

Hi Harry,
You're a real read!
Pat Williams

Hi Peapicker, Hear's hoping we have as much fun in the future as we have had through our school years.
Good years are ahead
I'm sure.

folks back
in Mayberry

Wishing you all the best of luck in your new work and success in all your endeavors.

How can over 3,000 concentrating minds on one concentrated high school campus keep from making Poly a wonderful school? We had experts in all fields of participation and were looked up to as one of the best high schools in Southern California.

Our students concentrated on their CLASSES and many became honor students.

Almost everyone participated in at least one of the wide selection of ACTIVITIES open to us all, and we were proud of the honors poured upon Poly in these fields.

We attracted some of the cream in teaching to our large institution and enjoyed the benefits of a superior FACULTY.

We were widely renowned for our excellent showing in ATHLETICS, in which we won several championships.

All in all we showed ourselves and others what a truly concentrating student body can achieve with a multitude of efforts. So in concentrated form, here is your school, Poly High, reproduced on these pages for you so that you can relive the wonderful school year of 1955-56.

In Memoriam

CHARLES G. BARTO

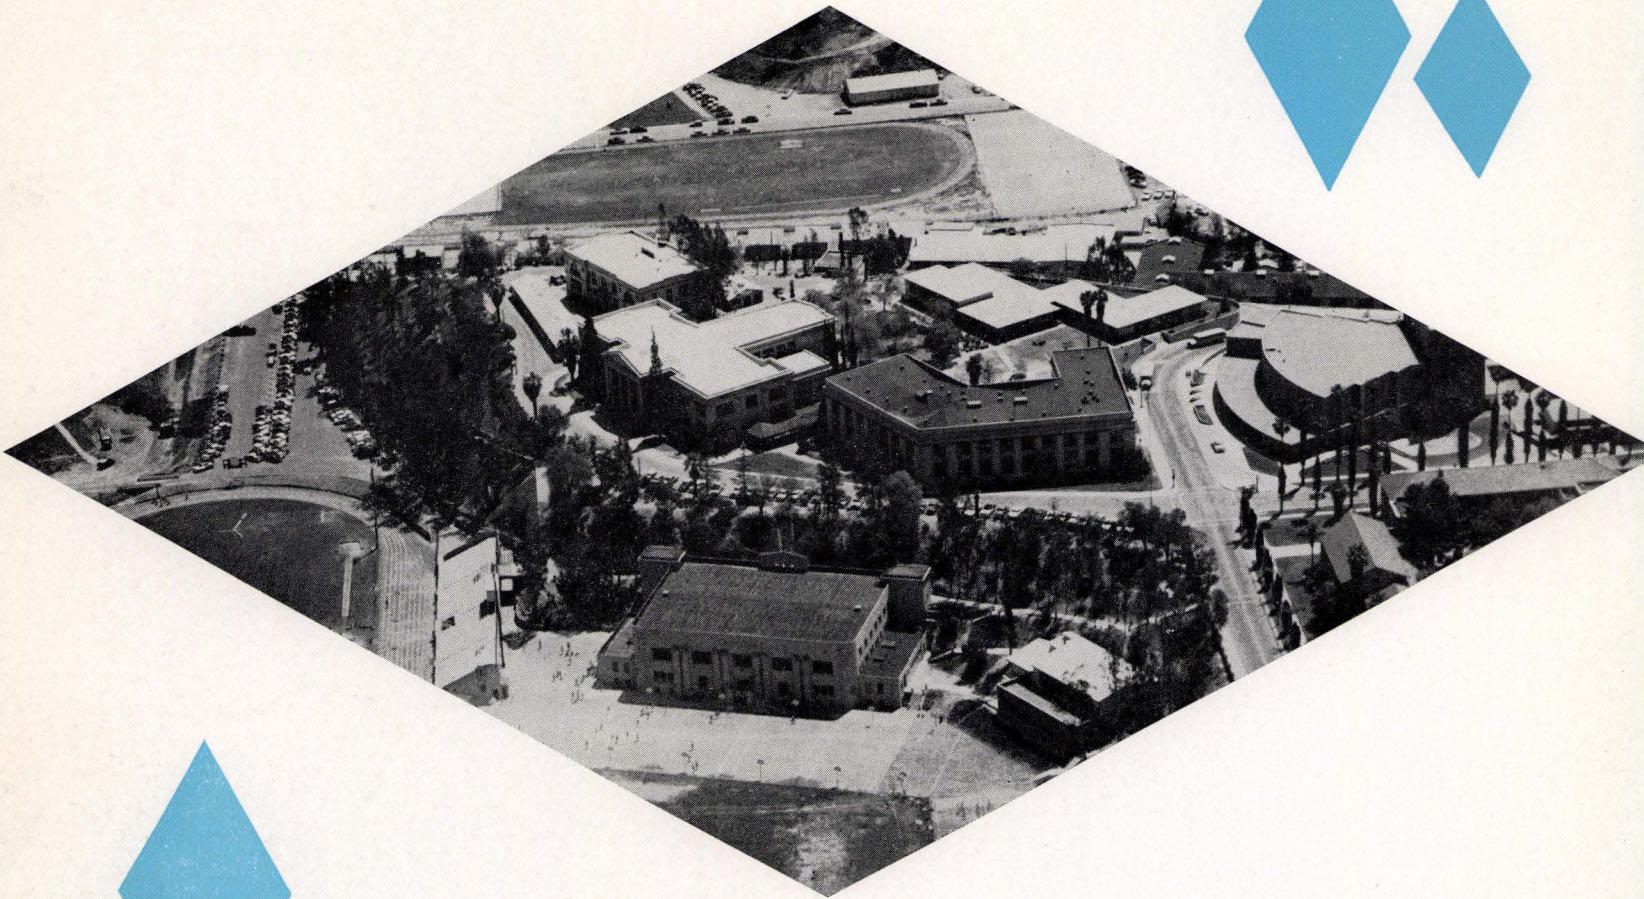

The light flares through the trees of the darkened campus -- a campus on which he spent thirteen years of a life which he dedicated to his family, to his students, and to his many other friends. . . . And now that he has left us, we search for words to speak of him, yet find the words at loss. But here, in part and deeply meant, are our thoughts of him:

My friend before me, in all save breath,
Seems the same as yesterday.
I gaze on him and gently say:
He sleeps; and soon he will arise and take Me by the hand. I know he will awake
And smile on me as he did yesterday;
And he will have some gentle word to say,
Some kindly deed to do; for loving thought
Was warp and woof of which his life was wrought.
He is not dead. Such souls forever live
In boundless measure of the love they give.

Calm Briefly Broods Over the Quiet Campus

And the lazy drone of a bee is heard. . . . But suddenly a bell sounds and, like a volcano on schedule, Poly erupts, spilling students over its hill as dashing lava. Over the northern rim go the athletes for their daily work out. To the southeast rush the car owners to the parking lot. A steady stream of bus riders travels seemingly unceasingly westward to brave the Magnolia traffic. The bee's hum is unnoticed by the laughing, rushing crowd. . . . Yet within a matter of minutes the crisis is over, and only a few fragments remain in the form of committee and club meetings. . . . Poly gradually settles down for the night. Its purpose and spark will return, as always, in the morning.

This Wasn't the

A distant view of a group of buildings scattered over a sunny California hill may appear to be somewhat insignificant. Seldom do many people stop long enough to realize that there are over 3,000 beating hearts and thinking young minds within this seventy acre boundary. Here is the potential machinery to run our future society: a motley group of students, all with ideas, goals, and achievements. Here at Poly is where we grow, where our foundations are formed to prepare for future building in the adult world. Here is Poly, our high school, where we spend three important years of our lives in concentrating on learning, growing, and improving.

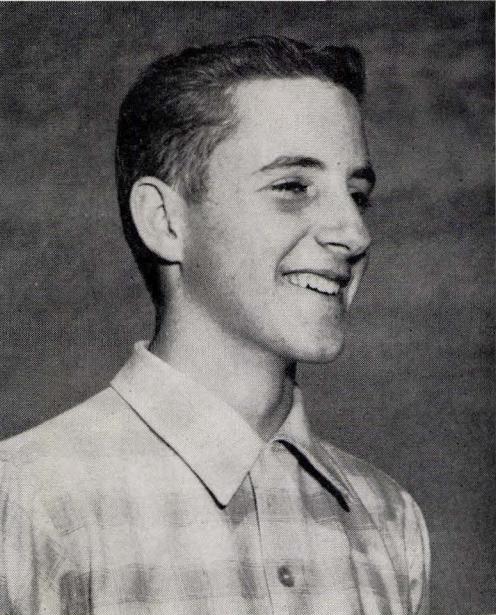

Half of Us . . .

Concentration ... on learning

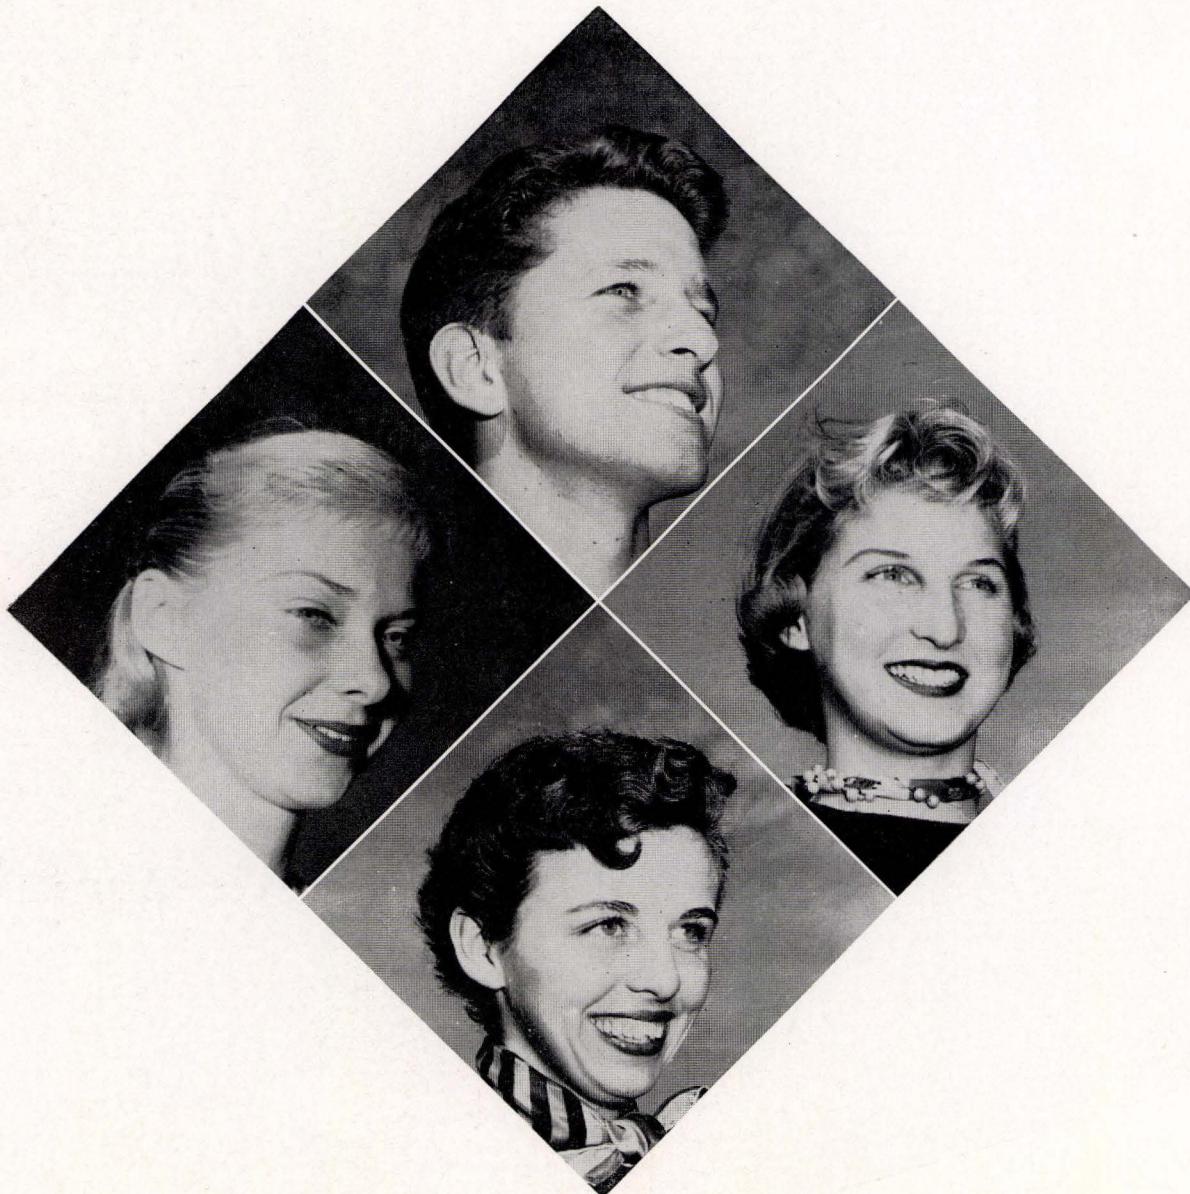

Sophomore Class President BARRY MILLER led the Thoots in securing a permanent and noteworthy place in Poly's history.

New and Eager . . .

True to form, the Sophomores invaded Poly in hordes of undersized bundles of confusion. But they soon learned their way around and were formally received by the upperclassmen when they were subtitled Thoots at the christening assembly. As the year progressed, the Sophs, eager to show that good things come in small packages (small in stature, not number), added their booth to the carnival, and wrote, produced and directed a terrific class assembly, "Sketches in Twentieth Century Entertainment." As the year drew to a close, they tucked their blue and white class sweaters under their arm, and prepared for the jump to the level of Juniors.

Such Were the Sophomores

The lowly Sophomores needed much help in their climb to higher levels. As Sophomore Advisors, Miss Bowers was always prepared to polish the Thoots and boost them up the ladder of success while Mr. Raymer finished off the hopeless cases with one quick blow of the hammer.

Sophomore cheerleaders Shirley Anderson, Janet McVey, and Pat Shelton developed the lung power of the Thoots and cheered the B teams on to victory. (The hose in the background has nothing to do with the idea of dousing their opponents.)

The great day for Sophomores finally arrived, and they were officially welcomed into Poly's midst. The welcoming committee arrived in attire which would have scared any ordinary Sophomore class back into the Junior High schools, but they showed their courageous character by rising to receive the name "Thoots". In case you're wondering, a Thoot is a rare type of Kuckamongan Kiwi going extinct due to excessive kubular koncentration. Get it? Got it! Good! !

John Little, a typical Sophomore student, loaded down with Driver Education and Algebra books, cringes at the sight of a mighty senior coming down the stairs. Not another one! He's seen so many these past few days! But in the true "Hello and Smile Day" fashion, John manages a feeble greeting to this upperclassman. These traditional days at the beginning of the year gave everyone an excuse to get to know each other.

Poly's Seams Bulged With Groping Thoots

The assembly presented by the Sophomore class followed the theme "Sketches in Twentieth Century Entertainment." One of the acts imitated a familiar T.V. show, but the audience got the biggest kick out of the can-can girls.

As president, LEWIS SMITH admirably led the Junior Class through its traditional ordeals of money raising, putting on the Prom, and letting neither the Seniors nor Sophomores squelch them.

The Snarks wasted no time in getting their Junior year underway. "Moods in Music" keynoted their class assembly which was one of their first productions as upper-classmen. Bundling themselves into charcoal and red class sweaters, they set out to push peanuts, popcorn, and hot dogs at the football games. From their play "Out of the Frying Pan," they jumped into activity centered around their cotton-candy and muscle twister booths at the Poly Carnival. The money which they so valiantly braved the crowds to earn went toward presenting the honored and astonished Seniors with the fabulous prom, "Arabian Nights."

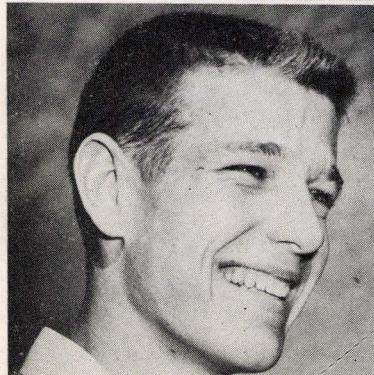

GENE ADAMS filled the gap whenever the Junior Class officers' meetings seemed to lack a president.

Junior Class secretary, JANE HUGHES, attended to those little details that keep things running smoothly.

SANDY BREWER helped keep male opinions from entirely running the Junior Class in her office of Girls' Welfare.

GREG (MIDAS) SUVERKRUP eagerly accepted the responsibility of treasurer of the monstrous Junior Class funds.

MANNIE GRIJALVA knew that the men must be represented, so he took on the duties of Boys' Welfare.

BARBARA LINDGREN smiles bravely through the headaches of the biggest social function of the year, the Junior-Senior prom.

The Junior Class Advisors, Miss Smith, Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Rush, and Mr. Tew were excellent sports, for they energetically dived into all Snirk activities.

Knew Their Way Around

In a scene from the Junior Class play, "Out of the Frying Pan," Leslie Jones holds her breath while Policemen Bruce Burkhart and Ben Robinson notice nothing peculiar about the cat-up-splattered knife.

"I want a coke, three bags of peanuts, two boxes of popcorn, five hotdogs, and a candy bar." The members of the Junior class were kept busy selling food and whatnot during the football games.

The daisy chain was the goal of Junior girls. Chosen on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, and service, they took on all sorts of odd jobs, which they would have normally overlooked, in order to boost the number of their service hours. Early in the season they planted all available acreage with daisies. On the morning of the big day, Pat Preschepo is proudly measuring the height of her plants. Over-anxious Janet Rice has already plucked a few posies from their rightful position while Lorraine Porter, who didn't trust her own green thumb, wonders if there is still time to plant her daisies.

Their long climb had ended. They stood on top surveying the steps of their ascent. As eager, wide-eyed Sophomores they gifted Poly with their presence one warm, sticky day in mid-September. Dubbed "Ergs," which carried with it the unaccredited definition of a group of dehydrated jellyfish who would try and try to gain suction at Poly High, they chose brown and aqua as class colors. They spent the rest of their Sophomore year stocking up energy for the lunge into successful activities as upperclassmen. The next year rolled around, their status changed to Juniors, and their combined talents produced the drama, "On the Night of January Sixteenth," and presented the fabulous prom "Make Believe." Conquering the title of Seniors, the Ergs proved their supremacy by bidding their audience to "Follow the Dream," their class play, spending an evening under oriental skies at their Mid-Winter ball, "Hanako," and masquerading as advertisements on Senior Slop Day.

"Better late than never," sighs Mr. Martin as he beckons entrance to the Senior Class officers who are late in arriving for a meeting. Mr. Hadwiger draws his exciting game of solitaire to an abrupt close, while Mrs. Brauti hurriedly tells Mrs. Roamer the last few details about that dress she saw downtown. These kind and understanding advisors worked with the Ergs in their many activities during their three years at Poly.

At Last They Were Called Seniors, Mightiest

When the Ergs put on the assembly which christened the new sophomore class, they realized what a short time ago it was that they rose to accept their own title. These young-at-heart Ergs include: ROW 1: A. Cattern, C. Kane. ROW 2: S. Sweet, J. Wallace, B. Suchy, D. Jones, R. McCafferty. ROW 3: T. Spears, B. Banks, P. Oglesby, R. Hall, S. Wheeler, J. Hurst. ROW 4: D. Clark, J. Wymer, S. Nesbit.

of All

Baccalaureate and the Senior Banquet "Path of Dreams," added to the traditional graduation activities.

Graduation night came all too quickly. Caps and gowns were fitted, worn, and then packed away to the rental company. Diplomas were hurriedly tucked into dressers or on shelves as the Ergs fled to dance until dawn with Les Brown at the graduation dance, "I've Got the World on a String."

Yes, now they were on top. They had placed their lustrous mark in Poly's history. Concentrating on their move into the future, they went their separate ways, forever bound by the glorious memories of the class of 1956.

The opening of the "Pink Angel" was an exciting event. Among the stars entertaining were Elizabeth Robinson, Dave Clark and Carol (Gertie) Kries, and Bruna Banks. This year's Senior Assembly was said to be one of the best.

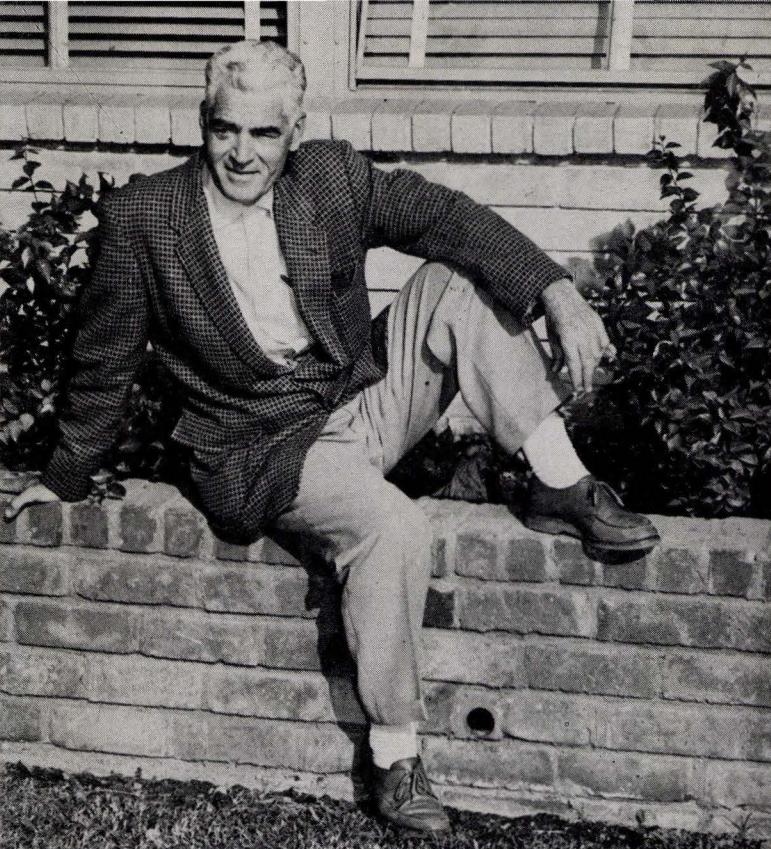

Concentration... on fun

Poly's Welfare Was

The friendly, sincere smile of MR. WILLIAM P. JAMES, Advisor to the Commission, made him one of the best known persons on campus. He placed behind our student government a quiet determination which encouraged us when a problem seemed unconquerable. For his untiring and understanding service to us, the student body, we will always be grateful.

