

FRANCIS & VALLENTINE, Printers, 517 Clay and 510-516 Commercial St., S. F.

March 7. Jury in Marriott libel case disagrees. . . .
 Fraudulent operations of Giff of California Oyster and Canning Company exposed.
 March 8. Jack Harrington convicted under the saloon ordinance. . . . List of 3,724 names published as illegal voters at the last presidential election.
 March 9. Bodine defeats Occident in the great race.
 March 10. Eugene Mulligan murdered.
 March 12. John M. Birdsall arrested for embezzlement.
 March 14. The merchants form a protective association against commercial failures.
 March 17. Grand military and civic display in honor of St. Patrick's Day.
 March 18. Four cases of garroting occur.
 March 19. Bartholomew Reardon convicted of manslaughter. . . . Superintendent Dennison, of the House of Correction, removed from office.
 March 20. Union Clubs rooms reopened.
 March 23. A. Blacklock, the forger, brought back from New York.
 March 24. George Harris murdered.
 March 25. Seventeenth anniversary of the San Francisco Port Society.
 March 26. Edward Johnston shot by policeman Whitaker. . . . Robert Hunter accidentally killed by a pile-driver.
 March 27. Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks serenaded. . . . Annual election San Francisco Art Association. . . . Fire in Oberon restaurant, No. 225 Kearny; loss, $5,000.
 March 28. Spring Valley Water Company threaten to shut off all water used for municipal purposes, except fires.
 March 29. Ship Frank Jones goes ashore off Fort Point.
 March 30. Thomas Joell kills John McDonald. . . . Judge Dwinelle sustains constitutionality of the City Criminal Court, and affirms decision in Thistleton case.
 March 31. Patrick Dolan drowned in an ale vat. . . . James Sullivan suicided by drowning.
 April 2. Miss Emilie V. Gillivert suicides by poison.
 April 3. Mayor Bryant orders mains of Spring Valley Water Company tripped for municipal water supply.
 April 4. Isaac Friedlander suspends; liabilities $1,000,000. . . . Capt. A. F. Southers murders his wife, and commits suicide.
 April 5. Charles Kane drops dead on Fillmore street.
 April 7. Charges against various officials, by George M. Pinney, published.
 April 10. Annual Convention of Grand Chapter R. A. Masons meets.
 April 11. Prof. F. E. de Spilcker shoots Bertha Bonte, and then kills himself. . . . California Homeopathic Society meets.
 April 12. D. W. Chessman, charged with deficiency in his revenue stamp account, acquitted.
 April 14. E. G. Waite reappointed naval officer.
 April 15. Twenty-seventh annual meeting of the California Bible Society.
 April 17. Bernard Edelkamp suicided in Calvary Cemetery.
 April 18. Fire occurs in Boston Cracker Bakery, No. 36 Geary street; loss, $1,200. . . . Hall of Records, new City Hall, completed.
 April 21. George Thistleton sentenced to five hundred days in County Jail for libel. . . . First Reformed Episcopal Church organized.
 April 22. Henry N. Fox suicided by pistol. . . . Steamer Alaska, from Hongkong, with small-pox, quarantined off Meigs' Wharf. . . . Senator Conover arrives.
 April 23. Thomas D. Fisher accidentally killed by a fall.
 April 24. George W. Tyler arrested for felony. . . . Col. M. H. Beaumont absconds.
 April 25. Steamer Newark launched. . . . Frank Leslie excursion party arrives. . . . Annual reunion of the Society of California Volunteers. . . . Hall of Records, new City Hall, occupied.
 April 26. Policeman C. J. Coats shot and killed by John Hank. . . . Manuel Delevara suicided.
 April 27. Large seizure of smuggled opium.
 April 30. Dr. James P. Whitney assaults Dr. G. G. Tyrrell with a cowhide.
 May 2. John B. Felton, one of the most distinguished members of the San Francisco bar, dies. . . . Edward King drowned.
 May 4. Chiu Mook Sow hanged for murder. . . . Pacific Real Estate Associates incorporated. . . . Annual Encampment I. O. O. F. convenes.

