

SURVEYOR

In Dedication

This year the editors have decided to dedicate the book to a man more than worthy, Mr. Wire, who is far more than just our teacher, but is our sponsor, advisor, and all around friend.

Mr. Wire came to George Washington in 1946. Previous to this he served five years' active duty in the Philippines for the Air Force.

He is now a major in the Air Force Reserve Plan.

Since Mr. Wire has been at Washington he has been in charge of the Journalism Department, which really requires a lot of work and loads of patience. We appreciate all you've done, Mr. Wire, thanks a lot for everything.

A Score of Years A Proud Tradition

The Editors of this book are proud to present to you the 25th edition of the Surveyor, published on the 20th Anniversary of the school. In this book we have intentionally inserted dozens of candid photos for your enjoyment. We hope that you will think of it more or less as your personal scrapbook of your friends at George Washington during 1957. Everytime you look at this book we hope it will remind you of the fun you had, and maybe five years from now on the 25th Anniversary of the school we can meet again.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. O. I. Schmaelzle, Principal, and Nancy Cosker, Surveyor Editor.

Principal's Message

In 1936 George Washington High School began as a school with a new and beautiful building, but it had none of the high standards, loved traditions, or excellent reputations it now possesses.

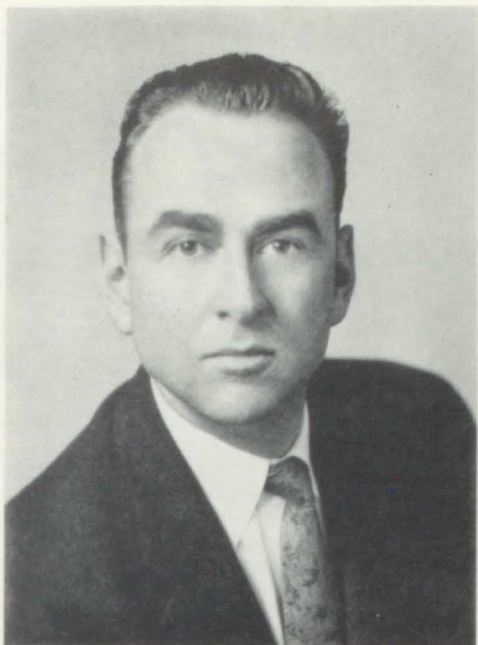

How did Washington acquire all these? To our first principal, Mr. E. J. Cummings, his administrative staff and his faculty, goes much credit for starting the school in an excellent manner. Our students, from the very beginning, have striven for perfection.

Where do we go now? Only by earnest and true foresight of purpose and a conscientious application for the best obtainable will we be able to keep our record where it belongs. This means each and every one of us, now and in the future, has to dedicate himself to exert our best for the cause of George Washington High School.

O. I. SCHMAELZLE

Mr. Castellino

This year George Washington High School in celebration of twenty years of achievement, held the first formal reunion of its alumni. Reunions can have some dismal aspects. One can meet old friends for the first time in years and find them with less hair, fewer teeth, and larger belt sizes. And there can be the painful experience of meeting your former girl friend and the other man she married. But reunions also have their happy aspects, and it was in these that ours seems to abound.

Perhaps the reason is that this is a fine school and a happy school and that those who came back were those alumni who had derived from George Washington High School some of the good and joyful things it had to offer. Perhaps those who returned were those who had "worked hard and played hard."

Twenty years from now will you be able to return with the feeling of satisfaction that comes from knowing that you have contributed in some measure to your school's excellence? You are the only one who can supply the answer.

KENNETH CASTELLINO

Miss Parsons

Twenty years ago when George Washington High School was dedicated the speakers predicted that the school would be a credit to our great President. As the years have passed those of us who have been here since the beginning have watched that prediction come true. The students have not only achieved honors in sports and in scholarship but more important than anything else, they have developed a great spirit and high morale—the kind of spirit that sells tickets to a game and keeps rooters in the stands to cheer a losing team—the kind of spirit that makes the school the envy of all its competitors. Let us continue to nurture and cultivate that spirit so that when the Young Surveyor, George Washington, looks through his transit he will be proud of our school and its students.

ELEANOR PARSONS

Miss Poole

This year George Washington High School celebrated another milestone in its career. At a tremendous reunion alumni and students commemorated 20 years of active service in the community—20 years in which George Washington High School has grown and assumed its own unique identity among schools.

Pausing briefly at this milestone, Washingtonians, former and present, have taken the opportunity to look back and evaluate with pride accomplishments in scholarship, in student government and in athletics. A milestone, however, is only a marker along the way. After this brief pause it is my hope for the students of this high school that they will continue along the path set by former Washingtonians and add to the already enviable record of accomplishment.

Executive Council

The Executive Council represents the United Students of George Washington High School. The Council is the legislative body of the school and therefore has the power to make all the laws.

The organization consists of all the elected class and student body officers, the President of the Scarlet and Gray, Eagles, and G.S.S. The officer in charge is the Student Body President, Miss Archer, the Student Body sponsor, advises the Council.

The Council meets at specified dates throughout the term to discuss proposed laws and offer recommendations to improve school problems. They also hear the report from the Co-Ordinating Board.

The Co-Ordinating Board is an advisory committee to the Executive Council, consisting of two representatives from each class, and is presided over by the Student Body Second Vice-President. The Board meets each week to discuss problems that have arisen in the class committees. The Second Vice-President reports to the Executive Council on their findings.

Student Body Officers

Fall 1956

Gus Petropoulos served the school well as President. He executed his duties with a fervor that the whole student body felt, and was a President of whom all Washingtonians were proud.

Jackie Pera performed her secretarial duties well and had everything done neatly and on time. Her bubbling personality made her a favorite here at Washington. This willing worker always managed to offer encouragement whenever it was needed.

Jerry Anderson spent many extra hours in school each day helping to plan school affairs. One of the most popular and hard-working Treasurers ever, Jerry certainly deserved the Cummings Cup for outstanding service.

Keith Myamoto worked hard to sell tickets as well as to give interesting, "newsy" broadcasts.

Sandy Potter did an outstanding job. This pert and charming miss planned wonderful dances during her term as Vice-President. She always had bright new ideas that made her dances really enjoyable.

Morris Bobrow kept the student government running smoothly and proved the office of 2nd Vice-President can be a tough but important job when handled correctly.

Roy Hornsby was never lacking in spirit and was always seen exerting lots of "elbow grease." This willing and busy officer carried out his chores efficiently with a spirit and enthusiasm that was typical of Washington.

Len Slater kept the spirit high all through the term. He started off by leading our rooters to the best rooting section award at the Pageant. He did a tremendous job.

Spring 1957

Morris Bobrow was one of the hardest working Student Body Presidents ever. He was always seen everywhere giving a helping hand and cracking his jokes. He displayed tremendous spirit and determination and did a wonderful job.

Carol Klingaman must have written books of notes in her capacity as Secretary. She worked strenuously but found time to manage a smile on her cute face.