Keeping presentable minutes of the commission meetings was often a hard job, but JUDY HAMPTON, Commissioner of Records, kept their tales readable.

FRANK BEAL, Commissioner of Boys' Welfare, headed the inter-club council and presided over the Bruins, a new boys' service organization.

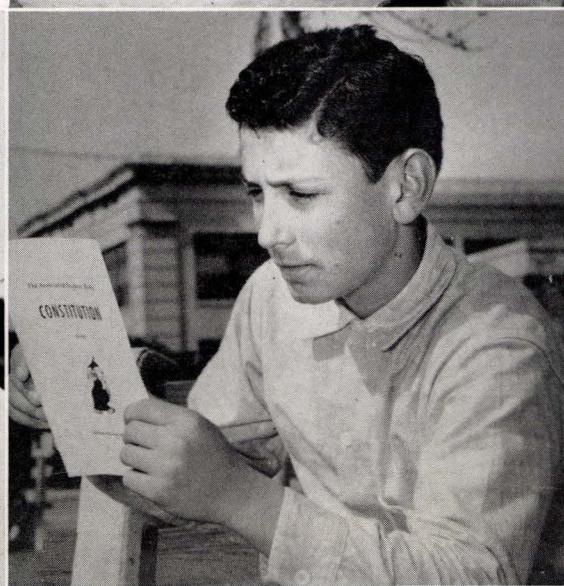

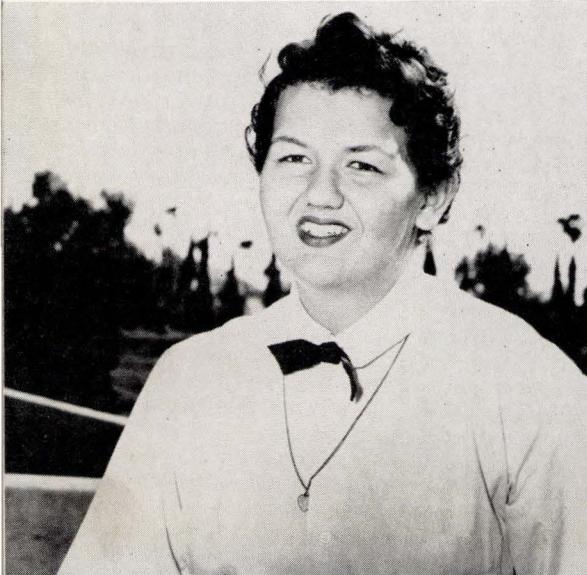

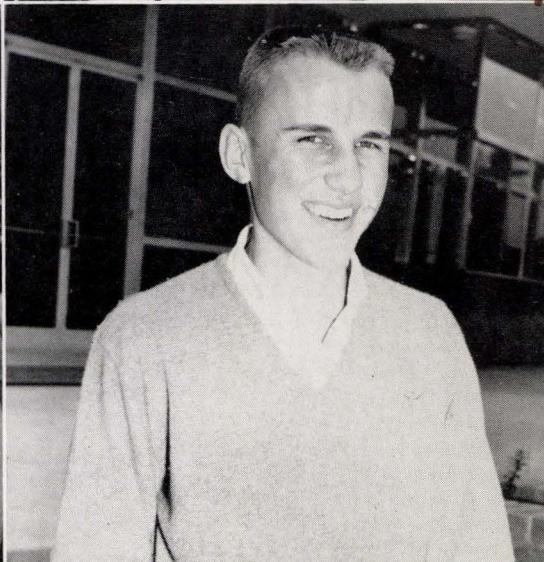

JOYCE RUPEL, Koala Editor, held the position of Commissioner of Literary Activities.

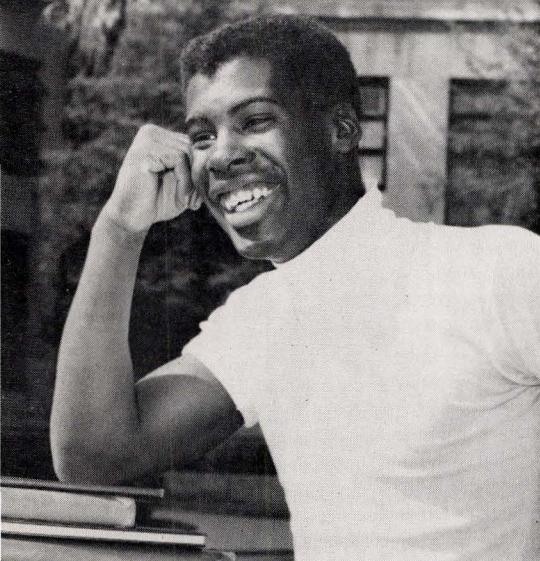

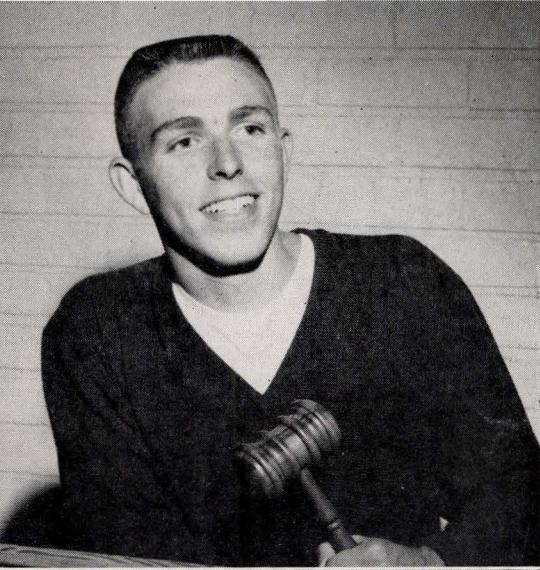

ROD MULLER was happy to keep watch over the A.S.B.'s financial dealings as Commissioner of Finance.

RAY GONZALES voiced the Sophomore's opinions as Sophomore Representative on the commission.

The Commissioner of Current Publications, alias Spotlight Editor, was ELAINE MUIR.

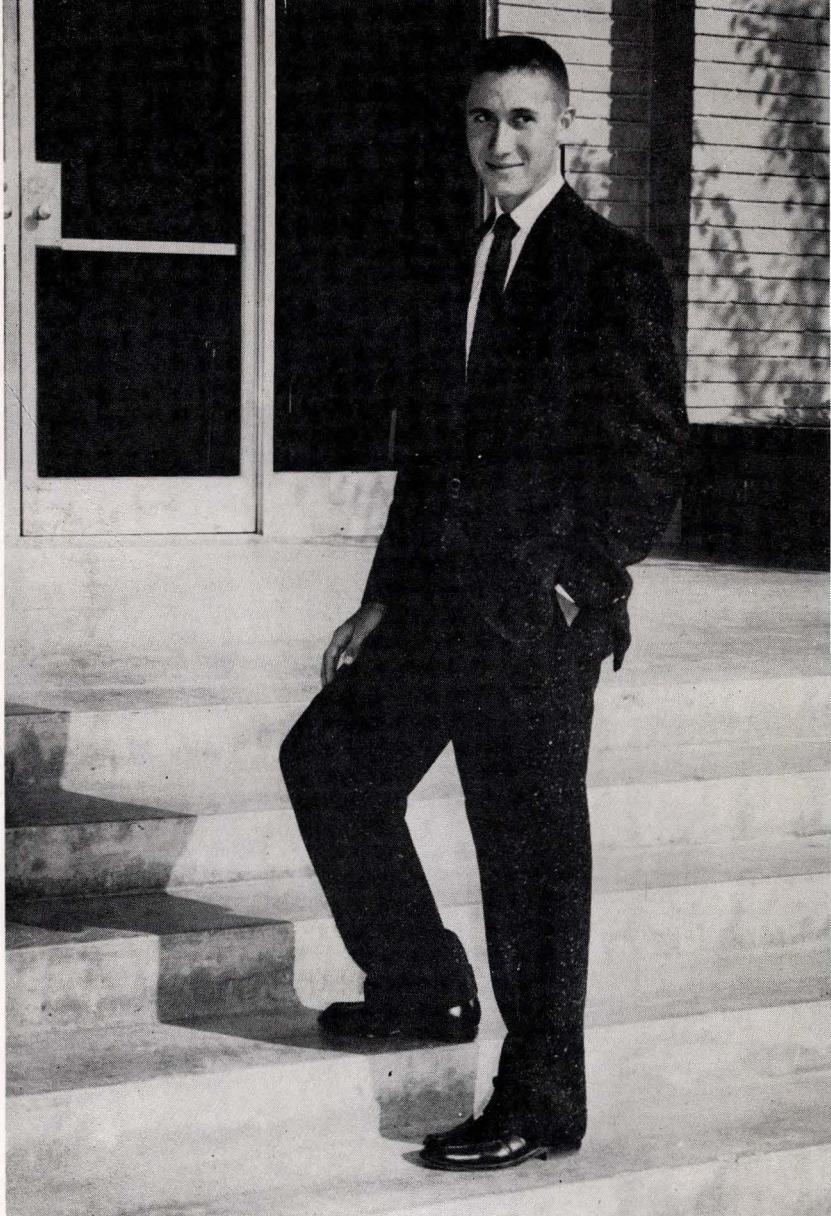

Vice President DAVE DALES ruled the house of advisory with a ready smile and an iron hand.

As Commissioner of Girls' Welfare, MARGIE WAITE struggled long and hard to remind the boys on the commission that a Women's Suffrage Amendment was passed in 1920.

This entertaining character is EDDIE BEREAL, our Commissioner of Entertainment. He entertained us with entertaining assemblies which he planned so well for our entertainment.

The top man on Poly's totem pole was Student Body President BRUCE ALEXANDER. In acquiring the rare talent needed to keep order over Commission meetings, he found that the gavel had more effect if it was held over the Commissioners' heads. Bruce played the role as A.S.B. Prexy with poise and ability as he represented Poly at functions with other schools or in community affairs.

the Commission's Job

Room 218, sixth period Wednesdays, was the scene of much action and deliberation. It was the unsecret meeting place of Poly's Commission, who willingly and ably co-ordinated all student body activities. A good percentage of the noise which floated out of room 218 wasn't always about improvements for Poly. But when there was business to be done, our Commission snapped to attention. During the year they promoted the organization of the Bruins, a service club for Poly boys. They also presented an amendment to the school constitution which would create the office of Commissioner of Publicity. It was favorably passed by the student body. These hard-working individuals took charge of the A.S.B. dance among other social activities, and attended C.B.L. banquets with other high school officers.

The Spotlight

ELAINE MUIR was the proud hard-working, efficient editor of the Spotlight.

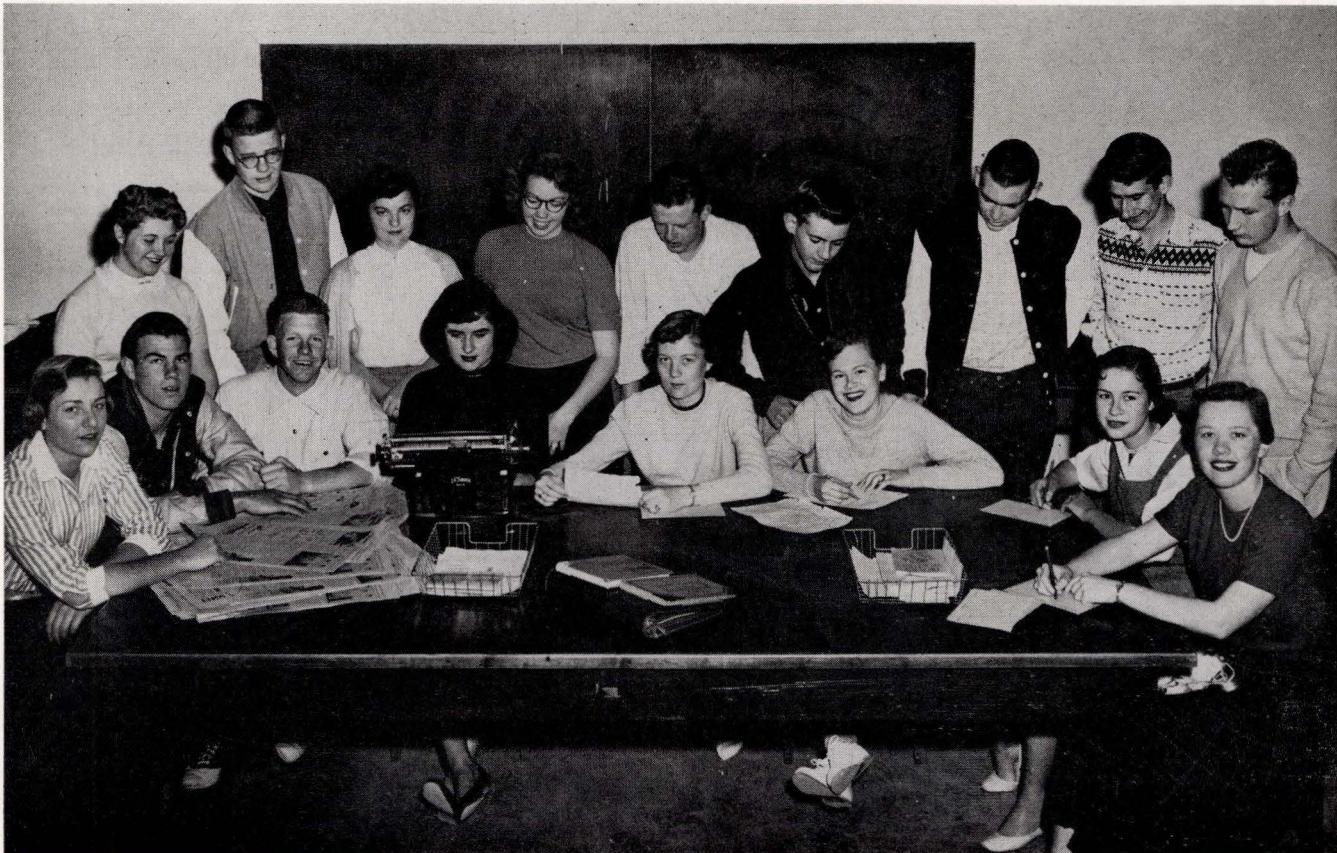

The Spotlight concentrated on keeping the student body up to date and well-informed on all school activities. There was always a race for this unscandalous scandal sheet as it rolled off the press and was distributed every Friday morning. The Spotlight's four pages were filled with enlightening information, thanks to the ardent work of Editor Elaine Muir and her busy staff. The hours of sleep they lost in compiling each new edition, Poly students tripled in enjoyment and gratitude for having the high school newspaper that was rated best in Southern California.

"Type!" orders Business Manager Jan Hurst, as Reporter Margie Medrano settles down for another jag at the familiar machine. Charlene Brague, the other half of the Business Manager team, and Photographic Editor Dale Gurley await their turn.

Margaret Hartman, Circulation Manager, and Feature Editor Ray Smith critically watch the development of Assistant Editor Joanne Munson's feature article.

Passed the Word Along

These two advisors to the Spotlight, Mr. Richard Epp, printing, and Mr. Robert Phillips, journalism, kept the presses running. Without these two experts, the world would indeed have been a bleak place for the Spotlight.

ANN ROSENKRANS, Business Manager, contrived to keep our income one step ahead of our debts.

PAT IVORY, Faculty Editor, always found a way to relieve the pressure when teachers didn't show up to have their picture taken.

Koala Staff Assistants were always burdened with choice jobs such as running all over school trying to identify a picture of a seemingly unknown Poly soul, or typing long lists of names for various purposes. When the going got too rough, they could always turn to the paper cutter. Here Dave Clark gets sideline encouragement from Ron Densmore, Marolyn Curtis, Barbara Olson, Sandy Peck, Mary Jane Walton, Judy Fellwock, and Cammie Brown. Our thanks to these good-natured assistants who smoothed the going when everything threatened to bog down.

MARSHA HAMNER, our Activities Editor, checks to see if the weather will permit picture taking. She never insisted on outside shots unless the temperature was above 0°. We are grateful for her thoughtfulness.

This

The KOALA staff spent many, many fifth periods concentrating physically, if not mentally, in Room 12. We received concentrated dosages on the "how's" and "why's" in "Publications" by our persistent and amenable advisor, Mr. Kelly Adams. His past experience and infinite patience, expressed in mild roars, prodded us along, and finally our KOALA was born. The growing up was painful at times, but as we progressed we were sure of at least a precarious

RON PRESTON demonstrates one of the things he didn't learn as Boys' Sports Editor.

The inimitable MR. KELLY ADAMS, Koala Advisor, playfully threatens to spoil one of the layouts being arranged by our helpful Art Advisor, MR. RALPH C. BUTTERFIELD. But don't be fooled. "There ain't no ink in that bottle." Mr. Adams would be the last person to delay publication; and, confidentially, he didn't feel that jovial by the time this picture became a part of the KOALA.

JOYCE RUPEL was the KOALA'S sparkling Editor. Under her watchful eye, the Koala grew, page by page. To her go the thanks of the whole staff for leading them in bringing to life the KOALA of '56.

Glorified Scrapbook Preserved Poly's Memories

SHARI O'BARR spent her time as Senior Class Editor scheduling and arranging pictures of the graduating seniors. For a whole year she looked at their pictures, one after the other. Now's the chance for you to look at hers.

PHYLLIS MORE, our Sophomore-Junior Class Editor, just can't believe that she'll never have to arrange another English class of Thoots or Snirks for a Koala picture.

survival in one way or another.

We had fun, too, lots of it, but we discovered our young KOALA had a terrific appetite for pictures, engraving proofs, copy, paper clips, and miles of Scotch tape. As our sacred book grew larger each day, it sent us scurrying farther and faster to keep up with its growth.

Now here it is — full grown — and we hope grown full with the highlights of this year's life at Poly.

SUSIE WHEELER came up to bat as Girls' Sports Editor. She proved to be big-league caliber — in editing, that is, not baseball.

Miss Thayer, Dean of Girls, and Margie Waite, President, ably and efficiently guided the Girls' League through a friendly, prosperous year.

Friendship Keyed

The Girls' League is an organization including all of the girls at Poly. These top-notch girls controlled the League's activities. ROW 1: J. Petmecky, 2nd Noon Boardette Chairman; N. Cowan, 1st Noon Boardette Chairman; M. Waite, President; D. Murray, Corresponding Secretary; L. Swain, Jr.-Sr. Hi-Tri President. ROW 2: D. Hamilton, Recording Secretary; C. Phoenix, Sophomore Representative; R. Hall, Senior Sponsor President; L. Inaba, Friendship Chairman; V. Filippi, G.R.A. President; E. Brewer, Projects Chairman; B. Banks, Program Chairman; J. Hurst, Service Club President; J. Cochran, Activities Chairman. ROW 3: B. Diaz, Sophomore Hi-Tri President; J. Gust, Vice-President; M. Hamner, Treasurer. ABSENT: C. Machado, Courtesy Chairman; B. Downs, Publicity Chairman.

Girls' League Activities

One of the activities of the Senior Sponsors' was to present a fashion show for the new girls at Poly. Jeannie Trujillo modeled an outfit for school, complete with apple for the teacher, while Pat Swanson and Judy Fellwock wore date outfits.

The GIRLS' LEAGUE SERVICE CLUB BOARD offered many rewarding projects to girls interested in serving their school and community. ROW 1: S. Hill, M. Medrano, M. Morgan. ROW 2: G. Stacy, M. Kustner, J. Hurst, Miss McKeever, advisor; C. Brague. ROW 3: B. Bennet, A. Rosenkrans, J. Fellwock, B. Stewart, A. Howell.

Hi-Tri Linked

Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 8, the Y.W.C.A. buzzed with female chatter as members poured in for their weekly Hi-Tri meeting. Fashion shows, talks, and talent shows made general meetings interesting. Hi-Tri staged a Mother-Daughter Fashion Show and Tea, and took Dad out to the Dad-Daughter Banquet. Projects for the Y.W.C.A., the Deaf School, and other local organizations made Hi-Tri girls an important part of community service.

"Saturday night I'm going to the show, and then on Tuesday there's a Hi-Tri meeting." Sharon Kitchen shows Judy Gust how she keeps track of all her dates and appointments in the handy Y.W.C.A. datebook. Selling these books was one of the projects sponsored by Hi-Tri.

School and Community

The concentrated social efforts of both Hi-Tri clubs resulted in three yearly dances for members and their favorite fellows.

Sandy Brewer, Dave Dales, Lynne Swain, and camera-shy Ron Preston take time out for a little kickapoo juice from the punch bowl. (At least that's what Ron said it was!)

See anyone you know?

