DEDICATION

Lest gallant, unobtrusive toil in the noble yet frequently trying cause of our education go unheralded, we, the Class of June, 1950, have chosen to lift up, as it were, out of the obscurity of her burgeoning book-room, our great and busy friend, Freda Hagerup, by dedicating to her this Shield. We hope that this Shield will find sufferance in her kindly heart as being not just another book, but rather a book peculiarly her own, sincere proof that not only have we gloried in her rare good nature, but have also found her courtesy and wit in the otherwise forbidding stronghold of learning, a source of inspiration and delight.

RICHMOND'S FIRST A.C.A.L. CHAMPIONSHIP

We won! For the first time in the history of RUHS the Oilers brought home an undisputed varsity basketball flag in the A.C.A.L. With ten wins and two losses in league play the Oilers took the lead in the race and never lost it.

Coach Dick Christensen's five went on to enter the Tournament of Champions in San Francisco, where they went to the finals of the consolation bracket.

Richmond opened its basketball season by beating the St. Mary's five, 47-43. Jim McKellar was high point man with 19. In the next practice tilt with Poly Hi of San Francisco the Oilers coasted to a 46-39 win. This time it was Bobby Doster who paced the attack with 17 points. In their third game of the season, Richmond proved it had a winning team with a convincing 45-35 victory over Acalanes. Jim Brown and Bob Doster set the pace with 12 and 15 points respectively. The Oilers carried their winning streak to four straight games by beating Vallejo, 52-44. Dick Hill and Jim Brown sparked the team with 26 points between them. The Oilers managed to hang on to a slim two point lead to defeat San Leandro 48-46. It was Jim Brown again who grabbed the high point honors. In the sixth game of the season the Oilers ran amuck Carl Lawson's rebounding and deadly aim at the bucket. The final score was Napa 29—Richmond 59. After winning six straight games, the Oilers finally fell before a strong Commerce Quintet, 41-37. Jim McKellar's 12 points were to no avail against the Commerce five. The Oilers had a rough go of it when they tangled with the McClymonds five, but Richmond emerged victorious by one slim point, 40-39 as Ron Ferrari hit a 20-footer with 15 seconds to play. Behind the great team playing of Dick Hill and Carl Lawson, the Oilers whipped Oakland High, 40-35. In the last practice game before the ACAL opened the Oilers literally ran circles around the John Swett team to the tune of Richmond 56—Crockett 29. Dick Hill, Bobby Doster, and Jim McKellar teamed up for 33 of the Richmond points.

In the first ACAL game the Oilers swept the Piedmont Highlanders off their feet with a 38-35 win. Carl Lawson's rebounding was an outstanding factor toward the victory. The Oilers humbled the Alameda Hornets with a 45-32 Oiler triumph. Coach Christensen used the second and third string during a large part of the game. In the third ACAL tilt the Oilers ran their string of consecutive victories to a big three when they swamped Albany 42-27. Dick Hill played a great defensive game. Richmond suffered the first defeat of the ACAL season at the hands of the Hayward Farmers, commonly known as the Spoilers, because they won when it was least expected. The score at the final gun was Hayward 48—Richmond 42. Richmond next tangled with the Cal Lightweights and out-raced this well-balanced aggregation 57-50. Back to the ACAL in the Richmond-El Cerrito battle, the Oilers played a loose game and lost 38-35. Jim Brown and Carl Lawson each scored 12 points for the Oilers. But the Richmond-Berkeley contest put the Oilers back in the lead. When the gun sounded, the Oilers led 47-43. It was Jim McKellar's 11 points that kept the Richmond team in the lead. In the next game the Oilers lost to the former Oilers by two points. The final score was Alumni 46—Oilers 44. In another practice tilt the Red and Blue came home victorious over Alhambra 59-36. Ron Ferrari scored 8 points in the duel. Anxious to hold the lead in the ACAL, the Oilers took charge of the game and stomped hapless Piedmont 57-37. Jim Brown scored 20 of the points. It was mostly the second string that beat Albany in the second game. The final score was 45-26. In the return match between the Oilers and the Gauchos the teams played before the largest crowd ever to jam into the Richmond gym. It was a tight game with the Oilers going into a four-minute stall with a one point lead. In the last one-half minute the Richmond five broke loose for eight big markers. The final score was 39-30. With the championship at stake the Oilers entered the final ACAL contest against Berkeley. They just managed to outlast the Jackets 45-44 as Carl Lawson hit for 17 points, his season high.

