FOREWORD

The candid camera eye seeks out the personality of its subject. It finds the natural smile, the characteristic pose, the informal posture, and records the everyday informality of school life. The candid shot reveals the student in his favorite haunts, discloses his typical antics, and groups him with his classroom friends.

In reviewing the contents of the 1953 Journal in future years, perhaps it will be on the snapshot pages that the former Polyite will look to find his friends, and perhaps there he will with sudden recognition find the face that will recall vividly the life of the school and the spirit of Poly.

It is the hope of the Journal staff that each graduate will find something warm and appealing where the candid camera eye has been focused. May it also provide a source of great interest and entertainment for those students who, while still in school, wish to know their fellow students better. As the camera is turned toward Polyites at play we see the broad and varied interests of the students. Polytechnic athletes have learned to play well, to lose gracefully if they are bested, to win fairly—which happens with amazing frequency. Captured, too, in the lens is another side of Poly: the students at work in the classroom. The graduate, in future years, will look back upon his days here and remember that all was not merely fun, but that he worked to prepare for a career. In Poly there is a blend of industry and relaxation which the graduate may always associate with his school.

A picture story of Poly contains views of the athletic field, the classroom, the physical education classes, the dances, the parties which are all so much a part of the lives of the teen-agers today. The camera has been focused on Polytechnic 1953; we know you will be satisfied with the picture.

MRS. JOAN ALVARADO

DEDICATION

We, the Polytechnic Journal Staff, would like to dedicate this the 1953 yearbook to Mrs. Joan Alvarado of the Girls' Physical Education Department.

Mrs. Alvarado has helped and befriended each and every one of the girls at Poly at one time or another during her years here. She has helped us seek the solution to the many problems confronting us in our academic as well as our athletic school work. Each of us has come to think of Mrs. Alvarado as a personal and special friend. We invariably go to her for advice, and just as invariably are given good, sound counsel which has aided us in more than one instance.

We doubt that Mrs. Alvarado realizes how much we appreciate her friendliness and what her cheery smile means to us when we're feeling especially low; but we sincerely hope that this journal will express our thanks and appreciation to her.

Thanks again, Mrs. Alvarado, and a fond farewell from your senior girls.

To the Seniors:

This yearbook will be a treasured keepsake because it chronicles the events of your last year in high school.

I hope it has been a satisfying year, a fitting ending to twelve years spent in school.

As you leave high school soon to take your places in the adult world, I hope you will look upon the high school as one of the keystones of our republic. You can help make it a vital part of the American way of life. A free public high school, open to all, is not to be found in all countries of the world. But we are glad that it is a part of the American heritage; in fact, we believe that our democratic way of life would soon disappear if it were not possible for all citizens to secure a good education.

Let us remember the words of Thomas Jefferson: "I know of no safe depository of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves; and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take it from them, but to inform their discretion by education."

Therefore we ask you to cherish this great ideal of free education for all. It is vitally important to the welfare of our country. We hope you will aid and defend it as thousands before you have done.

In conclusion may I extend to all of you my best wishes for your future happiness and success in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

CARL A. ANDERSON, Principal

Each recurring spring brings forth a new Polytechnic Journal. A quick adventure through the pages of this Journal will recall many familiar scenes and events that have occurred during the past year. By words and pictures the student life of Polytechnic is appropriately set forth in the following pages.

My sincere congratulations to the Journal staff on the appearance of this year book. Its contents will prove, I believe, that the spirit and tradition of Polytechnic is as great as ever.

PAUL S. HUNGERFORD
Vice-Principal

FACULTY LEADERS OF POLYTECHNIC

Dear Graduates:

Graduation day is the most important day in your high school life. It marks the successful completion of those educational experiences which we hope will act as guides in the new life you are about to begin.

We know that you will find that life is good and interesting, that with added responsibilities come also added abilities to cope with problems, that material success has its place, but that far more important is the personal satisfaction obtained through the understanding of good human relationships.

Good luck to you — may your future live up to your highest expectations.

Sincerely,
SIGNE M. WALKER
Dean of Girls

' FARE THEE WELL

The class of Fall 1952 and I bid a fond farewell to Polytechnic. We share our mutual joys and regrets at leaving Poly this term.

I should like to be able to thank personally each and every high senior who has helped me serve my class this past year. The co-operation of the class has been good. Every member did his or her share to make the activities of the class successful. To the senior advisors, Mr. Shaff and Mr. Scudder, my sincere appreciation for the help given me.

And so on January 26, as we sing for the last time the Polytechnic Hymn, we bid farewell to our teachers, friends and class mates, and we wish them all happiness and success in whatever they do.

The Senior class, its members now passing from their roles of students in the classroom, to adults in the community, leave Polytechnic with a nostalgia for the past and a hope for the future.

We are frank in our admission that we have enjoyed many worthwhile experiences, gaining both in academic knowledge and in understanding of our fellow man. We also must admit that we have had to endure some hard work and overcome real problems.

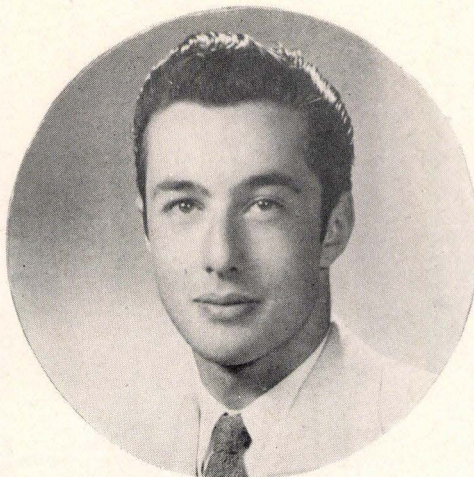

We wish to thank our teachers and fellow students for helping us to pass through rewarding and enriching experience.

Student Body Officers Fall '52

During the Fall term of 1952, the student government of Polytechnic was under the competent leadership of President Dan Mitchell. Ably assisting the president was Vice-President Pat Foster who very successfully put over the student body's successful dance entitled "Tea For Two."

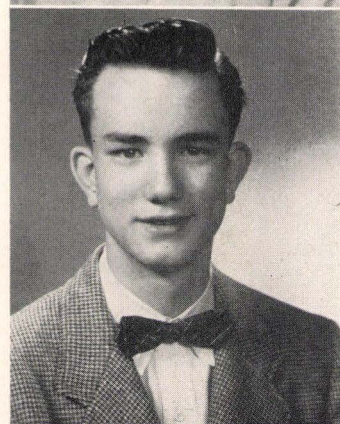

Seeing to it that our finances were kept in proper condition were Treasurer Dorine Coppin and her assistant Bonnie Bottom. The first thirty registries to achieve 100% sales of student body cards were awarded with the movie "Twelve O'Clock High."

Jack Booher, athletic manager, was responsible for ticket sales and promotion of sports events this term. He set a new record by selling more tickets to football games this semester than in any period in the last ten years.

Our custodian, Jim Erickson, polished the cups and awards in the first floor trophy case and saw to it that all announcements were posted.

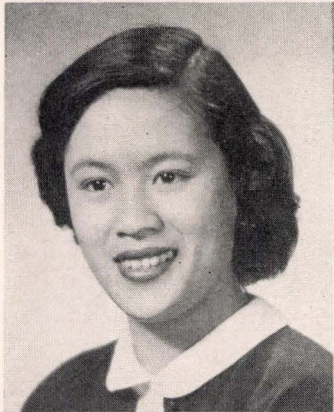

This term our football team again brought championship to Poly and Cheer Leader Jeanie Carlton did an excellent job of keeping up school spirit with her card stunts and yells. Jeanie has the distinction of being the first girl to become head cheer leader here at Poly. With the able assistance of Diane Ahrens, Mary Lou Heide, Dianne Kunstman, Pauline Long and Jack Harden, our cheer leader did a great job.