Hi-Tri's dances were always well planned by the social committee. A few of the more dedicated members are J. Trujillo, D. Rhodes, B. Olson, chairman; B. Filut, and C. Bauer.

Besides the many outstanding honors that she won in C.B.L. contests, DIANE KLOBUCHER placed first in the State at the Santa Barbara festival, and first in the Southern California Forensic League tournament at Occidental. These two "firsts" qualified Diane for the National contest which will take place in Oklahoma. We congratulate you, Diane, for the fine work you have done, and for the honor which you have brought to Poly.

Poly's branch of the NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE was named the leading chapter in Southern California. The members, whose interest in public speaking gained this honor, are: ROW 1: G. Stacy, B. Thornton, D. Klobucher, R. Lussier, L. Wilson. ROW 2: S. Hill, D. Murray, M. Waite, C. Ortiz, J. Bystrom, C. Maxon, S. Woodward. ROW 3: E. Folmar, A. Howell, L. Ernst, A. Cattern, C. Brush, D. Armsdon, M. Klobucher. ROW 4: A. Lackey, G. Gudmondson, F. Clemente, R. Buehner, J. Scheer, R. Hertford. ROW 5: D. Clark, E. Curtis, Mr. Kutch, J. Pearson, D. McNairy.

We Talked and Talked . . .

After debating for quite a while, Poly's DEBATERS talked themselves into the title of C.B.L. Champs. ROW 1: A. Cattern, E. Folmar, G. Stacy, S. Hill. ROW 2: A. Howell, C. Ortiz, D. Klobucher, J. Bystrom. ROW 3: V. Jensen, L. Ernst, C. Maxon, C. Brush, D. Armsdon. ROW 4: D. Clark, G. Gudmondson, R. Buehner, F. Clemente. ROW 5: R. Hertford, A. Lackey, J. Scheer, and Mr. Kutch.

Outstanding speech students who had the honor of winning in the American Legion contest, the Lion's Club contest, and the Voice of Democracy contest belonged to the ORATORS. ROW 1: M. Waite, C. Ortiz, J. Bystrom, C. Maxon. ROW 2: M. Klobucher, L. Ernst, L. Wilson, D. Klobucher. ROW 3: D. Clark, R. Hertford, R. Buehner, J. Pearson.

Poly's "bookies" bent over the forms which resulted in many excellent reports at grade time and a CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION membership. ROW 1: N. Kegg, N. Hodson, L. Scott, H. Robinson, S. Brewer, M. Jeppson, V. Bird, C. Niernport, J. Parliament, C. McLeod. ROW 2: K. Spriggs, B. Williams, J. Graumann, B. Buehner, V. Bridges, S. Nichols, V. DeLorenzo, B. Humphrey, B. Chipman. ROW 3: S. Snyder, M. Taylor, L. Yeager, J. Williams, S. Johnston, J. Gust, L. Ernst, C. Brush, L. Repp, B. Lindgren. ROW 4: S. Brandfield, J. Glasgow, J. Anthes, R. Carnahan, J. Early, S. Carter, J. Robertson, P. Preschepo, G. Mothersbaugh. ROW 5: S. Hatton, K. Kerdraon, M. Granger, C. Bohannon, M. Sharp, M. Davis, J. Lacy, M. Munson. ROW 6: L. Jones, K. Bell, R. Prater, J. Osten, E. McChesney, A. Doherty, B. Miller, R. Folmar, T. Conn. ROW 7: T. A. Smith, A. Quick, C. Zeman, D. Calkins, D. Adams, D. Dutton. ROW 8: J. Platt, S. Patterson, S. Miller, R. Dawson, G. Gates, W. Curl. ROW 9: G. Gutermuth, J. Miller, R. Barany, D. Massingale, J. Little, F. Fakundiny, V. Geluso. ROW 10: D. Hyde, R. Needham, W. Straka, M. Hogan, G. Craig, F. Host, J. Chamberlain, B. Snyder, D. Holmes, E. Johnson, R. Flamboe, W. Hogan.

We Concentrated, Too

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION ANNEX. ROW 1: L. Swain, S. Hill, D. Kraemer, C. Henson, J. Wallace, N. Sides, A. Rosenkrans, A. Howell. ROW 2: M. Rendell, M. Waite, J. Rupel, K. Blair, D. Frazier, A. Dibler, K. Morrison, L. Mahlmann. ROW 3: D. Elliott, M. Richardson, F. Hartje, S. Nickles, N. Clifton, C. Dean, S. McMahon, N. Cowan, D. Murray. ROW 4: N. Duran, F. Nickerson, T. Spencer, E. Robinson, A. Lackey, J. Parsons, D. Dales, H. Rahmalow. ROW 5: B. Williams, J. Harris, S. Jones, L. Smith, S. Hansen, B. Diaz, C. Grant, B. Carver, F. Beal, B. Heeres. ROW 6: C. Jones, K. Boyd, C. Fuglie, R. Muller, W. Blakely, G. Elser. ROW 9: R. Rudy, J. Chamberlain, J. Lowell, B. Thomas, D. Thibault, L. Williams.

The NOBLES HI-Y kept the Poly Carnival supplied with hot-dogs. ROW 1: G. Taylor, B. Morgan, D. Strawn, A. Brown, C. Watson, T. Conn, D. Derricott. ROW 2: J. Merrill, G. Adams, K. Mueller, W. Fulmor, G. Suverkrup, L. Smith, R. Muller, S. Jensen, R. Stalder, G. Adams. Absent: G. Zikratch.

The TURKS HI-Y wisely spent their fortunes on CARE packages and on food baskets for needy families on Thanksgiving Day. ROW 1: M. Miller, J. Curtis. ROW 2: C. Dole, L. Perrin, J. Bevaqua, L. Stalions, B. Pratt, C. Ponder, R. Hines.

A Night Out With the Fellows

The LANCERS HI-Y devoted their energy and talents to staging a magazine drive for the hospitals. ROW 1: T. Waite, B. Miller, B. Boynton, T. Sirks, B. Snyder, C. Otto. ROW 2: L. McAnally, L. Jung, G. Mazzacane, M. Kelley, E. Ebel.

This energetic group of he-men were the proud owners of a LETTERMEN'S CLUB membership. ROW 1: O. Pertel, M. Kauffman, E. Royer, R. Muller, R. Smith, D. Seidl, J. Sanchez, C. Stringham, S. Pentoney. ROW 2: P. Oglesby, R. Marin, P. Anderson, A. Brown, C. Atkinson, D. Farley, G. Taylor, A. Dukes, B. Lantz, R. McHenry, B. Cartmill, G. Adams. ROW 3: D. Hogan, D. McCune, B. John, J. Hucklebridge, G. Willcut, J. Shaw, B. Terrill, G. Barnicoat, E. Nichols, V. Abubo, N. Gritton, J. Anderson, P. Totten. ROW 4: D. Price, I. Duran, H. Hartley, M. Grijalva, G. Adams, C. Chapman, B. Morgan, L. Boddy, T. Chatham, D. Croke, B. Grover, A. Gilmore, B. Branden. ROW 5: E. Woodward, C. Kane, J. Gove, D. Stalder, D. Kelly, B. Schrader, J. Merrill, T. Tebelskis.

Became a Familiar Phrase

When they ran out of keys to polish, the KEY CLUB, alias Junior Kiwanians, aided in city beautification by planting ornamental strawberries at the bases of trees along Main Street. ROW 1: D. Gorman, K. Chitwood, B. Early, J. Curci, D. Hammett, A. Lackey, B. Carver, D. Jones, F. Chapman, B. Rainwater. ROW 2: Mr. H. Smith, T. Morgan, B. Owen, F. Hill, D. McNairy, B. Young, M. Lazarus, J. Munson, C. Kane.

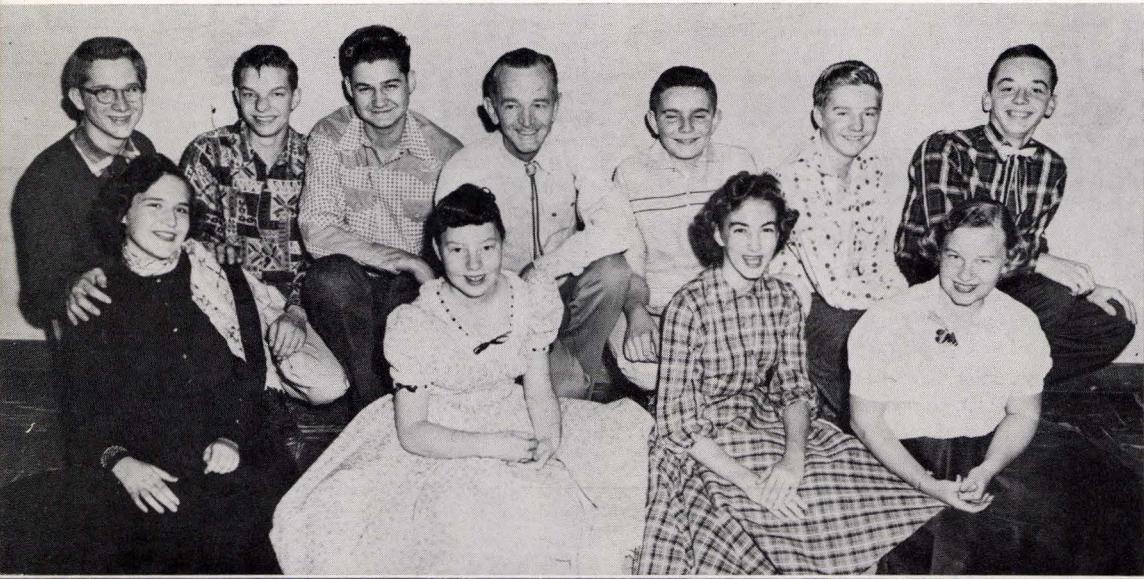

School events were officially publicized and boosted by the POLY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. ROW 1: Mrs. Rooney, J. Johnson, R. Diehl, B. Warren, J. Reddish, E. Chavez, L. Pearce, M. Baran. ROW 2: P. Condon, M. Ramek, A. Torchia, V. Lathrop, M. McCarthy, C. Jones. ROW 3: W. Nunnery, L. Rutledge.

From Twisting Wires

Around and around and around and around went the members of the SHIRTS AND SKIRTS, Poly's square dance club. ROW 1: M. Phillips, D. Stephenson, N. Grant, C. Townsend. ROW 2: F. Host, P. Osborn, E. Marshall, Mr. D. Titus, W. Moberly, E. Marshall, H. Walters.

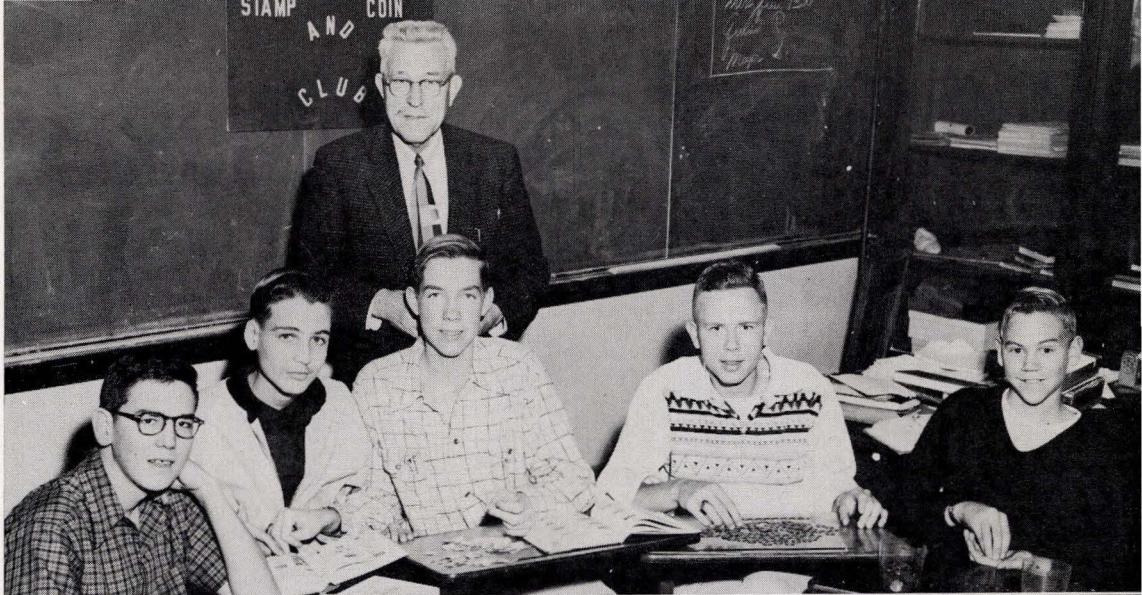

Our future Einsteins found refuge in the SCIENCE CLUB. ROW 1: Mr. F. Lowe, J. Little, D. MacDonald, R. Bowman, C. Davis, W. C. Straka, B. Fahrnbruch, C. Crouch.

The AMATEUR RADIO CLUB members claim that they are assembled to hear a special broadcast from Mars. That's how they explain static when the set won't work. ROW 1: D. Morris, B. Jacks, M. Quass, I. Rogers, T. Bridges, E. Oana. ROW 2: Mr. R. T. Dixon, F. Briant, G. Haugen, J. Henderson.

The STAMP AND COIN CLUB built up a treasury of Indian head pennies and Israeli stamps. R. Hargreaves, R. Harner, Mr. Deeter, J. Ogren, T. Taylor, W. Van Vorst.

These nonconforming individuals added to the variety of life at Poly. They belonged to the BOHEMIANS. ROW 1: E. Bereal. ROW 2: D. Clark, F. Hill, J. Wallace, J. Swanson, B. Banks, B. Owen, D. Hamilton.

to Licking Stamps

Poly's chapter of the FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA displayed their projects at their own fair besides carrying on many other activities. ROW 1: R. Mueller, J. Watje, J. Skates. ROW 2: S. Beals, M. Carnahan, D. Harney, L. Kay, D. Dunham, J. Stone, L. Kopp, Mr. Seigworth. ROW 3: J. Knight, J. Williams, E. Butcher, F. Jauregui, D. Fick, R. Stephenson, B. Carroll.

The CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP CLUB concentrated their efforts upon presenting morning services at school during Easter week.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, FIRST NOON—

ROW 1: J. Wisner, B. Crist, B. Webble, S. Norman, L. Beistle. ROW 2: M. Raby, I. Miller, B. Gates, J. Anderson, B. Burkholder, S. Nichols. ROW 3: F. Hays, L. Mayhaugh, Mr. Bigbee, P. Morris, N. Miller, D. Mott, D. McKee, C. Cotler, J. Lacy, H. Walters.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP, SECOND NOON—

ROW 1: H. Link, S. McConnell, B. Crandall, J. Haviland, C. Ashley, S. Raby, M. McCarthy, J. Reddish. ROW 2: R. Steves, J. Paulson, R. Sands, B. Stephenson, D. Armsdon, G. Ashley, M. Perkins, R. Thompson. ROW 3: W. Lemons, C. Westover, J. Ogren, J. Ore, P. Osborn, H. Huff, L. Montgomery, D. Aiken, B. Beatty, Mr. Art Smith.

We Concentrated on Them All,

The LOS OSITOS members learned more about Spanish culture besides winning first prize in the Poly Carnival. ROW 1: M. Clark, C. Van Demon, L. Eocheron, P. Lingo, P. Bevens. ROW 2: Mr. D. Martinez, J. Rupel, S. Smith, S. O'Barr, M. Rendell, Mr. A. Oosterveen. ROW 3: T. Stevens, J. Stickel, J. Barnat, J. Sher, W. Lingo, C. Mills.

Poly's student body was full of many aspiring hams as was proved by the excellent A.S.B. play, "Liliom." The actors completely captivated the audience, and future years may prove that on this night a "star was born." Cast members, ROW 1: E. Robinson, S. Riley, J. Burns, J. Platt, J. Glasgow, B. Nestor. ROW 2: P. Semrau, L. Matteson, G. Akin, D. Jones, S. Meyer, L. Jones, M. Allen, B. Tedesco, R. Dawson, N. Shag, J. Mayfield, B. Suchy. ROW 3: P. Williams, F. Shackleford, L. Daugherty, M. Baker.

"Get out of here or I'll sock you," yells Liliom (Bud Tedesco) to Mrs. Muscatt (Sharon Riley) who has just fired him from his job as barker on her carousel. Marie (Sandy Meyer) and Julie (Leslie Jones) admire their young hero's courage.

But where's the groom? Altar bound Mary Alice Baker and bridesmaids H. Cadd, P. Bonita, S. Meyers, J. Condon, P. Williams, and B. Hibbard practice for the big moment.

Bill "Lover" Suchy prefers to make love the hard way by hanging on a window sill two floors up. (These stage sets really fool you, don't they?) Nevertheless, Mary Alice Baker is quite entranced with his ape-man tactics.

Bill Gruenberg wonders what this strange boy (Kent Seavey) is doing in his daughter's (Elsa Brewer) apartment. Janice Platt (C) and Carol Brush (R) try to cover up the fact that he lives there, too.

When they hear of the arrival in New York of Elsa Brewer's father, the male population of the apartment prepare to hide. Jay Treadway and Bill Heeres try the trunk for size, as Carol Brush, Janice Platt, and Elsa Brewer beg them to hurry.

In a sudden burst of energy caused by the appearance of the landlady, Janice Morris, Jay Treadway and Bill Heeres pretend to be fixing the heater. Actually, they were caught in the act of giving the producer in the room below, a steam-pipe version of their dramatic talents.

"Out of the Frying Pan"

The Juniors added another success to their list with the production of the terrific class play, "Out of the Frying Pan." Cast members who made the big jump are: ROW 1: Lyle Welsh, Jay Treadway, Elsa Brewer, Bill Gruenberg, Janice Morris. ROW 2: Bruce Burkhardt, Ben Robinson, Janice Platt, Kent Seavey, Bill Heeres, Carol Brush, Leslie Jones.

They Concentrated on Notes and

One of the best groups and most certainly the biggest representative of Poly High was our ever-faithful band. In their handsome new uniforms, they paraded in precision during football game halftimes, and received the honor of marching in the Tournament of Roses Parade. Our music makers gave concerts for the P.T.A. and presented a well-received assembly for Polyites. They played at Disneyland, in the Sheriff's Posse Parade, at the Los Angeles County Fair, in the Elks' Concert, at the City Employee's Awards Night, and found time to stage their Annual Spring Concert. They were repaid in full for their diligent hours of practice by receiving the highest superior rating possible at the Southern California Band and Orchestra Festival.

Our band kept in harmony and tempo with high marching steps. Whether on home-town Main Street or in the famous Rose Parade, Poly's Band was impressive.

Poly's Orchestra was always on hand to add immeasurably to school productions. Besides presenting an assembly to the student body, they performed during intermissions at the Junior class, Senior class, and A.S.B. plays. Their traditional Christmas Concert was followed by the All-City Instrumental Concert and the Band-Orchestra Spring Concert. Baccalaureate was the last time the Seniors could enjoy the familiar orchestral strains. All in all, we thought our orchestra tops, and we were right; for they were rated superior by professional judges in the regional contest.

PERCUSSION: C. Bradshaw, D. Echols, W. Valdez.

Eddie Bereal proved to be quite a stage personality as he MC'd our assemblies.

Without the work of the stage crew our assemblies would have been completely in the dark. Members of the stage crew are: R. Duncan, G. Vick, M. Kauffman, V. Bruno, R. O'Malley, L. Bates, P. Anderson, A. Bonilla, B. Tedesco, B. Suchy, D. Pepper.

The Junior College assembly showed us new advances.

New Auditorium Plus

We were always happy to watch Carol Fireman dance.

Our assemblies occasionally diverted to the hills for such songs as N. Grant and C. Stump pantomimed in the Junior Class Assembly.

New Assemblies Equaled Harmony

The Choir presented a program of American folk songs complete with action. Here, Pa (Nita Sides) and Ma (Margaret Bailey) remember 'way back when Clementine (R. Hemstra) "shooed the ducklings."

The Seniors danced up an Oriental atmosphere centered around the theme "Hanako". At their Mid-Winter Ball, beautiful decorations, good music, and lots of happy people combined to make the evening one of the most successful of the year.

We Danced From "Occupied" Japan

Big brass and little brass donned their best military garb and manners and attended the Military Ball and Reception. Lt. Colonel Don McLeod wonders if that extra piece of cake is for him, while Joyce McPhail and Dorothy Kramer await their turn in line.

Go ahead and dance, buddy . . . We're just looking around!

to the Land of the Genie's Lamp

With one touch on the magic lamp, the good Genie appeared and granted our wish. We were whisked off on a flying carpet to enchanting Arabia, created especially for the guests of the Junior-Senior Prom. If some of the happy people seem to be dancing on air, it is not surprising at such a fairy-like event. Jean Butcher, Don Hammett, Margie Waite, Lewis Smith, Chuck Marshall, and Dody Murray find it's fun to adapt themselves to the "Arabian Nights."

QUEEN JOYCE McPHAIL ruled over our championship football team's Homecoming celebration.

Poly Had Its Share

Homecoming princesses Shari St. Clair, Sharon Smith, Margie Medrano, Sue Donaldson, Noma Cowan, and Jill Swanson proved that the football players occasionally let their thoughts wander to formations other than football.

Under the spell of "Moonlight Magic" we danced the night away at the Associated Student Body dance. Pat Ivory and Arlen Lackey exchanged the lucky ticket numbers for a scepter and crown, and were enthroned as monarchs of the gala affair.

of Royalty

Picture on right page. Sponge Weekend was a favorite, especially with the fellows, for they could legally watch the gals pay all the bills. Right in the swing of this activity: Ann Cattern calls for Clark Stringham in her car; drives him to a dance (notice: the girls do not have to lead on the dance floor); and takes him home-ward, arriving a good five minutes before his curfew.