It was the great team spirit and good co-operation with the fine coaching by Dick Christensen that enabled the Oilers to stick together while the other teams in the ACAL came apart at the seams and lost vital games.

The Oilers placed more men on the all ACAL team than any other team in the league by placing Jim McKellar and Jim Brown on the first string and Carl Lawson on the second string. Bob Doster and Dick Hill made honorable mention.

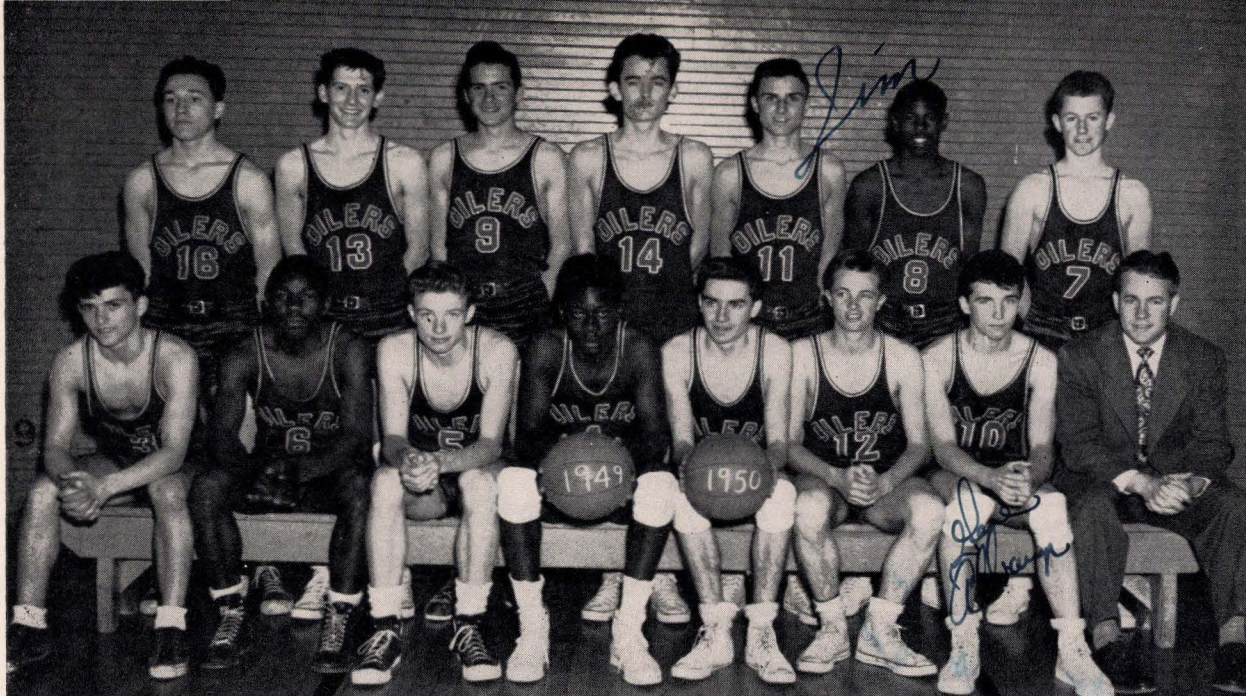

Co-captain Jim Brown won the coveted blanket award, while center Carl Lawson was awarded the Redmen scholarship. Co-captain Bobby Doster garnered the free throw trophy.

ACAL CHAMPIONS 1950

ANOTHER R.U.H.S. CHAMPIONSHIP

It was a good basketball year at RUHS. The varsity won the league championship—so the B's, not to be outdone, walked away with the "B" basketball crown. It was the total of eighteen wins and only seven losses that put the Oilers on top.

Three of the team members were chosen on the mythical All-ACAL team. Gene Busby and Mutt Goodwin won spots on the first string and Mickey Quigley earned a position on the second string.

In their first game of the season, the Oilers were defeated at the hands of the San Francisco's Poly High "B" team. It was the sharp eyes of Busby and Goodwin that scored the most of Richmond's points. The final score was Poly 48—Richmond 42.

In the second game of the season, Richmond walloped Acalanes 38-23. John L. Sullivan scored eight points for the Richmond cause.

