RUSSIAN REPUBLICAN BENEVOLENT SOCIETY (Decembrist).—A secret organization, intended for the propagation of Republican principles among Russians here and in the Russian Empire. It excludes all who favor autocracy or servilely bend to the edicts of the church. Its benevolence is confined exclusively to political refugees. It does not in any way interfere with American politics or the enlightened systems of religion prevailing in this country. Head office (undivulged), branch organized in San Francisco, December 14, 1867.

Agapius Honcharenko, Secretary. Office, Ukraina (Russian settlement); address, Hayward, Alameda Co., California.

SAN FRANCISCO BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—Organized 1865. Office, 10 Jackson Street. The design of this association is to improve the condition of the deserving indigent, and, so far as is practical, to relieve their necessities.

Officers.—Levi Stevens, President; J. C. Patrick, Treasurer; Robert Beeching, General Agent and Secretary.

SAN FRANCISCO FEMALE HOSPITAL.—Located 917 Clay Street. This hospital was opened for the reception of patients on the first day of April, 1868. The object of the institution is the care of poor, sick women. There is no rule as to the nativity, religion, or social condition. It is a charity in the broadest sense of the term. Any woman who is poor and sick is entitled to share its benefits. It is a general hospital for all diseases, and for lying-in.

During the eight years it has been open, there have been over six hundred births; of the whole number of births over fifty per cent have been illegitimate, showing conclusively the need of such an institution, as, if it were not for this hospital, the probabilities are that the greater number would have shared the fate of so many thousands of innocents murdered in their mother's womb. There have been besides a large number of patients admitted for general disease. During the existence of the hospital there have been but thirty deaths, mostly from that scourge of our race—consumption. There have also been a very large number of outside patients treated, the physician and surgeon being in attendance every morning from ten to eleven o'clock to treat any poor persons who may come. It was supported by voluntary contributions until 1870, when the State appropriated $5,000 a year for its support. The Hospital is under the care of Dr. C. F. Hutchins.

Officers.—Mrs. David Conklin, President; Mrs. Isaac Heent, Vice-President; Mrs. Dr. Hutchins, Secretary; Mrs. L. Thompson, Treasurer.

SAN FRANCISCO LYING-IN HOSPITAL AND FOUNDLING ASYLUM.—Incorporated April, 1868, for the care, protection, and proper treatment of unprotected single women, with their offspring, together with all other children that may be left in infancy by outside parties. Said children will be considered foundlings.

The Trustees design to make this institution in the highest degree respectable and efficient, and available to women throughout every county in the State, regardless of religion, sectarianism, or nationality. Those who are in a position to pay will be required to do so, for they do not consider it charity to do or nothing for persons who have the means; therefore, all applicants are questioned as to their ability to pay for the accommodations offered by this institution. But each must give satisfactory proof of having heretofore sustained a good moral character, and been esteemed respectable. It is expected that the institution will be supported by receipts from patients, donations, and contributions from different sources, and, in proportion by the City and State governments, and, in time, by bequests, legacies, etc. It is a special hospital, and for the specialties for which it was organized affords facilities not to be found elsewhere on this coast. No two patients occupy the same room at the same time. No cases of disease are admitted for treatment. It is therefore expected that it will be kept free from erysipelas and other contagious diseases that become the basis of lying-in wards connected with general hospitals. It is thoroughly ventilated, and will afford all the comfort that is to be found in the best conducted homes, and free from all intrusion. Competent nurses are in attendance day and night.

For consultation the attending physician will be found at the Hospital Asylum, 762 Mission Street, from two to three o'clock P.M. daily (Sundays excepted), or at his residence, 20 Twelfth Street, from nine to half past nine A.M. and from half past six to seven P.M. Letters of inquiry should be directed to Dr. Benjamin F. Hardy, 20 Twelfth Street, San Francisco, California, inclosing a stamped envelope, properly superscribed with the name and address of the applicant.
