As a stream of black and white caps bob their way toward the stage, another school year has ended and another chapter is closed in the Galileo memory book. This past year included the 110's basketball championship, the dances, the games, the rallies, and the Spring Festival. In September the High Sophs together with the present Low Junior class won the Song and Yell Contest. Galileo held its first Junior Prom in many years. The Seniors had their own B-Day and their Senior Shows. We would like now to bring to you some of these events.

Faculty guide us

The students of Galileo were led through the year by a faculty of competent and understanding teachers. They gave magnificent supervision at dances, rallies, and clubs. They worked at P.T.A. projects and were the stimulus of our achievements in athletics and scholarship.

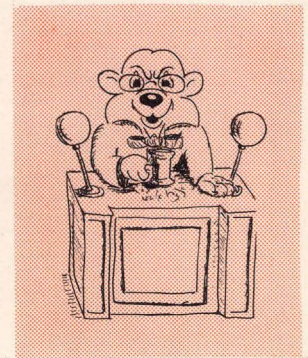

Mr. Ras Johnson - Principal

Mr. James Morena - Assistant Principal and Dean of Boys

Mrs. Ann Furst - Assistant Principal and Dean of Girls

The sense of accomplishment comes only when a goal is reached. This is the reward for work well done. Meet your choices in an able and worthy manner as the years roll by.

MR. RAS E. JOHNSON

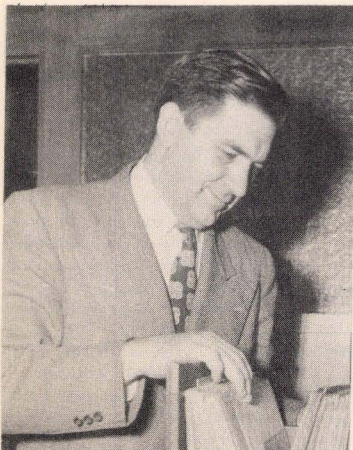

Honesty, integrity, and respect for the right of others are the primary elements of success. Face the world with an open mind, for "The World Owes No Man A Living."

MR. JAMES MORENA

Seniors - may your sailing be smooth and may your port be one of security, good fortune, good health and abundance. Life has its requirements, but it is your reaction that counts.

MRS. ANN FURST

Mr. Harry Krytzer - Head Counselor

Miss Dorothy Hill - Student Activity Counselor

Miss Alberta McNeely - Senior Counselor

Classes offer a variety of things

Don Feagin, Joe Passanisi, and Joan Tofanelli explore into the realm of living organisms while Joe Medina and Jim Crenshaw await the results.

Running up and down the scale is a regular routine in Mr. Ball's music classes which provided music for every school event.

William Wiel explains another law of physics to Louis Sasselli, Tom King and Erwin Tauke. This year's laboratory assistants took the Loyalty Oath before Mr. Johnson.

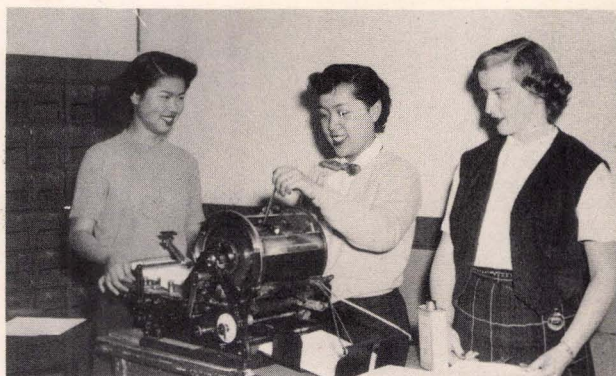

Mrs. Ester Alpers - civics, current events, U.S. History.....Mrs. Cleonice Anderson - Spanish, Italian, remedial English.....Mr. Kenneth Ball - band, orchestra.....Mr. Allen Bell - math, special English and history.....Miss Elinor Burt - homemaking, dietetics, foods.....Mr. Leo J. Campbell - head of science department, physics, chemistry.....Mr. Caleb Cullen - trig, algebra, shop math, senior math, geometry.....Mr. David Deasy - mill cabinet.....Mr. Thomas De Nike - head of boys' P.E. department, coach of basketball team.