In a slow scoring game with Vallejo, Richmond managed to hang on to a slim lead and win 23-20. It was Gene Busby again who took top scoring honors with 8.

In the fourth game of the practice season, Mutt Goodwin's 15 points enabled Richmond to beat San Leandro 32-28.

Richmond coasted to a win over Napa 39-27. Mickey Quigley came through with seven points from the pivot position in this contest. This made the B's record 4 wins and 1 loss.

Richmond pushed its string of victories to 5 when they beat Commerce by a 28-25 score. Goodwin and Reardon teamed up for 18 points.

The final score was Richmond 36—McClymonds 35 when hosting Richmond downed the Oakland champions. James Wiley and Mutt Goodwin scored 8 and 15 points respectively.

Richmond's string of victories stretched to seven when they outscored Oakland 34-27. Goodwin, Busby, and Preston teamed up for 22 of Richmond's points.

The Oiler B's made it eight wins in a row when they traveled to Crockett for the last practice game of the season. The score was 40-30 with Richmond on the heavy end. Gene Busby's 16 and Mutt Goodwin's 14 accounted for 30 of the 40 points.

Richmond proved they were ready for league play when they smashed Piedmont 35-21 in the season's opener. Great play throughout the game by center Mickey Quigley strengthened the Oilers.

After nine victories in a row Richmond fell before the Alameda Hornets 31-26. Only four Oiler men managed to score during the contest.

A surprisingly tough Albany five gave the Oilers a lot of trouble but the Richmonders managed to gather their strength and defeat the Cougars by one point, 31-30. Again, as usual, it was Goodwin and Busby that scored the most of the Oiler points. This time they (Goodwin and Busby) accounted for 20 points.

Richmond was more like its old self when it downed Hayward 49-24. Mickey Quigley put through 8 points for the Oilers.

The next Oiler game was with the Cal 130's, although most of them were bigger than the Oilers, and the Oilers tasted defeat for the third time of the season. The final score was Cal 46—Richmond 30.

The Oilers must have been disheartened by the loss to Cal because they lost to the El Cerrito B's by two points 31-29. Again Busby and Goodwin accounted for the big part of the points with 25 between them.

The Oilers got back to the win column by squeezing by Berkeley 33-30. Bowers and Goodwin teamed up for 21 points.

The next match was all in fun when the B's lost to the Alumni 46-44. The points, for once, were evenly divided between the players with nine players scoring.

It was only a practice game but the Oilers had to prove they could win, so they beat Alhambra 26-20.

Back to league play for the second round the Oilers jumped on the Piedmont Highlanders for 42 points. The final score was 42-23. Jim Wiley dropped through a field goal in each of the first three periods for 6 points.

The Hornets were defeated the second time they met the Oilers by a convincing 37-41 score. This gave the Oilers a record of six wins and one loss in league play.

The Albany Cougars upset the Richmond five 38-30 in the game played at Albany. Mickey Quigley sunk four field goals and four free throws for 12 markers.

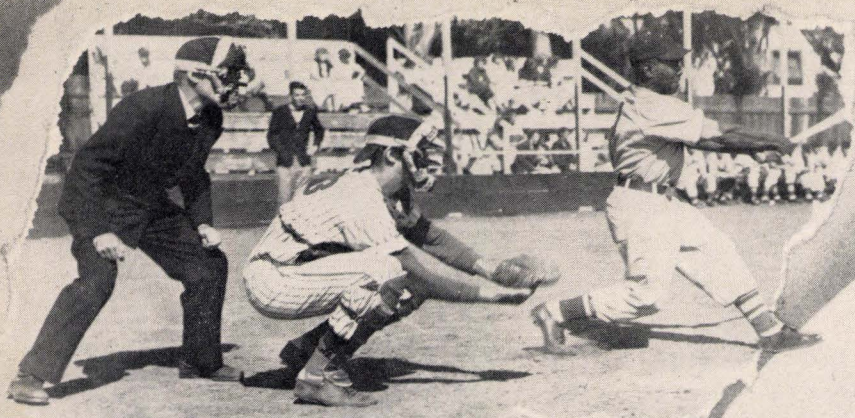

In a surprisingly low scoring game between Richmond and Hayward, Richmond came out ahead 27-19. In this contest eight players out of twelve that got in the game scored at least two points.