Suzu Matsuda achieved the impossible and became the first Treasurer to make 100% in one day on the Student Body Card sales.

Tom Lupo became head Yell Leader by appointment. He worked very hard and led our rooters to the basketball championship.

Vice-President Jackie Pera was a veep who put on some successful and unusual dances. This wonderful girl carried out her duties with a dignity befitting the office of Vice-President.

Roy Hornsby was a capable and hard-working 2nd Vice - President. No matter how busy he was with his work in student government, he always found time to assist his fellow officers when needed.

Bob Raye was an officer who was anxious to do his job and do it well. He always seemed to be covered with mimeograph ink or trophy polish.

Dan Solomon kept everyone well informed on the sports situation. He sold lots of tickets and kept his ticket sellers right on the job.

Washington Cabinet

The Washington Cabinet serves as an advisory board to the principal; it has no legislative powers.

The Cabinet consists of one representative from each registry in the school. These delegates meet once a week on Tuesday morning at 8, usually in Room M-23.

When a problem develops in registry, the representatives report to the Cabinet. There it is discussed and measures are taken to solve the difficulty. The following week the representatives report to the registry the results of the discussion.

The Washington Cabinet is a significant part in the smooth running of our student government. Under the guidance of Mr. Schmaelzle, it accomplishes a great deal each term.

This year there were a number of very important matters to be considered, and the cabinet did a splendid job in helping to find the solutions.

George Washington Service Societies

Two of Washington's traditions that have stood for service, honor, and duty are the G.S.S. and Eagles. The members of these societies earn their caps by being outstanding students in the school. The purpose of the societies is to maintain order at activities and on school premises. Miss Parsons sponsors the G.S.S. while Mr. Castellino sponsors the Eagles.

The Scarlet and Gray Society is a comparatively young service society at George Washington. These students act as hall monitors and keep close supervision on any student who needs to be in the hallways. They also help to keep unauthorized persons out of the building. In addition the members serve at teas and dinners when needed. Mr. Rocky is the sponsor. Under the leadership of Fall President Ila Koshland and Spring President Betty Vasquez, the Society has established a remarkable record and done a splendid job.

Fall Class History

The Fall Class of '56 spent three successful years under the guidance of Mr. Edmond.

Their social activities started with the Senior-Soph reception, and pretty Ila Koshland was crowned Soph Queen. As Low Sophomores they collected money which they used towards their landscaping project as High Sophomores.

Sending Eagles to the servicemen was the Low Junior project for this class. The same year they edited their own class newspaper, The Inkspot.

Their High Junior year started off with a bang as they presented their Junior Day rally, "What It Was Was Football." This was followed by their dance, "The Kickoff," and the Junior Prom, "Whispering Leaves" at the Sir Francis Drake.

Serving at the High Senior Farewell Breakfast was the final project for this class, and they soon found themselves "the high and mighty High Seniors." They gave a successful Senior-Soph reception, "Strictly Sox," and crowned John Orogren Senior King. Their great Senior Day rally was entitled "And Then There Were None," and their weirdly themed dance, "Spellbound."

On January 26 they held their Senior Prom, "Crystal Fantasy," at the Crystal Room of the Bellevue Hotel. January 30, 1957, was Graduation day.

Spring Class History

In September of 1954, Washington opened its doors to 740 new students who were to begin their fun-filled, memorable years.

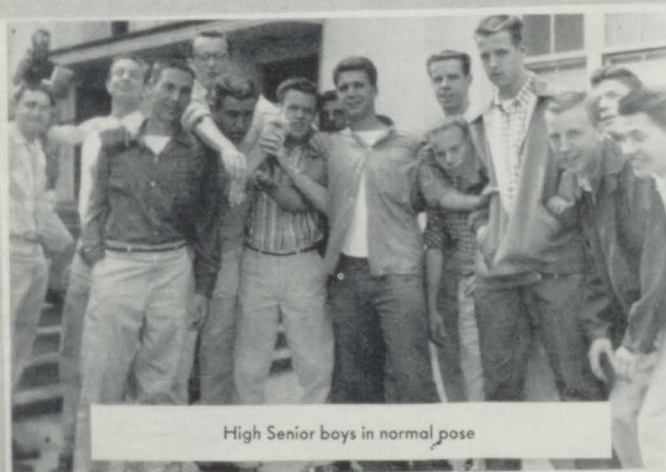

These enthusiastic Low Sophomores, under the capable and willing sponsorship of Mrs. Hedke, didn't waste any time in successfully completing their drive to collect shrub and flower money.

The days seemed to fly by, and soon the Low Sophomores were already High Juniors. The Junior Day "Olympic Holiday" was quite an exciting production, with fluorescent lighting and special sound effects. The Junior Day Dance was a big success as was the Junior Prom, "I'll Remember April," at the Colonial Room of the St. Francis Hotel.

During their Low Senior term, the Spring 1957 Class hosted a successful P.T.A. dinner.

As High Seniors, the class was again busy planning many activities. To begin the term, the High and Mighties greeted the Low Sophomores with a "Hearty Hello" Senior-Soph reception. On May 10, the exotic Senior Day, "Nowhere," and the fabulous Senior Day Dance, "Out of Nowhere," were held. The night of all nights was June 1 at the Surf Club, the Senior Prom, "Almost Paradise."

Sad farewells were given on the night of June 7, 1957, at the Opera House.

Award of Merit

George Washington was highly honored this spring when Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, President of the University of California, personally presented the Scholarship Award of Merit for the fifth straight year. Seventy-one freshman during 1955-1956 at the University compiled an average of 1.7.

1. Dr. J. Paul Leonard, Pres. S. F. State; Dr. Frank Lindsay, State Dept. of Educ.; and Principal O. I. Schmaelzle talk before program. 2. Mr. Schmaelzle greets Mr. E. J. Cummings, first principal. 3. Dr. Sproul, the Award, and Mr. Schmaelzle. 4. Mayor George Christopher joins this same group.

Senior Day Spring 1957

The Spring Senior Day was held on Thursday, May 9, 1957. The name of the production was "Out of Nowhere." The entire story was centered around nowhere. Senior Day was under the direction of Terry Michels with Sandy Potter as assistant director.

Senior Day was based on a musical theme. Starred in the singing roles were Johnette Bagewell, Margaret Picconi and Carolyn Smith. The male voices included Frank Oakley and Charles Tansiel. The progressive dance routine was done by Judy Offenheim; the tingling whistling was contributed by Robert Michels. An added attraction was Andy Minnick's rhythmic beat of the bongo drums.

As a conclusion to their last big day as High Seniors, they held their Senior Day Dance on Friday night, May 10, in the girls' gym, from 8-11. The Seniors' final fling was a success and was enjoyed by one and all. Press time kept The Surveyor from bringing you show pictures.

This term the High Juniors selected an Arabian Nights' theme, and somehow they were able to tie in the traditional "Pigskin" with their plot. The following evening the High Juniors presented an exotic dance entitled "Mirage."