Law and order was dispensed by Stephne Morgan who was our Student Court Judge. Speaker of Congress, Gail Beach, was kept active with her duty of presiding over the representative body.

Student Body Officers Fall '52

Gordon Young, Student Body President of Spring 1953, filled the position with a combination of steadfast leadership and good humor. Under his leadership the student government of Polytechnic ran smoothly for another successful term. This red-headed go-getter worked all term for his school. "Red's" rallies were really great and his new ideas for selling tickets to the games were the best yet. We can truly say that Gordon upheld all the standards that go with being Student Body President.

JoAnne Harper took over the reins as Vice-President, planning and presenting the social activities of the term. JoAnne and her dance committee put over a very successful Student Body Dance, "The Be-Bop Hoe-Down."

Treasurer, Toy San Yee, aided by her able assistant, Verna Pearson, kept a close guard on all the money we spent on tickets to school activities.

Frank Montabana, Athletic Manager, took charge of ticket sales and sports events. Frank saw to it that there was good attendance at all games.

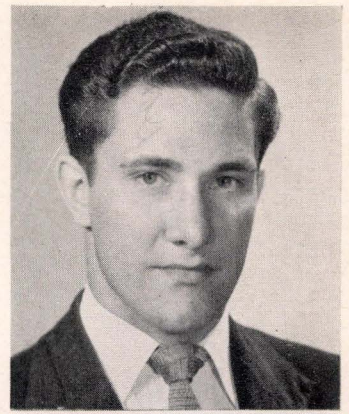

Bob Donohoe, Custodian, had the trophies glistening and the halls full of signs and announcements.

Joyce Beverforden, speaker of Congress, was kept busy with her duties concerning Congress.

For the third time in the History of Polytechnic there was a girl Student Court Judge, Dorothy Pudoff. Dot could be seen every Wednesday morning trying the accused. These unfortunate students were often seen at lunch time shining trophies and keeping the school well cleaned.

Don Bischoff, our capable yell leader, kept Poly's spirits rolling during our basketball season.

Mr. Kinney, capable Student Body advisor, picked us up when we were down and knocked us down when we got too high. He will always have a place in our memories of Spring 1953.

Registry CONGRESSMAN

Congress is one of the most important functions in the Government of Polytechnic. It is the only way in which everyone can help to run the school through their registry representative. Each registry, or homeroom, is represented by one congressman. If anyone has an idea or problem he would like discussed, he tells his congressman, who in turn presents it to Congress which meets every other Monday. Then on Tuesday morning during registry, each congressman gives his report where the problems are again discussed, and if any new views are brought out, it is carried back to the next Congress meeting. Here all the different views on the subject are talked over, debated, and finally voted upon after serious consideration by all. Actually this is a "check and balance system" based on the one in Washington, D. C., except on a smaller scale.

CLASS COLLECTOR

"Do you have your money for your football ticket?" or "Does anyone have money for their Journal?" These are the questions that are daily asked in registry. Who's the person asking? It's the class collector who plays an important part here at school.

The duties of the class collector lie mostly with the affairs of money. He collects all the money for football and basketball games. His most important job is to collect money for each student's own personal journal, and to keep an accurate account of journal sales in his registry.

Besides dealing with money, he picks up the Parrots for each reg. He also helps the registrar distribute papers of importance to the students in registry.

STUDENT COURT

Students who violate the rules of conduct in the halls and in the inner court are brought before the judicial branch of the student government. Lower classmen found sitting on the Senior Bench, those caught lending their student body cards and other violators are brought before the bar of justice every Tuesday morning to plead innocent or guilty. Dorothy Pudoff, court judge, sentenced those offenders pleading guilty, and the jury made up of class officers decided the fate of those claiming themselves innocent of crimes charged against them this Spring.

SERVICE SOCIETY

Herb Vogler, Fall President, and Helen Almeida, Spring President, guided the activities of the Service Society this past year.

This organization, inaugurated two semesters ago, has a membership of fifty students. Poly's Student Body Officers come from the ranks of this group. The Service Society is composed of members who have earned at least 30 service points by taking on responsible positions of student leadership. The points are earned through the holding of such jobs as class officers, class collectors, and congressmen.

Dean of Boys, Mr. Hungerford, is the advisor to the group.

FALL CLASS HISTORY

For all the times we've exchanged a "Hi"
Now there's just one last "Good-bye"
Along with wishes for the best
Will we succeed: That's our big test.

Leaving Poly we're a little sad
Thinking of all the fun we've had;
The Freshman dance which caused us worry
And the happiness after all the fury,
The Sophomore year and lots more kids,
The Shamrock Shuffle and green dance bids;
To be a Junior was the joy of joys,
"Couples" featured instead of "the girls" and
"the boys."

The Senior year would soon be here,
But just now the Junior Prom was near.
Senior rings we displayed with pride,
A feeling we didn't even try to hide.

The court fair was the next big thing;
We didn't know if we could dance and sing;
"South Pacific" was our theme.
An increased treasury was our dream,
Our dream came true, the money piled,
An expensive prom was no more trial.

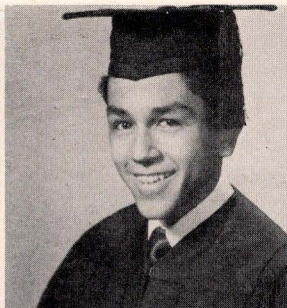

January 17 was the next big date
After a long four years of wait;
St. Francis Yacht Club was the place.
Appearing were the girls, escorts, flowers, and lace;
All our friends dressed up were there:
"Unforgettable" without compare.
January 26 was the next special date
For that was the day to graduate.
We're a little happy and a little sad
Just to remember the fun we've had.

A PARTING THOUGHT

Looking back upon our years at Polytechnic, we recall many memorable experiences and activities. As bewildered freshmen, we sponsored our first dance, the Freshman Hop, and were pleased with its success. Gaining confidence in our sophomore year, we participated more fully in school affairs and became better acquainted with our teachers.

Although at times it appeared unattainable, we finally reached the status of upper classmen. We celebrated this distinction with our Junior Prom, a joyous occasion at the Mark Hopkins Hotel. We also remember Poly's dominance of the city's football league during our years in school, as well as the fine performances given by our basketball, track, and soccer teams.

Then on January 26, 1953, we became officially "high 'n' mighty" seniors, marching into the auditorium on that day to occupy the senior section and voice our senior yell for the first time. Apart from our serious studies as seniors, we found time for many activities, notably the use of the senior bench, the senior canteen, the senior jinx, the Senior Prom at the Fairmont Hotel, and the social highlight.

Indeed, we will carry many happy memories with us as we accept our diplomas at the Opera House on June 9, 1953, and say, "Farewell," to our high school days at Polytechnic, forever.

POLY'S THIRD UNDEFEATED SEASON

SEMI-FINALS—Poly vs. Balboa—Poly received its only real scare of the season as it met a determined, fired-up, and rugged Balboa eleven who looked like anything but the patsies Poly pasted early in the season 44-13. Poly had its worst afternoon of the season but, that certain something that always happens when things begin to look black, prevailed and flared up in the face of the championship—hungry Bucks! They pulled the game out of the fire as they intercepted a pass, and scored on a brilliant run by Art Forbes in the closing two minutes, to set-up the winning score. The whole show for the Parrots was the defensive until they refused to allow the Bucks to score the touchdown which could have broken Poly's record when they moved deep in Poly territory. Their win coupled with Lincoln's win over Galileo made the team the finalists for the Championship playoff.

