Linda -

Well this summer ^{is} almost over and next year we graduate. It doesn't ^{seem} possible does it? This year's gone by so fast - but we sure have had alot of fun!

Remember when it was time to go to graduation services - and the big rush we were in - we sure have had alot of fun this year and its really been fun going around with you. ~~this year~~.

One thing I'll never forget is Marilyn's birthday - what a time that was. Remember when you, Mair, and me - went to the show - and we found out Paul was home - and you got to see him. Remember how happy you were.

I hope we'll always be good friends, & golly I hope we get the same lunch hall ^{next year} what a ball!

This coming year is going to be a panic. All the things we have to look forward too.

Linda, I really think alot of you, and with your looks and personality you're sure to go far in life.

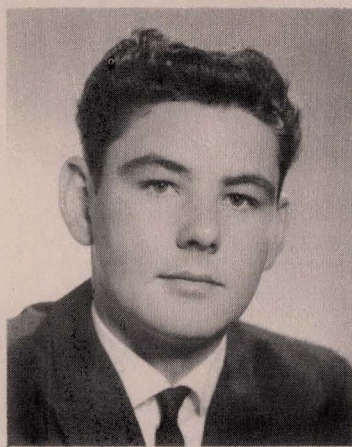

I just thought of the two things I'll never forget is Marinas and Sandys' slumber party - its the first time I've ever went ~~sum~~ swimming at 2 o'clock in the morning. Wow what a time -

Well good luck in the future & lots of luck with Benny! Love & luck always

EDITOR'S MESSAGE:

Congratulations on a fine job go to the hard working editors: Barbara Whitmer, Barbara Mitchell, Vearl States, Shelly Hischer, Sandi Burke, Jo Ann Dalldorf, Mike Skram, Judi Langdon, and Linda Cresto.

Special thanks to Dotti Anglemyer and her advertising staff. They did a phenomenal job that really pulled us out of a tight spot. It needs to be noted that my assistant editor, Don Stevenson, did an unusually fine job of selling ads. He sold a total of 74 ads, which is more than anyone has sold in many years, if ever.

A few of our yearbook salesmen were extremely dependable this year. Loreen Anderson, Pat Brunson, and Bea Rodriguez gave much of their lunch time to the sales. Thanks so much.

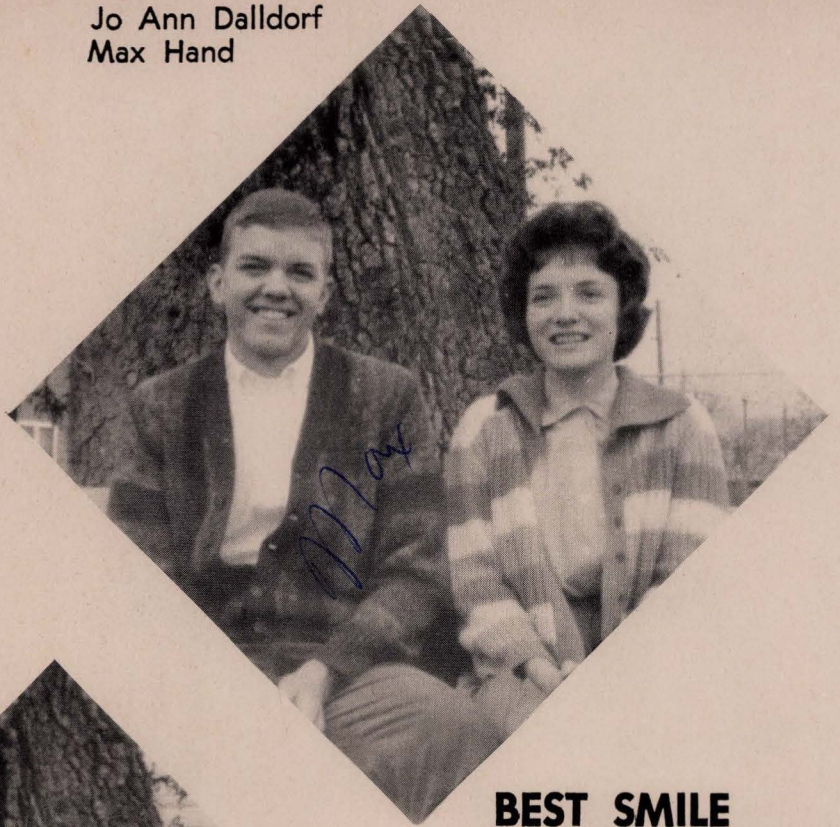

We had one other outstanding group this year, two photographers. Thanks to Jim Hart and John Woodruff for supplying us with many interesting shots of campus activities.

A loud cheer goes to our advisor, Mr. Gill. He has been the biggest help of all. We certainly could not have done without him.

 It's been lots of fun knowing you even though you are a "little Punk junior girl". I'll take you to the airport again when I come home from college. I don't think I'll ever forget you and all the fun we four had in the "olden" days.
 you're really a sweet girl (and cute even). You're one of the