The Eagles initiated their AAA season when they met Lowell on September 28, and were downed 13-14, as the toe proved to be the deciding factor. The Eagles' Dick Atkins bulldozed his way into the end-zone for the first score, and a conversion by Ralph Mathis made it 7-0. After an Indian TD, the Eagles scored again on a pass play from Bousquet to Burton, but the conversion by Bousquet was missed. The Indians scored late in the game and their conversion gave them a close win.

In their second game the Eagles met, played, and ravaged Saint Ignatius, 26-7. The Eagle scores were made by Bousquet on a bootleg, Orogne on a blocked punt, Page on an interception, and Orogne again on a pass play, in that order, and Mathis' two conversions brought the total to 26 points.

On October 29, Washington captured their second victory by defeating Sacred Heart, 21-7. Lefty Gordon opened the scoring for the Eagles on a 19-yard run. Then a long pass from Bousquet to Burton registered a TD, and Perkins ran for the final score. Mathis' three PAT's gave the Eagles their 21 points.

In the Eagles' fourth game against Balboa, the Bucs could do no wrong as they downed Washington by the score of 35-0. The Buccaneers' powerful, strong line proved too much for the Eagles, and opened many touchdown holes.

November 1 was a damp, dank day, but the Eagles didn't let nature stop them, as they proved victorious over Mission by the score of 13-0. Besides being Washington's third victory of the season, this win catapulted them into an eventual play-off berth.

In their last regular game of the season the Eagles met their age-old rivals, and broke their nine-year-long jinx by downing Lincoln, 12-10. As always, the game was a hard fought one on both sides, but with great runs by Burton and Gordon, combined with a stubborn Eagle line, the Mustangs were literally forced to relinquish their Bell trophy.

In the semi-finals Washington again met the mighty Buccaneers, but this time Balboa was thankful to get away with a 15-6 victory. This game was typical of those played previously, for the under-rated Eagles fought with a spirit rarely seen before.

Junior Football

The J. V. team this season won five games, tied two and lost one. If there were playoffs this J. V. team certainly would have made it. Starting off their season, they trounced Balboa 15-0. Their next opponents were the Sacred Heart Irish, who played a rough game, and at the end of the fourth quarter left our field with a tie score, 13-13.

The J. V.'s next meeting was with the Wildcats from Saint Ignatius. This proved to be an exciting and thrilling game up to the last second, when the gun went off and the score was 7-7. The team was getting tired of the tie scores and decided to really thrash their next opponents, who were the Mustangs from Lincoln. The J. V.'s certainly got a win for themselves against the Mustangs, 31-13.

Their next game was really a heartbreaker. It was the Eagles' only loss of the season. Many people feel that our 7-6 loss to Mission was just the breaks of the game. After taking their defeat against Mission, the J. V.'s came back to a 27-0 win over Galileo. The team was really going great and won the remaining two games. They beat Poly 13-7, and easily overtook the Indians from Lowell by the score 26-19.

All the boys on this team are the stars. No one boy stood out. They played together as a team and were able to have one of the highest Junior Varsity records for 56. Of course, all of this would have been impossible without the guidance of their coach, Mr. Lubamersky.

Sophomore Football

The Sophomore team, under the supervision of Mr. Madfes, consists of inexperienced boys. Its purpose is to give Sophomore boys a chance to play who haven't the ability to make Junior Varsity. This year the team was fairly successful, winning two out of four games.

They were victorious in the game with Saint Ignatius. Larry Bane and Dave Kinzie, who passed for two touchdowns, were the outstanding players of the contest. S. I. exhibited a fine defensive game to no avail.

The game with Mission was a well-played and hard-fought contest with Mission coming out on top. The score was tied until the last quarter when Mission tallied. John Muriel scored two touchdowns, one good for 90 yards.

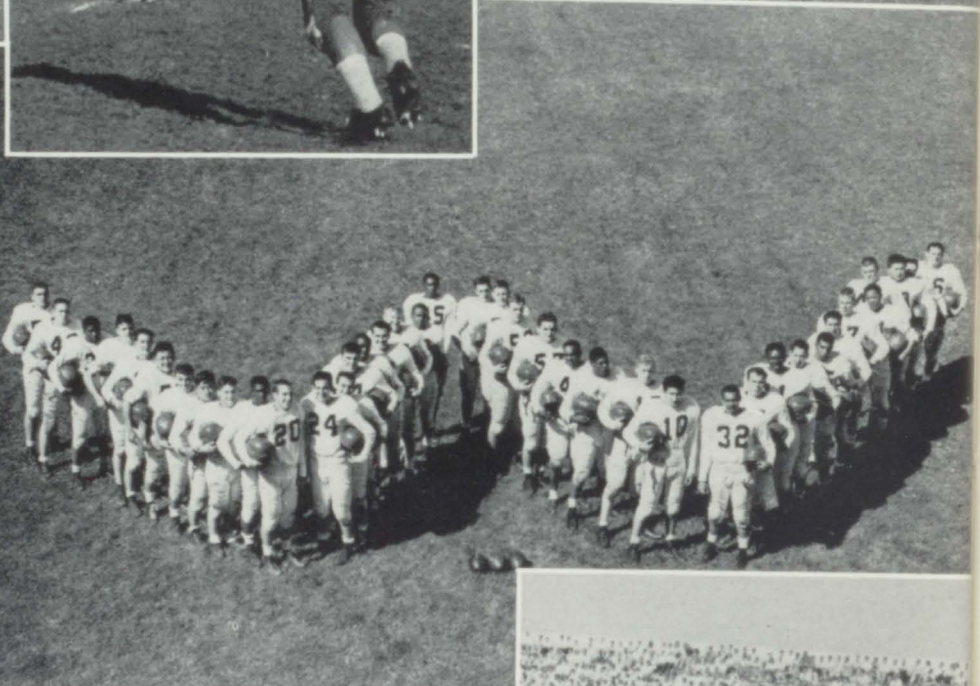

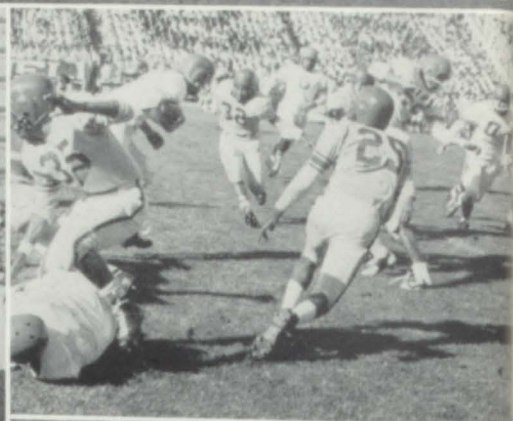

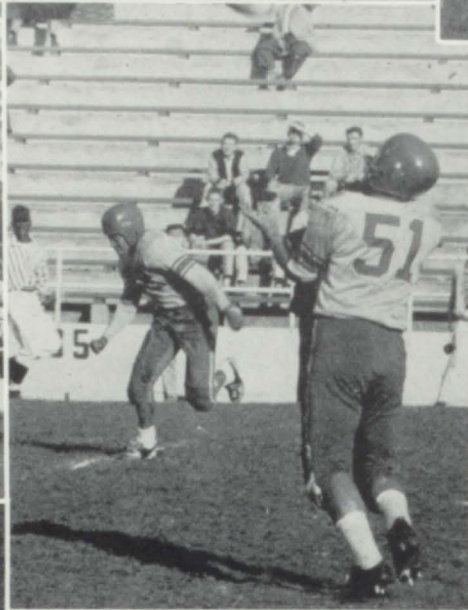

Lincoln was just too big and too strong for us. Tom Wishom, Lester Eng and Joe Olds played fine defensive games.