CHAMPIONSHIP—Poly vs. Lincoln—Instead of upsetting the Parrots for the title they so desperately wanted, Lincoln came wearily off the field asking what kind of devastating machine had hit them. Although they had played their hearts out, Poly put on such a dynamic display of brute power that veteran observers left the stadium saying it was the greatest single display of offensive destruction they had ever seen. The final score was 54-7. To try and single out one outstanding performer would be impossible, for everyone that got into the game looked like All-City material. Even the Junior Varsity boys put on an impressive showing. If there was any question as to the greatness of the team, this game erased that without any possible doubt.

Poly vs. Galileo—Poly made a mockery of the game that was supposedly to be the crucial game of the year. Galileo reputedly had the best defensive line in the league. However, after the Parrots first series of offensive plays it was obvious that Poly was going to have an easy time with the slowly deteriorating Lions. And only Poly's splendid showing of mercy in the closing minutes enabled Galileo to make a contest of the game and close the gap to 34-18. The outstanding performance of the day was by Jim Poppin, who played his usual brilliant game.

Poly vs. Lincoln—Poly showed the first inclination to its potential strength when it put on a blistering display as they smothered the Mustangs 47-20. Frank Hall's sharp passing accounted for a large amount of the scoring. Gordon Young ripped countless long runs and showed everyone in the stadium he was destined for great feats. Other boys who showed well for the red and black were Craig and Don Brown, whose expert pass snagging provided a great deal of thrills, Gerald James and Nick Poppin played a bang-up game opening up gaping holes and Charlie McMurray, Sam Fukuda, Art Forbes, and Stan McCarthy ran roughshod.

Poly vs. Lowell—Poly defeated their much-hated rival Lowell for the ninth straight time 33-21, but not without a valiant struggle on the part of the underdog Indians, who played for the first time in many years as if they were not defeated before the game started. As usual it was Frank Hall's pin-point passing and faking artistry which proved too much class for the battling Indians to cope with. The Poly defensive line was especially sharp smearing Lowell's running plays. Gordon Young was perfectly effective on Poly's bread and butter play, the screen play, and used it to pile up most of his yardage.

Poly vs. Mission—Poly faced a stern and determined Mission eleven who held the vaunted Parrots to a standstill for a quarter, but then wilted before the heavy guns of the Parrots point-a-minute brigade, by the score of 33-7. The team met a Mission team that had lost 16 straight years to Poly. The game featured the sharp running of Gordon Young and Art Forbes and the bruising line play of Frank Montabana, Ralph Tischbern, and Don Brown. It was Poly's last regular seasonal game and capped off a brilliant season's play.

Frank Hall—Q.B.—Frank, who stands 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs in at 168 pounds, was a brilliant quarterback beyond description. Quarterbacks will come and go but his passing exploits, ice water coolness, bewildering ball-handling will never be forgotten. He was the spark-plug and key cog which made the Poly backfield the best ever. Frank made the back of year and first-string All-Northern. After graduation, Frank intends to go to Stanford University where great things can be expected of him.

Ralph Tischbern—L. G.—Ralph, who stands 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 168 pounds, was a boy who received little publicity all year but yet was a tough and sturdy linesman who always played a creditable game and helped defend a lot of huge holes.

Gordon Young — F. B. —Gordon, along with Frank Hall formed the greatest, most devastating and versatile one-two punch that the league has ever had. Although he stood only 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighed 153 pounds, Gordon vaulted from obscurity to one of the best known backs in the league history. His greatest single feat of the season was in breaking the scoring record of the never-to-be-forgotten Ollie Matson who recently made all-pro. But this feat cannot overshadow his magnificent efforts as a brilliant runner and as a deadly pass defender. Gordon will not be replaced next year—that is for sure. After graduation he intends to go to Stanford University.

Gerald James — L. T. — weighs 226 pounds, stands 5 feet 11 inches. The biggest and toughest part of the Poly line was gigantic Gerald James. He was a rugged performer on running plays and was the best linesman in the league when it came to rushing kicks. Gerald was picked almost unanimously for All-City honors. His bulk, experience, and class will be hard to replace next season.

Don Brown—stands 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds. Don was a rugged, fast and aggressive end, who with his fine pass catching and efficient and smashing defensive work earned himself a unanimous second string All-City berth and several first string picks. He made some of the best catches seen all year. After graduation Don intends to further his education at San Jose State in the fall.

Frank Montabana—weighs in at 184 pounds and stands 5 feet 10 inches tall. Frank was a big, aggressive, and bruising blocker who paved the way for so many of the breath-taking runs that Poly performed all year. Frank was one of the hardest working and most improved players on the Poly squad. He intends to further his education at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Craig Brown—weighs 170 pounds, stands 5 feet 9 inches tall. Craig, the other half of the Brown combination was a durable performer. He always played a consistent brand of ball, especially on offensive, where his pass catching earned him several first string votes this year. He received unanimous second string All-City acclaim. After he graduates he intends to go to a college of his choosing.

Tom Kemp—weighs 166 pounds and stands 5 feet 10 inches tall. Tom accomplished a tremendously tough feat when he not only filled the shoes of Warrin Fannin, but vaulted himself into the spotlight as the best center in the league. He was the most spirited boy on the squad and really put everything he had into every play. He made All-City and intends to go to Stanford after graduation.

Nick Poppin — stands 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 185 pounds. Nick was chosen captain of the team and certainly fulfilled the confidence placed in him by not only being the best linesman of the team but the finest guard in the league. He made All-City and was chosen on the 3rd string All-Northern California football team. After graduation he hopes to become a forester.

Tom Ozaki—R. H.—Tom was the workhorse of the Poly eleven this season. He weighed in at 158 pounds and stands 5 feet 7 inches tall and was a fast, elusive, and hard plugging back who received little acclaim but did a bang-up job in running and carrying out his blocking assignments. He is characteristic of Poly's pony backfields.

Art Forbes who stands 5 feet 9 inches and weighs 180 pounds is a high junior who was a tremendous surprise at both halfback and fullback positions and proved to be one of the biggest and hardest driving backs in the league at the end of the season. He will certainly be an All-City candidate next year.

Charlie McMurray stands 5 feet 8 inches tall, 159 pounds. Charlie excelled himself this year with fine open field running and tremendous bursts of speed when breaking through a hole into the secondary. He worked hard and tirelessly to rank among the first six or seven halfbacks in the league.

Varsity Basketball

Poly vs. S.I.—An inexperienced Poly five lost a hard-fought battle to Saint Ignatius by the respectable score of 35-25. High point getters for us were Bob Donohoe with 7 points, followed closely by Reggie Jones and Gary Gillmor with 6 points.

Poly vs. S. H.—Poly played its best offensive game of the season as they smothered the Irish 56-46. High scorers for the Parrots were Maurice Jones and Gary Gillmor with 15. Reggie Jones followed with 13.

Poly vs. Balboa—Although the play was somewhat ragged, the Parrots came through at opportune times to win a closely contested battle 41-36. Rece Jones was the key factor pouring in 16 digits.

