

July 5. E. W. Burr examined in suit of W. B. Carr against the Savings and Loan Society. . . . Anti-Coolie Convention meets. . . . Supreme Court decides W. B. C. Brown to be the State Controller until the next general election.

July 6. Supreme Court decides that the Spring Valley Water Company must furnish water free for streets, fires, etc., but that the city must pay for its use in public institutions.

July 7. Peter Dean elected President of the California Pioneers.

July 8. Mary Ann Andersen suicides.

July 9. Nineteenth District Court sustains the New City Hall Commissioners in their award of contracts.

July 10. Frank X. Croft sues the Chronicle for libel Convention of Grangers. . . . Charles F. Locke suicides. . . . Willis Mahoney (boy) run over and killed. . . . John Meagher drowned in the bay.

July 14. John Runk convicted of murder in first degree. . . . Charles Mitler drowned in the bay.

July 15. Work commenced on the California Street Railroad.

July 16. Decision rendered in the suit for partition of the San Pablo Ranch.

July 18. Death of Faxon Dean Atherton, a pioneer.

July 20. George Taylor suicides. . . . Amelia W. Hodgkinson suicides.

July 21. British frigate Shah arrives. . . . Twenty-eighth anniversary of arrival of ship Jane Parker celebrated.

July 22. Corner stone of St. Rose Convent laid. . . . Lick House damaged $30,000 by fire. . . . Workingmen meet and express sympathy for Eastern strikers. . . . California Rifle Team organized. Gen. John McComb, Captain.

July 23. I. Friedlander and A. Merrill, elected Water Commissioners. . . . Samuel R. Kerr, drowned. . . . Several thousand workmen meet at New City Hall and adopt resolutions of sympathy with Eastern strikers; after the meeting hoodlums wreck several Chinese wash-houses.

July 24. Prominent citizens form a Committee of Safety. . . . Joseph Busby on trial for murder of Daniel McNery. . . . Gangs of hoodlums burn, or wreck, several wash-houses. . . . National Guard on duty at armories. . . . P. N. Cohen drowned. . . . Frederick W. Brush suicides.

July 25. Mayor Bryant issues a proclamation appealing to citizens to support the law. . . . Several hundred citizens sworn in as special policemen. . . . Incendiary fire in lumber yards at foot of Fremont street causes loss of $100,000; during the fire collisions between rioters and police, aided by Committee of Safety, and National Guard; several men wounded. . . . Rioters sack several wash-houses. . . . Mayor issues second proclamation. . . . Senator Sargent sues Chronicle and Argonaut for libel Joseph Bushby convicted, murder, second degree.

July 26. A. H. Gudewill accidentally killed by pistol shot. . . . Over 4,000 men on duty to protect the city. . . . No further rioting. . . . Death of Judge A. J. Jane, pioneer. . . . Joseph Smith arrested for arson. . . . W. M. Butler and C. W. Winchester arrested for circulating inflammatory documents.

July 27. John Itum sentenced to be hanged. . . . Several rioters received heavy sentences from the Police Judge. . . . Joseph Smith held in $20,000 bail for arson.

July 28. Nicholas Catalano, Italian padrone, convicted of cruelty to children. . . . Patrick Quigley suicides.

July 29. Dedication of new First Baptist Church. . . . Two wash-houses sacked by hoodlums. . . . Old Marine Hospital dedicated as a sailors' home.

July 30. Joseph Bushby sentenced, 10 years, for killing Daniel McNery. . . . Committee of Safety disbanded.

July 31. Soap factory on Potrero Avenue destroyed by fire; loss, $7,500. . . . Samuel Marionsuicide by poison.

August 2. New Hawaiian steamer Like-Like, built by Risdon Iron Works, makes trial trip. . . . Levi's wool-dyeing establishment, corner Brannan and Eleventh, destroyed by a mob.

Aug. 3. Incendiaries attempt to burn residence of William T. Coleman.

Aug. 5. Corner-stone of German Hospital laid. . . . Metropolitan Temple, corner Fifth and Jessie, dedicated; cost, $200,000. . . . Mrs. Jessie Lewis kills Henry A. Rose-wara, and then herself.

Aug. 6. Tax collector reports total collections for fiscal year, $5,078,955.28.

Aug. 7. Twelfth Industrial Exhibition opens. . . . Leslie C. Hanks assassinates John E. Daily, and afterwards suicides in the City Prison. . . . Fire corner Market and Polk; loss, $20,000.