Our efforts were rewarded

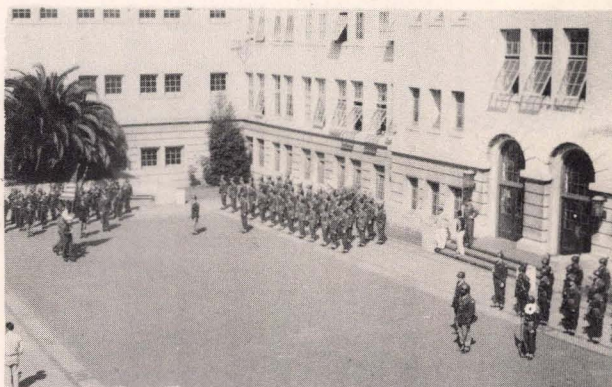

Helping to run off the weekly issue of the PENDULUM are Judy Wong, Rita Chin, and Betty Hart. Rita, a third semester news student, was in charge of typing and mimeographing.

Art students look on as Sherman Fong and Sheila Brown work on their posters. Both got honors in the Scholastic and S.F. Ad Club contests. Sherman won $75.

The R.O.T.C. units have last minute review before Federal Inspection. Galileo's battalion instructor, Sgt. Kovalchek, left in May for the Far Eastern Command.

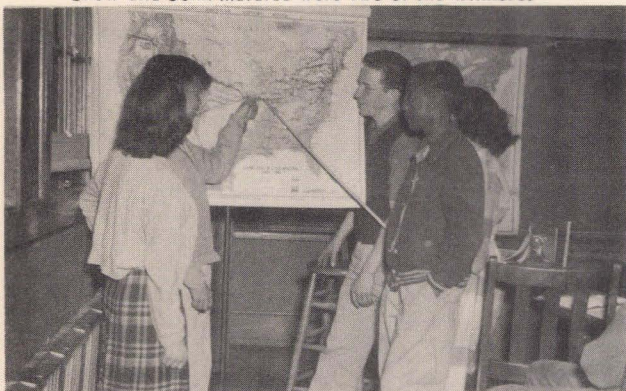

Mrs. Gertrude Edwards - head of art department.....Mr. Herbert French - typing, bookkeeping.....Mrs. Margaret Healy - stenography, typing, senior goals.....Mr. John Illia - typing, senior goals, coach of foot - ball and baseball teams.....Mr. Henry Lewis - shop math, bookkeeping, coach of swimming team, boys' P.E., Boys' Block G.....Mr. John Lord - machine shop.....Mr. Ervin McDonald - senior goals, physiology, biology.....Miss Pearl Maschio - algebra, educational counselor.....Mr. Walter Mills - electric shop, mechanical drawing.

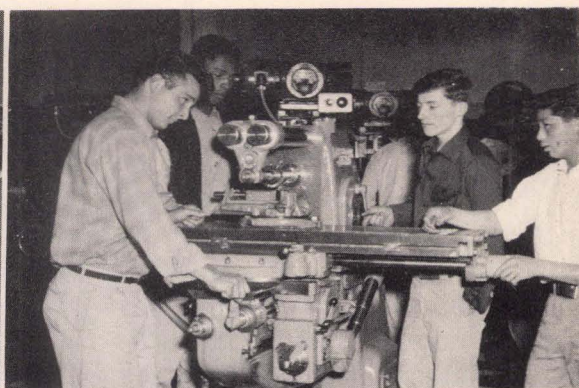

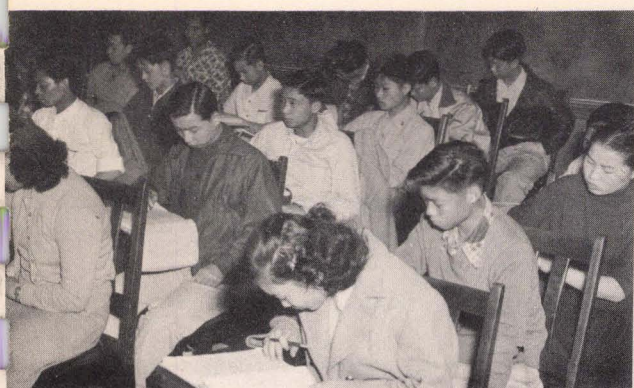

We find interest in each subject

Italian students listen attentively as Mrs. Andersen describes the many interesting sights of Italy. The 1952 banquet was celebrated at the Riviera...The typing rooms were equipped with blonde-wood desks and chairs this year. The commercial department received a new shipment of calculators for its machine calculation classes... "This is where Harry Truman was born - Independence, Missouri," says Ronald Gee. The study of current world problems was a new addition to the U. S. History course...Lee Estebez points out an interesting excerpt from the "Tale of Two Cities" to an English class. During the Spring term, many students entered essay contests. Chester Chew and John Mataluc were two of the winners.