Poly vs. Mission—Steady shooting and tremendous backboard work paved the way for Poly to easily defeat a good Mission five 36-27. High scorers were Gary Gillmor, Reggie Jones and Joe Hagler.

Poly vs. Galileo—Poly easily outclassed a weak Galileo five 41-31. High scorers were, as usual, Gary Gillmor, Reggie Jones, and Maurice Jones.

Poly vs. Lowell—In the battle of the year Lowell's classy one-two punch, Clarence Grider and Mike Leaskou, proved too much for the hustling Parrot five, winning an interesting contest 50-42. Gary Gillmor stood out for the Parrots, racking up 17 points.

Poly vs. Lincoln—Poly's sharp shooting Parrots played a brilliant game as they defeated Lincoln, 57-46. It was their highest point output for the year. Key figures were Gary Gillmor and Maurice Jones who scored 20 and 15 points, respectively.

Poly vs. Washington—Poly's fine basketball five were outplayed by a very good Washington team 51-37 in the last game of the season. Gary Gillmor was as usual Poly's high point getter, being followed closely, however, by the Jones brothers.

Poly vs. Lowell—Mike Leaskou's phenomenal shooting proved too much as Lowell overwhelmed the Parrots 57-32 to knock us out of the finals. He collected thirty points to approach Ken Flower's record of 36 points. High point getter was Reggie Jones with 12 points. High Seniors Bob Donohoe and Joe Hagler played a very fine game.

STARS IN REVIEW

Reggie Jones, Forward—Reggie is undoubtedly the finest rebounding ace to grace the A.A.A. in many moons. He is an expert shot from anywhere around the keyhole. His poise and smoothness have developed amazingly since the season's opening and he has sparked the Parrots to their recent victories. He has not reached his potential yet, being only a high junior.

Gary Gillmor, Guard—Poly's leading point getter and offensive player is Gary Gillmor who, after a disastrous opening game, has averaged about 14 points a game since. His defensive work is improving with each encounter and he hustles continuously. He is a cinch to make all city next year.

Maurice Jones, Forward—Maurice, who is Reggie's brother, is Poly's smoothest and best all around player. His shooting is consistent and effective. His backboard work is the best in the league considering his height. His passing is accurate and sharp and his poise dependable. The amazing fact about Maurice is that he is just a sophomore and is still in the developing stage.

Joe Hagler, Center—Despite illness which cut short his basketball career in his sophomore and junior years, Joe has come back gamely to develop into one of the steadiest centers in the league. Joe has been very good on the boards and has come through occasionally with vital shots and has been very tough on defense.

Bob Donohoe, Guard—The team captain and quarterback of the Poly five is a decisive factor in our amazing showing this year. He also is a great hustler and rebounder plus having possession of a fine shot technique.

Top Row: M. Axt, B. Donohoe, B. Taft, R. Lane, A. Matson

BASEBALL

The starting of the baseball season brought to light many outstanding baseball players.

There was no actual starting line-up as several of the players were rotated.

Perhaps the most outstanding player of the team was Frank Hall. He started the season by pitching a no hit, no run game against Washington. Hall alternates between catcher and pitcher.

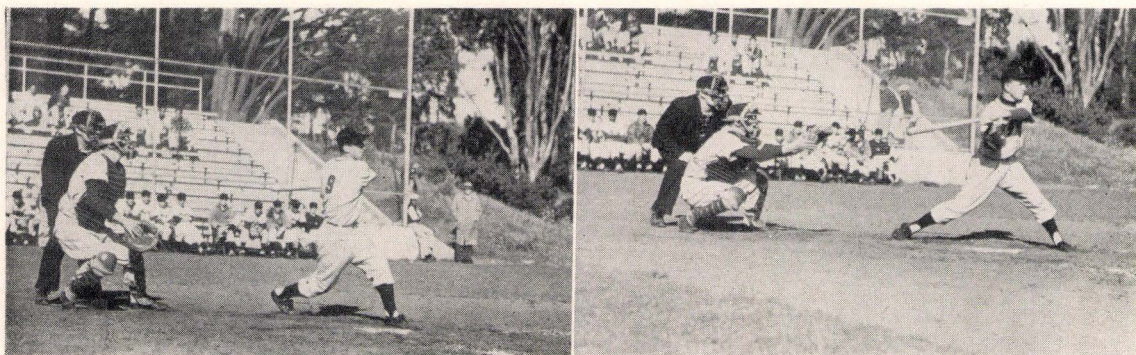

Dick Cox is Poly's other starting pitcher. Cox beat Lowell after relieving Hall in the seventh inning.

During the season two sophomores broke into the line-up. They were Blaire Le Mire and Richard Cutrafelli.

Alternate catcher along with Hall was Ed Burns. He had a fine season with good hitting and catching.

The infield was strongly fortified with Bill Taft at first, Ed Larsen on second, Blaire Le Mire on short and Jim Chipidakis on third.

Outfielders for the team were Phil Sanchez in center, Al Matson in right and Bob Donahoe in left. Al Matson also did some mound work as a relief pitcher.

"Batter Up"

Poly's play-off bound baseball team under the fine direction of Milt Axt has been very successful thus far this season. The team opened the season in real baseball style winning a wild and woolly 12-10 victory over Lincoln after Frank Hall, our usually dependable ace, had a loss of control and almost blew a 10-0 lead. However, Billy Cox came in to put out the fire and get credit for the win. Ed Larson, Bill Taft, and Frank Hall led the batting assault. Poly then turned back Washington 2-0 on a brilliant no hit no run game by Frank Hall. This was by far the best pitched game of the year.

All good things must come to an end and this year was no exception as the Parrots lost a close 5-2 to Balboa, although Frank Hall only allowed two hits. Frank Hall and Billy Cox were the leading hitters. Poly then lost to the great Sacred Heart baseball nine 9-1, as the sensational Ron Shirley allowed only three hits to register his third win. Bill Taft led our futile attempts. Poly then defeated their arch-rivals, Lowell, 8-5, but suffered the loss of Coach Milt Axt when he was struck by a foul ball which hospitalized him. The win brought them very near a play-off spot. A win over Galileo would assure them of this position.

VARSITY TRACK

Polytechnic's 1953 Spring track team brought out many star Cindermen and many candidates for All-City. The varsity speedsters had a new coach, Mr. Steve Ebert, who helped Poly's speedsters place high on the list of great track men.

Our first meet was with Galileo. The Parrots won by a score of  $72\frac{2}{3}$  to  $40\frac{1}{3}$ . Led by a fine start, the Parrots were all keyed up for their bitter rival, Lowell. The meet was nip and tuck all the way until the relay came and Lowell's Dick Bullock fought off Poly's Jim Blore in the anchor lap to give the Indians a  $58\frac{1}{2}$  to  $54\frac{1}{2}$  triumph.

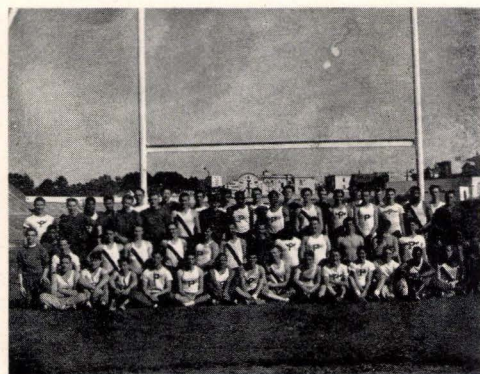

The Lincoln Mustangs were next on our list. Being shaded by Lowell the Poly track men were on the come back trail and beat Lincoln  $85\frac{1}{5}$  to  $27\frac{4}{5}$ .