The Eagles swamped favored Lowell, who was previously undefeated. John Muriel, scoring two touchdowns, and Gene Peters were outstanding players.

Coach Madfes expressed hope that more boys will participate in the games next year.

Scores

Saint Ignatius 0, Washington 13; Lincoln 14, Washington 0; Mission 27, Washington 21; Lowell 7, Washington 34.

Soccer Season

The soccer team of Fall '56 was very impressive, ending up in third place with a record of five wins, two losses and one tie, and third place in the league.

The Eagles began the season with an outstanding 7-1 victory over a weak Saint Ignatius team.

In the second game of the season the Eagles met a strong team from Galileo. The Eagles played a good defensive game but couldn't break through the Galileo defense for more than one goal. Final score: Galileo 1, Washington 1.

In their next game, the Eagles met the league's strongest team, the Mission Bears. The Eagles couldn't keep up with the Bear's hustle and hard play, and fell before the Bears, 4-2.

In their fourth game, the Eagles met the Lowell Indians and completely scalped them, 5-0. This was one of the Eagles' best games of the season.

The Eagles then met a fired-up Lincoln Mustang team which had not been too consistent all season. In this game the Mustangs got off to a 4-0 lead, and it looked like the Eagles were going to be upset, but then in true Washington spirit the Eagles came roaring back to tie the score, and then later in the last period the Eagles scored another goal for the margin of victory, 5-4.

In the following game the Eagles met and defeated a stubborn Poly team by the decisive score of 5-3.

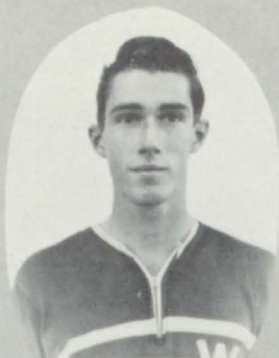

In the last regular season game the Eagles met the Balboa Buccaneers. The Eagles played their usual strong game and defeated Balboa, 3-1.

In the play-offs, the Eagles again met the Mission Bears. The Eagles had to win this game or they would be through for the season and they played a terrific game, but were defeated in the late stages of the game, 2-1.

Congratulations go to the soccer team's two All-City players, Serge Burenin and Ken Moorehead, and to the rest of the boys who practiced so hard before and after school, and to their Coach, Mr. Odone.

The Eagles lost a very close thriller in their league opener, being downed by Galileo, 39-38. Hammond, Coleman and Hall led the scoring for Washington with ten, nine, and eight points, respectively.

In their second game the Eagles lost to Lowell, 30-21, with the Indians' tall, All-City center, Tom Meschery, proving a great factor with his display of boardwork.

Eagle forward, James Thomas, sank two free throws with ten seconds remaining in the Washington-Saint Ignatius game to give the quintet their first win of the season, 26-25.

Washington captured its second victory of the season by downing the Irish from Sacred Heart, 36-34. Again it was a very close tilt, and the lead changed hands many times.

Suffering a nine-point deficit at the beginning of the game, the Eagles fought back to edge out the highly favored Bucs of Balboa, 26-25, for their third consecutive win.

A nine-point deficit must be a lucky charm for the Eagles, for again Washington was behind nine points, this time with only six minutes remaining in the game, against the Lincoln Mustangs, and came back spectacularly with a great display of unquitting spirit to capture the victory, 41-39. Bob Hammond and Errol Hall led the scoring for the Eagles in this, their last game before graduation, with 15 and 12 points, respectively.

In the Eagles' seventh game of the season, they met the very tall, very strong Parrots of Polytechnic and were downed, 37-28. Besides the fact that the Parrots had such great height, the mid-season graduation of such great Washington players as Errol Hall, Bob Hammond, Marion Page, and James Thomas greatly weakened the Washington team. The Eagle high scorers in this game were Vern Coleman, who scored eight points, and Mack Burton with seven points.

With a 38-36 win over the Mission Bears, the Eagles brought their string of wins to five, and also insured themselves of a play-off berth.

In the semi-finals the Eagles fought hard but were downed by Balboa, 25-21, to end their great season. Before the season started, experts picked Washington for a low, second division team, but with their continuous push and fortitude, the Eagles captured third place with a 5-3 record.

130's Basketball

After capturing 16 straight victories during their practice season, the fabulous 130's made it 17 by trouncing Galileo, 75-29, in their first regular league game. Watkins led the Eagles' scoring with 22 points, and Wilson and Hollins racked up 15 and 12 respectively.

In their second game the Eagles met Lowell and completely massacred the Indians, 64-39. The Lightweights' defense was superb and very rarely were the Indians able to penetrate the barrier of the peppy Washington five.

Jim Watkins with 22 points and Jesse Hollins with 20 led the way to another 130 victory against Saint Ignatius, as the Eagles dumped the Cats, 63-44.

Dropping Sacred Heart, 44-32, the unmatched 130's stretched their lengthening chain of consecutive wins to 20. Jesse Hollins was high scorer of the game with 21 points.

The Eagles surely made the Buccaneers of Balboa feel as if they were walking the plank as they more than tripled their opponent's score, 63-20. Jim Watkins led the scoring with 27 points and Mel Wilson came next, hitting 13.

In their fifth game of the season the Eagles swamped the Lincoln Mustangs, 60-39, for another easy victory. Jesse Hollins scored 22 points and Jim Watkins scored 15 to be high point men.

Though Poly had previously been undefeated in league competition, the Eagle five found it a rather easy matter to dispose of the Parrots, 68-36. Jesse Hollins scoring 27 points, and Jim Watkins scoring 15 led the way in the point department.

Jim Watkins and Jesse Hollins' combined 45 points led the 130's to a 70-49 victory over the Mission Bears to bring the chain of consecutive wins to 24. This was their last league game, and they had thus far remained unbeaten.

In their first game in the semi-finals against Saint Ignatius, the Eagles finally met a team that could offer them some opposition. Only a last quarter rally gave Washington their 57-54 win, for, at one time previously, they had trailed the Cats, 42-34.

The Washington unbeaten five met Poly for the City Championship and captured their 26th consecutive victory, 43-38, as well as the AAA championship. Besides the team's outstanding performances, individual players made great shooting scores. Jim Watkins broke the city record with 158 points, Jesse Hollins tied for second place with 146, and Wilson secured third place with 99.

dridge Johns, Joe McCowan, James Stokes, Raymond Hearne, Leonard Graves.