Miss Mildred Nelson - stenography, typing, machine calculation....Mrs. Nancy Neuman - mechanical drawing....Mrs. Denise Ollagnier - Americanization, special English....Mr. Frank Presotto - auto shop, Automotive Club....Mrs. Ella Ryan - head of social studies department, pacific relations, senior goals, civics, history....Miss Ruth Schoeppe - girls' P.E., Girls' Bowling Club, Girls' Horseback Riding....Mr. Carl Spitzer - boys' P.E., coach of soccer and track team....Mr. Roger Wood - English, newswriting, adviser of TELESCOPE and PENDULUM.

We found time to enjoy our work

Americanization classes are vital in the education of these foreign-born students. Here the students are taught the fundamentals of the three "r's"...Sal Gianino, Jim Crenshaw, Larry Charon, and Howard Fong work quietly as they operate a very delicate mechanism...Mr. Frank Presotto, our auto shop instructor, explains the new running model to teach motor tune up. The auto shop received a new electric hoist so cars can be lubricated...Spaghetti is the project here. Whether it's to boil water or bake a delicate soufflé, the cooking class can do it. They have cooked several well-balanced luncheons for the teachers.

Students accept responsibility

Two councils were organized to promote the practice of a democratic form of government at Galileo. They were the Student Council composed of registry representatives and the Executive Council of grade representatives and student body officers.

The appropriation of the budget and the planning of the school calendar was left in the hands of the Executive Council.

This year the Student Council determined the rules in regard to Turnabout Day. Often times the two organizations held joint meetings.

Seniors produce two big shows

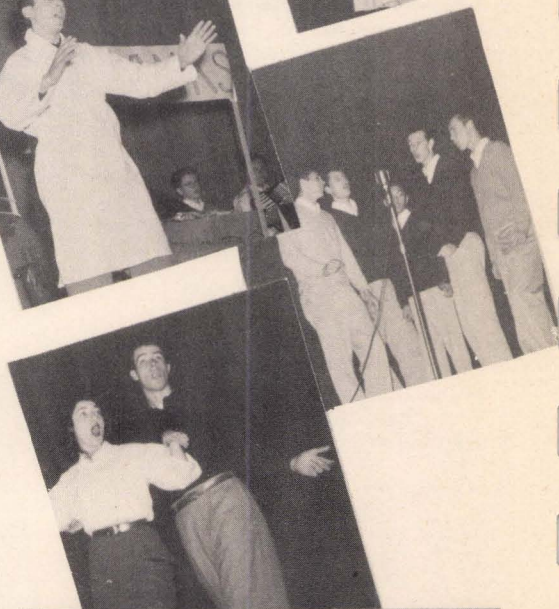

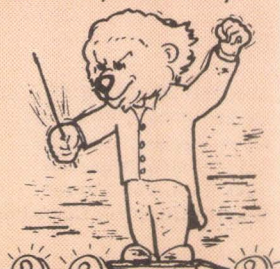

HIGH SENIOR OFFICERS - Vernon Doyle, President; Martha Wilkerson; Yell Leader; Marion Napoletano, Representative; Caroline Pieretti, Vice-President; Vince Gomez, Treasurer.

Many seniors entertained at Marina and Francisco Junior High Schools and at the High School of Commerce in hopes that the students there might choose Galileo as their future home.

A newcomer on the stage, the Trio, composed of Mary Lou Cocks, Julie Tassano and Grace Espana, sung harmoniously at the assemblies. Irene Laytman and Frank Crivello were old favorites among the senior class. The boys' quintet, the Sinners, introduced a new style of singing. They were Mello Chiarenza, Al Marcucci, Vince Gomez, Ron Sligar, and Tom King. Pantomimers were really tops this year. Among them were Caroline Pieretti and Tom Moore.

The Senior Class carried on in a traditional way. It produced stars such as Carla Fisher, the diving star, and winners of many art, oratorical, and essay contests. The Spring low senior class put on a very successful Junior Prom before they became upperclassmen. The Footlights show was backed mainly by the seniors. Our Student Body Officers were the pick of the crop from the Senior Class. All in all the Seniors had a very enjoyable and profitable year.

Two of the "Hallelujah Mamies" are shown with Irene Laytman, the songbird, and Carla Fischer, the acrobatic dancer.