Our next meet was with Washington and after a week's vacation for Easter, we were defeated by the Eagles  $76\frac{1}{3}$  to  $36\frac{2}{3}$ . Losing to Washington, the Parrots started to work harder and left Balboa in the dust by a score of  $75\frac{2}{3}$  to  $37\frac{1}{3}$ . The meet with St. Ignatius was our final meet before the All-City. The Parrots again starred and trounced the Wildcats. Poly's dashmen, timber-stoppers, distance men and field men then got ready for the climax, the most important part of the track season, the All-City Meet.

VARSIITY TRACK

Poly's fine cindermen opened the 1953 season with a ringing  $70\frac{1}{2}$  to  $42\frac{1}{2}$  victory over Galileo. Best performances were turned in by Gerald James, Melvyn Dowdell, Ralph Furnari, and Sam Fukuda. Poly then lost its first meet in a heartbreaking battle to a fine Lowell squad  $58\frac{1}{2}$  to  $54\frac{1}{2}$ . Mel Dowdell ran one of the best miles of the year, turning the distance in 4:42.9.

Poly then ran into a mighty Washington which has run roughshod over all opposition,  $76\frac{1}{2}$ - $33\frac{1}{2}$ . We bounced back beautifully smoothing a good Balboa team. The team then put on their finest show of the year as they easily whipped Lincoln's bustling track team  $80\frac{1}{2}$  to  $32\frac{1}{2}$ , featuring fine performances by Bill Canihan in the high hurdles, Ralph Furnari in the 880, Gerald James in the shot-put, Sam Fukuda and Rece Jones in the broadjump, and Dick Murphy in the high jump and pole vault.

Poly went on its winning ways again by beating Mission  $78\frac{1}{2}$  to  $34\frac{1}{2}$  as James Blore ran the 440 in 52:6 to equal his season's best. This put the team in undisputed third place in the league standings and gives Poly an excellent chance in the city meet. The Parrots hope to take five firsts in the city meet.

120's and 130's TRACK

Under the outstanding coaching of Coach Walter Lester, the Poly lightweight team has glided through the round robin with ease this season.

Mr. Lester, former track coach of Commerce High School, has well contributed his services to Polytechnic.

It is true that these are only lightweight and not main eventers, but most of these boys will be the varsity track stars of the future. Prospects already have been made for the All City Track Meet.

In the 120 lb. division, the star competitor for the 100 yard dash is Wilfred Collins, a boy that has been up to par this season.

Running the 120 yard low hurdles is John Bonner, rapidly improving his form. Last but not least, sprinting the 220 yard dash is Willie Zenn, setting an outstanding time of 24:2. These boys should bring sure points to their team.

Offering great chances in the City Meet will be the 130 lb. division. Poly has always been well known for its outstanding performances in the past. These 130's have suffered only one loss this season to the mighty Washington Eagles, 50-27.

Running the 100 yard dash is Philip Chan, Bill Orias, and James Burroughs. Philip Chan, former 120's All City track man, is now hitting a time of 10:7.

Entries for the 220 yard dash are James Smith and Ken Richter.

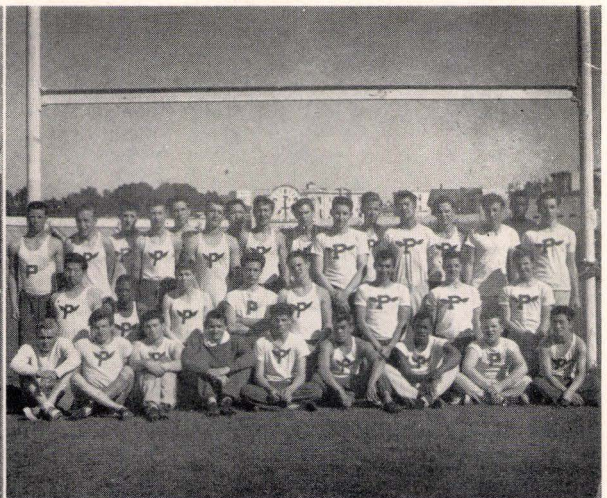

Skimming the 120 low hurdles is George Bushneff and Bob Bleggi. Bushneff, a favorite for All City, is hitting a tremendous time of 14:3, two tenths of a second away from the record. Both these boys are evenly matched.

Other entries are Ron Perry and Stewart Chase in the 440 yard dash, and Brian Wolkin and Lloyd Costello in the 880 yard run.

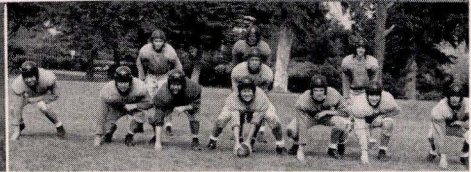

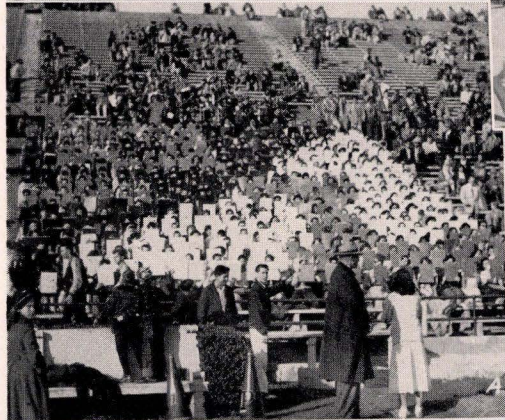

In the field events, Ron Henderson will take the credit in the high jump. Also starring are Nick Camera and Bob Canihan in the shot put.

The 130's best feature is their 880 yard relay team which has come through the season undefeated. The relay team is made up of hard runners consisting of Bob Bleggi, George Bushneff, Philip Chan, and James Burroughs.

Most of these lightweights will be back next year to enhance Poly's 1954 varsity chances.

130's BASKETBALL

Poly vs. S. I.—Our 130's team lost to the Saint Ignatius team who hit everything they shot. The score was 48-43 with the high scorers being Mel Sims and Gino Baldesseri.

Poly vs. S. H.—The 130's looked very good in dumping Sacred Heart by the lopsided score of 55-38.

Poly vs. Balboa—Poly's classy 130's took the Bucs 41-37 despite a bad afternoon.

Poly vs. Mission—Our 130's won a hard-fought thriller in the closing seconds by the high score of 47-46.

Poly vs. Galileo—Our 130's beat Galileo 51-41 using its new team from Marina Junior High, but was forced to forfeit the win.

Poly vs. Lowell—Our regular 130's team beat the Indian Papooses easily, as Baxter poured through 20 points to lead the way.

Poly vs. Lincoln—Our 130's moved a notch closer to a play-off berth by easily dumping Lincoln, 49-32. High point man was L. T. Young with 18 points.

Poly vs. Washington—Poly finished off its regular season in the coldest game of the year as a classy Washington five outclassed us easily. Nick Camera and George Mix played very well and almost got us back into the contest.

Poly vs. Galileo—Because of Mell Sim's absence Poly was eliminated from the playoffs by an inferior Galileo five 55-45. George Mix and Jes Baxter played excellent games.