Lightweight Basketball

The 1956 George Washington 120-pound basketball team brought another championship home, their sixth in ten years. Coach McGrath felt that competitive spirit and hustle were the main virtues responsible for the team's success. The ability to come through in the close contests also figured prominently. They beat Sacred Heart and St. Ignatius by one point each, and they defeated Galileo by three points.

The boys who saw plenty of action during this winning season were Chan, Graves, Grayson, Hearne, McCowan and Stokes. The final standings found the champs with a 7-1 record, their lone loss being to the third place Lowell team.

This year's Washington 112's ended the season in second place with a 7-1 record. They lost only to the undefeated Sacred Heart five. First-stringers Rockmore, Won, Anderson, Jones, and Lee comprised a well-balanced, good-scoring unit. Rockmore was the club's top rebounder, and All-City selection Anderson was an outstanding all-around player.

Coach Athanasopoulos attributed the team's fine record to good scoring and good rebounding. He felt that the loss of top-scorer Norman Owyang before the start of the season cost the team the championship. Norm was disqualified due to a mixup on his eligibility card.

Track Season

Washington's Varsity Track Team started off its first league meet with a bang as the Eagles easily dumped Lowell in all three divisions. Pacing the Eagles to their first victory were LeRoy Shields, who was outstanding in the shot put and discus throw divisions, and Tom Skinner, who won in the 120 high hurdles and 180 low hurdles. The scores were, in the Unlimiteds, $63\frac{2}{3}$ to $49\frac{1}{3}$; the 30's, $83\frac{5}{6}$ to $20\frac{1}{6}$; the 20's, 49 to 28.

The Eagles ran all over Balboa, winning by a big margin in each division. Wilson's run of 52.4 in the 440 and Murray's dash of 23.5 in the 220 were some of the highlights of the day. The 130's were led by Hearne, with a high jump of 5'9", and Reese with a broad jump of 20'2". The final count saw the Unlimiteds end up with a score of 63 to Balboa's 50; in the 30's, $80\frac{1}{2}$ to $24\frac{1}{2}$; in the 20's, 64 to 13.

The next meet with St. Ignatius saw the Unlimiteds, 130's and 120's win again with scores of $64\frac{2}{3}$ to $47\frac{1}{3}$, 77 to 26, and 63 to 14, respectively. Pullen led the Varsity attack with a distance of 99-7 in the discus throw.

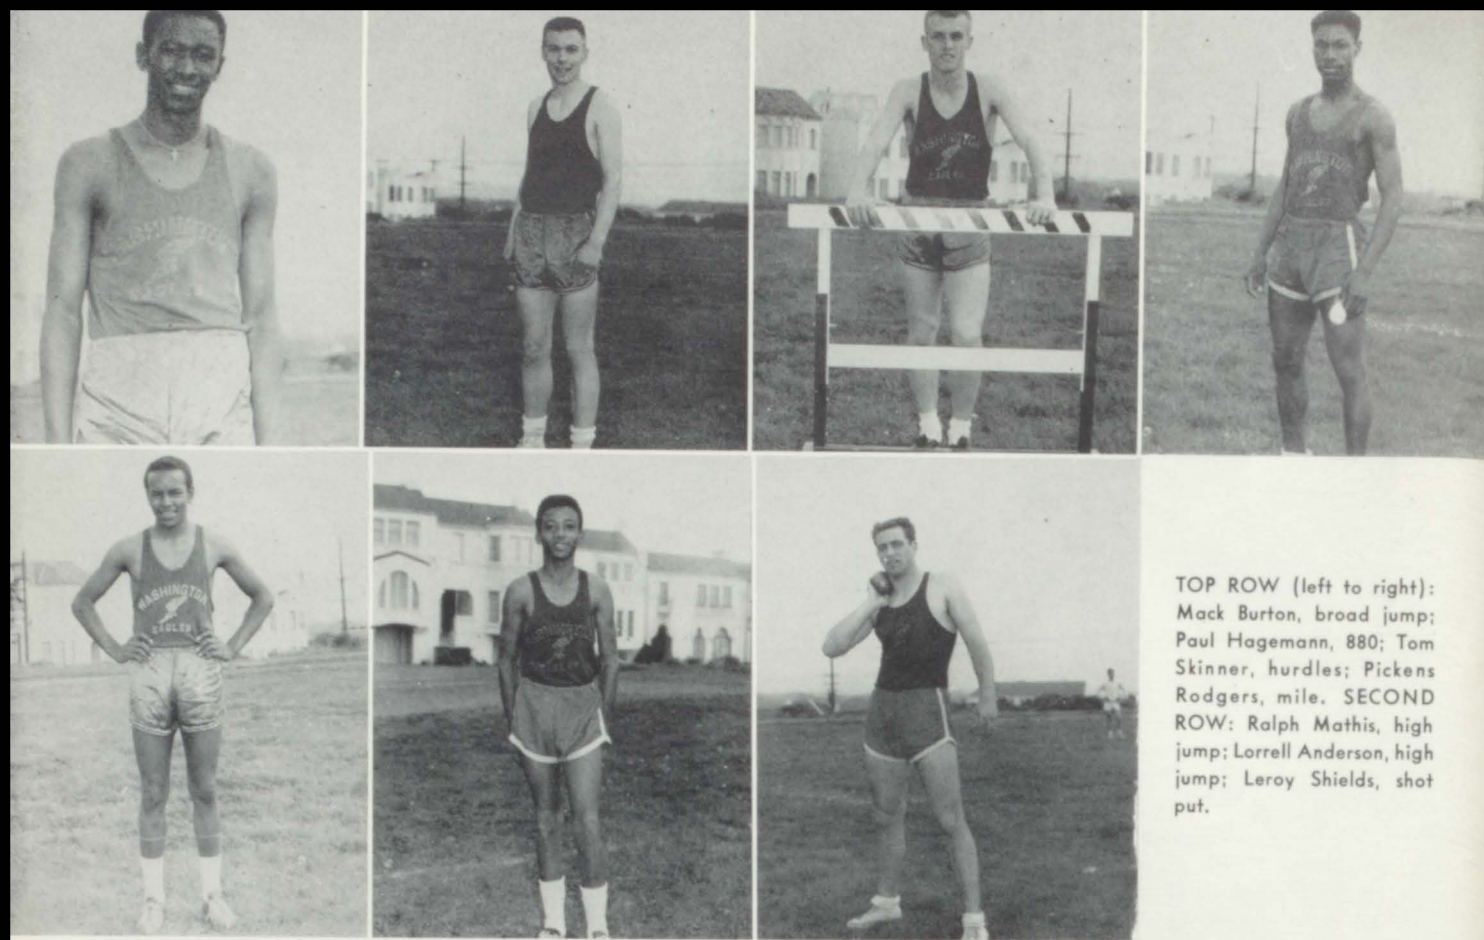

In the Galileo meet the Varsity literally ran through the Galileo squad by a score of 96 to 6. The 130's prevailed by a lop-sided score of 99 to 4. Leading the 30's to their victory were Latham, who did 11:40 in the 70-yard high hurdles; Jacobs, who did 1:34.0 in the 660, and Austin, who was timed at 15.6 in the 150-yard dash. The 120's also won easily from Galileo, 46 to 30.

