Fire Patrol.

Established in May, 1875, by the Board of Fire Underwriters. It is conducted on the same principle as the one in successful operation in New York City.

The apparatus consists of wagons carrying rubber covers, fire extinguishers, ladders, and other appliances for extinguishing fires, saving life, and protecting property from damage by water. The force consists of fifteen men, including the Captain, who are on duty day and night. There are two stations, No. 1, located 106-108 Jessie street, and No. 2, northeast corner of Eddy and Polk streets. Telegraph wires extend from Station No. 1 to the office of the American District Telegraph Co., and also to the Palace and Grand Hotels.

Station No. 1.—Members—Russell White, Captain; Charles H. Odell, Lieutenant; Christopher Lee, A. D. Yost, F. W. Brown, Robert Ripley, Frank James, Philip Dolan, R. H. Sawyer and John McGery, Privates.

Station No. 2, corner Eddy and Polk.—Members—John F. O. Comstock, Lieutenant; W. T. Thoney, Carl Hartwig, Charles H. Thoney and J. J. Fitzpatrick, Privates.

FIRE MARSHAL.—Charles Towe (appointed by the Board of Underwriters). Offices, 106-108 Jessie street, and 307 Sansome.