It was a happy moment for Seniors Ray Smith and Pat Henderson as they were declared king and queen of the Poly Carnival, "Rages of the Ages."

"Rages of the Ages" Were

The Los Ositos staged a thriving business with "Loteria." Mr. Martinez holds the winning card for two Poly students while A. Leon shows Junior how the game is played. This club won the prize for the booth that best carried out a "rage of the age."

Awarded the trophy for the most beautiful booth was the Poly Chamber of Commerce's "Circus Days." R. Diehl, B. Warren, A. Torchia, and B. Hibbard kept the trained elephant in hand while patrons tossed rings at his trunk.

Sponge Week and Slop Day

Barbara DesMarets and Jim Munson seem to be disagreeing on how much more chocolate cream pie Jim can eat.

Senior Slop Day gave the Seniors a chance to act their age. Parading as advertisements, the group winners were: the Bermuda Blasters (pest exterminators complete with real live bugs) consisting of J. Drake, P. Sims, D. Gurley, J. Munson, J. McMillan, D. Seidl, F. Clemente, A. Ashbrook, M. VanHove, J. Pearson; and the "Four Roses," portrayed by N. Sides, D. Henderson, M. Kustner, and P. More.

If the "Big M" would blast off, it would be possible to see more of the pie eating contest. Nevertheless, in the background Eddie Bereal gives us a look at a finished (and nearly gone) pie eater.

Diane Klobucher and Mary Jane Walton have the true pioneer spirit of all Spring Vacation beach goers. What the weather doesn't provide for, they'll furnish. It's a good thing they brought a heater and a sunlamp.

"And on your left we have . . . ." Jane Voorhies and an unidentified passerby seem more interested in someone on the beach than they are in Robbie Hall's guided tour.

Sandy Brewer and Dave Dales found that two can live as cheaply as one on pronto-pups, frozen bananas, and cotton candy.

"Who's the little man with the camera?" scream six surprised females. "But my hair's still up, and my face isn't washed, and I don't have any lipstick on!" The pleas of B. Olson, J. Early, M. Ramek, M. Curtis, N. Millage, and B. Killingsworth are unanswered. With one flash, the masculine invader snaps the scene, and dashes madly from the premises.

R. A. Ortega and F. Beal, with their royal ukeleles, send C. Brague, G. Wallace, L. Pierce, B. Murray, V. Bird, and G. Blackburn into a complete dream world with their beachboy crooning. Actually they're trying the "sing for your supper" technique.

Concentrated Fun

and Bottled Sun

"Rub-a-dub dub, two men and five girls in a raft." This over-balanced ratio didn't last long, for during Spring Vacation every bronzed muscle boy found himself a curvaceous dish, even if it meant sink or swim.

Made One Week at "Bal" Tops

From dawn 'til dark, the beaches were covered with Polyites, striped towels, and portable radios. After dark they swooped down upon the town with vim and vigor after a good day's rest.

At the sound of an early "Reveille" (about 11 A.M.), one houseful assembles for morning roll call. M. Waite, who persists in singing the refrain of "Roll Out the Barrel," P. Ivory, J. Voorhies, R. Hall, L. Swain, A. Cattern, and R. Quinn are all accounted for physically, if not mentally.

MR. FRED L. McEUEN pauses a moment from his increasingly busy schedule to gaze across the ever-growing campus which is so familiar to him. This friendly, understanding man of high ideals and abilities possesses the attributes which it takes to guide a school of Poly's size. We are indebted to him for his continual service to us all.

Their

These interested citizens composed a very vital part in our educational system. As members of the School Board, they farsightedly forged ahead toward their goal of better education and improved facilities. Mr. George C. Pooley, Mr. Lewis P. Alabaster, Mrs. Gladys Babcock, Mr. Bruce Miller, Superintendent of Schools; Mrs. Marie L. Bonnett, and Mr. Richard B. Hampson.

The hard-working members of the P.T.A. Board worked with parents and teachers to promote the welfare of the home and school. Mrs. C. Gudmundson, Mrs. C. Shearer, Mrs. E. Bereal, Mrs. W. Cloud, Mrs. H. Walker, Mrs. R. Carnahan, Mrs. J. Sowers, Mrs. A. Swarner, Mrs. R. Waite.

One of Poly's best friends was MR. BRUCE MILLER, Superintendent of Schools, right. His well-known figure was always welcomed on campus, and we were always proud to have him attend various school functions throughout the year. Sincerely interested in our problems, he was always working for our benefit. Pictured with him on the left is MR. ROY E. SIMPSON, California State Superintendent of Public Instruction. (The occasion pictured represents a sidelight at the dedication of the new Victoria School.)

Concentrated Energy

MR. GEORGE WRENTMORE never put down the burdens of his busy job as Assistant Principal. He could always be found energetically pursuing some course of action, developing it into something beneficial to Poly. Always on hand as a loyal friend and administrator, he was more than willing to help and guide us. He more than has our friendship and deep respect.

MISS JEAN THAYER, our well-loved Dean of Girls, was a devoted friend to 1445 Poly girls. With an understanding and assuring smile that we'll never forget, she tirelessly concentrated on our problems.

Directed Us

Besides directing the Driver Education program, MR. EDWARD WEIR capably served as Vice Principal. He was always on hand to help or advise us.

MR. LUTHER DAVISSON was our well-known Dean of Boys. In addition to keeping the male half of Poly under control, he calendared our school assemblies.

During the first half of the year, MR. ROBERT CLYDE supervised the Guidance office as Director. He advised us when we wondered what or what not to be, and always knew the answers to our questions. For the time being, he is on leave of absence in quest of a doctor's degree.

Toward Our Goal

MR. JACK SMITH stepped into position as Guidance Director at the beginning of the second semester. With his friendly, easy-going manner he helped many Poly students choose the right college or find a place in the business world.

MR. THORSON, the Attendance Supervisor, was the school mind reader who merely had to look you once in the eye before he made out the little blue slips for that little unscheduled vacation.

A . . . ten . . . shun! R.O.T.C. instructors, CAPT. WARD THOMPSON, M/Sgt. CHARLES COBB, and SFC NORMAN WILLEY line up for inspection.

What's cooking, MISS LINDSAY?

Wearied by the weight of the world upon his shoulder, MR. ERWIN wonders why he ever started teaching history in the first place.

These Were the Professional

MR. DuBOIS ran the controls in general shop courses.

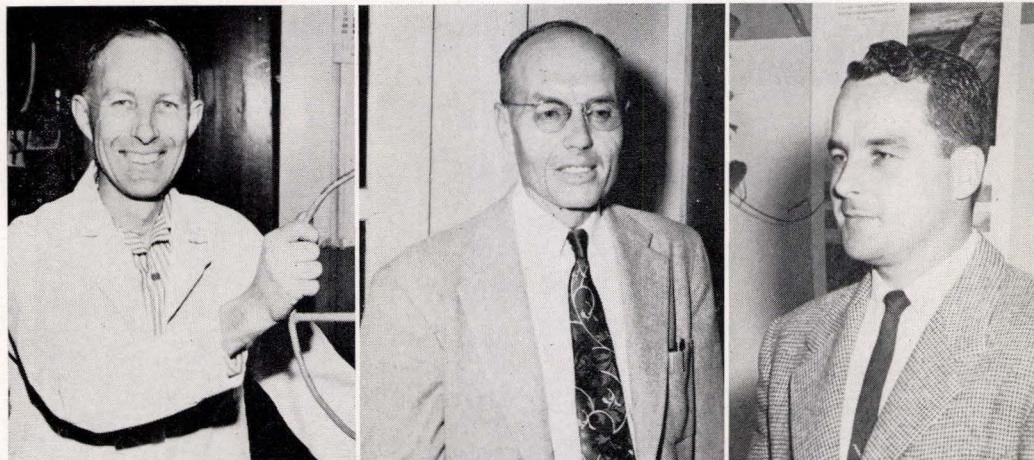

MR. GARTLAND taught us the difference between cubes and squares.

And now we have MR. LOWE, a perfect example of the rare species called Poly Biology teachers.

MISS COOPER prepares to send a perfect volleyball serve over the net.

History students marveled at things MISS RICKARD had in the back of her mind, including maps.

Although MISS LATIMER has played fifty games of ping pong today, she manages a smile for her P. E. classes.

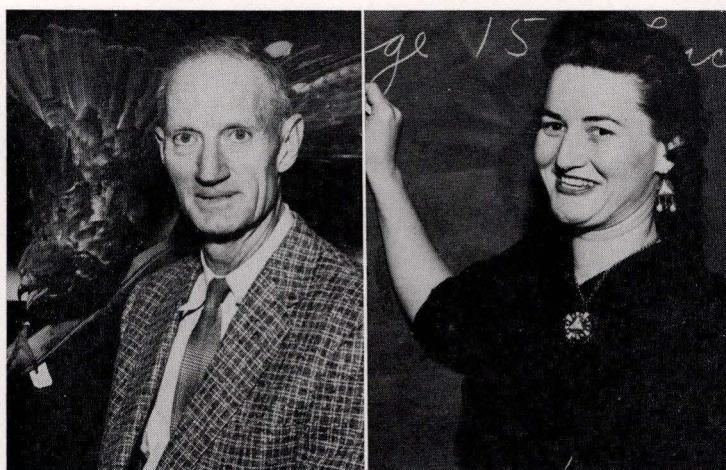

MR. DIXON politely concentrates on an unexploited theory of his math students.

MR. SEIGWORTH thinks that more girls in agriculture classes are just what Poly needs.

MISS MARY MacLENNAN was a very welcome addition to the faculty as an exchange teacher from Hereford, England. She taught French to a lucky portion of Poly's robust crowds.

COACH MITSCH's racket was tennis.

Inmates of Poly's Hallowed Halls

MR. HARPER and friend are engaged in an intelligent conversation about the hibernation habits of the Brown Bear.

From the smile on commercial teacher MISS SMITH's face it must be sixth period Friday.

Habla ud. espanol? Maybe not, but MR. MARTINEZ did.

We hate to disturb you, MR. DYER, but your drama classes are waiting for your appearance.

MISS AYERS led dance students to the twang of sore muscles.

MR. GOSSAGE taught Poly's future millionaires how to budget their fortunes.

"Jim Munson's the name, sir." . . . M-u-n-s-o-n. Good sports MR. COOPER and MRS. ROBLEE keep their eyes propped open at these late hours (and they don't even use toothpicks) long enough to sift the Poly students from imposters at one of our dances.

"Well, he looks O.K. to me," drawls COACH BOWNES while COACHES STEELE and MUMMA look over COACH MARSHALL'S record. Coach Marshall, an inmate of the Poly athletic department, wonders if he can escape across the field while these three birds aren't looking!

"Thimk" and "Concentrate"

MR. DERICK didn't need brother George or a candelabra to prove the superiority of Poly's music department.

MR. JOHNSON led two lives . . . one as an English teacher, and the other as photographic advisor for the Koala.

"And now for a little surprise test on chapters 1-59 in 'The Development and Problems of American Society from the Beginning of Recorded Cultural Progress'." (What did you say, MR. PALAIA?)

MR. WEBBER knew all the facts whether inside or outside of an automobile.

MR. OOSTERVEEN looks up in time to see two students exchanging overstuffed lunch sacks during a Spanish test.

Expression through the medium of dance was taught in MRS. SHARP'S modern dance classes.

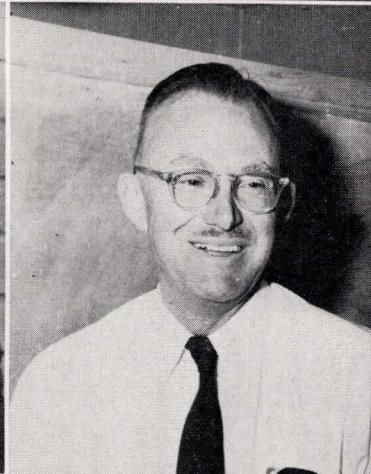

MR. LUTHY has just finished going over the projects of his mechanical drawing classes. Smelling salts, any one?

MRS. ROBLEE interpreted some of America's greatest thoughts to her classes in American Literature.

MR. CASEY, wizard of the slide rule, delves into another intricate math problem.

In MRS. MULKEY'S sociology classes we learned the "whys" of our behavior. Those first few days were really embarrassing.

Were Their Mottoes

MR. MARTIN, driver education teacher, marvels at how much his 14-year-old students know, considering that learners' permits are obtained at 15.

"Yes, we do get a few amusing original paintings in my art classes," chuckles MR. STOEVER.

"Honest it was three times that long," states MR. GOSSAGE to his intrigued listener, MR. DOWNEY. Truthful MR. SMITH, who comes to these bi-weekly faculty teas to drown his sorrows, suddenly gulps, because, you see, he was on that fishing trip, too.

MRS. WHEELER had the ins and outs of the needle and thread down pat.

MR. OAKS looks quite pleased; must be because the band's inside, he's outside, and the walls are sound-proof.

MR. BRONSTRUP shows woodshop students Doss Garvin and Don Haney why boats leak.

"This history class will be run democratically," dictates MR. MOSELEY.

"So you burned your pie for the seventh time, hmmm?" questions MISS SCHOULER.

MR. BIGBEE worked with figures. His smile tells us that he liked his job.

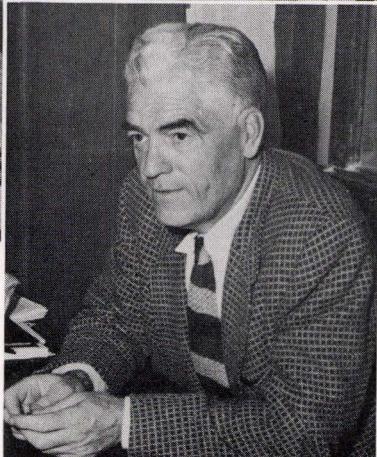

MRS. MATTHEWS took time out from her typing classes to supervise work in the A.S.B. store.

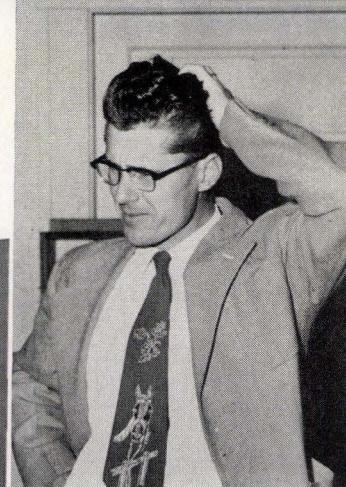

Push, pull, click, click. MR. WILDE demonstrates his wild method of changing typewriter ribbons.

Auditioning for the Pepson dent Smile Contest is MR. DeGEUS, Poly math instructor.

MR. JAMES told us of his stirring experiences that cold winter at Valley Forge.

"Now, what did I do with the  $H_2O$ ?" asks MR. ECKEL while the Science Building goes up in brilliant flames.

Introvert or extrovert, they were all welcome in MRS. OLSON's sociology classes.

Feminine athletes flourished under the guidance of MRS. BARTON.

From Vocational

MRS. PALMER taught us that a well-balanced diet did not consist of hot-dogs and orange freezes.

MR. BLOCK barely survived some of the more powerful physics projects.

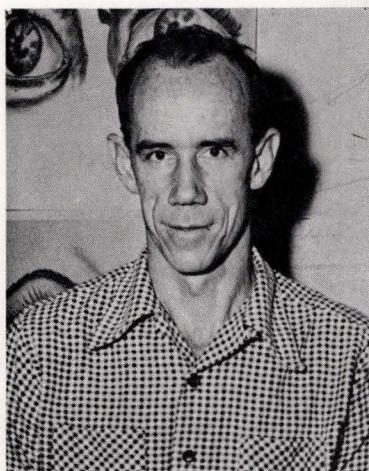

MR. BUSH proudly displays the skin of the sixteen ton dragon his handicraft students trapped behind the stove in the cafeteria.

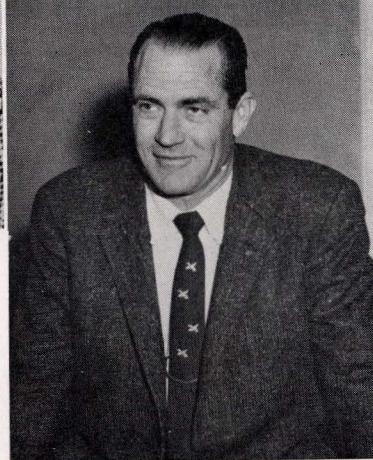

MRS. RUSH listens attentively to a short story by one of her English students. The title happens to be, "Why I Ditched English Class Yesterday."

"Maybe . . . maybe just a few drops . . ." queries MR. COOPER as he strokes his thinning locks.

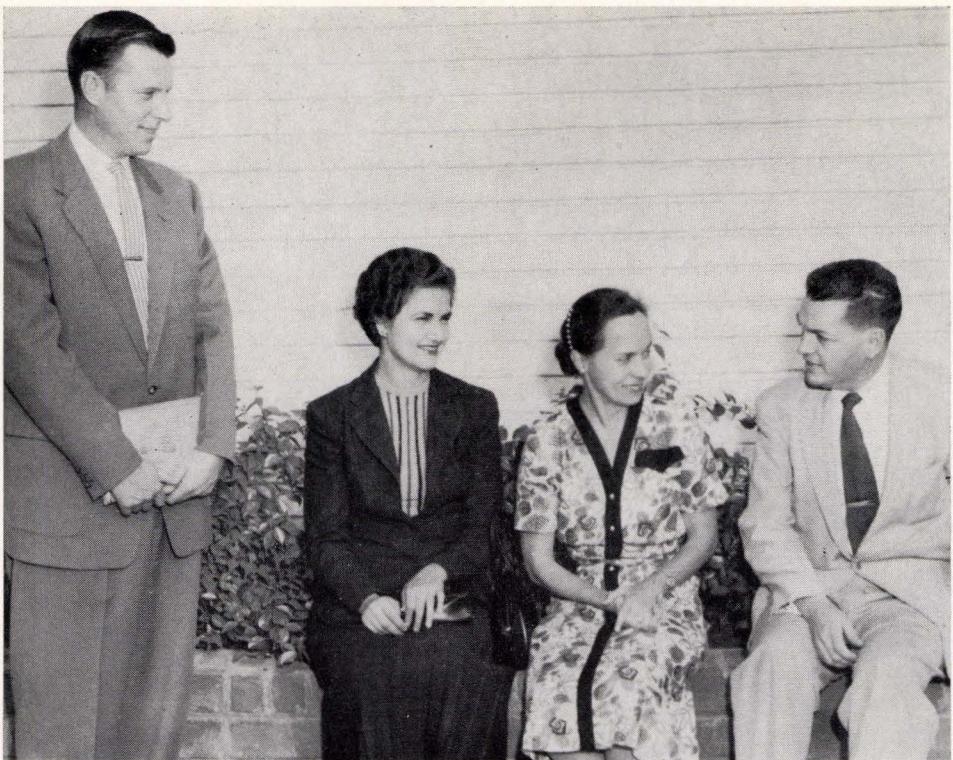

Don't look now, MR. BUTTERFIELD, but you and your art classes have a bright-eyed visitor.

So you think you can speak Spanish? MR. BOOTH will teach you differently in ten easy lessons.

Classes

MISS VASSOS and MRS. THOMSON find MR. METCALF very entertaining. MR. WILLIAMS wonders just what's so attractive about him, anyway! He's just another English teacher!

MR. ADAMS writes out a —50 merits for MR. MORRIS. Seems that Mr. Morris didn't show up for detention last night. As a matter of record, these men taught English.

to College Prep

Despite the interruption of an exciting chapter on dangling participles, English teachers MISS HENRY and MRS. McGREGOR gleefully pose for the photographer. Barbara Prock also seems pleased to let a few participles dangle for a while.

Go ahead and turn the page, MRS. WOLF. MRS. HALEY doesn't get the joke anyway. These two English teachers have found a quiet corner of the campus (we didn't know there were any!) where they can enjoy a few moments of relaxation.

Hands up, MISS McKEEVER! We caught you in the act. You shouldn't escape from your English classes even though it is fun to look through the confidential files in the office!

"Mr. John Law" refuses an oversized bribe from Dean of Boys DAVISSON, who was caught speeding in his borrowed Jaguar on Poly's football field.

MISS DILLENBECK, right, shows us how to use the card catalogue while MISS CORNELL reminds us that talking is not permitted in the library.

They Knew the Answers.

The school health office was always a busy place. Here DR. BRANDFIELD gives School Nurses MRS. GILKESON and MRS. THORNTON a check-up. They are having a hard time trying to find Mrs. Thornton's heart. She claims she had it with her when she came in.

"And what did you say your telephone number is?" MRS. PATTERSON couldn't resist running over MR. DOWNEY, a fellow English teacher, with her truck, since it was such a coy way to get certain information. Virginia Stromgren is quite amused with MRS. PATTERSON'S tactics.

MRS. LUKEI recites a passage from Shakespeare to the amusement of MISS BOWERS and MR. PHILLIPS. They leave that task to their English classes.

Our Faculty Poured on Homework

MR. F. BELL isn't sure whether he likes the photographer or not, but MRS. BRAUTI has no worries. Since the photographer is in his English classes and not in Mrs. Brauti's, Mr. Bell has a right to wonder.

MR. RAYMER, left, a member of the English department, claims that every time he looks at MR. SMITH of the history department, he laughs. Mr. Smith claims that every time he looks at Mr. Raymer, he laughs. Ever since they heard that they look alike, they laugh all the time.

MR. HICKS and Howard Geivet demonstrate the use of the lathe, one of the many important devices in machine shop.