The Eagles were impressive in winning their meet with Lincoln, defeating them in all three divisions. Leading the Varsity was LeRoy Shields, who set a school record in the discus — 142-0 $\frac{1}{2}$. Final scores: Varsity, 78-35; 130's, 81-22; 120's, 49-28.

Cross Country

In the regular season round-robin the Eagles' Cross-Country team didn't fare too well. In the All-City Meet Washington came out fourth. Outstanding players in the championship meet were Westman, Thomas, Harrison, Hagemann and Hammond, who finished second.

During the regular season the Eagles proved to be vastly superior to Mission, beating them 16-56 (the lowest score winning). They lost to Poly, 42-32, and Lowell, 48-20. Balboa crushed us, 46-17, but we were victorious over Riordan and Saint Ignatius, beating them 17-54 and 27-29, respectively.

The Poly meet was highlighted by a close battle between Looby of Poly and Pickens Rodgers of the Eagles. Rodgers was the outstanding man of the season. Unfortunately, he suffered a cold in the championship race and failed to place.

This year's team under Coach Magner has kept up the fighting spirit of George Washington. Their sincere desire to win when the chips were down is typical of Washington.

Sophomore Jerry Brooks gave indications of becoming an outstanding track star for the Eagles.

Jacobs, Ono, Brooks, Loukianoff, Westman, Hagemann, Skinner.

Golf

Up to yearbook press time, this year's Golf Team was unsuccessful in any of its league matches. Their first match with Lincoln ended up with the Links on top by a score of $5\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{1}{2}$. The next match with Lowell again saw the Eagles go down to defeat by a score of 6 to 3. The Golf Team, which is ably coached by Mr. McGraw, plays all of its matches at Lincoln Park.

The boys who played some fine golf this year are Elden Davis, Alex Tourouburoff, Gordon Gruber and Ron Weinshenk.

Tennis Season

This year's spirited Eagle netters ended the season in second place with a six-win, one-loss record.

Washington's season began with a 5-2 triumph over a fairly strong Balboa unit. The next victim was a weak Poly team, which suffered a 6-1 loss at the hands of the Eagles. On March 26, the squad defeated St. Ignatius, 7-0, in the best season effort. Following this was a 6-1 victory over Mission, and successive 7-0 wins over Lincoln and Galileo. In the championship match against Lowell, the Eagles lost a 5-2 decision to the Indians.

VARSITY

Playing 16 practice games this season, Washington's horsehiders won five and tied one. With many sophomores, this year's team has proved to be vastly inexperienced, and has been plagued with many errors. There will be at least six returning first string players, and next year should see a very improved Washington team. The league, which went into a six-way season tie, had seen only one team sure of its league standing from the beginning of the season. Washington baseballers finished the season with a blast of glory by defeating Lowell, 8-2. This left Lowell and Washington tied for last place with all other teams tied for first place.

J. V.

Thanks to the fine coaching of Mr. Ernie Domecus, Washington's Junior Varsity Baseball Team was able to come out of the season in a strong fourth place. Besides taking fourth place for themselves, they were able, by beating St. Ignatius, to change the whole order of the league standings.

With a team batting average of .243, the J.V.'s, led by Jim Masuda as top batter, were able to win over Galileo, Lincoln, Mission, S.I., and Lowell. They dropped a close game to Poly. The league first place team, Balboa, beat them 6 to 2, while second place Sacred Heart beat them by 10 to 4. Altogether, Washington's J. V.'s played good ball, showing that they had what it takes to be a winning club.

Swimming

This year's swimming teams had a very successful season under Coach Odone. The Unlimiteds finished their dual meet season with a record of four wins and three losses, and fourth place in the league. The 130's finished the season with a record of seven wins and no losses, and first place in the league, and the 120's also were undefeated.

In their first league meet the Eagles met the Buccaneers from Balboa and defeated them easily in all three divisions.

In their second league meet the Eagles met St. Ignatius and defeated them in two of the three divisions. They lost in the Unlimiteds to one of the strongest teams in the city, but our powerful lightweights downed them easily.

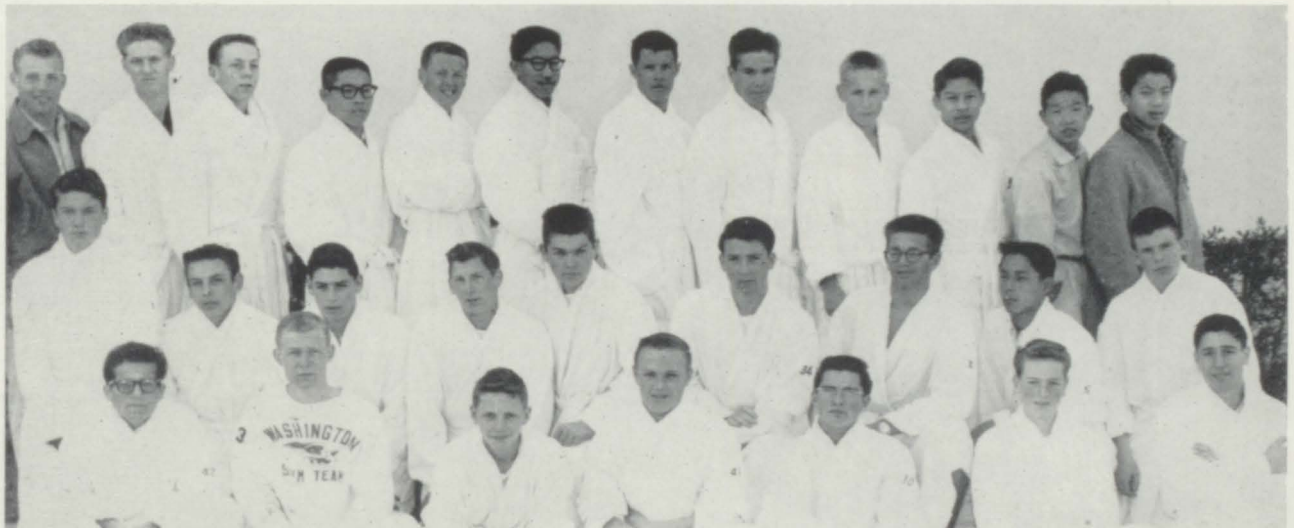

In their third league game against Lowell, the Eagles lost in the Unlimiteds but won both lightweights to knock their lightweights from the unbeaten ranks.

In their next two meets against Mission and Poly the Eagles easily defeated their opponents in all three divisions.