In a practice tilt with St. Elizabeth from San Francisco, the Oilers outscored the visitors 41-36. Six points by Willie Preston aided the Oilers along.

When the Gauchos traveled to Richmond, they were plowed under 30-19 by the angry B's. Jim Reardon put through five long field goals for ten Oiler points. The game that won the flag for the Oilers was the last game of the season. On top of all that, it was against the tough Berkeley Yellowjackets. The score was 30-23, in favor of Richmond. It was Busby and Goodwin who scored 20 of the Oilers' points between themselves.

The team was a credit to the fine coaching of Elmer McCormick. Any team that can win as consistently as the 1949-50 Oiler B team shows that it has had good coaching. It was a job well done, Mr. McCormick!

In the first league game of the season the Oilers had to go eleven innings to beat Hayward 5-4. The Oilers scored first but the Farmers matched every run by the Richmond squad. The winning run was scored when Jim Anselmo drew a walk with the bases loaded. The winning chucker was Dink Wilson.

The next game was a practice tilt with Richmond playing host to Fremont. The game turned out to be a regular track meet with the Oilers scoring 20 runs. The winning pitcher was Stan Jarvis, who held the Tigers to six hits and five runs. The big hitter was Jim Landis with two hits for two tries, a home-run and a double.

In the next league game the Oilers smashed the Albany Cougars 7-1. Two home-runs highlighted the game, one a 400-foot blow by Louie Bryson, the other an inside the park smack by speedy Bill Rivers.

The Oilers collected 15 hits in an 11-5 rout with Acalanes. Mutt Goodwin, lead-off man of the game, poled a home-run the first time up. Lee Chambers had an easy time of it. He allowed but six hits and five runs during the contest.

Back to the league play the Oilers downed the Alameda Hornets 4-2 behind five hit pitching by Dink Wilson. The hero for the Oilers was Mutt Goodwin with three singles driving in two big runs. Jim Landis hit a long homer in the second putting the Oilers in the lead temporarily. The two winning runs were not scored until the last inning.

Tall Lee Chambers was the man of the hour when he pitched a no-run, no-hit game against the tough Berkeley Yellowjackets. Chambers struck out eleven men and walked only two. Tom Fresquez drove in the only two runs of the game. The Berkeley pitcher, Malone, allowed but two hits, losing 2-0.

Every Richmond rooter returned home heartbroken when the Oilers lost to the El Cerrito Gauchos 7-5 in the game played at El Cerrito. The Gauchos got only two hits, both in the four-run fourth inning. The losing pitcher was Bobby Doster, who took over when Dink Wilson got wild. Joe Porter drove home two Richmond scores with a double and a single.

Richmond played around and almost frittered away the game in the return match with Acalanes in a practice game. The final score was 5-4. The win was credited to Joe Porter.

In the second round of league play the Oilers traveled to Albany and steamrollered to a win 12-0 after the first game that was scheduled with Hayward was rained out. Joe Porter started hitting his peak in this game. He got doubles his first three times and topped it all off with a tremendous home-run. Tom Fresquez chased four Richmond runs with two hits.

When the Alameda Hornets traveled to Richmond to engage in a baseball contest with the Richmond Oilers, they returned home defeated solidly by the rampaging Oilers. Stan Jarvis was the Oiler mainstay allowing but 2 hits in his 7-1 victory.

In an extra inning affair the Oilers came out on top 6-5 with the Berkeley Yellowjackets on the low end. Right-hander Dink Wilson went the full distance for the Oilers, allowing nine safely scattered singles, while striking out nine Berkeley batters.

The Oilers got their revenge by beating the only team that defeated them in league play, the El Cerrito Gauchos. In a game that took on a professional air, the Oilers scored in the last inning to defeat the El Cerritos 3-2. The Gauchos scored first with a run in the second inning, but Jim Landis rapped a home-run over the left field fence putting the Oilers back in the game. Lee Chambers went the distance for the Oilers, getting credit for the win.

Playing a make-up game for the one that was rained out the Oilers cinched the championship flag by defeating Hayward 8-3. Everyone but the pitcher got a hit toward the win. Hayward scared the Richmond fans by crossing the plate three times in the opening inning but the Oilers finally went ahead in the fifth with two markers. The Oilers collected 10 hits in their winning effort.