Aug. 8. Four blocks, bounded by Drumm, Jackson, Clay and East streets destroyed by fire; loss, $300,000; insurance, $154,100.

Aug. 12. Fire on Bernal Heights; loss $3,000. . . . San Francisco Turn Verein celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary.

Aug. 15. Isaac Schenberg, the "water-fancet swindler" convicted. . . . David Cuneo killed by a truck. . . . Explosion of Giant Powder on the Potrero.

Aug. 19. Capt. R. G. Brush arrested for embezzlement. . . . Regatta of San Francisco Yacht Club.

Aug. 22. Frederick W. Schulte suicides.

Aug. 24. Michael Doolan drowns in bay. Spring Valley Water Company declines offer of $9,500,000 for their property. . . . Charles A. Son drowned while bathing off North Beach.

Aug. 26. Lyle Pitts drowned off North Beach.

Aug. 30. Sir Joseph Hooker, President Royal Academy England, is received by Academy of Sciences. . . . California Creedmoor Team starts East.

September 1. George M. Pinney indicted by Grand Jury, three charges. . . . Death of S. C. Bugbee, architect.

Sept. 2. Academy of Sciences refuse to accept Lick compromise.

Sept. 5. Municipal and Legislative election passes off quietly. A. J. Bryant re-elected mayor. . . . H. O. Nichols suicides.

Sept. 8. California Pioneers celebrate admission day by an excursion to San Jose.

Sept. 9. Timothy O'Sullivan arrested for beating his wife to death.

Sept. 19. Admission Day celebrated by parade of National Guard and entertainments given by Territorial Pioneers. . . . Thomas Doherty, Daniel Murphy, and Thomas Griffith killed by accidents. . . . Annie Durrive suicides.

Sept. 11. Mary Boyce and John Johnson suicide.

Sept. 12. News received that the California Rifle Team has won the Inter-State match. . . . Twenty-fifth session of the California annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

Sept. 13. Senator Sargent demands the removal of Surveyor General Rollins. . . . Annual meeting of the Ladies' Protective and Relief Society. . . . Lloyd Bell, a released murderer, kills Carmen G. Anderson and attempts suicide.

Sept. 14. Grand Jury find four indictments for fraud against George M. Pinney and Rufus E. Spalding.

Sept. 15. Sixty-seventh anniversary of Mexican Independence celebrated by Mexican Patriotic League.

Sept. 16. Thermometer at 90° in the shade.

Sept. 17. Feast of Yom Kippur celebrated by Jewish residents of the city. . . . Warm weather continues; thermometer 92° in shade.

Sept. 19. Patrick McCarthy on trial for killing John Earle. . . . Fire on Morton street; damage, $5,000.

Sept. 20. Ex-Harbor Commissioner John J. Marks pardoned by the Governor. . . . Patrick McCarthy convicted of manslaughter.

Sept. 21. Unemployed workmen meet at Union Hall.

Sept. 22. Close of the Mechanics' Fair; receipts, $57,900; expenses, $40,500.

Sept. 23. Marcus C. Chambers accidentally killed.

Sept. 24. William B. Carlton suicides. . . . Peter Courten dies from injuries inflicted by Harms Nyhus Sept. 17. . . . Fire destroys a number of buildings on Commercial, Clay, and Davis streets; loss, $10,000. . . . John W. Ames appointed U. S. Surveyor-General.

Sept. 25. Daniel F. Gray accidentally killed. . . . Fire at San Francisco and Pacific Glass Works; loss, $15,000.

Sept. 26. Joseph Gardella on trial for murder of Armand Anstett. . . . John W. Ames appointed Surveyor-General.

Sept. 27. Jacob Heister suicides. . . . William Boyver accidentally killed. . . . W. M. Phillips suicides.

Sept. 30. Mass meeting of workmen at new City Hall. . . . Pedro Vasquez Mercado kills Dionisio Mendez by shooting.

October 1. New building of the San Francisco Stock Exchange opened.

Oct. 2. California State Grange begins its annual conference. . . . William R. Cooper, who disappeared in September, is found to have been a forger to the amount of over $100,000.

Oct. 3. William Felland held for murder of Max Cohen. . . . Robert L. Brown suicides. . . . Joseph Gardella guilty of murder first degree, killing Armand Anstett Arrival of California Rifle Team celebrated by parade and reception.