Next the Eagles met Lincoln for the dual championship in the 120's and 130's. Our Unlimiteds couldn't handle the league's strongest team, but our lightweights showed their power by defeating the Mustangs easily.

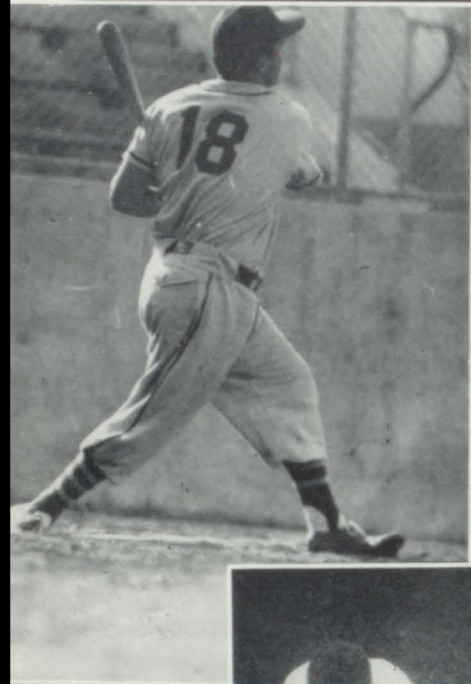

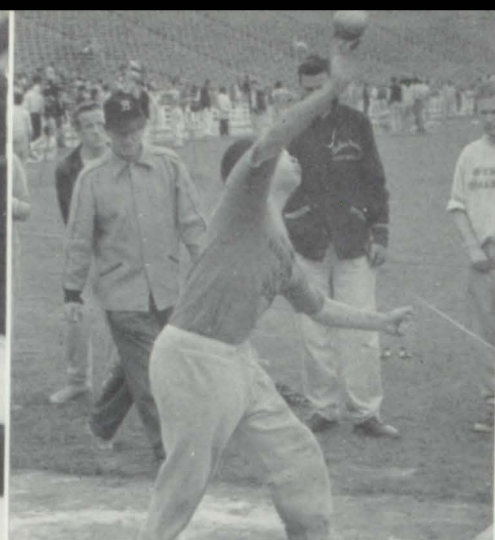

In their last meet of the season the Eagles defeated Galileo in all three divisions.

Due to our press deadline we were unable to give you the results of the All-City Meet, but the Eagles looked strong in both the lightweight divisions.

The Girls' Athletic Association Officers

This year the Girls' Athletic Association has been a very successful organization. Over 670 girls have participated in the sports that were offered.

The Fall President, Yvonne Fujimoto, and the Spring President, Valerie Ng, have really done a swell job of getting the girls interested in the G.A.A. and what it has to offer. The sponsor of the G.A.A. is Mrs. Brillhart.

The awards are given on the principal of attendance and game participation. In order for a girl to receive her awards she must have no more than one absence or three game excuses at the end of the term. If the girl does not receive her first three awards at the beginning of the three terms, she will be unable to receive her Block "W" award at the end of her first four terms.

The awards are presented in the order of: a numeral; second, a chevron; third, a circle "W"; fourth, a Block

"W" which enables the girl to become a member of the Block "W" Society; a star is the fifth; and after she has completed six terms she is awarded with a gold "W." If the girl enters school in her High Sophomore year she is able to take two sports to make up her losses.

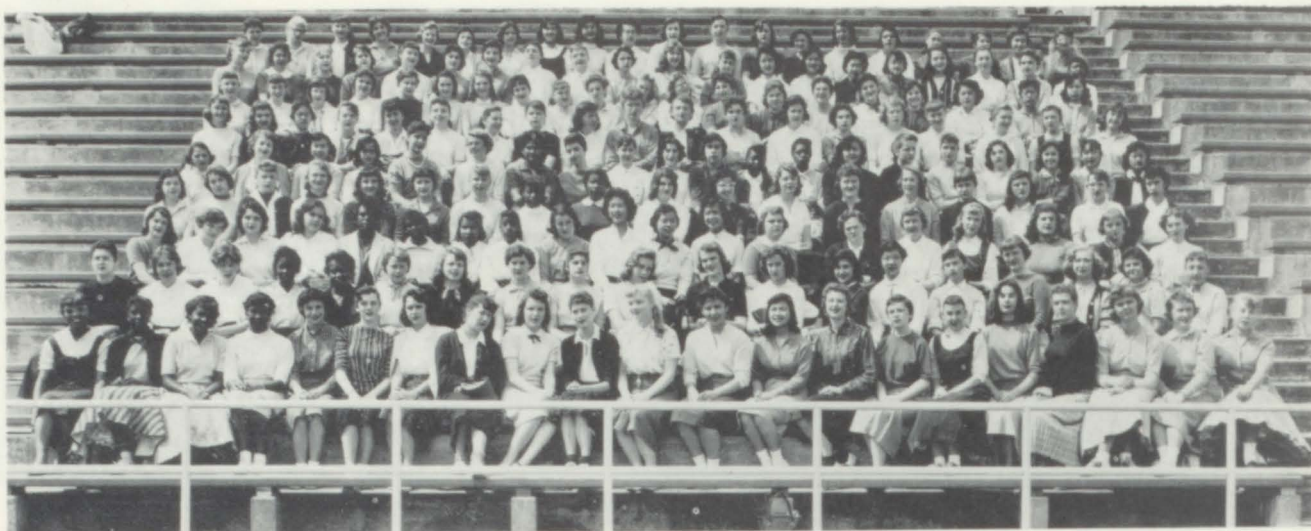

The eight sports that were opened to the girls this year were: volleyball, ice skating, basketball, tennis, bowling, swimming, modern dance, and badminton.

This year the G.A.A. board members are discussing the matter of having their semi-annual G.A.A. Board dinner to be held at the end of the term. To this dinner only board members, P. E. teachers, and special guests may attend.

The G.A.A. is a highly successful organization which every girl who joins will enable herself a variety of fun and enjoyment.

The Surveyor

Although the Surveyor comes out in June, actual work begins early in the fall semester when the editors are first chosen. This year's editor-in-chief was Nancy Cosker. The section editors were as follows: Gail Wickstrom, Administration; Nadine Zlokovich, Seniors; LaVerne Leon, Student Body; Joe Van Hoff, Sports; and Irene Chulkoff, Activities and Organizations.

First, all ideas for the new book are assembled into a dummy. Then layouts are made for every page; and soon after that pictures of the high seniors, officers, clubs and organizations are taken. Copy is written, the pictures are identified, and the book begins to take shape. Next, a cover design is picked, and candid are pasted up. This year the yearbook will feature more candid than ever before.

