TO OUR FRIENDS:

NOW THAT the ink has dried and this semester's Elm has become a realization, we hope that you will not regret the fact that we have subjugated minor phases of this year book to the full attention of what we consider our main feature, the art work.

We realize that in the selection of our art editor we had a boy of unusual artistic talents. We took advantage of this opportunity by devoting the planning of our budget and the very book itself to the development of the artistic theme. The resulting annual is, we feel confident, truly a "thing of beauty;" our sincere hope is that you may find it to be a "joy forever."

THE ELM STAFF

School days may be some of your happiest days and we at San Mateo High School hope that that will be true.

Toward that end let's work hard, play hard, and at all times be square and courteous.

JANE A. COMINGS
VICE PRINCIPAL
DEAN OF GIRLS

During this past year, I had opportunity to meet and greet many of the students of the San Mateo High School. The friendly attitude of all has helped to make work more pleasant and more worthwhile.

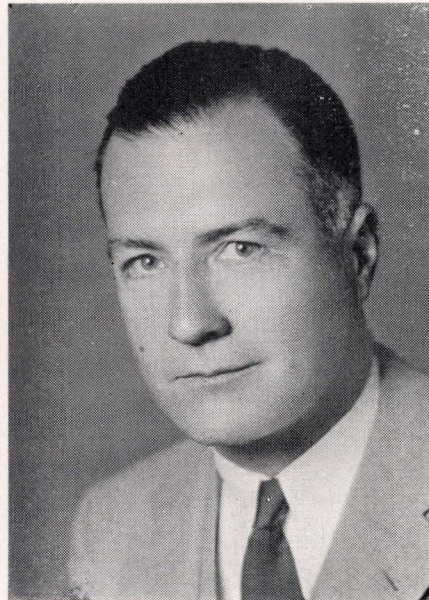

As the seniors go forth on their various paths and the others continue their school work, that same San Mateo friendliness will, I feel sure, spread out and help bring about stronger loyalties, and greater success and happiness in both work and play.

HOMER MARTIN
SUPERINTENDENT

Written and designed by the students themselves, printed in our own shop, and bound in the school bindery, the Elm is truly a cooperative student enterprise. As such, it has become a part of school life at San Mateo High School.

I have had an opportunity to see the advance sheets, and I wish to compliment Mrs. Mitchell, the staff, and all students who have helped to make the Elm of this year an outstanding number in that long series which goes back more than thirty years at San Mateo.

FRANCIS J. McCONVILLE
PRINCIPAL

THE LARGEST graduating class in San Mateo's history, consisting of 144 members, received coveted bits of sheep-skin at impressive commencement exercises held in the Burlingame high school auditorium Wednesday evening, June 10, 1937.

The theme of the graduation was the modern interpretation of America's constitution. Girls who spoke on the subject were selected by Miss Jane Comings, dean of girls, the boys, by Principal Francis J. McConville, on the basis of scholarship, high school achievement, and public speaking ability. Mrs. Marion Hedrick Bain had general charge of the exercises.

The invocation and the benediction were delivered by the Rev. Sidney H. Buckham of the San Mateo Congregational Church.

The Coed in Sports

RANKING FOREMOST among the extra curricular activities of the San Mateo High School are girls' sports. The Girls' Athletic Council and the Girls' Block S. M. are the governing bodies of these athletics.

The managers of the various sports comprise the Girls' Athletic Council while the Block S. M. Society consists of those girls who have not only achieved 250 points by participating in after-school sports, but have fulfilled the standard requirements of sportsmanship and character.

Without a doubt, the most popular sport is basketball, considering the huge turnout every season. The basketball season is divided into two divisions, upper classmen and lower classmen. According to the age-old tradition, however, the seniors always come through with the highest score, but they always have to put up a fight for it.

Following close in popularity is that "black and blue shin" game, hockey, under the excellent coaching of Miss Helen McArthur. This same coach also gives lessons in life-saving, and the qualified swimmers are awarded Red Cross Life-Saving emblems at the end of the season.

Fencing, having recently become a major sport, is constantly growing in popularity. The girls participating in this sport have formed a Fencers' Club which has become a thriving and active organization.

Speedball and baseball also draw a great many point seekers each semester. Tennis, as a minor sport, calls for exciting singles and doubles matches.

This semester, under the supervision of the G. A. C., badminton mixed doubles tournaments have been staged. Since boys and girls participate in this sport no points are awarded. These tournaments have proved so popular that they will undoubtedly be continued in the future.

San Mateo is very fortunate in being able to offer such a variety of sports to so great a number of girls. These extra-curricular activities give girls a goal toward which to strive, and help to build clean and healthy bodies and minds.

