

tions for families, and is deservedly popular. The Hensley House is a large, well-furnished hotel. There are also the American, Lick, Continental and several others, besides numerous well-appointed private boarding houses. The traveling public, and seekers after health or pleasure, can suit themselves readily, either as to price or style, in securing quarters, with the assurance that they will be hospitably entertained.

---

EDUCATIONAL.

---

California State Normal School.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

His Excellency, William Irwin (ex-officio).

Hon. Ezra S. Carr (ex-officio).

Hon. C. T. Ryland, San José, term expires 1876.

Hon. James Denman, San Francisco, term expires 1878.

T. Ellard Beans, San José, term expires 1880.

Benj. Cory, A.M., M.D., San José, term expires 1882.

B. Bryant, M.D., San José, term expires, 1884.

OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.—William Irwin, President; C. T. Ryland, Vice-President; Charles H. Allen, Secretary.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—Ezra S. Carr, T. Ellard Beans, Dr. B. Cory.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Charles H. Allen, Principal.

J. H. Braly, A.M., Vice-Principal.

H. B. Norton, Professor of Natural Science.

Miss Eliza W. Houghton, Preceptress.

Miss Lucy M. Washburn, Assistant in Junior Class.

Miss Cornelia Walker, Assistant in Junior Class.

Miss Annie E. Chamberlain, Assistant in Junior Class.

Miss Phoebe Grigsby, Teacher of Preparatory Department.

Miss Mary J. Titus, Principal of Training School.

Miss Florence Grigsby, Assistant in Training School.

L. M. Parian, Teacher of Vocal Music.