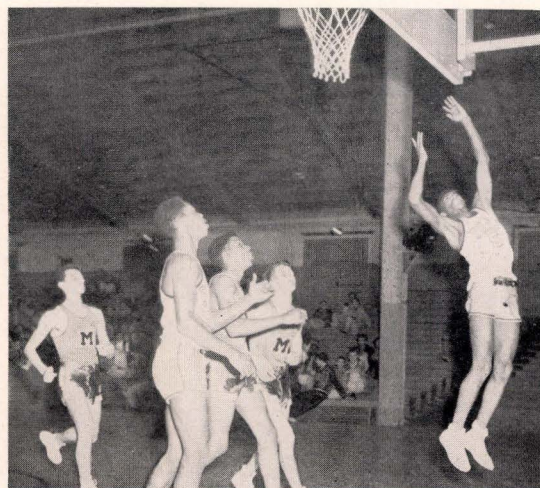

Les Baxter, Forward—Poly's high point getter and only first string candidate for this year's 130 team was versatile Les Baxter, key figure of Poly's high-scoring squad. He was also Poly's finest rebounding ace and ball hawk.

George Mix, Forward—George was unparalleled in the league when it came to heads up play and split second passing. He was also an excellent jump and set shot expert from all around the keyhole.

Mel Sims, Center—Mel proved the most amazing player on the squad by making first string in the first season of basketball he has ever seriously played. His specialty was a deadly jump shot from the post.

Nick Camera, Guard—Nick was the sparkplug and hustle guy of the team, always fighting for loose balls and playing his heart out, win or lose. He also was a fine shot and excellent on rebound.

Gino Balderseri, Guard—Although only playing half of the season, Gino proved to be a vital factor in the team's early season success. He also was a fine defensive man and a consistent shot.

The Polytechnic soccer team took undisputed position of second place. Ben Dominguez, fast powerkicking halfback, and Sam Charles, skilled dribbler and offense man, were placed on the All City soccer eleven and took command of this impressive team. In the Semi-Finals Poly was even with Washington. In the first 15 minutes, Poly scored, and then the Parrot's defense held back the fast charging Eagles, to go on to win 1-0. This game was played in soaking rain and the field was very muddy, the game breath-taking in thrills. In the game for the championship, Poly met the powerful Mission team, and in the second halftime the Bears shot two goals in and went on to win this tough see-saw battle by a close 2-1 margin. Don Revere, second string All-City man, got Poly's lone goal. The Poly Booters were coached by Mr. Edgar Williams.

CROSS COUNTRY

Poly's long-winded endurance men lost the A.A.A. championship cross-country meet for the first time in four years. All of Polytechnic's cross-country champs of last year graduated, and left only two veterans, Ralph Furnari and Jim Blore. The cross-country team started with a completely new roster. Before the All-City meet, Poly's runners were victorious in their practice meets with other high schools. These victories were over Tamalpais, S. S. State, and Balboa.

The five members of the team were: Melvyn Dowdell, Ralph Furnari, Joe Russell, Jim Blore, and John Shankel. In the championship meet, Jim Blore was taken sick at the last minute and James Garcia replaced him.

The meet was held on a marked course in Golden Gate Park, on November 19, 1953, ending with a lap around the old stadium. Melvyn Dowdell, a new runner for Poly fought the gruelling mile and seven eighths with Dennis Laterman of Washington, to take second place. A new record was set by the Washington runner of 9:20 minutes.

Melvyn Dowdell of Poly also broke the record in the good time of 9:30 flat. Ralph Furnari, the captain of the Poly team, turned in a powerful sixth place, with Joe Russell, James Garcia, and John Shankel fighting to keep the Parrot's championship hope alive. The team was also backed up by such outstanding runners as: Bill Harrison, John Potasz, Edgar Ortiz, John Brajkouick, and Roger Lau.

This year's cross-country team was coached by W. C. Lester. Mr. Lester is a new track coach for Poly, and a very good one, well liked by all.

FALL '52 PARROT

Under the direction of the Journal and News teacher, Mr. Douglas Stout, the Parrot staff of the Fall term went to work.

The Editor Bonnie Bottom and the Managing Editor Barbara Birdsall had as their capable assistants Charles Kengla, Advertising Manager; Sports Editor, Stan Fox, and Page Editors, Barbara Birdsall, Sandy Phillips, and Jody Bertken.

Four editions were put out and the ad solicitors who helped finance them were Alex Barron, Gene Ellinger, Stan Fox, Charles Kengla, and Jeff Abitsch. The able reporters who ransacked the halls of Poly for bits of news were Alex Barr, Dan Mitchell, Gordon Burton, Blanche Rios, Lois Spreen, Mary Daley, Janice Stewart, Barbara Peterson, and Louise Bergera.

As the term of Fall '52 was a championship one for the football team, a great deal of the Parrot space was devoted to sports news. However, many other interesting and entertaining stories and columns appeared to make the editions something to look forward to.

Besides the four regular editions, the staff put out editions of the "Bird," a mimeographed paper devoted entirely to sports, and the term play program for "Dear Ruth!"

At the end of the term, Mr. Stout awarded gold cups for excellent work on the paper to Barbara Birdsall and Charles Kengla.

SPRING '53 PARROT

A successfully staged journalism rally produced the publications staffs, boosted sales to enable subscribers to receive five editions of the Parrot.

Toy San Yee ably edited the copy and supervised the work of her page editors, Arlene Winters, Sandra Phillips, Nancy Heywood, and Sports Editor, Stanley Fox.

Gene Ellinger, assisted by Lanny Steinmetz, Al Dominguez, and Verna Pearson, handled the advertising and financial aspects of production. Shirley Heywood kept the exchange files straight.

The Journalism cup awards went to Stanley Fox for superior editing, writing, and supervising of the sports sections of the Parrot and Yearbook.

WE GIVE YOU THE

G. ELLINGER, J. BERTKEN, M. DALEY, R. FURNARI

During the Fall term, the activities of the staff were limited to planning the dummy yearbook, and deciding a theme and dedication for the Spring Journal.

The journalism class consisted of Gail Beach, Tillie Yem, Ralph Furnari, Pat Gray, and Glenn Nance. The Editorial staff consisted of Blanche Rios, Editor; Jodie Bertken, Assistant Editor, and Lois Spreen, Art Editor.

Shortly after the theme was decided upon, the cover was designed, and Jodie and Lois picked the cover material.

Stan Fox soon began the sports copy and Gene Ellinger started lining up advertisers. When the printers began to bid for the job of publishing the yearbook, the various jobs required more effort and concentration. As editor, most of the work fell into the hands of Blanche Rios, who did a very good job of designing the dummy and scheduling the fall pictures.

Shirley Sams, Editor of the Spring Journal 1953, had a capable staff. The Assistant Editor was Bonnie Bottom; Senior Editor, Pat Gray; Sports Editor, Stan Fox, and Assistant Sports Editor, Ralph Furnari.

The Advertising Staff, headed by Gene Ellinger, was composed of Ralph Furnari, Mary Daley, Lanny Steinmetz, Sandy Phillips, Jody Bertken, Al Dominguez and Mike Rios, who spent many afternoons soliciting the merchants for ads.

Handling the business end of the Journal was Lennie O'Donnell aided by Anna Fernandes, and Marilyn Moreno.

All term room E buzzed with activity and the staff worked hard and diligently to put out a good Journal. The Faculty Advisor, Mr. Stout was a big help and guided the staff over the rough spots.