The Oilers had a very good season with a record of 24 wins and 4 losses. Their league record was nine wins and one loss. The batting honors were captured by Tom Fresquez with a season batting average of .351.

Two members of the team were chosen to play on the Post Enquirer All-Star team June third. They were Lee Chambers and Bobby Doster.

Mr. William H. Outman did a very great job of coaching the team during the entire season and he deserves all the credit that can be given him. Good luck next season, Mr. Outman!!

J. V. BASEBALL

In the first game of the season Coach Yates' nine traveled to San Francisco to play the Mission squad and they were victorious 7-3 in their first outing. Bud McGee went the distance for the Oilers' JVs.

Richmond's Jack Martin lost a heart-breaker to Mt. Diablo, 1-0. Jack lost his game going into the last of the sixth when he issued a walk, the runner stole second and the next batter singled to end the scoring and hitting for the day. Richmond had 0 runs on 5 hits and Mt. Diablo had 1 run on 2 hits.

The JVs won a slugfest from the Vallejo Redskins, 15-13. The big bats for the locals were Rich, Rodola, Glenn, and Rivers who all had four masters for the evening.

At the first home game of the season, the JVs made it a winning one trouncing the Missions nine, 16-3. The JVs capitalized on 5 walks in the second inning to score 8 runs.

In the first meeting between Acalanes and Richmond, the Oilers had a gala afternoon scoring 18 runs. Jack Martin and Bud McGee teamed up to hold the Acalanes nine to 3 runs. Edwards and Boom took the hitting honors with 2 for 3 and 2 for 2 respectively.

The JVs found rough going at Crockett when they played the John Swett team and lost 12-0. Bud McGee was tagged for the second loss of the season for the JVs, but had no support from his teammates who only collected 2 hits.

Jeff Yates' men found their batting eye against the St. Mary's squad, pounding them for 21 runs. Leading 11-2 going into the first frame, they added injury to insult by scoring 10 more runs. Jack Martin and Schroyer allowed only 2 runs and 3 hits to the St. Mary's team.

The JVs were held to a 5-5 tie with the Richmond Boys Club. Martin and Schroyer went again for the Oilers.

The Oilers farm club lost a tough game to the Balboa JVs 4-3. Leading throughout the game 3-2 until the seventh and final inning, Balboa scored 2 runs on an error, a walk, and a single, and the ball game was over.

The JVs' bats were silent when they met Mt. Diablo for the second time and went on to lose their second game to the Diablions, 10-3. Anselmo collected the only hit for Richmond.

Again the Oilers' bats were silent when they met the Richmond Boys Club and lost 4-3. Schroyer was the losing pitcher for the locals.

The Oilers junior varsity finally got back in the win column by beating the Hayward Farmers, 5-0. McGee and Martin allowed only 1 hit to the Hayward nine.

The game between the Richmond JVs and the Alhambra Bulldogs was called at the end of the seventh and ended up a 7-7 tie.

The JVs won their second game from Vallejo, 5-3, to make it two in a row over the Redskins. Carl Cundiff pitched a fine game for Jeff Yates yielding 4 hits and 3 runs.

In the game between Richmond and Alameda, the locals were shaded 6-5. Alameda, off to a fast start, collected 4 in the third and added two more in the fourth to put the game on ice.

Richmond met Garfield at their home diamond and had murder in their eyes as they pounded out 19 hits and 24 runs to trample poor Garfield 24-4.

Richmond jumped on Acalanes as Martin and Shroyer limited Acalanes 1 run and five hits while the locals were gathering 8 hits and 5 runs. The big guns for the JVs were Landis, with 2 for 3, Urquhart, 1 for 2, and Martin collected a double in 1 time up.

Richmond met the ever-hated Gauchos at the home diamond and was nosed 4-3 in a very tight game. El Cerrito jumped on McGee for one run in the first and 3 in the second while the best Richmond could do was one in the sixth and 2 in the seventh.

The JVs met the dangerous Boys Club and evened up the series by beating them 4-2. McGee went the distance for the JVs and Urquhart was the big man with 2 for 3.

It was a wild and woolly affair when Richmond lost to Alameda, 9-10. The locals collected 6 runs in the first four innings and added 3 in the fifth, but that wasn't enough as Alameda had a big 4th inning in which the Hornets scored 6 big runs and added 1 in the 5th and 1 in the 7th.