Musicians, dancers and actors smile after a very successful minstrel show.

Footlights Show

The Footlights Club presented a variety show in March. This marvelous show of shows was sponsored by the Galileo Alumni Association. Many of Gals talented singers, dancers and pantomimists were on hand.

Seated on the cable car which was to play a part in the Frolics, is a small part of the cast.

The spectators were fascinated by Carla Fischer's gymnastic feats. She did an acrobatic dance to the tune of "La Espanola".

The "Blue Tango" was performed with ease and elegance by Jowanna Woerber and Bob Bernardini.

Irene Laytman sang "Bella Bella Bimba" as graceful dancers whirled about the stage.

A group of Americanization students did the "Lion's Dance."

Clubs are fun, too

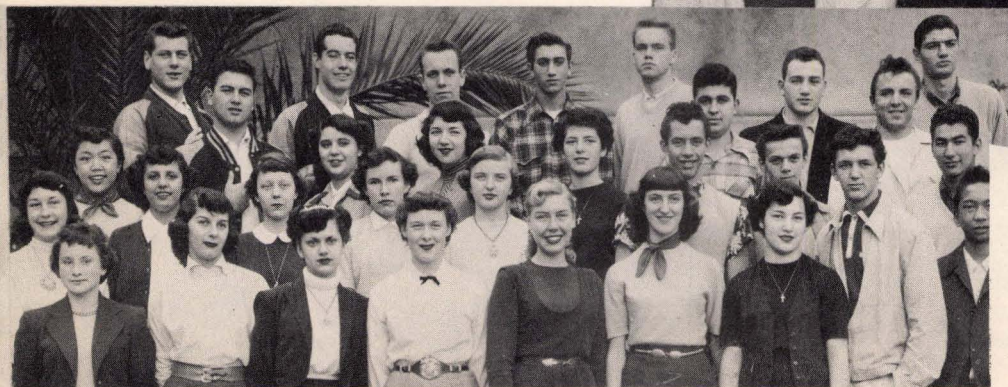

The Service Club has really lived up to its name. Members sold tickets for school affairs, cleaned the courtyard, kept the waste paper baskets trim, and they visited convalescents.

The Dance Committee has been responsible for the gala decorations at the many dances that sparked the night activities. In December the colorful Silver Bells Dance was held in the girls' gym. Leap Year was topped off with the Sadie Hawkin's Dance. The Football, April Showers and the Coronation Ball dances were rated as the best ones of the year because everyone had such a grand time.

"Til the victory is won"

Injuries hit Gal's lettermen throughout the season, but they kept plugging until the bitter end. The Indians outclassed the Lions 31-6. The much improved team lost to Mission, 44-6. We didn't have enough to hold the Bulldogs down. The final score was 31-0. The Lions gave the Poly Parrots the scare of its life - 14 to 7 in the second half. Despite of a 34 to 14 score, the team looked better then they had all season. In other league games the Lions lost to Washington, 30-8; Sacred Heart 13-6; Balboa, 39-12.

GAL lost to Balboa, 39-12. Al Marcucci and Brent Jones made the touchdowns for the Lions on passes from Vern Doyle. Barry Burke was also outstanding in this game.

Jerry Stack, Buc's guard, scores a one-handed push shot as Rico tries in vain. Ron Sligar, 45, and Gary Nisidio, watch as Lions lose 69-51.

Only four soccer team veterans returned last fall but Galileo, who won the city title in 1950, worked hard and was able to defeat Commerce, S. I., Lowell and Balboa. They lost to Washington and tied Lincoln and Poly. In the playoffs with Mission for the city title, Manuel Callejas booted in his twelfth goal of the season but Gal lost 3-1. Larry Bravo scored 7 goals and Fred Scioncalepore 5 during the season.

The 110's brought home glory this year by winning the city AAA Championship. After dropping the first game to Sacred Heart's 110's, the Lions left the other schools winless in 8 tries. High pointers for these nine games were Douglas Hom with 180 and Vince Gomez with 100.

The 120's had a final record of nine losses and no wins.

The varsity basketball team started its season with a bang as the Lions whipped the Tamalpais varsity 38-22. The Lions lost to Riordan 49-35. The hair-raising game against Commerce showed some fine playing but the game was lost 38-36. The Buccaneers won 60-40; the Indians, 40-25; and the Eagles, 27-14.

