MAYFIELD.

On the Coast Division of the S. P. Co., 16 miles northwest of San Jose and within the last year has become one of the liveliest towns in the country, is now experiencing a rapid growth in population and improvements. The adjoining townships, College Terrace, Sunnyside, Evergreen and Leland, all thriving communities, are practically part of Mayfield. Mayfield enjoys, with Palo Alto, the honor of being a Stanford University town. Many students of the University Board live in College Terrace and Mayfield. The sister city of Leland, now well under way, is the cause of great activity here. A bank, postoffice, express office, telephone, telegraph and grammar school with five teachers are a few of the many lines of business represented here. A new depot is now in course of construction, to be used jointly as a station for Mayfield and Leland City. The new cut-off railroad from Los Gatos, shortening the distance by rail to San Francisco, will soon be completed. A marvelous increase in population is expected, in view of the increased activities. Present population 2000.