Thanks to these able office secretaries and clerks, Poly ran smoothly: Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Ashbaugh, Mrs. Brainard, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Hadden, Mrs. Hodge, Miss Dibbler, Mrs. Searle, Mrs. Hoeness, Mrs. Baillargeon.

in Diluted and Concentrated Form

The cafeteria and lunchstand workers concentrated on serving us the least food for the most money. I mean . . . I mean, the most food for the least money.

LUNCH STAND WORKERS: ROW 1: Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Sersland, Mrs. Moran, Mrs. Greeno, Mrs. Kimenberg. ROW 2: Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Prophet, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Braly, Mrs. Manderville, Mrs. Ratliff, Mrs. Portbury.

CAFETERIA WORKERS: ROW 1: Mrs. Green, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. King. ROW 2: Mrs. Stout, Mrs. Faro, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Menigoz. ROW 3: Mrs. Scapple, Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Glover, Mrs. Hickmon.

American Institutions just wouldn't be the same without MR. HADWIGER.

MISS WALLING and her shadow added Texas sunshine to the girls P.E. department. (On smog "Red" days, that is.)

MISS ELLIOTT trained to-morrow's typists.

I'm MR. THOMAS. I teach math. What can I do for you?

They Braved

MR. KUTCH say: "He who talks most gets best grade." As would be expected, MR. KUTCH teaches speech.

MISS McABEE's Latin classes lent their ears to the Romans.

MR. LARSON flashes one of his lady-killer smiles for the benefit of the girls in his math classes.

MR. TEW mapped out the studies for his history classes.

Home economics instructor MRS. ZEHNPFENIG has perfected the art of knitting without watching.

MR. RUPEL contemplates the idea of  $2+2$  equaling five.

MISS GILBERT earnestly endeavored to impart more than just Latin to her interested students.

From the dashing Don Juans to Winston Churchill, MR. SEVALY happily played the part for his history classes.

MR. HALLOCK, our top-notch swimming coach, emerged from the pool long enough to have his picture taken.

MISS SCHNEE set a perfect example for Poly's secretarial trainees.

the Blackboard Jungle

Our MISS McCARTHY was always on hand with a friendly smile for everyone, including her English students. In her "spare" time she served as an advisor to the Girls' League Board, and added her cheerfulness to the high school office.

MR. INGERSOLL taught electric shop. Shocking?

Busy Bookkeeping Teacher MR. SMITH looks up from his work long enough to give the camera an amiable smile.

Future tycoons got their start in business administration classes taught by MRS. DAVIS. (At least those who could keep their mind on business!)

Pipes popped and motors roared in MR. MOSHER'S auto shop classes.

MISS THORSEN'S students received patient drilling in mathematics.

"You mean you drew the plan for this hydrogen powered tooth brush all by yourself?" asks MR. AYERS, slightly stunned by the originality of his mechanical drawing students.

MRS. ROAMER is seen giving a demonstration on how to sew without thread. They say it takes talent.

"Since this is an apple, I must be a teacher." Now MR. ADAMS knows what all those students with history books were doing in his room.

MRS. ROONEY set the pace for her typing classes.

Their Encouragement

"Safety methods are best brought about by good examples," demonstrates MR. DEVINE for one of his driver education classes. (He also teaches history.)

MISS PROCTOR graded many outfits made by girls in her home economics classes.

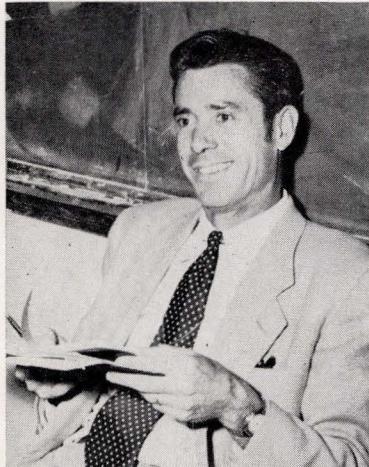

COACH WHITE concentrates on ways to toughen up the boys in his P.E. classes. No, he's not the Big Bad Wolf. He's just scouting for good material for next year's football team.

MRS. BLAKESLEY told her biology classes all about the different brands of bottled lizards.

Sped Us on Our Way

MR. BELL thought that all cultured English students should know about the "goony birds."

There was never a dull moment, thanks to the future Einsteins in MR. SIDER'S physics and chemistry classes.

MR. EPP, our printing instructor, is pleased to see that his students remembered to put ink in the press.

Kris Koala, our spunky little mascot, found the goal post a splendid trapeze. Connie Colonelli was on the inside of all of Kris's capers across the field, between bands and drill teams, and into any available prank the situation might offer.

Our cheerleaders, Arlin Lackey, Glenda Jones, Jeannie Bystrom, Jill Swanson, Shirley Brown, and Russ Hosier, deserve new lungs and a lifetime supply of energy pills for all the pep they put into leading Poly's boundless mobs in organized yells. The support they brought forth from us and the support they gave the teams led the Bears on to many victories.

Cheering We Roused the Old School Spirit

As the final gun sounds, Coach Howard White darts onto the field amid the jubilant cheers of Poly fans. He's doing a little cheering himself, for his Bears came up from behind to win with three impressive fourth quarter touchdowns, sending Pomona home with a 20-14 loss.

These Were the

The Bears can boast a magnificent and untarnished season. They were unbeaten—the most desired record of every team. And as a team they held the will and drive which brought them wide recognition and placed many outstanding players on honorary teams.

In the B division our Bearlets chalked up first class wins against C.B.L. opponents until they met Redlands in the final joust of the season. The B's lost, 19-6, but they stepped into a well-deserved second place in the C.B.L. The "Middle Men" of the Junior Varsity squad won three games, lost three games, and tied one.

Unbeaten in strength and untopped in spirit, the powerful Poly Bears turned into modern Sampsons as they pushed over every team in the Citrus Belt League. Guided by Coach Howard White and Co-captains Paul Oglesby and Ray Smith, the Bears built up a first-class squad which was more than ready for trouncing Santa Ana 27-13 in the opening non-league game of the season. It was back to the hills for the Hillers of Grossmont when the Bears staged their next practice raid, bringing home 45 points to the losers' 0.

Unh! This guy's nose is really tough. Art Gilmore demonstrates his Here-I-Come-Ready-or-Not technique as he noses his way to another Poly touchdown.

Champs of the C. B. L.

C.B.L. opponents cautiously awaited Poly's pranksters, but the Bears scampered past them, stopping only to please fans with fancy second-half scoring. One by one Riverside tousled Fontana 47-6, Chaffey 20-6, and San Bernardino 26-6, although the Bears could have easily trampled them all at once. Buzzing by the Yellow Jackets' hive with a score of 12-0, they met an enterprising group of young men, the Devils of Pomona. Three fourth-quarter touchdowns pulled Poly past them, totaling the score 20-14. Moving one step closer to the C.B.L. crown, Poly sent the Pacific Pirates on a hunt which resulted in a 46-6 win for the Green and Orange. The Bears' growl outclassed the Terriers' bark, and Poly wrapped up their final league game with a score of 20-14, completing their drive for top honors in the C.B.L. Their reward for an excellent season was the coveted C.B.L. crown for the second year in a row and a chance to show their might in the C.I.F.

Under the bright lights of the C.I.F., Poly's miracle men rallied a 21-20 win over the Condors of California High, chalking up their total score in the second half of the game. The next week Poly greeted the Alhambra Moors on Riverside territory. The two teams played to a 7-7 tie as the final gun sounded. Record breaking crowds watched the referees rule short a hurried attempted first down by the Bears, giving Alhambra the chance to advance into the semi-finals.

Aimed for the Title.

With a record of ten wins out of eleven practice games, first place in the Chino 20-30 Club Invitational Basketball Tournament, and the coveted Helms Trophy in their possession, Poly's knee sock advocates entered the C.B.L. circuit. Winning their first game with Colton, 56-49, they slipped into four straight but exciting losses. After this slight relapse, our Bears charged out of the huddle to take Pomona, 54-52, and Colton, 78-46. Relying on the old adage, "good luck comes in threes," we generously gave Redlands a bonus point somewhere in the game which caused us a 64-65 defeat. Back on the winner's train we outwitted Pacific, 56-42, and San Bernardino, 64-47, but our winning streak was halted by a greedy Chaffey squad who beat us with a score of 50-51. With the end of the season around the corner, we steamed full speed ahead, knocking over Fontana, 60-49; Pomona, 54-44, and Redlands, 83-62.

The B Basketball Club scored quite a record for themselves. They took second place in both the San Bernardino Tourney and the Pacific Tourney. As co-champions of the C.B.L. they rebounded into winner's spot in the Santa Monica Tournament. The excellent record of the Junior Varsity squad shows seventeen wins out of eighteen games. They lost only to Palm Springs, champions of the Riverside County League.

The varsity horsehiders showed signs of greatness but lacked the consistency to bring home a C.B.L. championship. Bad breaks and injuries hampered the team throughout the season.

Picked to rule the C.B.L. roost, Poly started with three victories in the first four games which gained them a tie for first place. Then injuries to key men in the lineup proved to be disastrous to Poly's chances for the title.

The varsity aggregation proved to be home lovers once more as they extended their string of C.B.L. victories at the Wheelock diamond to thirteen. Although it wasn't as prosperous a year for the Hammerschmidtmen as expected, the stock on Poly's chances for a title next year skyrocketed as Coach White's J.V.'s compiled a splendid 16 win - 4 loss record.

Poly's Old Pros Ran Away

Over rocks, into gopher holes, and across all sorts of country, Poly's Harriers ran home with a terrific season attached to their record. Our constant Cross Country team under the guidance of Coach Bill Mumma started the fireworks with first place in the Mount San Antonio Invitational. Running away with first place in the C.B.L., these old pros landslid into winner's spot in the C.I.F. inland area regional semi-finals with a score of 31. The second closest entry trailed by 14 points. Into the C.I.F. southern section finals our champs scurried, tying up the season in tenth place.

The Victory Stand at the Mt. San Antonio Invitational meet showed many Poly runners in winning positions. Bob Cartmill, Wayne Lemons, and Philip O'Brien (far right) accepted trophies.

In this Cross Country meet against Redlands, Wayne Lemons set a new record on Poly's course. Other visible Bears are Junior Sanchez and Bob Cartmill.

Ho Hum! Poly's varsity trackmen raced their way through five straight C.B.L. dual meets and made a clean sweep of the C.B.L. finals for the fifth consecutive year. The talented B brigade showed similar greatness as they equaled the record of their champion big brothers, and we closely seconded Pomona in the C's classification. Records fell by the wayside as Poly romped to the C.B.L. Championships. Wayne Lemons ran the best 880 in the state as he won in 1:56.4, and Paul Anderson dazzled the opposition with his splendid 9.8 in the century. Jerry McCullough broke records in both the B 100, and 220 by breasting the tape in 9.9 and 21.9 respectively, and Bill Barbour tied the 20-yd. high-hurdles of 9.0. Though not having the individual power to capture the big invitational meets, this year's spikemen displayed the greatest all around dual meet strength ever seen in Poly's colors.

Ernie Ford is up and over the high jump with inches to spare. Tom Chatham and he shared the honor of breaking the jump record in the Redlands meet.

Our Men of "Steele" Did It Again

B AND C TRACK TEAM

Here we get a double take of DeWayne Price doing two things at once. Besides demonstrating perfect diving form he knows how to fool the camera.

Poly's swimming team stormed past all but one of their dual meet opponents and stroked their way to fourth place in the C.I.F. Mid-Winter Meet. The water-bound Bears showed their team strength in all divisions throughout the season, but failed to collect a C.B.L. championship in any of them. In the A and B divisions they placed second while the C's touched land in fourth position. The A's led the C.B.L. in qualifying for the finals with Rod Muller, Frank Recio, and the Medley Relay team fishing out first place medals. Palm Springs, always a close competitor, proved to be the upsetting factor in the Bears' race for the C.B.L. crown. They swam away with the honor, dunking us with an uncomfortable 68-67 score.

These Wetbacks

SWIMMING TEAM. ROW 1: T. Waite, F. Hansen, C. Crouch, T. Westover, M. Kelley, J. Burton, H. Brent, V. Abubo, D. Blazer, D. Webb, D. Mead, D. Schlotter. ROW 2: C. Westover, L. Coon, R. Hartley, co-captain; D. Seidl, co-captain; G. Suverkrup, K. Seamons, F. Recio, B. Fahrnbruch, T. Sirks. ABSENT: B. Hoover, B. Morgan, E. Royer.

Were Quite the Strokers

Dick Seidl, Ken Seamons, Greg Suverkrup, and Bob Davis, our relay team, prepare for four wet faces.

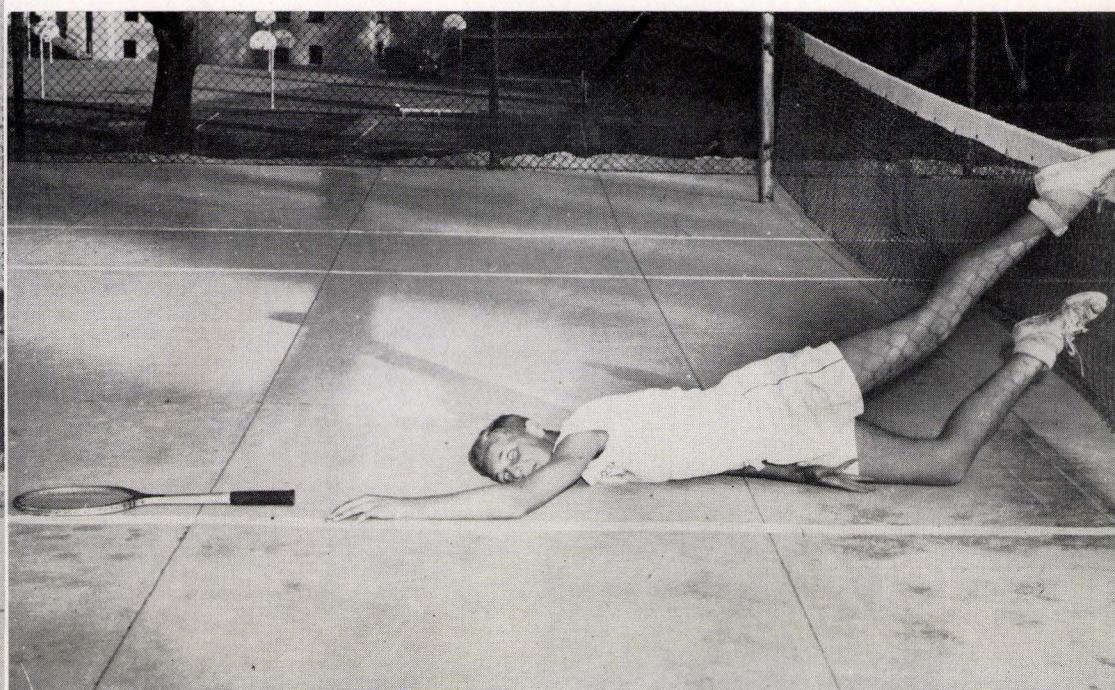

Coach Mitsch is obviously suffering from the strain of too much tennis.

Ron Timmons, our team captain, demonstrates the form that won him the second singles position.

It's not big feet . . . Some ungrateful by-stander pulled up the net again on poor Bob Anderson.

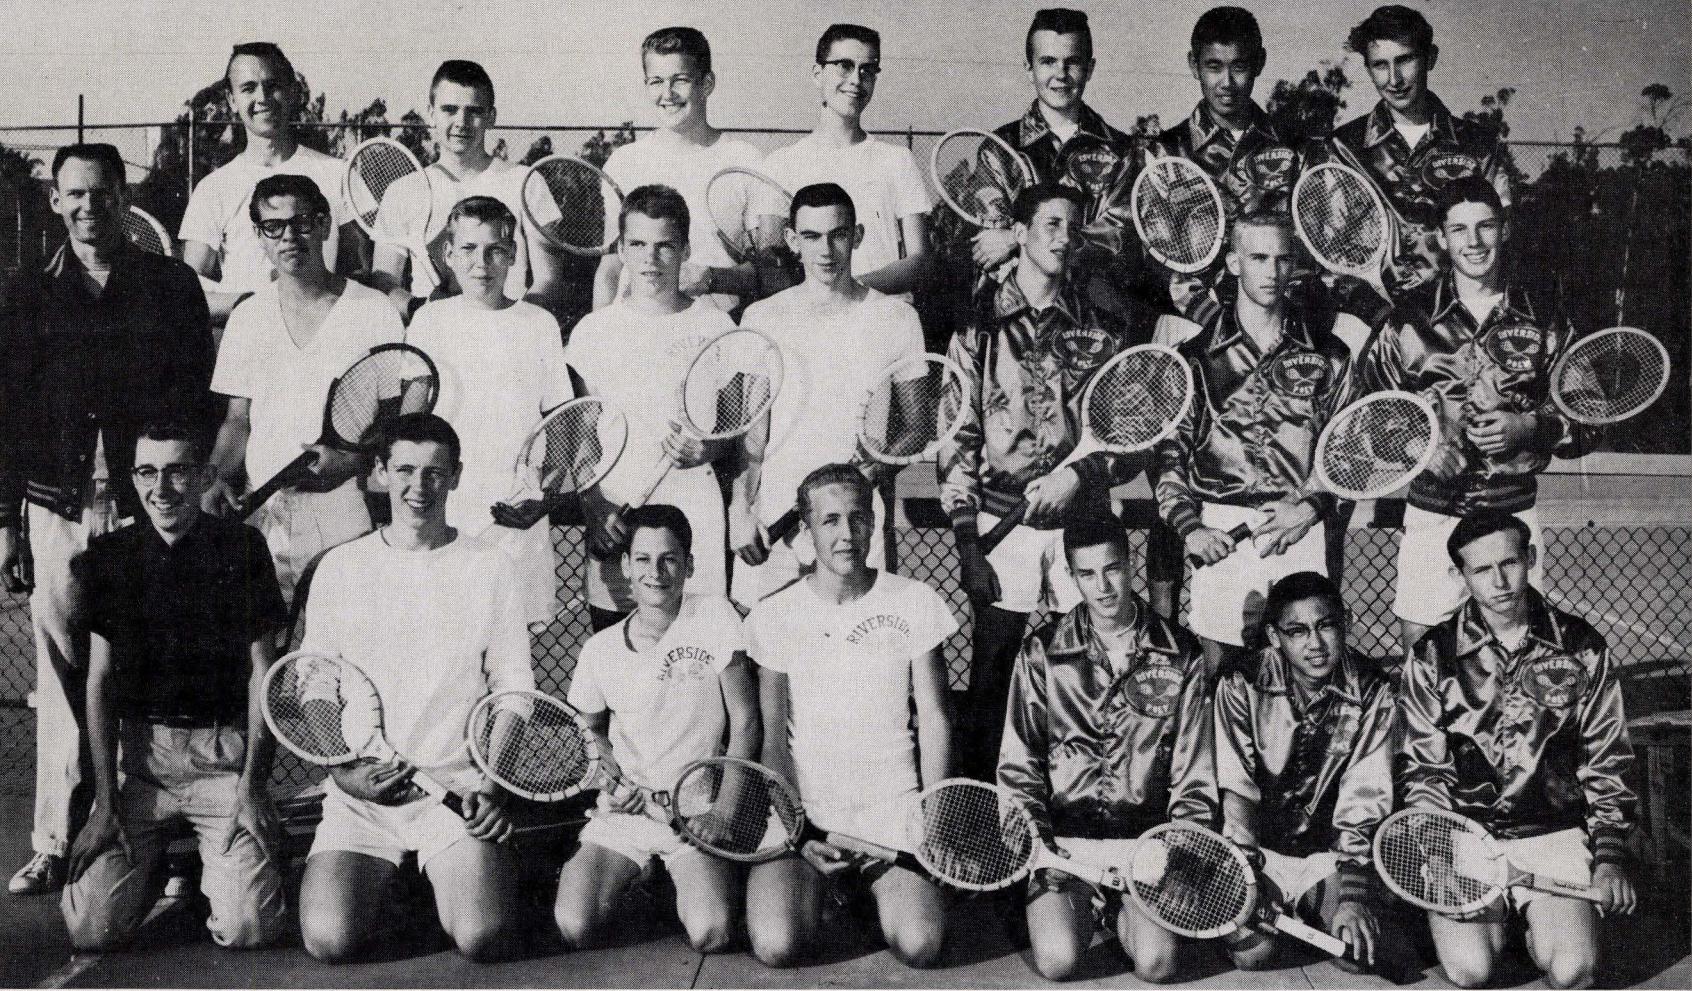

The varsity racketeers swatted their way past hapless practice foes and eagerly charged into C.B.L. competition with a splendid record behind them. They stumbled briefly as they lost their first three matches to Chaffey, San Bernardino, and Pacific. However, they regained their championship form and marched home with four straight victories over Redlands, Colton, Fontana, and Pomona. Thus they finished with a very respectable four win - three loss record which is very outstanding, considering that all but one of the varsity crew were underclassmen.

Stroked Their Way to Fame

We hope Bill Black makes this shot, because Bruce Engle looks as if he'll burst into tears if he doesn't. Bruce is sporting a wicked racket and he wants a chance to use it.

Gary Webb, in the first singles spot, demonstrates his spectacular serve. (At least it's original.)

CAVALIERS CLUB. ROW 1: Margie Medrano, Sharon Smith, Sue Donaldson, Joyce McPhail, Shirley Brown, Julie Evans, Carolyn Wendelin, Lorraine Jensen, Connie Colonna, Alice O'Brien. ROW 2: J. Contrary to popular rumor, Poly's R.O.T.C. did not spend their time preparing for an attack against invaders from outer space. Instead, their marching, drumming, shooting, and saluting were all a part of their program of training for leadership.