May 5. George M. Pinney surrenders himself to the authorities.
 May 6. Michael Crowley suicided.
 May 7. George M. Pinney makes charges of peculation and fraud against Senator Sargent and Representative Page.
 May 9. Charles L. Low, a prominent citizen, dies. . . . H. H. Blake, stockbroker, arrested for embezzlement.
 May 10. State Convention of Baptists meets at Metropolitan Temple.
 May 14. Annual Schuetzen Verein festival held.
 May 16. California Rifle Association decides to send a team to Creedmore. . . . Lieutenant W. W. Fleming, defaulting quartermaster, arrives under arrest. . . . J. G. Edwards arrested for libel. . . . Steamer City of San Francisco lost off the Mexican coast.
 May 18. Albert Ver Mehr sentenced to six years for embezzlement.
 May 19. Body of John Brown, drowned, recovered from bay.
 May 20. L. L. E. Kolback arrested for blackmail.
 May 21. Charles Crocker's team, "Gen. Cobb" and "Lulu May," makes the best time on record, 2.26. . . . Southern Pacific Railroad opened to Colorado River.
 May 22. Col. Robert G. Ingersoll lectures at Platt's Hall.
 May 25. George M. Pinney re-arrested on two charges of forgery. . . . Henry Lederer accidentally killed by fall from a window.
 May 26. Sloop Emerald collides with steamer James M. Donohue in bay.
 May 27. William Saffit suicided by poison.
 May 29. Theodore Tilton lectures at Grand Opera House.
 May 30. Decoration Day appropriately celebrated. . . . Frank Bowlin, alias "Dutch Frank," dies from wounds.
 May 31. David M. Knowlton suicided by poison.
 June 2. Senator Sargent replies to accusations of George M. Pinney. . . . Marcus Salinger suicides by poison. . . . Herman Wohler, an old pioneer, dies.
 June 3. Frank Hodgkin and David Byrnestein drowned. . . . Costa Rica arrives, bringing wrecked passengers of the City of San Francisco.
 June 5. M. H. De Young, of the San Francisco Chronicle, arrested for libel.
 June 6. Commencement exercises of University of California held.
 June 7. N. T. Cutter and William F. Smith suicided by poison. . . . Michael Stepf killed by being run over by a Clay street car.
 June 8. Explosion of nitro-glycerine at Hercules Powder works; damage slight. . . . William P. Wallace dies from scorpion bite.
 June 9. Frank X. Cicott makes report of annual coinage of $46,000,000, the largest product from any mint in the world in a like period.
 June 11. Fred. F. Stahl appointed naval cadet. . . . Fire at 144 Natona street; loss, $2,000.
 June 13. Philip McHugh, a deaf man, killed by railroad train.
 June 16. Frank J. Killeen kills John Oakes in self-defense.
 June 17. William H. Chevers and Frank V. Scudder, both old and prominent citizens, die. . . . U. S. steamer Lackawanna collides with the British ship River Nith in the bay.
 June 19. Judge Louderback dismisses case against D. C. Butterfield for forgery.
 June 20. Waldo Haskell and James Sanders suicided.
 June 21. Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback and Congressman Bruce arrive. . . . Charles Roben suicided.
 June 27. Ex-Governor Pinchback addresses a large meeting at Pacific Hall.
 June 28. Generous subscriptions for St. John, N. B., sufferers.
 July 1. Michael Carnavan drowned in Mission Creek. . . . The Commission appointed to investigate the Mint begins its labors.
 July 2. Supervisors prohibit fireworks on the 4th. . . . Rev. Thomas Guard replies to Col. Robert Ingersoll.
 July 3. Winneunua's son and other Piute chiefs arrive in the city and have a consultation with Gen. McDowell. . . . Three hundred special police sworn in for the Fourth.
 July 4. Day is celebrated with procession, review of Second Brigade, and literary exercises at California Theater. . . . Five general and ten still alarms of fire; damage trifling in each case. . . . William F. Joyce suicided.