The JVs had a rather easy time with John Swett beating them 12-6. Rivers had a big day getting 2 hits and scoring 3 runs. Schroyer was the winning pitcher.

Jack Martin was at his best when he met the Piedmont nine and he pitched a no-hit and no run game, while walking 4. The JVs collected only 2 hits but scored 4 runs.

Richmond again lost a 1-run game by dropping it to El Cerrito 8-7. Again the JVs were leading until the last of the seventh when the roof caved in on them with four runs, to give El Cerrito their second win over them in as many times.

Richmond's Schroyer pitched the locals to a 6-3 win over the Richmond Boys Club to give them the edge in the series 3-2.

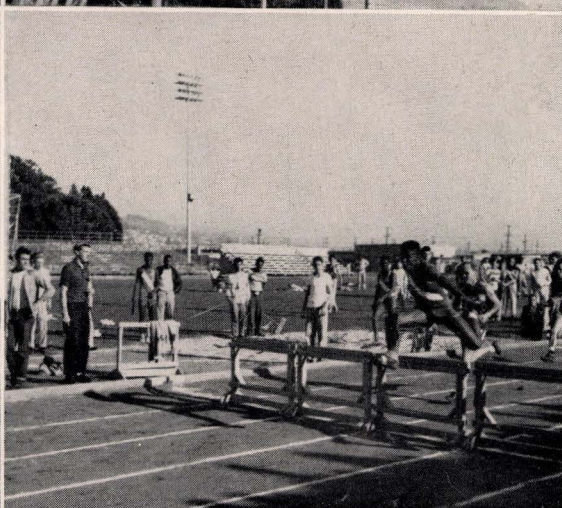

The JVs wound up their season with 14 wins, 2 ties and 8 losses. This year was not perhaps the best for Coach Yates' men but it did show that it was handled with good coaching and good team spirit.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Richmond High Varsity thinclads annexed the A.C.A.L. championship. Under the direction of two new coaches, Frank Porto and Bob Troppmann, the Oilers also scored a decisive upset by winning the Martinez Relays.

Traveling to Tamalpais for the first duel meet of the season the Oilers came home on the long end of a 66-47 score. The meet was decided by the depth of the Richmond team who scored 3 firsts, 8 seconds, and 8 thirds.

The second meet of the season proved to be a startling upset by the purple and white from Piedmont; the score was not decided until the relay was over and the Clan had the advantage 59-54. This was Richmond's second loss in six years, and it looked as though the track dynasty that was set up by Phil Hempler, now Superintendent of Physical Education in the Richmond schools, had come to an end. The Oilers bounced back and humiliated the Alameda Hornets 87-26. Jim Brown won the broad jump with a leap of 21'3" and Carney Cook won the shot and discus. The Red and Blue captured 11 out of 13 events from the Hornets.

The third meet of the season saw the Oilers defeat Lowell High the perennial San Francisco champs, by a score of 75-38. This victory, in which the Richmond thinclads took 7 out of 13 firsts, came as quite a surprise to the rival schools, and once again established Richmond as a contender for the championship.

Richmond's second and last defeat came at the hands of the highly touted El Cerrito Gauchos. The green and white from around the corner beat the Oilers for the first time since the rivalry started; the meet wasn't over until the El Cerrito relay team broke the tape finishing the meet with the score of El Cerrito 59½, Richmond 53½.