The newly enlisted cadets were overcome with the wonders of army life as they chose ten beautiful sponsors adding "feminine" charm to their ranks. But all too quickly they found themselves rushed into clothes check-out line, trying to find a home for two left-foot shoes or an extra tie. A field trip to Fort McArthur in San Pedro gave them a chance to see their Uncle Sam's army in action.

Dressed in their military best, the "R.O." attended the gala Military Ball and Reception which was planned and presented by their two special clubs — the Cavaliers Club, open to officers and sponsors; and the Cadet Club, entirely for enlisted men.

Led by Capt. Thompson, M/Sgt. Cobb, and Sergeant First Class Willey, our army learned the parts of a gun and military antics. Passing Federal Inspection, many happy cadets received awards on Honor Day for a year of rigid training.

Even in a quiet, shady, romantic setting, Lt. Colonel Don McLeod remains a shining example of "R.O." discipline. Not even Head Sponsor Joyce McPhail can find out any of his military secrets.

Pitcher Shelia McMahon hopes that Barbara Baker doesn't slug this one very far across the field. Since her fielders deserted her after the last long-range hit, she doesn't want to have to retrieve it.

Bedecked in the beautiful attire of true field hockey players, Frances Hopkins, Bobby Bennet, and Lola Green wait for the starting whistle.

These Belles of the Muscle Brigade

If Robin Hood could see archers Grace Trujillo and Linda Ziegler in action, he'd leave Sherwood Forest forever.

G.R.A. swimmers Carol Brush, Cathy Holeman, Carol Kries, and, standing, Nancy Carlson, made a hit on the land or in the water.

The G.R.A. Board Members co-ordinated the activities of their club. Open to any Poly girl, G.R.A. made it possible for its members to take part in many sports and social activities. TOP TO BOTTOM: P. Anthony, S. Davis, L. Yeager, C. Kries, M. Riggs, B. Downs, M. Gallager, S. Hill, M. Topham.

These energetic G.R.A. members batted, booted, whacked, and splashed, all for the fun of it. ROW 1: D. Willis, S. Haynes, F. Hays, M. Toppin, D. Ball. ROW 2: B. Baker, S. McMahon, C. Hopkins, F. # G R A Smiling Virginia Filippi successfully presided over G.R.A. meetings.

Patronized Sports

Anticipation and excitement made volley ball a favorite with G.R.A. members.

Members of the Weaker Sex Were Strengthened

Caught in the midst of a practice shot, Sandy Hill demonstrates the feminine approach to basketball.

From a worm's eye view we see a tennis serve by G.R.A. member Sandy Hill. Watch out! Here it comes! !

in G.R.A.

The posture contest was a quarterly event for Poly girls. With heads held high, these girls entered the second quarter contest finals. Left to right: N. Hodzman, E. Yohann, N. Penguin, S. Chiuminatta, S. St. Clair, J. Rice, V. Gardner, S. Nieport, J. Heard, N. Kegg.

Relaxing for once in their lives, G.R.A. members attended the annual wiener bake. This gave them a chance to stock up extra energy for another basketball game or a tennis match.

Junior Orchesis members were skillfully coached and gracefully led by their advisor, Mrs. Dorothea Sharp, and their elected officers: Susie Wheeler, Linda Huber, Jill Swanson, president; Jean Butcher, and Shirley Chiuminatta.

We Bent to

Poly's branch of Junior Orchesis, a national honorary dance organization, gave interested and qualified girls a chance to express themselves through the medium of controlled body expression. These J.O. members are doing exercises which can be combined into dance movement.

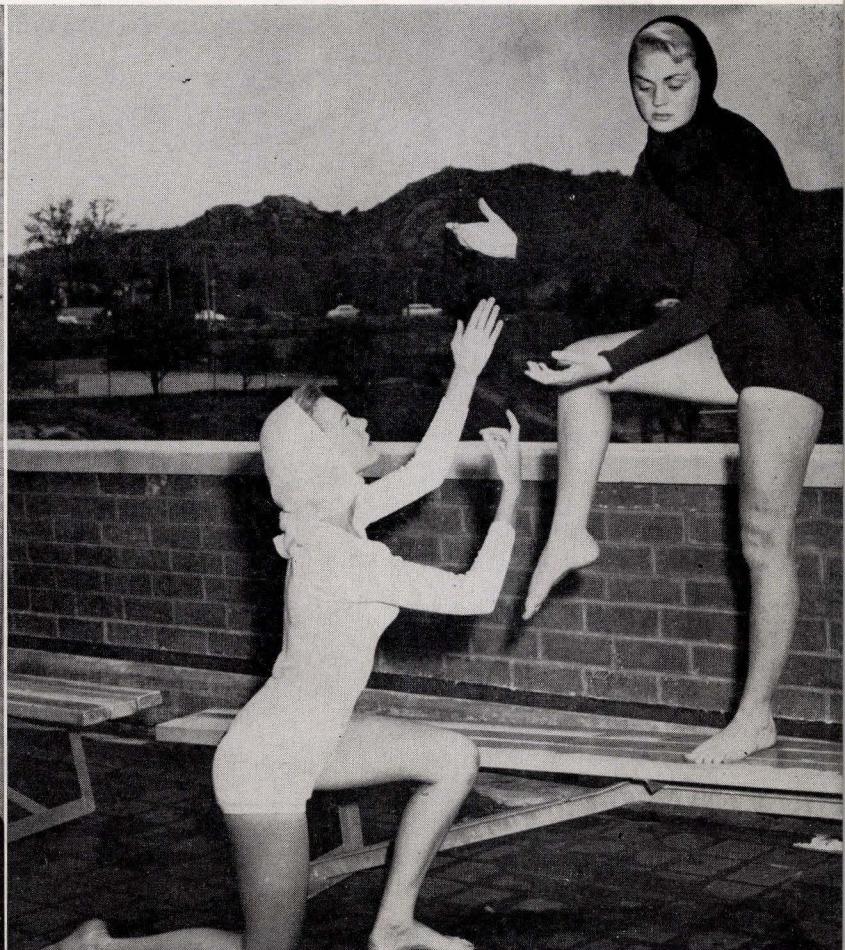

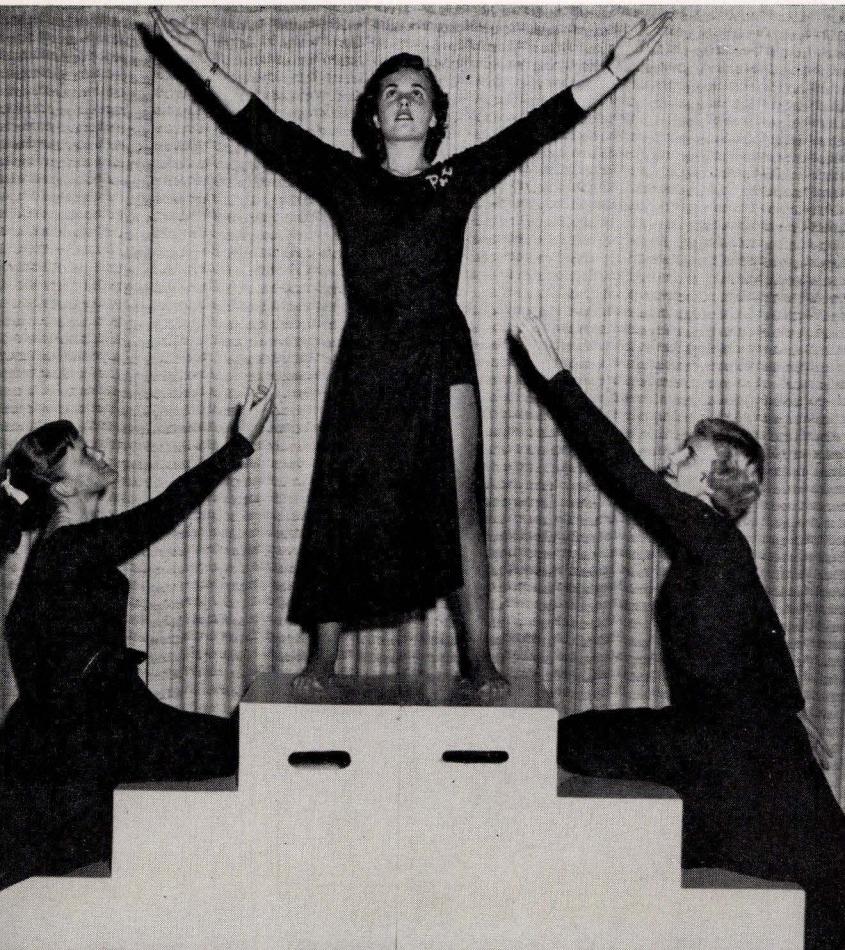

Junior Orchesis members danced up quite an appetite as proved by the amount of tacos they downed at their Mexican dinner at Gay and Larry's. Sprees like this added to the club's activities.

Entertainment in Junior Orchesis

Sandy Hill, Pat Henderson, and Carol Kries practice their part in the Junior Orchesis Assembly. The club was often called on to present programs at Poly, at other schools, and in community activities.

Almost any subject can be portrayed in dance through symbolic dance movement. The leotard could become the basis for impressive costuming. With these thoughts in mind, Jane Voorhies and Ann Cattern created their own choreography.

Concentration... on business

BRUNI'S DRIVE IN, 4458 Magnolia Avenue was the scene of many a tasty snack or full-course dinner. BRUNI'S acclaimed reputation won them many customers.

Jill Swanson poses as a mannequin to display an attractive outfit from ROUSE'S, INC., 3834 Main Street. Bruce Alexander who just happened to be shopping in ROUSE'S men's department, studies the ensemble with approval. ROUSE'S has satisfied shoppers in the Riverside area throughout its long existence.

"Do you like these shoes?" Jane McCarthy asks Lola Inaba. Of course Lola does, for she is already buying two pairs just like them. These girls know that shoes from WINSLER'S SHOE STORE, 3951 Main Street, are always in high style.

"Ah . . . a perfect specimen," smiles Doug Green. "Just what I wanted . . . a chrysanthemum morifolium." Although you may not be in the market for a chrysanthemum morifolium, DONNELL'S FLOWERS, 3697 Main Street, always have the right flowers for the occasion.

"Look, it's a spoon!" Pat Ivory gleefully lets Arlin Lackey in on her latest discovery. Not so new to Pat is the fact that GREEN AND CHRISTENSEN, JEWELERS, 3913 Main Street, is the place to go for a wide range of fine jewelry. They also boast expert jewelry repair.

There will be no need for that umbrella now that Ralph Stephenson and Nan Millage have discovered the CITIZENS NATIONAL TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK'S new saving plan. Turning your money over to the safe keeping of the main branch of CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK, 3800 Main Street, or in any of the smaller branches, is a sure way for a sound investment that will put an end to those "rainy days."

The man with the flower box from AL JOHNSON'S is Ralph Wilkins. Ralph knows that the Prom, like all other special occasions, deserves flowers from AL JOHNSON, FLORIST, 6189 Magnolia Avenue

Rosemary Quinn greets her date for the Prom in this beautifully fashioned formal from STEPHENSON'S, 3974 Main Street. Concentrating on the latest fashions, STEPHENSON'S will always be the place for exclusive styles in women's apparel.

"Honest, Beverly, I don't have any more money," sobs Jerry Kechter. But Beverly Humphrey knew where to get her piggy bank filled. She took it, and penniless Jerry, to COMMUNITY LOAN SERVICE, 3836 Orange Street. Although COMMUNITY LOAN SERVICE is not in the habit of fattening stray piggy banks, they'll solve your money problems with expert and courteous service.

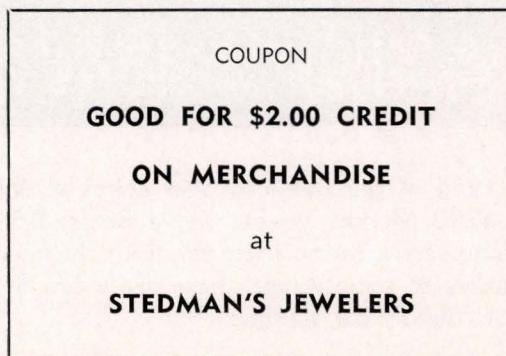

"No, I don't think I want any," states Phyllis More. But Phyllis can't overlook a doctor's prescription, although diphenhydramine hydrochloride doesn't sound too appetizing. She can put her complete trust in the pharmacists at BOWSER AND BANKS, 3760 Twelfth Street, to fill her prescription with first quality drugs and to make it as easy to take as possible.

Ray Smith is just going to sit back in this luxurious divan from MISSION FURNITURE and let Charlene Brague bring him his pipe, slippers, and an interesting magazine. "Ah, this is really living," he sighs. You will be that pleased, too, if you visit MISSION FURNITURE CO., 3615 Main Street.

"This certainly is gorgeous," says Dave Clark. "What time did you say your night watchman goes off duty?" Wait a minute, Dave. You don't need to use that approach. STEDMAN'S JEWELERS, 3811 Main Street, have many more bracelets and gift items that will be within your allowance. Besides, you already have a head start with this wonderful coupon for two dollars in merchandise from STEDMAN'S.

Not good if detached. This offer expires December 31, 1956.

Polyites never got tired of gab sessions over cokes at MERLE'S DRIVE-IN (formerly Ruby's), 4290 Market Street. Steve Beals, Pat Henderson, Joan Cobb, and Jerre Paxton have found their way into the modern dining room, but the lazier members of society (and there are a few of those) can be on the receiving end of friendly car service.

MERLE'S - Corona Del Mar, Ventura, Riverside.

Margie Waite dreamed she was a bride in a beautiful white lace gown from the GODA GOWN SHOP, 3919 Eighth Street. Sue Donaldson was on hand as the bridesmaid in another of their lovely dresses. Only at the GODA GOWN SHOP will you find the distinctive formal or evening dress you want from a large selection of styles and prices.

Marcia Kustner wholeheartedly recommends a special brand of perfume to Janie Voorhies. Greg Suverkrup is unconcerned with the goings-on because he knows that anything from KUSTNER'S PHARMACY will be tops, including sports magazines. KUSTNER'S PHARMACY serves Riverside with two locations—the Main Store, 3851 Main Street and the new Medical Square Pharmacy, 4033 Brockton Avenue.

"I'd love to go for a ride with you," sighs Mary Alice O'Brien. Confidentially, she just wants to show off her new dress from KRISTY'S, 3961 Main Street. Besides having appealing merchandise, KRISTY'S give S&H Green Stamps.

"Calling all cars! Calling all cars! This is Robbie Hall telling you that TAYLOR'S APPLIANCE, 4043 Main Street, is the place for fine quality home appliances."

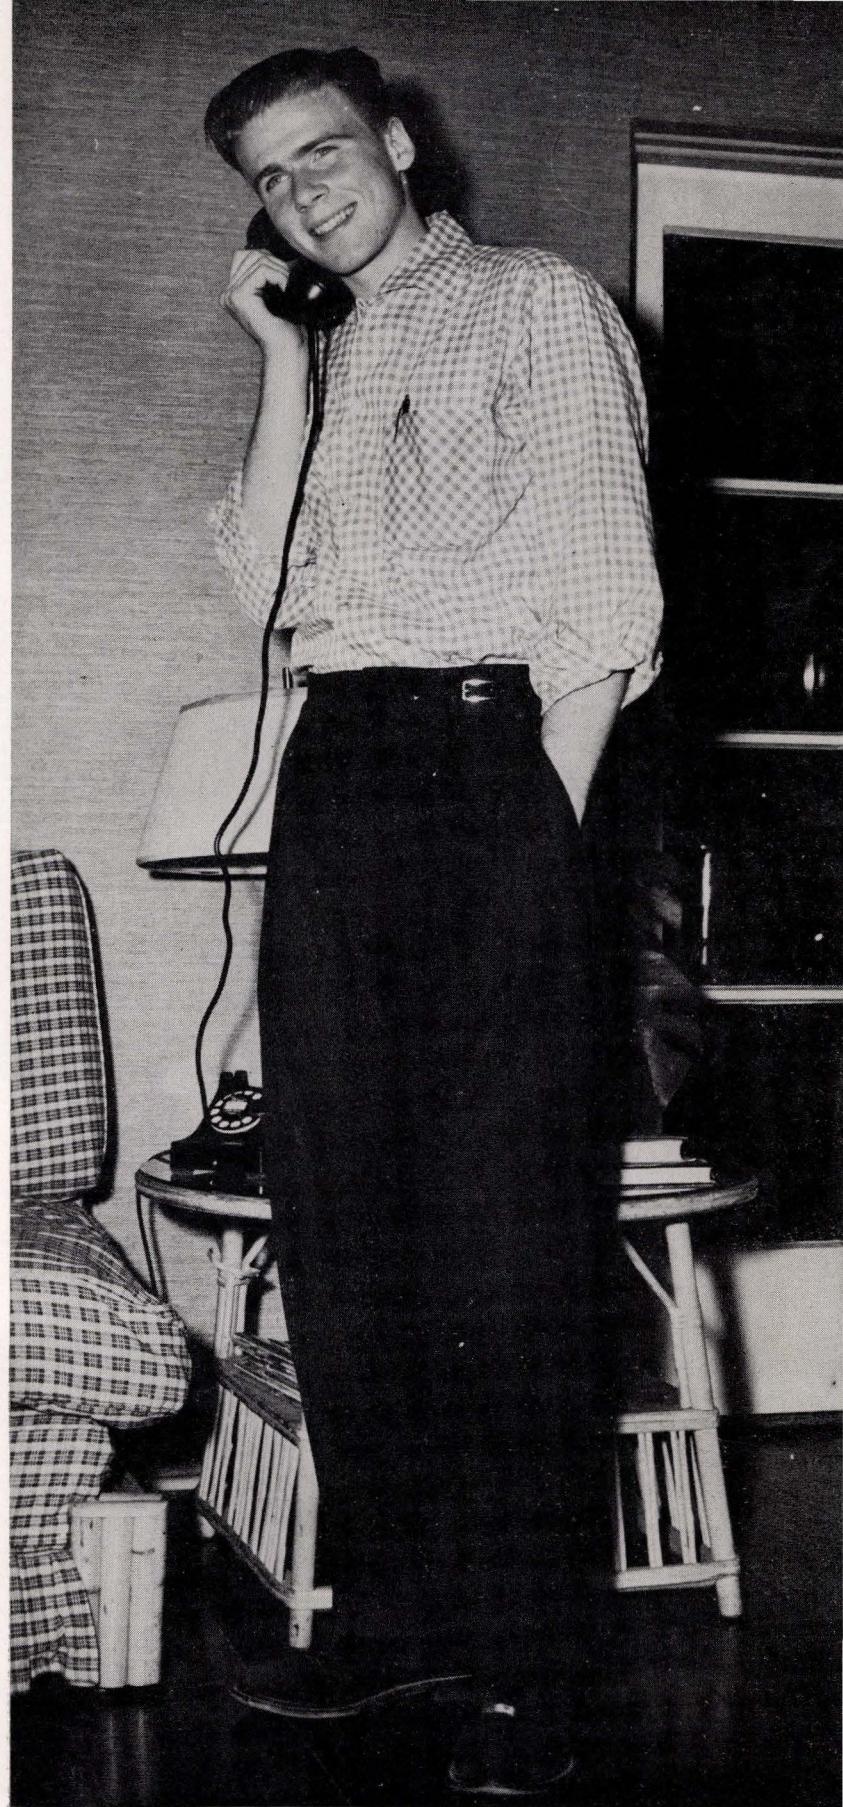

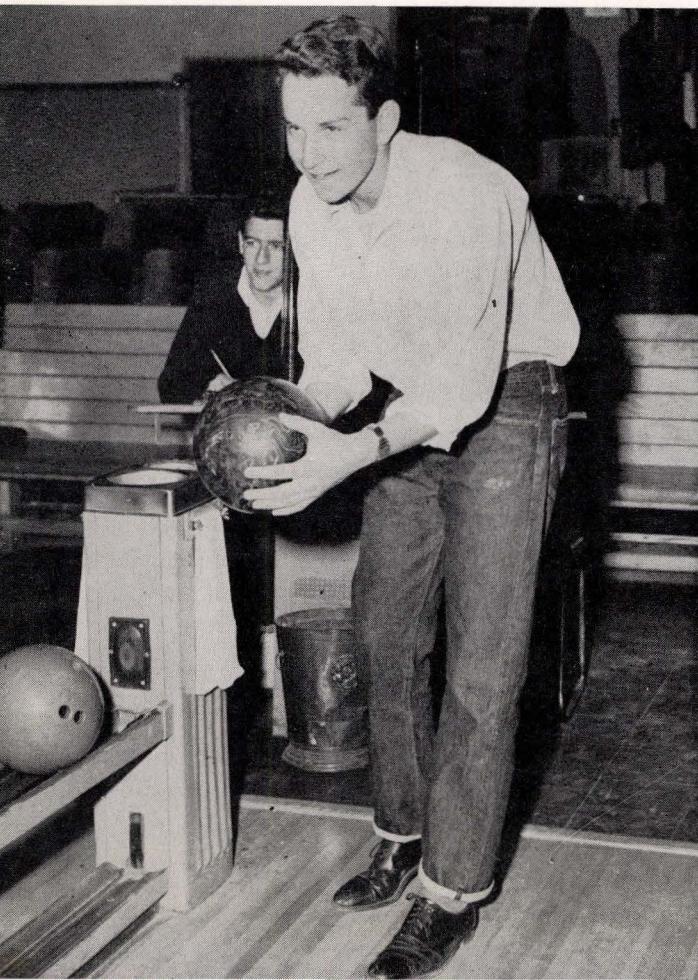

Monsieur Edmund "Suave" Bereal poses in front of his new, new Jaguar which he rented for two minutes from AL PERNETT IMPORTED CARS, 1651 Eighth Street. AL PERNETT features the most popular foreign cars plus a parts and service department.