Matean Athletic Act

LED BY a fine coach, the five sports of the spring semester marched by during the last six months without sensational results but with:

The San Mateo "casaba chasin'" artists didn't garner any heavy-weight basketball titles this season. Both the 130-pound and varsity fives, however, were in the running until the final round of P. A. L. play. The light-weights twice tripped a heavily favored Burlingame Panther during the course of the season—its main achievement. The varsity boys were off to a good start, but suffered a let-down about mid-race.

Francis (Tony) Duffy captained the light-weights, and Ray Gill and Bob Walker shared honors on the varsity.

TRACK

The spikemen took third in the 110-pound division, third in the 120-pound sector, second in the 130's class, and fifth in the varsity meet. All classes went through a P. A. L. round-robin dual schedule and climaxed the season with the annual all-league "short pants and long puffs" affair on Stanford University's Angel Field.

The Bearcats set up two new records in the 130-pound division where they made their best showing. Jay Bush ran the 160-yard low timbers in :19.5 and Willert Allen, Ray Hemming, Floyd Wimberly, and Jay Bush combined their best efforts to smash the 880-yard baton-passing mark. The time was 1:34.6 while the former relay record stood at 1:36.2.

TENNIS

Captain Tom Daly, state ranking junior player, saw the net squad through to a successful season. The netsters pounded easy victories out of Burlingame, Sequoia, San Jose, and South San Francisco. Palo Alto, however, won the P. A. L. dual play title when it became the only school to survive the Bearcat team's attack.

Tom Daly played number one singles; Jerry Selover, sensational freshman, number two; and Ward Mamlok or George Chiossi, number three. The doubles combinations varied between Jack Johnston, Bob Owens, and Rudy Pribuss.

SWIMMING

The ever-rising power of Matean swimmers continued on its upward trend this season, in a sensational style. For the past four years Bearcat mermen have continually drawn closer to the rulers of peninsula water-ways, Sequoia and Palo Alto. This year the locals overwhelmed both and brought home the first swimming title in the history of the school.

The new experience came in the 130-pound division. Tom Dooling proved himself the outstanding P. A. L. paddler of the season. He took the 50 and 100-yard freestyle events, hanging up a new record of :26.3 in the shorter dash. Pete Helms, breast stroker, took his event and the Mateans ended first in the four-man relay and second in the medley. Bok Reitzel tied the 120's 100-yard freestyle record.

BASEBALL

The baseball team ended midway in the most unorthodox league campaign of P. A. L. history. It was the first year a double round-robin program has been used and the race had an absolute lack of an outstanding title contender.

San Mateo's ace hurler, Harry Cahalan, gave the peninsula the most outstanding performance when he pitched no-run, no-hit ball for eleven hectic innings against Jefferson High.

Leaves From a Senior's Diary

January 27. Who ever said, "And the meek shall inherit the earth"? Just decided today that the author of that line must have had a heavy date the night before he pronounced those immortal words on account of becuz it's the truth, and verily so, that "the seniors shall inherit the earth". All of this blarney leads up to the fact that two events happened today, towit: 1. School opened. 2. I went downtown and bought a hat five sizes larger than my last one.

February 9. Blue to the right of us, blue to the left of us, blue all around us. Blue. The senior sweaters arrived today, much to the seniors' dismay, including mine.

February 15. Now we're all tuberculin tested, just like cows. Some county officials were 'round school today to stick insignificant looking needles into our arms. They say they're trying to determine our immunity to tuberculosis; a red spot appearing after the test tells the story. Seen in the halls: Rolled-up shirt-sleeves, and worried expressions!

February 24. "Smile purty for the camera, please!" You see, dear diary, the seniors had their pictures taken for the Elm today; God save the Elm! The only disadvantage of the ordeal was that we had to stay away from class for about fifteen minutes while we "posed"! The boys, poor lambs, wore fake tuxedos for the event, and the gals wore sortof kindof drapes around their necks. The number of potential Garbos and Gables was most overwhelming.

April 10. San Mateo high, good ol' studying grounds, was literally infested with a bunch of "brainstorms" today. The California Scholarship Federation (honor society stuff) held a convention here, and boys and gals came from all over the state to visit our school. Of course, the fact that Dr. Robert Millikan, famed physicist, was the guest speaker had little to do with the case!

April 13. No runs, no hits, and no errors because Harry's a high senior. The mighty pitcher Cahalan made a real baseball name for himself today when he didn't give the Jefferson High School nine a single scoring chance by dint of his pitching prowess. They say that to pitch a no run, no hits game is really doing something, so we're taking their word for it.

May 5. Senior assemblies are a riot, and no less. There's no doubt about it; our class is just too, too dignified for words! Everyone would like to talk at the same time that everyone else does, but heroic President Ray Hemming miraculously manages to keep no more than two people talking at the same time. How disillusioned the froshies would be if they attended a high senior conclave.