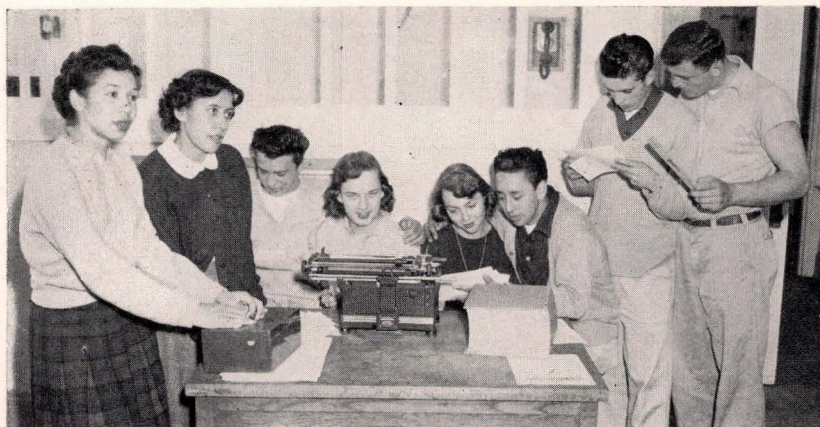

It is the sincere wish of all the members of the staff that you will enjoy your Journal!

The Association of the G.A.A. consists of all the girls who participate in morning, fourth and seventh periods, and after school sports. Any girl who likes sports has a good chance of becoming a member of the G.A.A. Throughout the year these sports are played: volleyball, bowling, swimming, tennis, riflery, badminton, ice skating and basketball. Each term our G.A.A. gets larger.

Each sport has a manager and an assistant manager. These are the girls that make up the G.A.A. Council. The officers for the Spring '53 are President, Ann Fernandes; Vice-President, Toy San Yee; Secretary, Genny Corkus; Treasurer, Rebecca Jenkins.

Just before the end of the term the G.A.A. joins the Block "P" Society to prepare for the sports award rally, which is for the girls of the student body.

The Council decides who should get the awards consisting of cards, pins and stars. Then at the rally Mrs. Alvarado, head of the gym department, and Mrs. Walker, dean of girls, hand out the awards.

BOYS BLOCK "P"

The members of the Boys Block "P" all participate actively in sports in school.

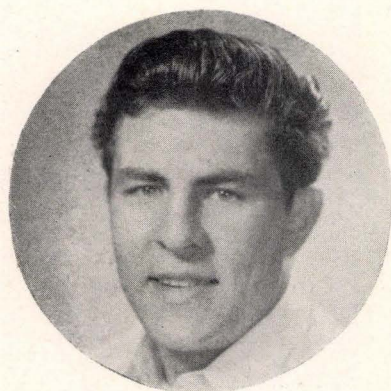

To be a member of this honored society, one must maintain high standards in athletic and scholastic work.

If one receives two D's or one F in any subject he is expelled until the next report or until the grade is brought up.

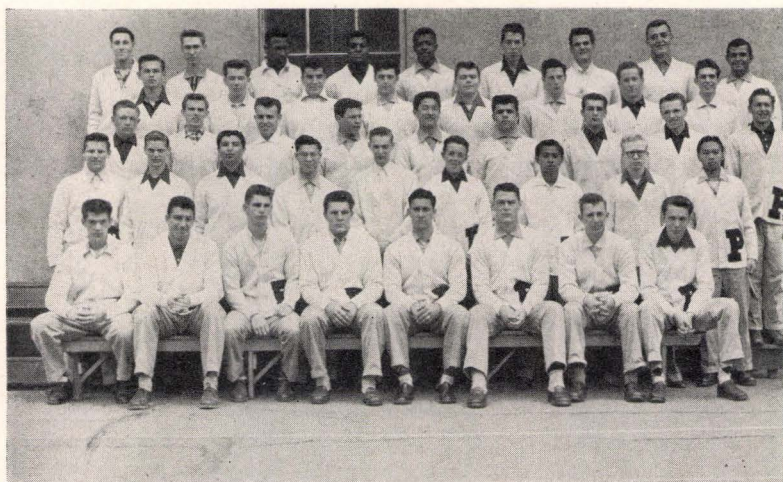

The boys keep order at rallies, usher at football games, basketball games, and track meets.

The Boys Block "P" and Girls Block "P" had a picnic in Golden Gate Park on April 24. The girls brought the lunches. After lunch, games such as volleyball, softball and football were played.

Also, on May 9 the Boys Block "P" combined with the Girls Block "P" to hold a dinner dance at the New Tivoli Restaurant.

C.S.F. FALL '52

The California Scholarship Federation of Polytechnic High School is an honor society to which any student may belong providing his final grades meet the society's requirements. A student is admitted on the basis of having earned ten or more points. Three points are earned for each final "A" grade, excluding gym, and one point is earned for each final "B" grade. One point may be obtained through a service to the school. Any final "C" grade does not earn points, but does not disqualify a student for membership.

This term, as every term, the C.S.F. sponsored the Freshmen Reception, the official welcoming for the freshmen to acquaint them with Polytechnic's administrators and to introduce them to high school life. As usual it was a success, with the freshmen enjoying entertainment from their own class and other classes in the auditorium and then partaking of refreshments in the cafeteria.

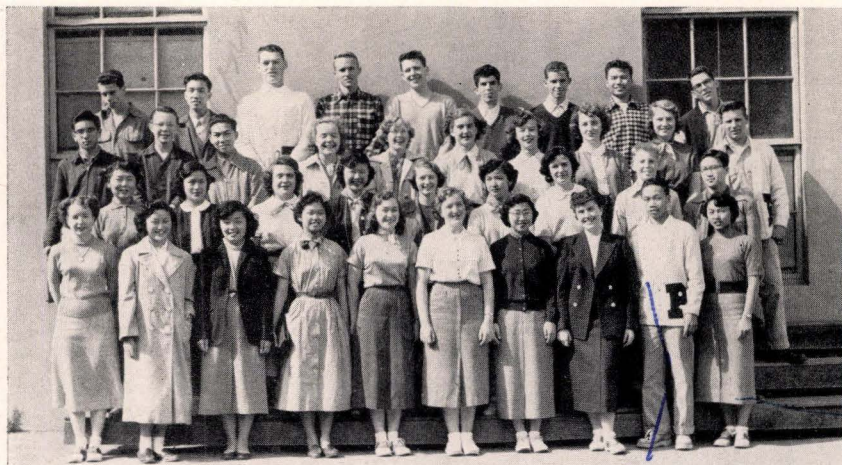

A membership in the C.S.F. will prove valuable to the graduate when applying for a university scholarship and academic honors.

The Polytechnic Chapter, 71 C, of the California Scholarship Federation has had over forty active members in its Spring activities this year. This means that at least forty students in Polytechnic have three or more A finals and one B final on their report card.

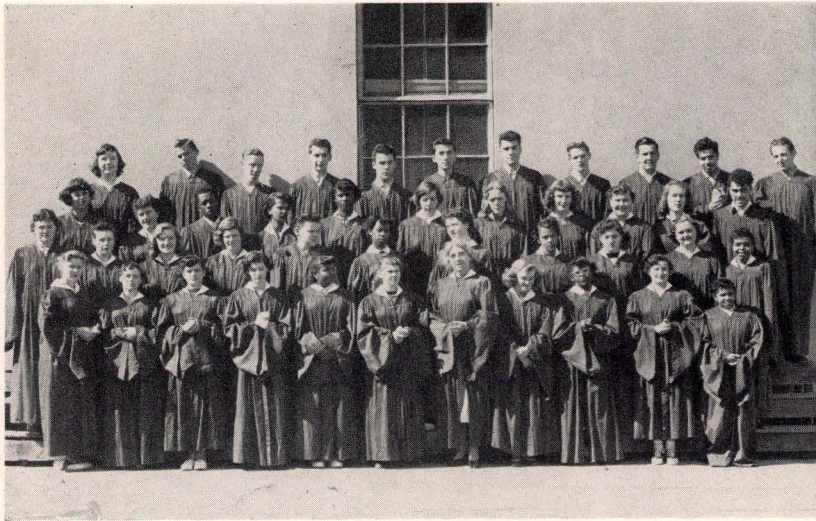

The regular activities consisted of the Freshman Reception, an all day program where the Freshmen were orientated to the school's activities and customs and later were entertained by their own classmates. The high and low seniors active in C.S.F. were honored by being invited to the University of California by the honor society of the university.