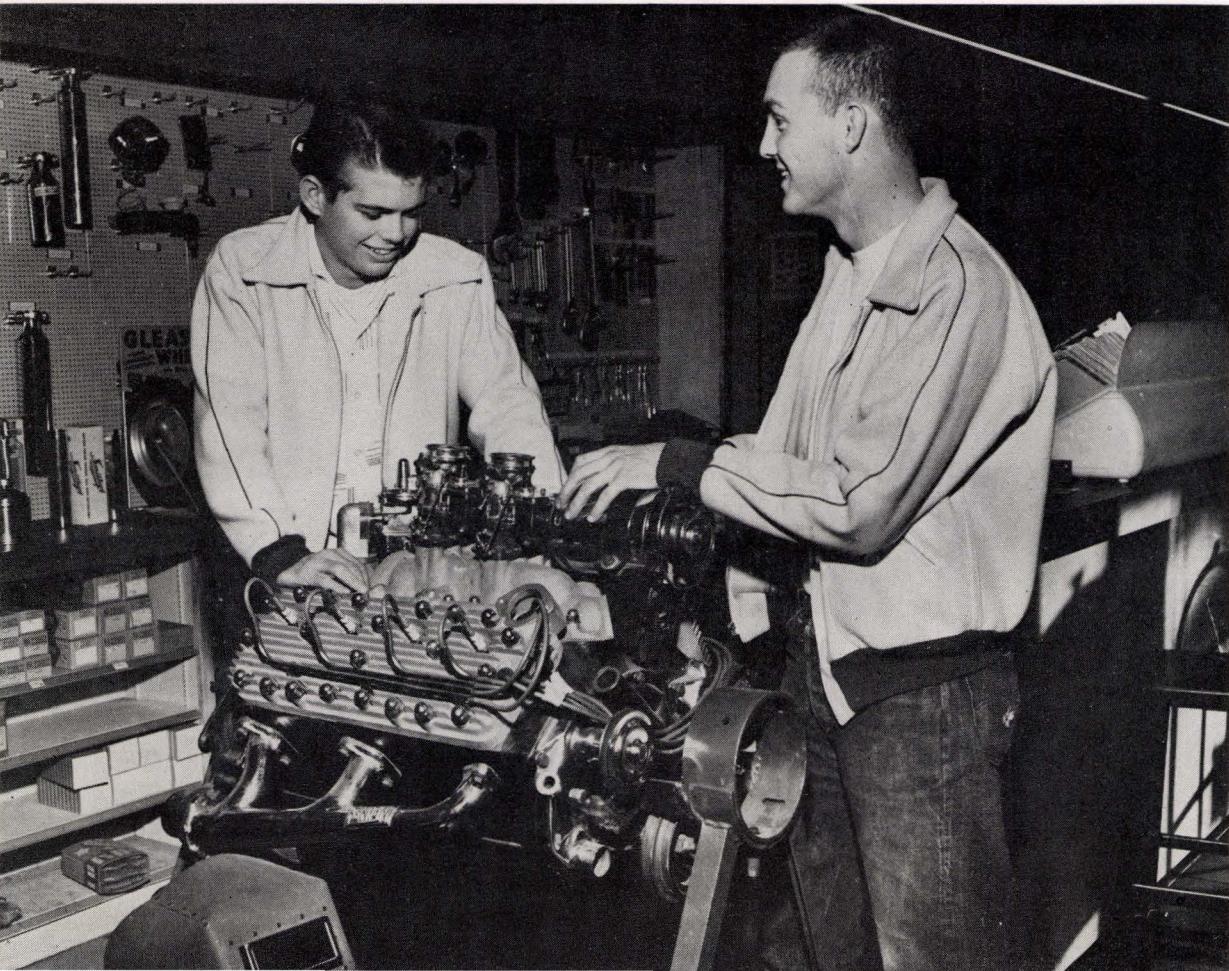

"Are you sure that these soles will withstand anything? I'm a pretty big boy, you know." Salesman Gene Wood reassures Clark Kane that HENSON'S, 3969 Main Street, carry shoes for all shapes and sizes.

Owen Kustner takes a determined stance as Jim "Bookie" Munson prepares to count the downed pins. These boys, like many Polyites, enjoy bowling afternoon or evenings at the RIVERSIDE BOWLING ACADEMY, 4075 Main Street. (Concentration, Owen . . . Concentration.)

Pete Noone is glad that his girl friend accepted his invitation. Dressed informally in a sport shirt and slacks from GABRIEL'S MEN'S WEAR, 3827 Main Street, he is ready for a movie date or just a drive through the tree-shaded Riverside streets. Whatever the occasion, Pete will go to GABRIEL'S for his clothes.

Playclothes for leisurely living are a must with Southern Californians. Here Marolyn Curtis and Barbara Olson relax in these two new styles of toreador pants and cotton shirts from LEONARD'S, Ladies' Apparel, 3775 Main Street.

Amateur auto wreckers Ken Seamans and Sid Nesbit just can't wait to see what's on the inside of this shiny, new motor. With superb supplies from ALLBRIGHTS, Eighth and Fairmount Streets, they plan to give it a complete overhauling. Here's wishing them luck!

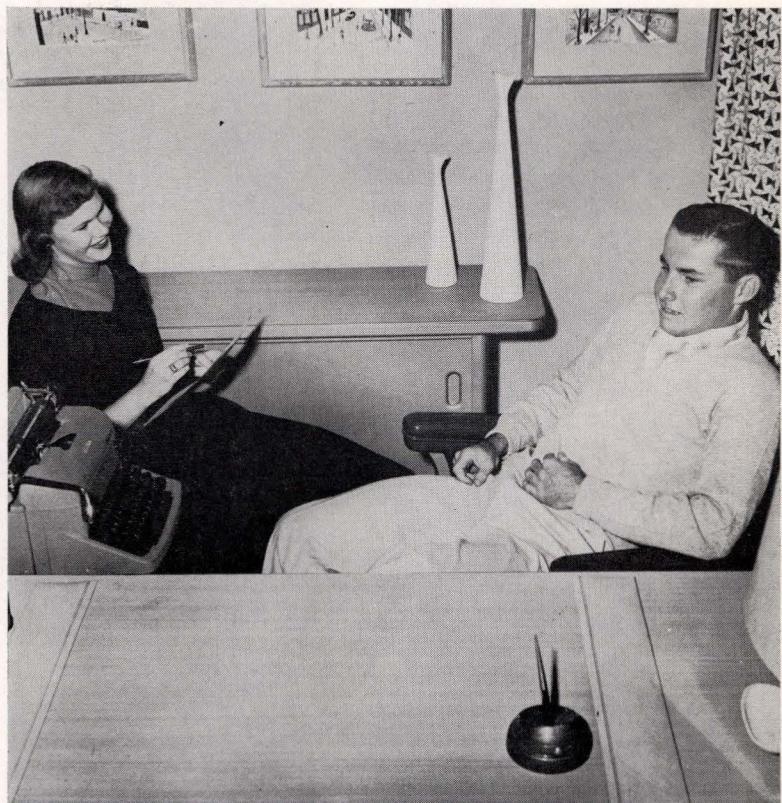

Need some help, Shirley? Shirley Chiuminatta knows that whichever frame she chooses from BRUNTON'S OPTICAL SERVICE, she'll be completely satisfied. BRUNTON'S, 3679 Main Street, carry all sizes and shapes of frames plus the glass to go in them — which comes in very handy sometimes.

Ann Rosenkrans is very happy with the wide selection of perfumes and cosmetics from the KEYSTONE DRUG CO., 3797 Main Street. This cologne that she is looking at would make a perfect gift.

"Dody" Murray is the "old fashioned" type secretary. She prefers a chair rather than Chuck Marshall's lap (?). But the office chairs from TIERNAN'S are so comfortable, who can blame her! TIERNAN'S, 4045 Main Street, is the place to go for a complete line in office equipment.

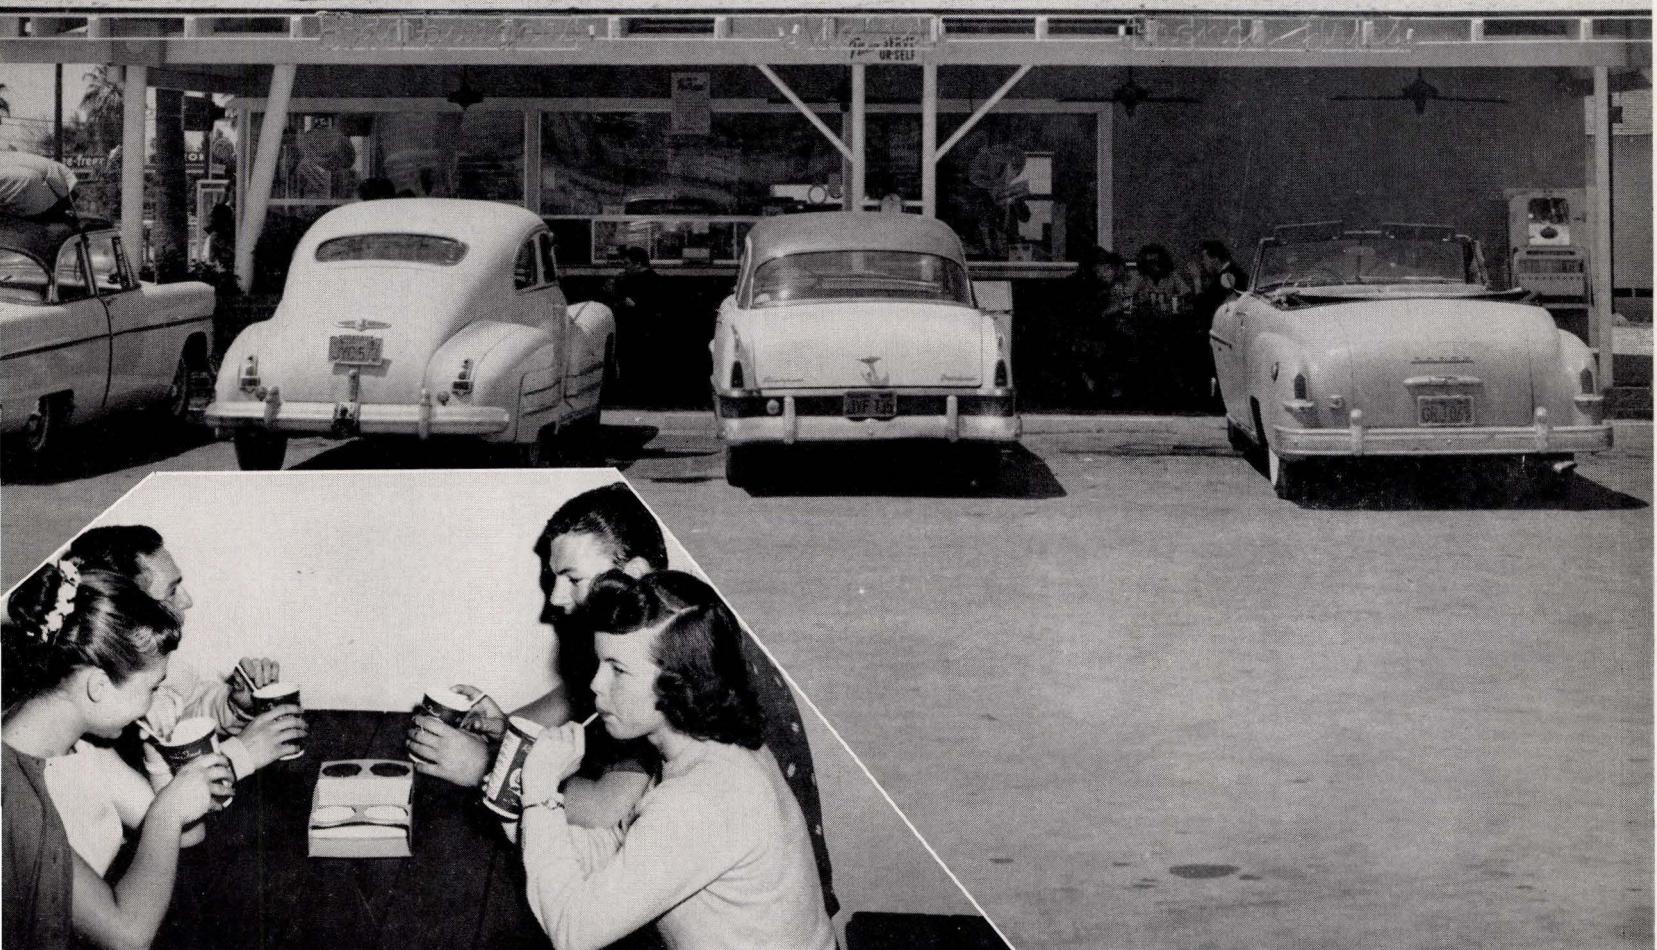

Richard Young, Don Fudge, Kent Ryan, Darryl Donnelly, Nancy Seuss, and Chuck Croninger found DON'S MUSIC CO., 3537 Main Street, a swell place to stage a little session. The atmosphere at DON'S is built up by the fine musical instruments that are found there.

"Look, Margie, it really is Superman," shouts Steve Pentoney. He and Margie Davis are spending an exciting evening watching their favorite programs on television. They know that for the best in television and all kinds of furniture, VOGEL BROS. FURNITURE STORE, 5664 Mission Road, is the place to go.

Jeannie Trujillo, Barbara Shears, and Carolyn Wendelin present a fashion show for us, modeling these three fashionable outfits from MICKI'S, 3921 Eighth Street. From play-clothes to dressy dresses, MICKI'S is the place to go.

Join the crowds and stop by THE KINGS DRIVE-IN, 1365 Eighth Street. After picking up their order at the handy self-service window, Ken Karstens and Ron Densmore decide to relax and enjoy the good food at the shaded tables. Judy Cochran and Lois Rutledge seem to like the idea, too.

Everyone can take this tip from Bruna Banks. Whether going to college, traveling, or just plain eloping, don't forget your luggage from HILLMER'S LUGGAGE AND MEN'S WEAR, 6566 Magnolia Avenue. Handsome, hardwearing luggage to suit your taste and need is waiting for you at HILLMER'S.

Frankie Shea takes a final look at this attractive dress from PAM'S, 3760 Ninth Street, before she buys it. PAM'S, new to Riverside, is deeply interested in pleasing the feminine half of Poly with their appealing merchandise.

Marcia Goldberg swoons silently as she imagines Joe Stallworth in this good-looking sport jacket from GOLDEN'S MEN'S WEAR, 3811 Market Street. It's easy to please the gals when you fellows buy your clothes at GOLDEN'S.

Sandy Brewer shows Dave Dales one of the beautiful table settings displayed at the J. R. WESTBROOK CO., 3750 Main Street. The selections in china, glassware, silver, and household equipment make any table more than attractive. WESTBROOK'S, Riverside's leader in distinctive home furnishings, also has departments of hardware, appliances, sporting goods, garden supplies, and toys.

Norma Scheiner and Nita Smith take time out for an afternoon of swimming and sunning in their new bathing suits from G. K. CHRISTENSEN, 3788 Main Street, the house of distinctive fashions. Shoppers automatically go to CHRISTENSEN'S first.

Roland "R. A." Ortega wears the disgusted look of a man who tripped over little sister's roller skate and landed in the ink well while leaving the house to pick up his favorite date. But R. A. smartly solved this problem by a side trip to BELL CO., CLEANERS AND DYERS, 4344 Market Street, where prompt and friendly service saved his embarrassment and his slacks.

"It's reversible!" jokes Russ Hosier as he gazes at the striped lining. Reversible or not, Salesman Joe Patterson of DON CREE MEN'S WEAR continues to tell Russ about the custom tailoring of this handsome suit. DON CREE'S, 3937 Main Street, and their new store in the Brockton Arcade, offer nothing but the best in men's wear.

Sharon Smith just can't stop talking about her new outfit from MARI-KRIS, 6582 Magnolia Avenue. At MARI-KRIS, Sharon found exactly the outfit she wanted from their selection. If Shari O'Barr could get a word in edgewise, she'd like to say that her new dress came from MARI-KRIS, too.

Ramona Sanchez is overcome with the large selection of glasses frames at the RIVERSIDE OPTICAL CO., 4015 Main Street. Their professional advice can help you choose frames that truly add to your attractiveness.

"Are you sure that's what you want?" Dave Gurley asks Bunny Pergin. Bunny is casting a very determined glance, so Dave had better give in and buy it for her. Anyway, Dave knows that he just can't go wrong with any purchase from GILMORE'S GIFT AND STATIONERY STORE, 3784 Main Street.

These oriental inspired co-ordinates that Judy Gust found so attractive are from the women's apparel department of SEARS, ROEBUCK & CO., 3720 Main Street. SEARS has everything from hardware to lingerie, and at prices to suit your pocketbook.

When you want a night of inexpensive exercise and fun, go to the RIVERSIDE ROLLER RINK as Sandy Davis and Bob Schrader have done. At the RIVERSIDE ROLLER RINK, 6672 Brockton Avenue, you may rent skates or bring your own.

While wandering through the outside display patios of BAYLESS FURNITURE CO., 6041 Magnolia Avenue, Gary Stephens just couldn't resist taking a mid-day siesta. Judy Hampton, determined to see the rest of BAYLESS'S garden furniture, prepares to refresh Gary with a cold, cold glass of water.

"Now don't fall out. It may scratch up the car!" Ron Preston sees that Lynne Swain is securely in the front seat of his new DeSoto from HALL MOTORS, 4099 Main Street. Ron is so sold on this HALL MOTORS car that he wishes he had one for driving and one to just sit and look at.

HUFFMAN'S FURNITURE STORE, 3498 Eighth Street, is the scene of this slumber party. Shirley Skinner, Shari St. Clair, Jeannie Bystrom, and Connie Colonelli have found this bedroom set so comfortable that they don't want to go home. Besides furnishings, HUFFMAN'S stock home appliances, radios, and T.V.'s.

Ray McCafferty and Linda Huber are all ready for a barbecue with supplies from PHIL HUBER'S BARBEQUE, 6150 Magnolia Avenue. Ray seems more tempted by Linda than the idea of a barbecue, but with all this good food he'll soon remember his appetite.

"But where's the picture?" Carol Kries wonders what kind of T.V. set this is. Anyone but Carol would be able to see that this so-called T.V. is one of the fine gas ranges available at RIVERSIDE T.V. AND APPLI-ANCE located at 3823 Main Street.

Jean Moxon and Helen Cadd are more than happy with their new shoes from A. R. COFFIN, 3877 Main Street. Fine quality, famous name shoes are found at COFFIN'S.

Reed Hertford wants to know if the enlargement of his snapshot will be as attractive as the one on the wall. Since Reed's subject is his dog, we doubt whether that will be possible. But with all of their photographic equipment and know-how, SIRK'S CAMERA SHOP, 3643 Main Street and 6732 Brockton Avenue, will do the best job that can be done anywhere.

While browsing through the many departments of the J. C. PENNEY AND CO., 3761 Main Street, Nancy Shea found this fresh cotton dress which is perfect for school or for parties. PENNEY'S carry a complete line of goods at reasonable prices.

Lee Martin inspects some of the wholesale and retail parts and supplies at BROWN'S ENGINE REBUILDING CO., 3886 Seventh Street. BROWN'S expert knowledge of motors enables them to give you the best service in all phases of detailed, superbly accurate, and complete engine rebuilding, including cam shaft grinding and dual muffler service.