Boys' Sports

Gal's 130 track team managed to work up a few good men such as Jack La Rocca, shot put; Frank Fragomeni, 200; Frank Dong, 100; and Sam Gordon, broad jump. These four took first place in practically every meet. In the varsity Robert Para and Carmello Chiarenzo were tops.

This year's swimming team has been sparked by such experienced swimmers as Hector Valencia, 100 and 200 yard free style, and Gary Nisidio, diving. Joe De Gusman did the best stroke for the 30's and Sam Lum, for the 20's.

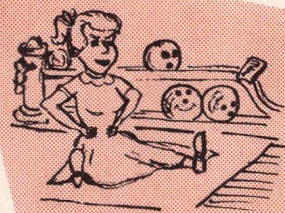

In baseball, Galileo opened the season with a 5-4 win over Lowell. From then, it was a series of hard breaks and Galileo lost the next six games. Among the hard workers this year were Mel Sims, Barry Burke and Oreal Parker.

Girls have active sports, too

The girls at Galileo participated in a variety of sports during the past year. Their efforts were well rewarded at the rallies closing the terms. Numerals, chevrons, circle "G's", Block "G's", stars and gold pins were earned by sophomores, juniors and seniors. Only a few girls were given the coveted Gold Pin this year.

Bowling drew the most interest for after school sports. These alley queens rolled out surprisingly high scores in their tournaments and Play Days. In the first city wide tournaments of the H.S. Bowling Teams - Galileo came in first.

Early birds joined the Badminton Club and faithfully played every week at 7:30 in the morning. A tournament was held among the members.

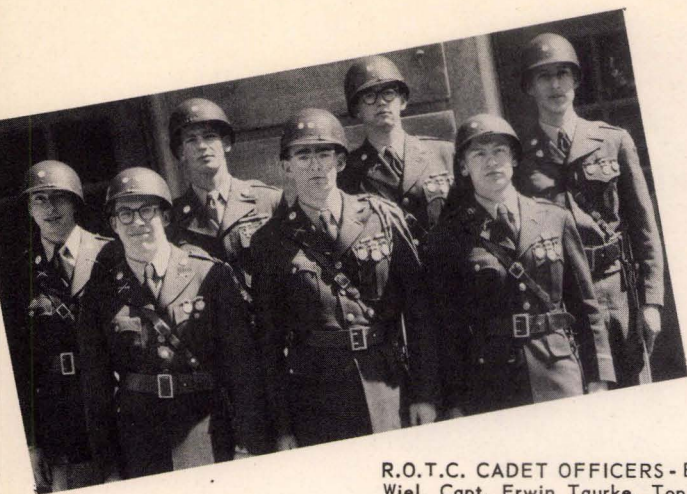

Many girls went down to Crystal Plunge once a week where expert swimming instruction was given.

The Riding Club won many honors at the St. Francis Riding Academy. Among the winners were Elsa Gardner, first place; Loree Wren, second place in the beginner horsemanship; Haidee Levine, fifth place in the intermediates.

Down at Funston Field once a week the tennis courts were occupied by Galileo girls. The Rifle Club for girls was discontinued this term.

Thirteen boys participated in the Public School Week ceremonies at Union Square. On May 20, eighty R.O. boys visited Hamilton Field.

Norman Folden, January 1952 grad, will enter West Point in July.

Some 23 per cent of the boys in Galileo are in R.O.T.C. That is the highest percentage in the city.

King Tom Severson and Queen Phyllis Jones reigned over the "Spring Fantasy" on May 16th. The royal court included Sherry Wicklund, Eleanor Lutz, Tom King, Ernie Russo, Joe Passanisi, Carla Fischer, Ray Monteverdi, Joe Villa, Anita Directo. After the coronation, the gaily decorated booths sold such foods as pizza, chow mein, and enchiladas.

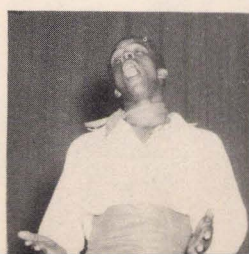

The field events provided fun for all. There were relay races, a shoving contest, and the football roll.

