

brought so near to perfection in the Keystone Safety Gas Machine, that a brilliant and beautiful gas-light is now available for all popular needs." Mr. H. is a practical machinist, and has been successful in introducing this machine very generally in San José, where it gives abundant satisfaction.

HOTELS.

There are ample hotel accommodations in San José. The Auzerai House, of which we give an illustration, is a large and well-appointed house, admirably managed, and equal in all respects to the best hotels of the metropolis. The Lamolle is well kept and popular, with an excellent cuisine. The New York Exchange is a favorite commercial hotel. The St. James, under the management of Mr. D. Lethiec, is conducted on the European plan, and is one of the best first-class houses in the State. It has pleasant accommo-