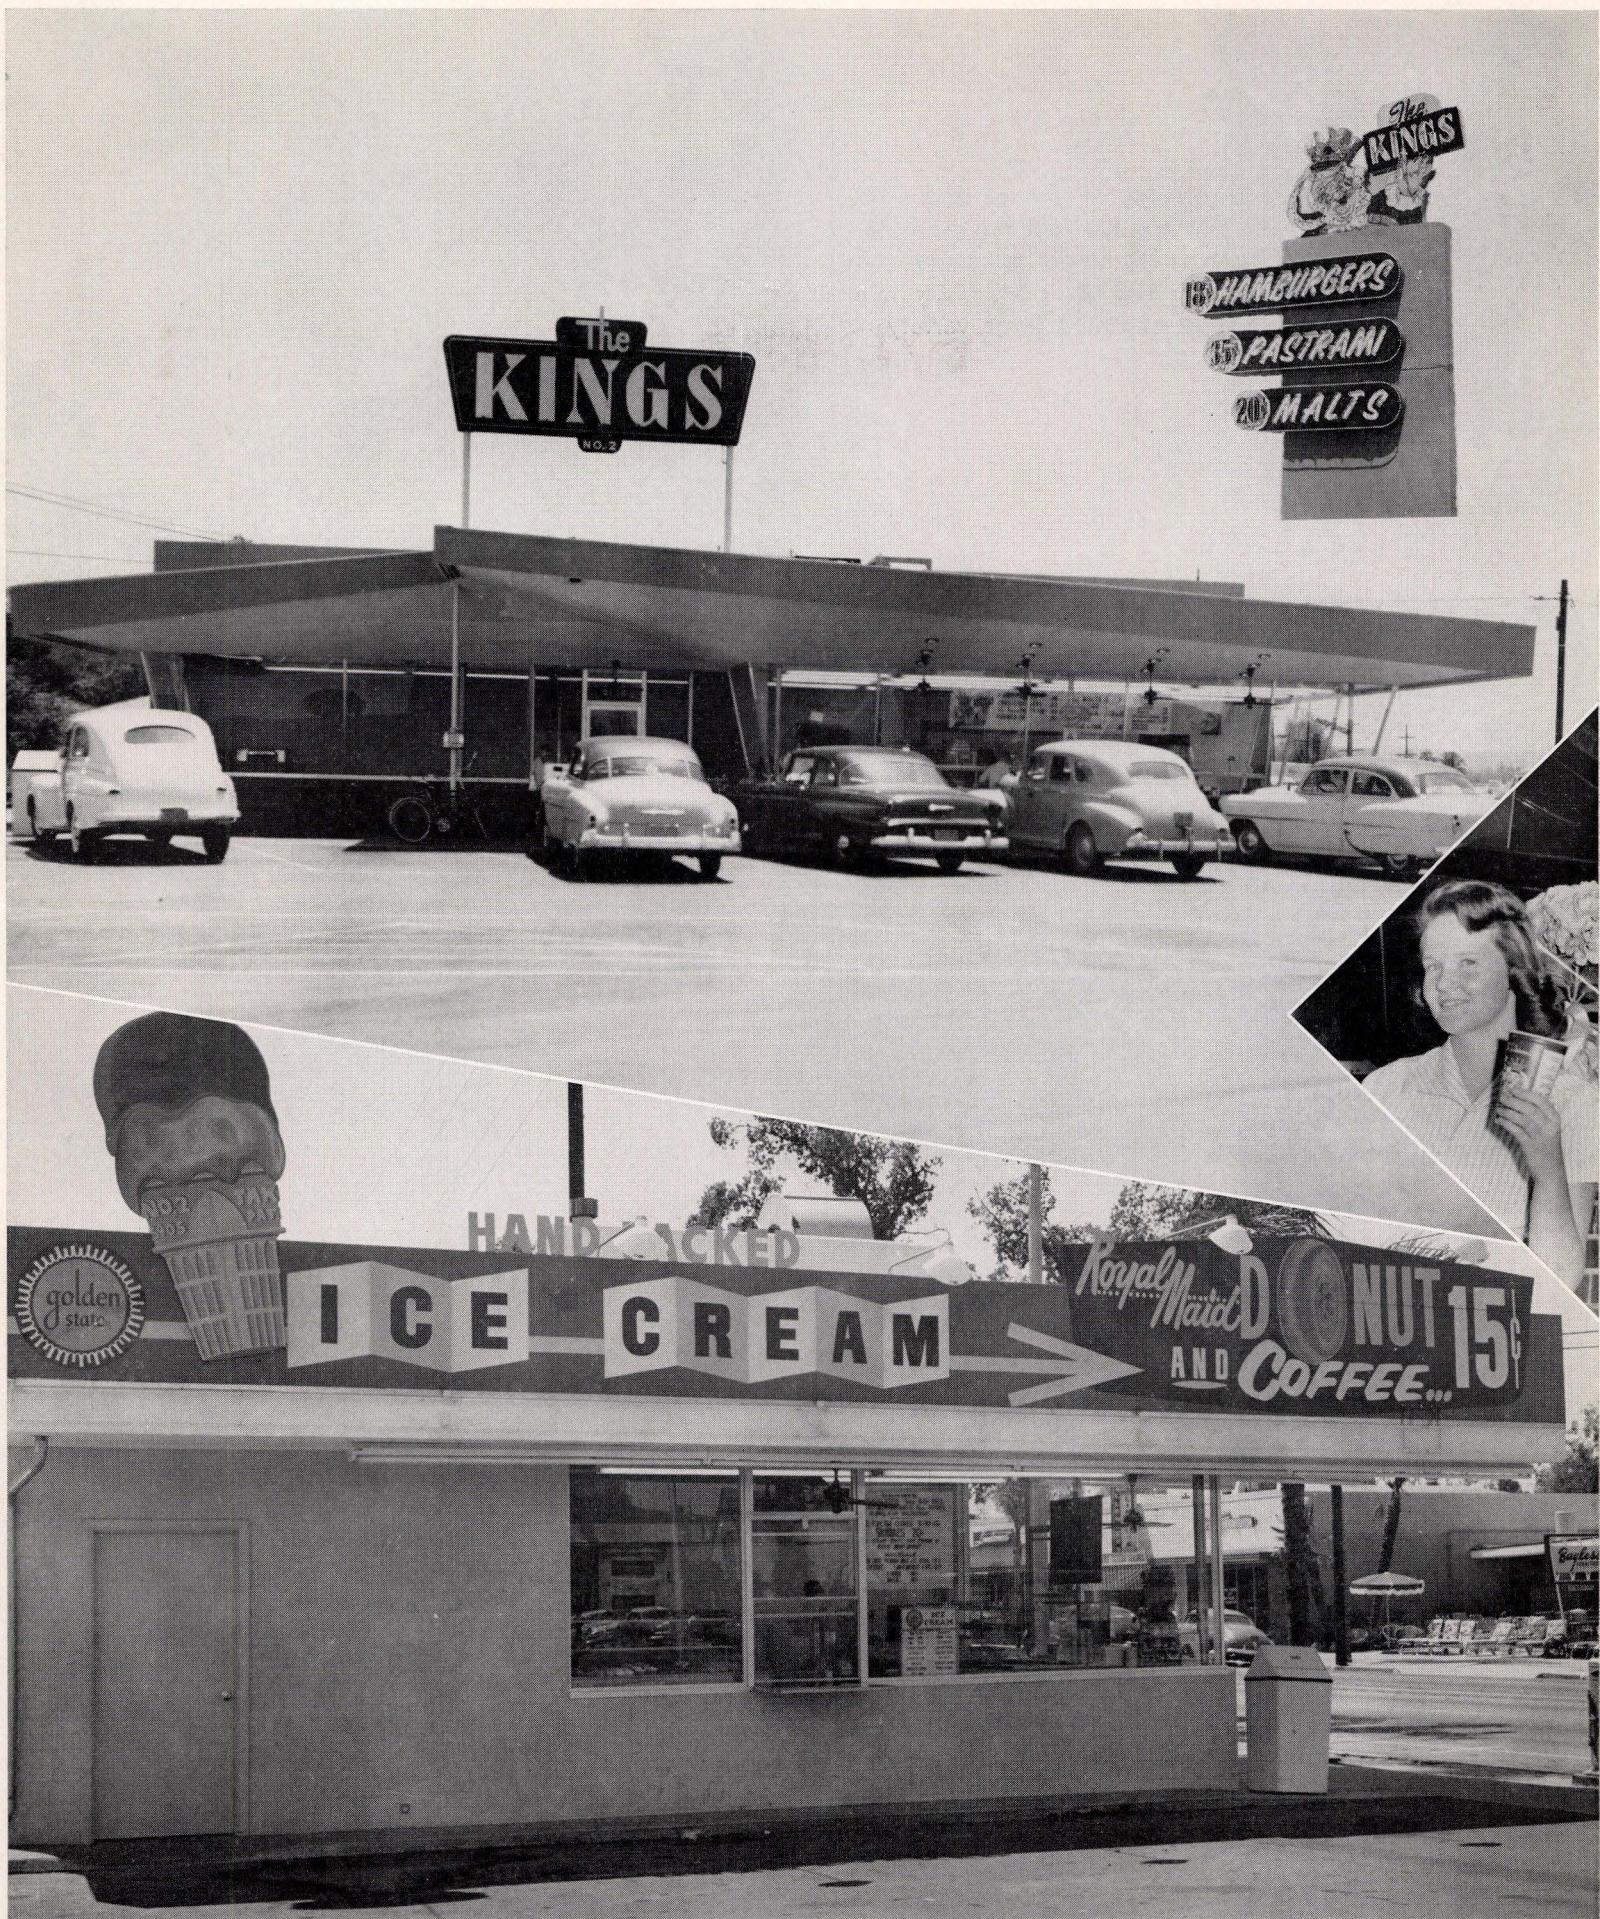

"Come on in," calls Diane Klobucher. "The water's fine." "I can't," answers Glenda Jones. "I have my shoes on!" In or out of the water these girls will always be the envy of the crowds in their bathing suits from H. F. GROUT AND CO., 3715 Main Street.

Joyce Rupel keeps a watchful eye on the presses of ARTCRAFT PRINTERS, 3764 Elizabeth Street, as they roll off the pages for the '56 Koala. For a job well done, go to ARTCRAFT PRINTERS.

The McLEAN STUDIOS, 4251 Main Street, was always the place for an enjoyable evening of fun and dancing. Barry Carver, Diane Hamilton, Ann Cattern, Fritz Hill, Penny Hartley, and Franklin Mead are learning new dance techniques in a class for just Poly students. The rug is always rolled up at the McLEAN STUDIOS.

There is always room for you and your car at THE KINGS NO. 2 DRIVE-IN, located on the corner of Magnolia and Jurupa in the growing Magnolia Center area. Janet Marcus has already found out that besides their well-known hamburgers, pastrami, and malts, the KINGS have expanded into a new donut and ice cream shop which also specializes in the best.

Pat Read is really happy. For once in his life his mother let him put his feet on the furniture. That's because his new shoes came from PRESTON'S SHOE STORE, 6542 Magnolia Avenue. This store carries a large variety of styles sure to please.

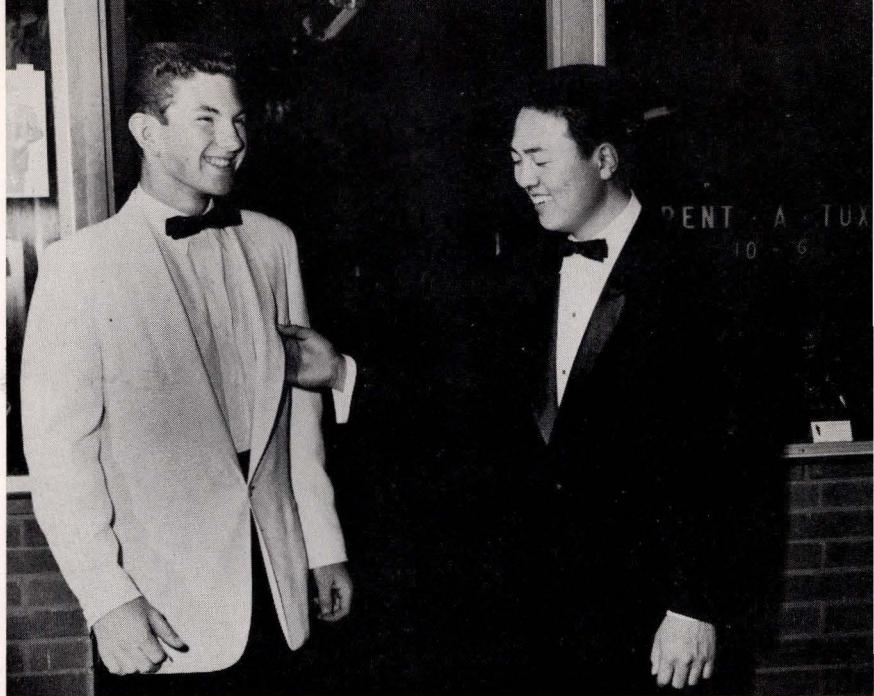

Gretchen Cheney enjoys playing the piano more than ever on this beautiful grand from CHENEY'S MUSIC HOUSE, 3931 Main Street. CHENEY'S will assure you a lifetime of enjoyment from any of their musical instruments. They also have complete departments in sheet music and records.

Judy Fellwock and Mary Jane Walton have found that campus casuals from REID'S women's ready-to-wear department are a welcome addition to any girl's wardrobe. REID'S DEPARTMENT STORE, 3773 Main Street, sells many other items and gives away S. & H. Green Stamps as well.

"Pretty smooth!" says Allen Hirata as he checks to see if Danny Kelly's white dinner jacket is as good as his own black tux. Allen can be assured that it is, for they both are the property of RENT-A-TUX, 3581 Eighth Street. The immediate service at RENT-A-TUX offers group and student rates. In any case, this is the place to go if you want to "rent a tux."

Mmmmm, Good! Dick Jones and Bill Suchy have taken one of their favorite girls, Joyce McPhail, for a round of tantalizing pizzas from LUIGI'S SELF SERVICE DRIVE-IN, 5555 Mission Boulevard.

Don Pepper is using up his last and third guess where Frank Beal's sharp-looking outfit came from. If he had used his head he would have known they were from McGRATH-OLSON, 3869 Main Street, where he bought his own.

Jan Hurst meets the gang for a tennis game in these attractive sportswear co-ordinates from THE CALIFORNIAN, 3638 Ninth Street. THE CALIFORNIAN'S selection of women's sportswear makes it a favorite Riverside store.

FARMER'S FAIR AND FESTIVAL OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY

at Hemet

August 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 1956

Bruce Owen apparently thinks that he is teeing off instead of putting. Tim Morgan seems unconcerned with the fact that he may get a golf ball in the face, and he awaits the shot with the dignity of a true sport. These boys make a hit on the golf course because they wear sport clothes from SWEET'S INC., 3789 Main Street. They put their faith in SWEET'S for distinctive men's wear.

Virginia Filippi confidently poses for her graduation picture in front of the professional eye and camera of Jackson Ingham, Jr. of the JACKSON INGHAM, JR., STUDIO, 3765 Tenth Street. Besides doing a swell job on the hundreds of Senior pictures, he kept up his usual first class work on all other photography.

Noma Cowan and Paul Oglesby find that sharing a lunch, dinner, or after-game snack is really fun at TUXIE'S SELF-SERVICE DRIVE-IN. TUXIE'S extra-thick malts and scrumptious hamburgers are a king-sized meal for anyone at either drive-in location — 6030 Magnolia Avenue, or 5348 Mission Blvd.

Marsha Hamner, dressed for school in this polished cotton print from JERRY ANN'S, decides to take Morgan along with her. It's "Stuffed Animal Day" at school and she wouldn't feel right in leaving him home. With or without (Morgan, that is), Marsha will be in the latest style if she buys her clothes at JERRY ANN'S DRESS SHOP, 9436 Magnolia Avenue.

Rod Muller and Bill Johnson prepare to launch this giant caterpillar through the plate glass windows of the JOHNSON TRACTOR CO., 3133 Seventh Street. The JOHNSON TRACTOR CO. supplies Riverside and the surrounding area with all types of farm and construction machinery.

Dick Banta just happened to be trying out a new camera from EVENSEN'S, and Gloria Stacy just happened to be looking at the gift items in the window. The combination of the two couldn't help but suggest that you should take a trip to EVENSEN'S, 3863 Main Street.

REYNOLDS offers these attractive fashions from their store at 4129 Main Street. Claudia Ragus received her "Miss Riverside" cup in this beautiful bathing suit from REYNOLDS. Susie Wheeler chose her prom formal from their lovely styles. Graduation day found Susie Anderson dressed in another of their cool cotton frocks. Beverly Stewart spent many fun-filled hours in these quilted Capri pants and matching shirt. For the best selection of an all-around wardrobe, it's

Reynolds

Bobbie Unland is positive that VIVA'S, 3730 Main Street, is the best store for miles around. Their dresses, sportswear, lingerie, jewelry, and accessories prove that VIVA'S is the sign of fashion.

viva's OF RIVERSIDE

Since Ron Buehner has gone to WALKER'S, he's sure to find exactly what he wants. For everything in boys' clothing from cuff links to suits, go to WALKER'S, 3642 Ninth Street, and 6736 Brockton Avenue.

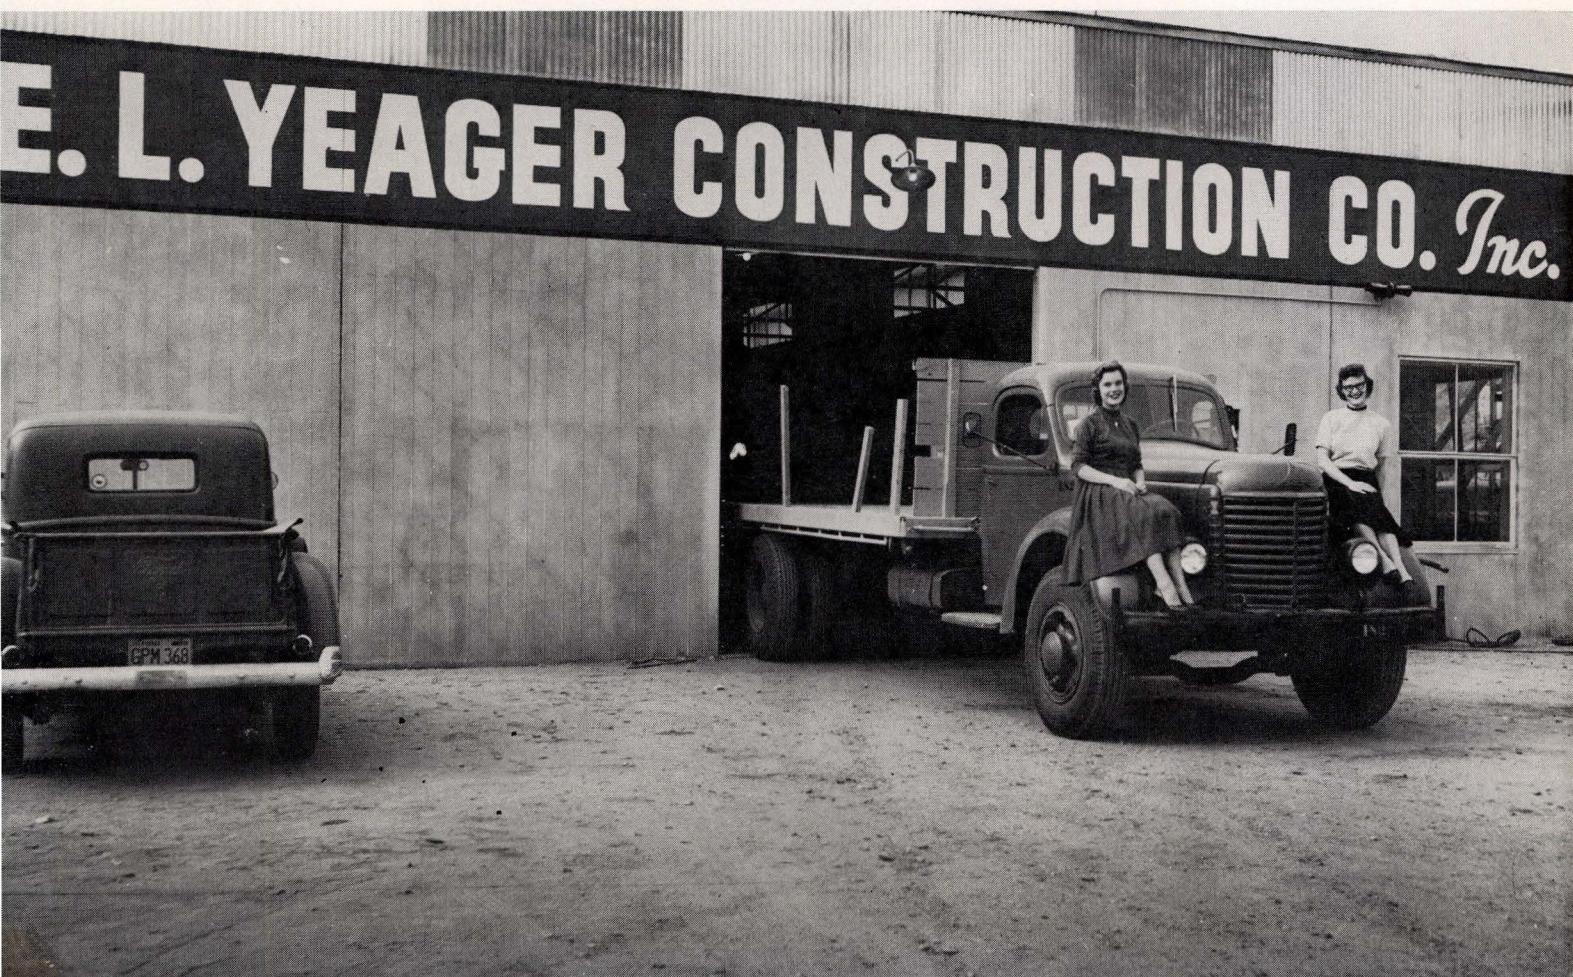

Margie Medrano's head is swimming after seeing all the beautiful shoes at HAROLD'S, 3847 Main Street. HAROLD'S always has the latest styles in popular name shoes plus matching handbags.

Pat Swanson and Gerald Bryant settle down with a good book (?) for a nice, quiet evening at home. Home happens to be the HOME FURNITURE store, 3557 Eighth Street. This attractive furniture will go well in any setting.

The E. L. YEAGER CO. INC., 1995 Agua Mansa Road, specializes in paving, excavating, and grading material plus needed equipment. Cammie Brown and Sylvia Sweet are just added attractions, and don't come with the job, in case you're wondering.

Whether it's cracking slot machines in the daytime or dating at night, Nancilu Bozlee and Jane Wallace find that their comfortable and attractive dresses from CARPENTER'S make the occasion more fun. CARPENTER'S DEPARTMENT STORE is located at 9477 Magnolia Avenue in Arlington.

TIMBER !!! Yes, that's exactly right, and it's quality timber at that. Did you say, "Where can you buy quality timber?" That's simple . . . at the JOHN SUVERKRUP LUMBER CO., 3625 First Street. You may also buy all your other building supplies from their complete line.

Harry:
You are one of the nicest ?? guys
I ever knowed. I hope you will always have lots of luck in everything you do.
Just remember you will always be my dearest boy friend.

Love always-

Jane

Larry,
The best of luck to you and your hot rods in the future
years.
Linda
