Second-class matter is of two kinds. First, that sent by publishers or news agents; second, that sent by other than publishers or news agents.

Mailable matter of the second-class embraces all newspapers and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals and are within the conditions named in the statute.

Statutory. Characteristics of Second-Class Matter.

First—It must be regularly issued at stated intervals, as frequently as four times a year, and bear a date of issue and be numbered consecutively.

Second—It must be issued from a known office of publication.

Third—It must be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, leather, cloth or other substantial binding, such as distinguish printed books for preservation from periodical publications.

Fourth—It must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or some special industry, and having a legitimate list of subscribers.

What is Permissible to Be Written or Printed Thereon—The name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent; index figures of subscription book, either printed or written; the printed or written name of the publisher or sender, or both, and written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end; the correction of any typographical error; a mark, except written or printed words, to designate a word or passage to which it is desired to call attention; the words "sample copy," or "marked copy"; and publishers and news agents may enclose in their publication, bills, receipts and orders for subscription thereto.

THIRD-CLASS, PRINTED MATTER.

Rate of Postage: One cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof, and must be fully prepaid by stamps affixed.

Printed Matter—Is defined to be the reproduction upon paper by any process except that of handwriting, or by the typewriter, of any words, letters, characters, figures, or images, or of any combination thereof, not having the character of an actual personal correspondence. seeds, bulbs and scions are included in third-class matter.

Further Points of Definition—Reproductions from originals, produced by mimeograph or similar mechanical process, easy of recognition, are entitled to pass in the mails in unsealed envelopes as third-class matter, when mailed at the postoffice window in numbers of at least twenty identical copies.

Proof sheets and corrected proof sheets and manuscript copy accompanying the same are rated as third-class matter.
