More and more, business men are finding that it pays in good will to place and receive their telephone calls with as little time-log for the other fellow as possible. They place their own calls or stay close to the telephone when they tell someone else to do it.

Good neighbors are considerate party line users. Remember these party-line golden rules:

- Space your calls instead of making several of them without a break.

- Talk only as long as you have to on each call.

- When you finish talking replace the receiver properly.

- Make certain, if you are using a dial telephone, that the line is clear to receive your call.

- Ask your youngster not to monopolize the telephone.

KEEP LIGHT FROM MILK

Keep light from milk to prevent loss of riboflavin, its most important vitamin element. If you don't meet the milkman, leave out a covered, insulated box for bottles of milk. Remember that light hurts milk more than heat does in a short time.