The Glee Club's aim is to promote interest in great composers, and in the singers and musicians who present themselves to the public. Miss Alma Rother is the sponsor of the club. Through her many students have received excellent voice training. At Christmas time the Glee Club sang at the Emporium downtown.

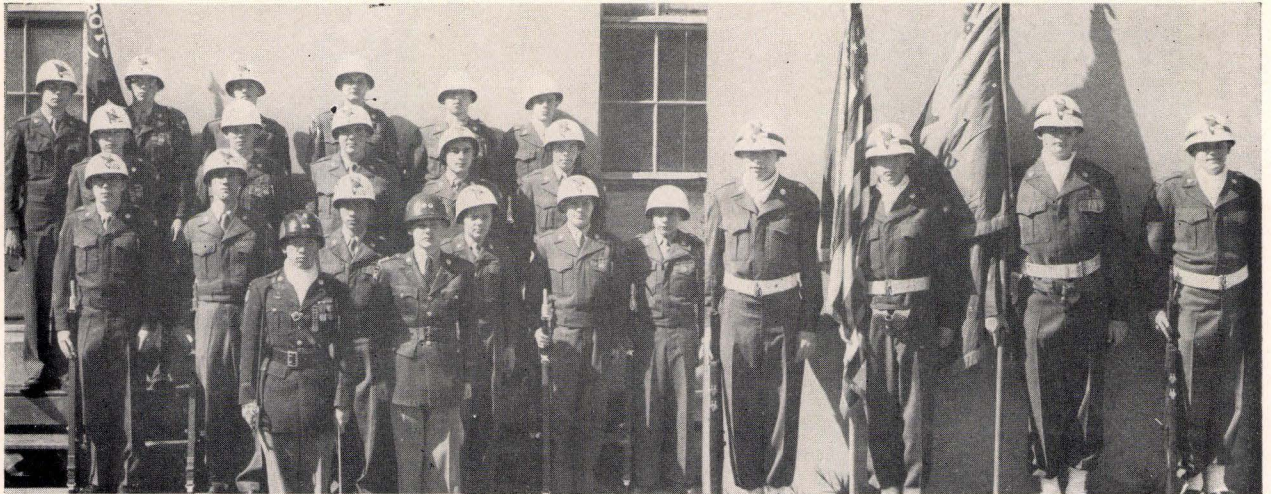

The orchestra, conducted by Mr. Delbert Schneider, is heard at the term play before the curtain rises, and during intermission. They also play at the graduation, where they play the processional and recessional.

The band is also headed by Mr. Schneider. The band plays at the football games, basketball games and participates in the football pageant.

R.O.T.C.

"Men in the making" might well be the title of this story. The aim of the R.O.T.C. is to give the young men of America a sense of responsibility, and make better citizens.

Poly's R.O.T.C. has always ranked first among the high schools in San Francisco. The Poly Battalion for Fall '52 was under the command of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Alison Louie, and under the able direction of Sergeants Newby, Randolph and Hofferber. Competition was held between Companies, platoons, squads and individuals. The winners of each group were presented with medals. Every term a certain day is set aside to pick the best company in the battalion. For Fall '52 it was Company I. The R.O.T.C. held its officers banquet at the Fort Mason Officers Club. It was a great success and will be remembered by the graduating officers for a long time to come.

In Spring, the R.O.T.C. rifle team is perhaps the busiest group of all.

There are two main rifle matches that occur during the Spring semester. The two are Sixth Army and East Bay Intercollegiate matches.

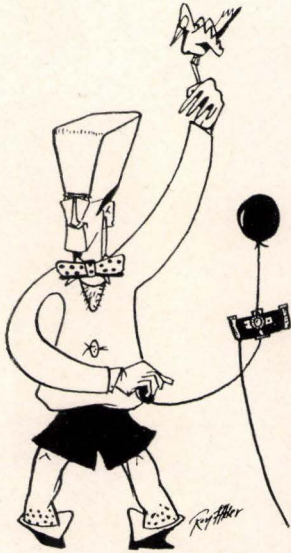

Gerald Lewis was the high individual scorer with 892 out of 1000 in the Sixth Army match.

Sixteen schools took part in the East Bay Intercollegiate Match. Poly was outstanding by taking second place, losing by only two points. Bill Baldwin was high man of the whole match by shooting a 185 score. The match was held at the University of San Francisco on April 18. Sgt. Robert Randolph was coach.

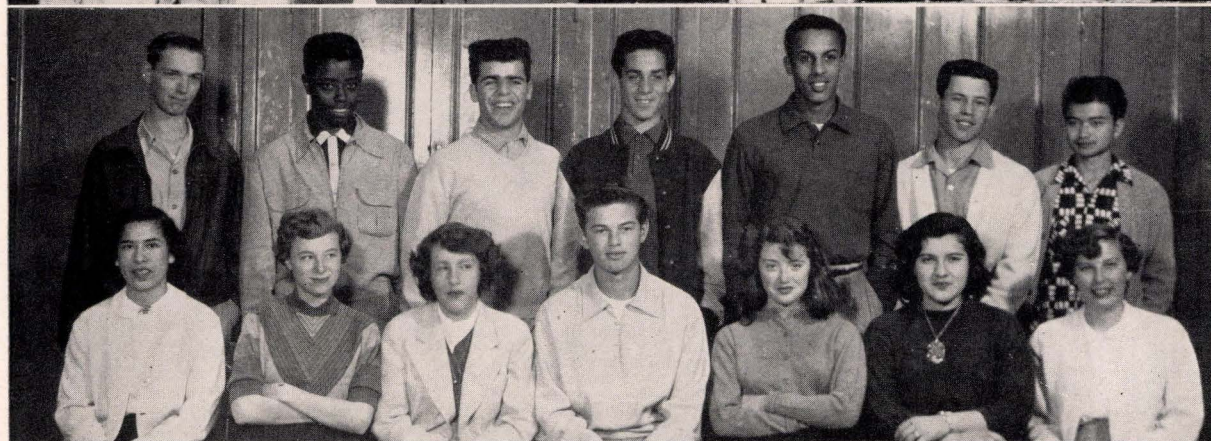

On May 20, the Final Award Ceremonies were held with the trophy going to Company I as outstanding company of the year.

Alison Louie received the S.A.R. medal as the outstanding cadet for three years in the R.O.T.C.

I dear Eda (Zypper)
 Razor-Blade Borrower
 Constant friend,
 Burron Buddy,
 Personal Associate
 and fellow T.C.H.
 I have been signing your journals now for the last five terms and it seems I always have the same things to say. All I now want to say is that you are my closest friend and the only one outside of my sister that I can confide in. We have been through much together, both good and bad. But through it all, we have become closer and closer. All I can say is I hope we shall always remain that way
 and don't forget how close we are sticking to one another. This summer
 remember anything you do, I do and