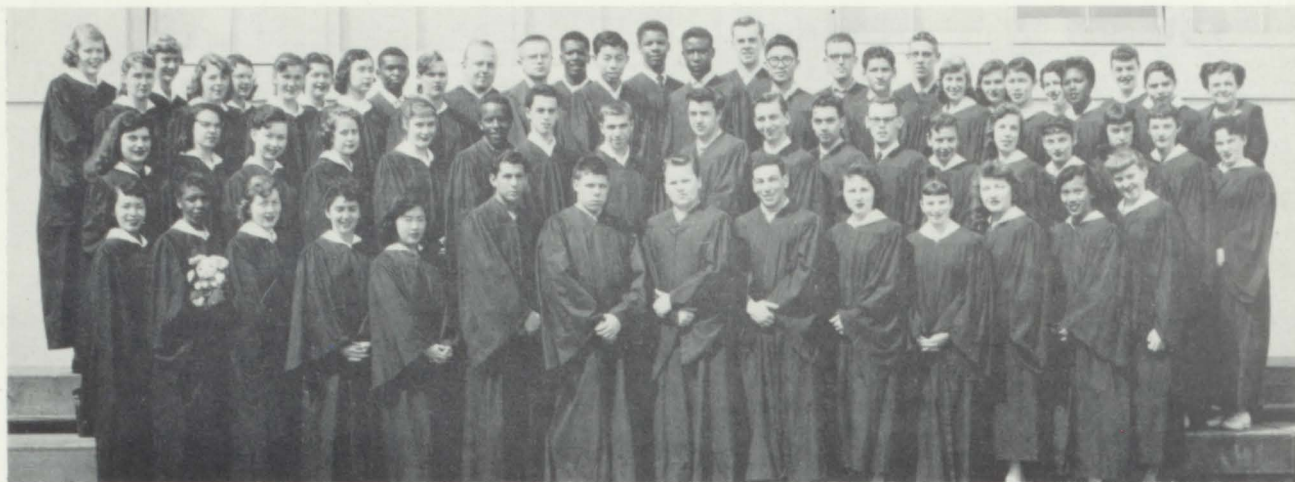

The hard-working editors and the staff members have tried their best to make the 1957 Surveyor an enjoyable one and one that you can look at and remember George Washington High School for many years to come.

Choral Groups

Two of the hardest working organizations here at George Washington are the choirs: the Advanced Girls Choir, and the A Cappella Choir. The choirs, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Myrtle Swanson, prepare and present beautiful shows for us each term.

The choir is responsible for our beautiful Christmas Tableau, the Annual Spring Concert, and both of the Graduation Exercises.

Many thanks to Mrs. Swanson and her choirs for their wonderful entertainment. They have made the year far more enjoyable.

Band and Orchestra

Under the direction of Mr. Herbert Welch, the band and orchestra have been very active this year.

The band, with its accompaniment at the games, helped us through some trying moments. It also participated in all of the rallies, and in the Music Festival.

Equally active is the orchestra, participating in Term Plays, both Graduations, the Spring Concert, and the Christmas Tableau.

More thanks to the band and orchestra for making such enjoyable music for us.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

The first honors for the George Washington R.O.T.C. Battalion of the Fall term of 1956 came in October when the entire Battalion marched in the Columbus Day Parade and for the third consecutive year received a trophy for the best R.O.T.C. unit.

During the term the Rifle Team competed with teams from the six other San Francisco public high schools in the Interscholastic Rifle Match. The Washington Rifle Team defeated all the other teams and thus won a trophy for city championship. The team also competed with about 70 other high school teams in eight western states in the Sixth Army Rifle Match. Washington placed sixth in the match and entered the National Finals in the Spring of 1957.

The first Washington R.O.T.C. Banquet, supervised by Cadet Lt. Colonel Harry Martin, Fall term Battalion Commander, was held in January, 1957. At this time medals and trophies were presented to outstanding cadets for marksmanship, drill, and efficiency in the Battalion. After the presentation of awards, Creighton

Decker was given command of the Battalion for the Spring term.

The St. Patrick's Day Parade was the next big event in which the entire Battalion participated. Both the Battalion and the Drum and Bugle Corps won first place trophies for Washington.

The annual Federal Inspection was held on May 3. On this date several officers from the Sixth Army Headquarters came to Washington to review and inspect the Battalion. In the afternoon Sgt. Quinby, who had been an instructor of the Battalion for three years, was given a farewell party in the cafeteria since this was his last day at Washington.

Both Sgt. Quinby and Sgt. Gingrich deserve much credit for their outstanding supervision and instruction of the Battalion during the last two terms.

The Girls' Drill Team, directed by Irene Natsievsky, should also be congratulated on their fine performance. The girls participated in several parades, including the Columbus Day and St. Patrick's Day parades.

Activities and Organizations

Here at George Washington High School, student activities are a very important function of our school lives.

The G.S.S. and the Eagles, the Scarlet and Gray, the California Scholarship Federation, and the American Field Service contribute to our social lives as well as our educational ones.

There are many different committees needing everyone's help. The Rally Committee puts on wonderful rallies every term; the Dance Committees stage the many fabulous dances. The broadcasting staff, the ticket sellers, and the Stage, Scenery, and Poster Club cannot be forgotten, either. And we must also remember the Masquers who put on a spectacular play each term.

After-school activities include the Junior Red Cross, the Chess Club, the Science Club, the Math Club, and the language clubs. All these activities take up much of the time and energy of the participants, but, without a doubt, keep the students interested. It is this interest that keeps our school on top in everything.

Doris Hauser

... our female foreign-exchange student, comes from Zurich, Switzerland. She was born there on June 1, 1938, and grew up among a family of five, including a twin sister. When she returns to Zurich, Doris will have a semester of school left before she can graduate. She will then become a secretary.

Shahrokh Rustomji

... is our male foreign-exchange student from Quetta, Pakistan. Shah was chosen by the American Field Service because of his background. He also has a brother who, last year, went to New York on the same scholarship. After finishing school, Shahrokh plans to go to college to become a mechanical engineer.

What Now?

There are many excellent job opportunities for men and women in the field of Hair Styling and Beauty . . . and they are more-than-ordinarily available to graduates of Miss Marty's School of Beauty. This school considers that "practice makes perfect" and from the day you enroll until you graduate, you'll study primarily by DOING the work, exactly as you would in a first-class Salon. Classes are limited to 50 . . . so you'll have individual attention in your work, and can start out immediately after your graduation, as an experienced operator!

ALL Hair Styling and Hair Cutting is taught exclusively by Miss Marty herself, and all beginning students start immediately on techniques she teaches to working hair stylists taking her graduate courses.

Course is planned to include 1,600 hours, and can be completed comfortably in nine months of active attendance. Open 8:30 to 5 every day, and Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Two excellent professional teachers, long-famous in the field of Beauty work, will teach "Theory," "Facials," "Manicures," "Permanents," etc. in the best approved methods of the day.

Miss Marty Schaumann, Dean of Miss Marty's School of Beauty and winner of many awards for hair-styling. Nationally known for her leadership in the field of Cosmetology, and the only person in Northern California included in the membership of the nationally-famous Official Hair Fashion Committee. Member: National Hairdressers & Cosmetologists' Association; Hollywood Hair Design Council; San Francisco Cosmetologists' Association; and immediate past President of the California Cosmetologists' Association.