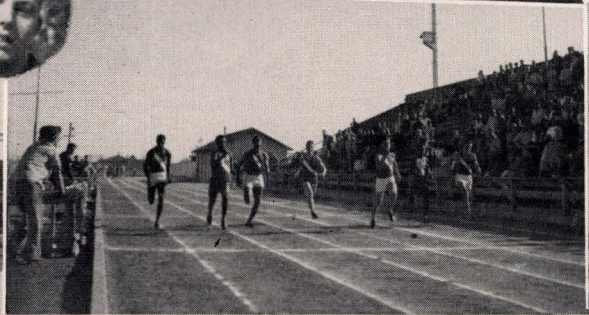

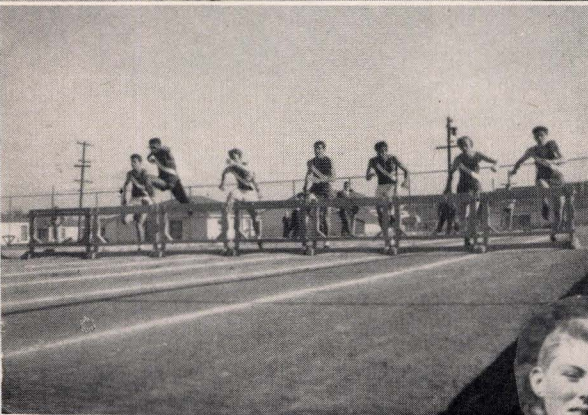

With two duel meets left on the agenda, the one man track team from Napa High fell next on the list. When Sherman Miller, the Napa bombshell had finished his workout, he had taken firsts in the 100-220-440, second in the broadjump and ran a leg in the relay—this, however, wasn't enough to overcome the now powerful Richmond Oilers. The final score stood Richmond 90, Napa 23. The Browns, Jimmy and Willie, Carney Cook, Jim Thomas, Cameron Warmboe, Bill Doolittle to name a few, were again the standouts.

The last duel meet of the season pitted the Red and Blue machine against the winless Hayward farmers. The final count being 103 to 10. The powerlaiden Oilers almost scored a complete shutout. Hayward points were scored by taking 2 seconds and 3 thirds. Three records were broken in this meet—Willie Brown ran the 220 in 22.5 seconds, Jim Thomas scooted on the low barriers in the time of 21.4, and the Richmond relay team, consisting of Calvin Moore, Willie Brown, Phil Shaffer, and Jim Brown, broke the meet record in this event.

The Hayward meet closed the duel meet season with a record of 5 wins and 2 losses, which was a credit to the boys on the team because it was comparatively a new team. Boys like Jim Brown, Willie Brown, Jim McKellar, Carl Lawson and Calvin Moore who had never been out for track before helped make 1950 a successful season. The A.C.A.L. meet was one of surprises with Richmond winning for the fourth consecutive year. El Cerrito and Piedmont were the biggest competition. Most of the boys came through with the best performances in their life. Bill Doolittle vaulted 11'9" for a first in that event. Carney Cook and Mark Sanders won the weight events. Jim Thomas set a new record in the 180 low hurdles with a time of 20.6. The relay team, composed of Calvin Moore, Phil Shaffer, Bill Copeland and Willie Brown, won the relay. Jimmy Brown, who pulled a leg muscle in the A.C.A.L. trials, came back in the finals and limped to a second place in the broadjump. Carney Cook and Jim Brown were elected co-captains and two finer boys couldn't have been chosen.

JUNIOR VARSITY TRACK

ACAL CHAMPIONS

Not to be outdone by the varsity, the Oilers' "B" track team compiled a record of 7 wins and no losses to take the "B" ACAL race. The efforts of such men as Bill Sartain, Lawrence Purley, Jerry Harvy and Don Marciel were one of the big reasons the Bs retained their ACAL championship for the third year and will probably be part of the nucleus of next year's varsity.

In their first meet with Tamalpais, the "Bs" were very victorious in defeating the Indians, 69-29. They took every first place except the shot and the 330.

On March 10, the Oilers met the Piedmont Highlanders and trounced them 79-15. A new record was set for the 1320, in which Purley ran it in 3.32.

The Richmond B thinclads took revenge for the Varsity by winning over the Gauchos' squad 76-18. Men who took first places for Richmond were Hornell, Davis, Williams, Franklyn, White, Galbert, Harvey, Gary, and Schessow. There was a new meet record in the 75-yard dash set by Hornell in 8.3.

Lowell proved to be a very tough match for Richmond, but the Oilers won out by a score of 53-41. They took all three places in the 75-yard dash and the 150-yard dash.

The Richmondites trampled the Hayward Farmers 75-20. Prigge took the 330; Harvey took the 120 L. H.; Williams took the broadjump; all in all Richmond took nine out of eleven first places.

Richmond slaughtered the Alameda Hornets 75-20 as a new meet record was set in the 1320 by the speedy Dave Purley in 3.29.6. The always reliable relay team of Sartain, Marciel, Gary, and Williams did the round in 48.4, which is very good for a B squad.

Richmond tied for first in the broadjump with jumps of 18' 7" each.

In the last meet of the season the Oilers steamrolled Berkeley 70-25. Sartain, Davis, Ridge, ran one-two-three in the 660, as did Tucker, Galbert, White, in the high jump. Richmond also took the 1320 with Franklin, Savage, and Waldron scoring one-two-three, respectively.