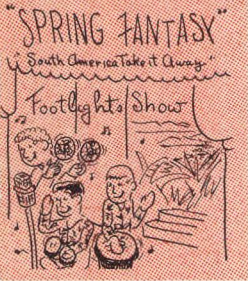

At 7:30 that night, the Footlights Club took us South of the border with "South America, Take It Away". To carry out the show's theme, the dances, songs, and music were all of Latin-American style. New talents were added to the show this year. Among these were Manuel Callejas, Ralph Sanchez, Silvio Gordillo, and Jose Grandov, who called themselves the Bongos; the Tumblers; Rosemary Cooper and Miriam Melendez, dancers; Don Toines, vocalist; and Rudy De Lazada, accompanist. Tom Moore and Caroline Pieretti performed a comedy tango. Latin-American songs such as "Tico Tico" and "Besame Mucho" were sung by Naomi Taliaferro and Ed Williams. Lucille Rodriguez and Juan Rico came out crooning with "I'll Always Love You." Dancers were Barbara Brancoli and Sarita Ferriera. Jean Hornot sang "Begin the Beguine". Other vocalists who performed were Mary Lou Cocks, Irene Laytman, and Frank Crivello. As finale, the chorus and the entire cast drifted in singing "South America, Take It Away" and then formed a conga line while the Bongos set the mood.

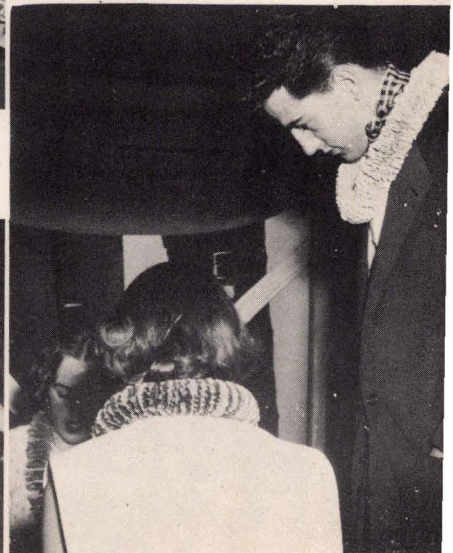

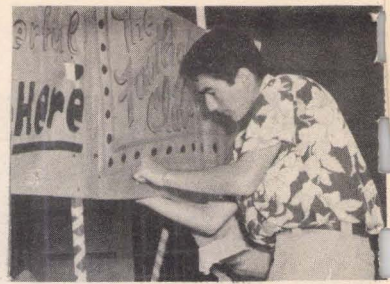

"South America Take It Away"

In the evening, the cafeteria welcomed customers to games, food and soft drinks. Everyone had a wide-open appetite for the delicious foods. Many couples whirled off their feet at the Coronation Ball. Sweet music was provided by the La Rocca Band.

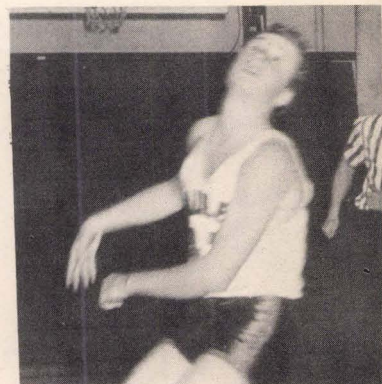

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" was a quick-moving, uproariously, hilarious comedy. Art is fun but tedious. Many of the students posters were displayed around the school.

Galileo's P-T.A. congratulates the new graduates

P-T.A. Members Have Busy Year

Most of us don't realize just how much the P-T.A. has done for us this year. There have been members of the P-T.A. at all the Galileo dances selling sandwiches and soft drinks. They have given teas for new parents. Mrs. William Pettit, a member of the P-T.A., made the robes for the chorus. She did all the sewing and spent many hours of work on this project.

During the year guest speakers have discussed teen-age problems. The P-T.A. also took a great interest in the Spring Festival, where they sold cakes, coffee, and sandwiches. They set the table for the Senior breakfast.

As some of the members are Galileo graduates, the P-T.A. was interested in getting the Alumni group started.

The officers at the end of the year were President, Mrs. Robert P. Willson; Vice President, Mrs. John Hart; Hospitality Chairman, Mrs. William Pettit; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Tom Kim; Membership Chairman, Mrs. Abe Levine; Recording Secretary, Mrs. John Bonelli; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Frank Cannizzaro; School Education Chairman, Mrs. Kenneth McDonald; Treasurer, Mrs. Renata Pardini; Historian, Miss Mabel White; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Miriam Calmenson; Parliamentarian, Mrs. A. La Rocca; Honorary President, Mr. Ras Johnson; Honorary Vice President, Mrs. Ann Furst; Auditor, Mr. James Morena.