May 6. The seniors on the top, as usual! Martha Guenther, Rosemary Bell, and Ruth Roberts did themselves proud in a Fidac essay contest by chalking up first, second, and honorable mention honors, respectively. Their subject was "How Can International Disputes Be Settled in the Spirit of Fidac?" Wow! Emmett Collins, also a senior (wouldn't ya know?) got first prize for another subject—'twas something about Americanism.

May 12. Aha! So that's how we look in our informal moments! Senior old clothes day was today, and the powers that be (us) took full advantage of the event. Everyone blossomed out in his or her favoritest rags, and they weren't "glad rags".

May 19. That lucky Junior College; can't figure out what they've ever done to deserve such an honor. We visited 'em today! 'Twas a special visiting day for all high seniors, and it was very nice. They had all sorts of things planned to make our visit a real success.

June 10. "The day has come," the Walrus said, "to think of many things . . ." But this time there's no walrus in the case, and only one thing to think about—graduation! High school days have ended for us, perhaps, but one thing will never end—memories of the four rip-snortin' years we've had!

The little flirt!

Alice Sharpe is our littlest rebel—
The Greeks had a word for it.

John has the looks and he has a way—
He'll be Stelling your heart.

Robert Fakkema could type his way to wealth—
He knows the "touch" system.

Richard Morris was Pen Craft treasurer—
Have one—on Dick!

Shig Mori, athletic star—
By Jupiter!

Lois is a friendly gal—
My Kime is your Kime

Rudy Pribuss is of German stock—
Common or preferred?

John Marchesin takes auto shop—
He auto.

Theresa Marney is so demure—
One in a million.

Ann McDonald had a dog—
Eiyi eiyi oh!

Andy McKeown is an affable chap—
Brother can you spare a dime?

Paul Meredith knows perissodactyl ungulata—
You'll find it in the dictionary.

Joseph Ito works on cars—
But don't call 'em.

Barbara Newton is clever with her pen—
Get the point?

Betty Nelson likes to cut up—
Hand over those scissors!

George Pantages is a school asset—
It's no lie-ability.

Moto Takahashi vaulted the bar—
He ought to be a lawyer.

Betty Reed, Fort Musst Du—
Read this!

Nello Paoletti a commercial student was—
How's business?

Cherie Reeser went out for many clubs—
Cave man stuff.

Jennie Susko, as bright as a dollar—
She's got a lot of cents.

Morton Terrill a pilot will be—
He's always up in the air!

Lydia Rohweder from Nebraska comes—
Oh, ma—Omaha!

Pauline Signarowitz a pianist is—
Pianissimo, fortissimo, crescendo!

Lois Spencer likes social service—
Service with a smile.

Harold Price is with us, too—
He must be awfully "dear"!

Ralph Geddes, a boy so tall—
How's the weather up thar?

Albert Celotti takes print shop—
Is he the type?

Helen Cummings has a teacher's name—
Double trouble.

George Davis managed many teams—
Not horses, ya dope!

Charles, too, is leaving now—
Ewell miss him.

Werner Foss, a football man—
Ten more and he'd be a team.

In football Doug Geddes shone—
A head-blocker, not block-head.

Ray Gillet does a lot of studying—
Call Mr. Ripley.

Alice Lawrence is quite a lass—
Alas! a loss for S. M.

Andy puts up posters high—
Hi, Sierra!

Joeph's last name is Monisteri—
But he's not monk-ey.

Ruth Stelling excels in sports—
And can she "ball" you up!

Alfred and Francis, the Migge twins—
One more and they'd be triplets.

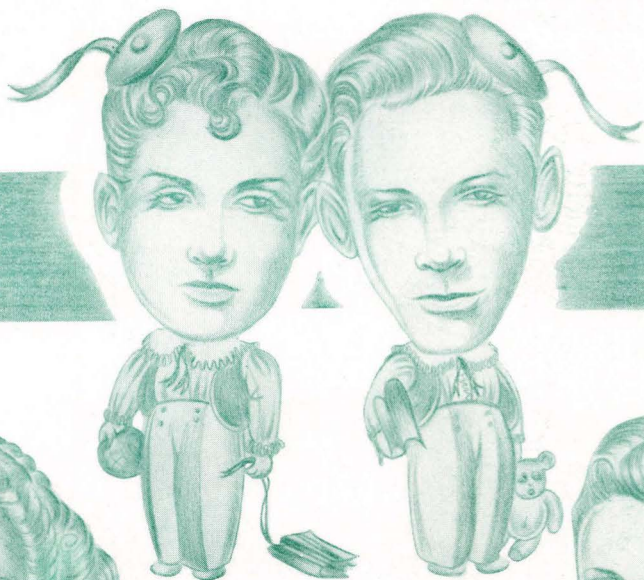

Harvey
11.