SENIOR PLAY

SUMMER STOCK

Written by TED SMALLEY and SALLY WATSON

Senior Class . . . Richmond Union High School

A high school drama class and their teacher have leased an old barn, converted into a theater, in up-state New England. These players and their instructor have formed a summer stock group. The play tells of their arrival, their rehearsals, and finally the production of the play.

PROGRAM

ACT I Scene I

The class arrives and approves the barn for their work.

Song—"June Is Bustin' Out All Over".....Helen Moore and Chorus
Song and Dance Specialty—"Ragg Mopp".....Ragg Moppettes

Scene II—Next Morning

In which we see the players preparing to practice their "Carousel." Enoch shows his jealousy of Billy for Julie whom he has been dating for some time.

Song—"Julie Jordan-Mr. Snow".....Lynn Helvenston
Song—"If I Loved You".....Jo Ann Davidson and Dave Edwards

Scene III—Afternoon of the Same Day

The teacher has not yet appeared for practice and the players are conjecturing as to her whereabouts. Naturally they amuse themselves. Billy and Enoch are still rivals. The Cast decides to go on a Clambake.

Song—"What's the Use of Wondering".....Jo Ann Davidson

Scene IV—After the Clambake

Song—"Blue Moon".....Sarah Harden
Song and Dance Specialty—"When Francis Dances with Me"
Song—"I Can Dream, Can't I?".....Margaret Hiatt
Song—"This was a Real Nice Clambake".....Chorus

ACT II—Scene I

After dress rehearsal of the show, the players are milling around admiring costumes and re-hashing.

Song—"There's Nothing So Bad for a Woman".....Chorus

Scene II—Same as Scene I

Enoch is finally convinced that Billy is a fine person and is reconciled to competition from Billy for Julie's affection. Julie indicates she has not made a choice.

Song—"When the Children are Asleep".....Lynn
Song—"You Have to be Carefully Taught".....Ted Smalley
Song—"You'll Never Walk Alone".....Helen Moore and Chorus

Scene III

A scene (acted in pantomime) at the night of "Carousel," the show the group has been rehearsing.

IN TRIBUTE AND IN RETROSPECT

Throughout the semester as the Shield was growing in form and substance, we, who were editing the material, became more and more impressed with its quality. It was, in effect, a record of outstanding achievements in many diverse spheres, and we have come to realize that this Shield is indeed unique and that we were lucky beyond belief to have been privileged to deal in so many superlatives. This record, quite naturally, is the outcome of a good deal of perspiration and inspiration on the parts of students, instructors and administrators alike. To these keen, skillful and energetic persons we pay wondering and enthusiastic tribute.

On the field of sports, the R.U.H.S. teams won the Alameda County Athletic League Championship in Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball, Varsity and Junior Varsity Track, and Varsity Baseball.

In the musical realm, the RUHS band, directed by Mr. Douglas Kidd, was among the four high school bands in the state to be awarded a superior rating at the Spring Musical Festival at San Jose.

In the academic field, Margaret Lowe won first place with a score of 100% in French II in the State Contest of the National Association of Teachers of French. Pat Jackson tied for second place in French IV with a score of 99½%. Mrs. Dorothy Gemmer was their instructor.

In the field of publications, the Hi-Nus, directed by Miss Kathleen Dyer, won second place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association for schools having more than 2,500 students, and received a first place award in the Quill and Scroll Society, which is international.

In Public Speaking four students, coached by Mr. Robert France, reached the finals in the San Francisco Forensic Speaking Tournament: Lina Aebi and Jerome Daly for debating; Lina Aebi for oratory; Tom Marren for radio.

In the Bank of America Achievement Award Contest, Karla Butler won a cup for excellence in science, and Lina Aebi for excellence in the liberal arts.

In the National High School Photographic Contest, Fred Morss won a highly-prized book for out school library and a very fine camera for himself.

As the last item of this notable list, we would like to point, in anticipation, to the excellent academic record which our college-going graduates are bound to achieve. For, it is not an exaggeration to say that in the past our graduates have unflinchingly maintained the first-rate reputation which our school enjoys at all colleges and universities. We do not believe that this present class of 1950, made up, as it is, of such distinguished members, can do less than add lustre to Richmond's fine name.
