of its first Pastor, Rev. O. C. Wheeler. The society purchased a lot on Washington Street between Dupont and Stockton in the spring of that year for the sum of $10,000, and erected a wooden edifice thereon. It was dedicated in August, 1849, and was the first Protestant house of worship erected in California. Mr. Wheeler's pastorate ended in November, 1851. He was succeeded by the Rev. B. Brierly in May, 1852, who officiated until May, 1858. In July, 1859, Rev. D. B. Cheney was called to the pastorate, and continued in charge until 1867, when he was forced to resign on account of ill-health. After his resignation, Rev. C. A. Buckbee officiated as pastorate supply until the arrival of Rev. J. B. Thomas, February, 1868, who continued in charge until December, 1868, when he also was compelled by ill-health to resign. The Rev. A. R. Medbury took charge in November, 1870, and officiated until June 1, 1872, being succeeded by the Rev. E. B. Hulbert, who officiated as Pastor until December, 1877, when he resigned, on account of ill-health, and was succeeded by the Rev. G. T. Abbott, the present incumbent.

During the summer of 1857 a substantial brick edifice was erected on the site of the old edifice, in which the congregation worshipped until the summer of 1875, when the lot and building was sold for the sum of $29,500, and the erection of the present place of worship immediately commenced. Services were first held in the vestry of this building the fourth Sunday in January, 1876. While the edifice was being erected, the congregation worshipped in Washington Hall.

From this church the Columbia Square Baptist Church was organized, December, 1862; the Tabernacle Baptist Church, December, 1865; the San Pablo Baptist Church, February, 1867, and the Fifth Baptist Church, Sept. 1869.

Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Location northeast corner of Fifth and Jessie streets. Rev. I. S. KALLOCH, D. D., Pastor; residence, 2314 Mission Street.

The Metropolitan Baptist Church is the result of a union of the Tabernacle Church, formerly worshipping on Post Street, between Hyde and Larkin, and the Second Church, formerly worshipping on Russ Street, near Columbia Square. Each of these churches, about January 1st, 1875, called to their pastorate Rev. I. S. Kalloch, of Leavenworth, Kansas. He visited them in February, 1875, and the result of his visit was the consolidation of the two churches and a united call to Dr. Kalloch to become their pastor, which he accepted, and entered upon his labors March 1st, 1875.

The church, mainly through the Christian liberality and enterprise of one of its members, Deacon Isaac Lankershim, has since built the Metropolitan Temple at a cost of $200,000. The main audience hall accommodates three thousand persons. The lecture room, with parlors adjoining, accommodates six hundred. Divine services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock a. m., and half-past seven o'clock p. m. Young People's Meeting, Monday evening. Church Prayer Meeting, Wednesday evening.
