PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

● During the past school year we have seen our country transformed from a peaceful nation to a wartime people. We are awakened to new responsibilities as a result of this change; moreover we are determined to give our all in order that democracy shall remain our way of life.

This transformation has been difficult for all of us to make. It has been marked by a change in our normal manner of life, in that we have been asked, and will be asked still further, to make great sacrifices in the interest of national welfare.

Each of us must make sure that he assumes a fair share of the burden. Let each member of our group shirk none of the responsibility by refusing to perform tasks assigned to him. To each graduate of this class is given the greatest opportunity for service; to each comes a clear call to do a part, however small, in this, the greatest epoch of our national life.

T. H. Battelle

MR. LLOYD K. WOOD

BOARD OF EDUCATION

• Truly this is a group of veterans. Terms of office range from that of Mr. Lockhart, who has been a member for twenty years, to that of Mr. Burke, who has been on the board for sixteen years, serving as its president for fourteen years. Mr. Proctor and Mr. Barrett are serving their fourteenth and thirteenth years, respectively, and Mrs. Lehman is entering her fifth year as secretary.

Although new last June to the office of city superintendent, Mr. Lloyd K. Wood has been a member of the Santa Rosa school family for the past four years. During his term as principal of the high school he made warm and lasting friendship among the teachers and students alike.

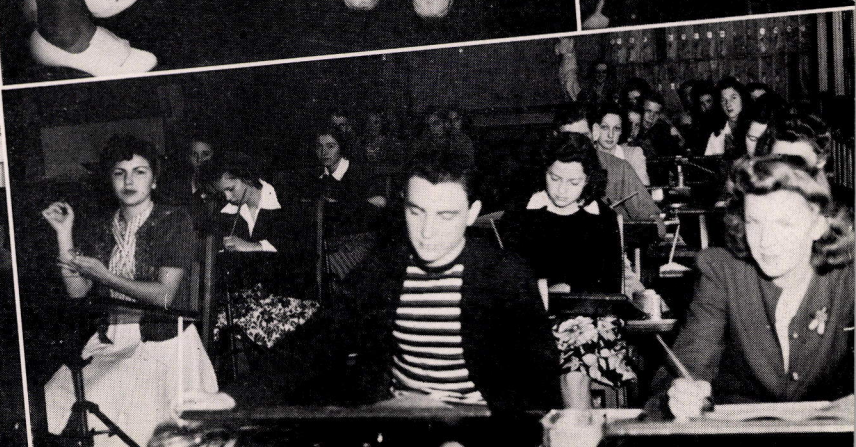

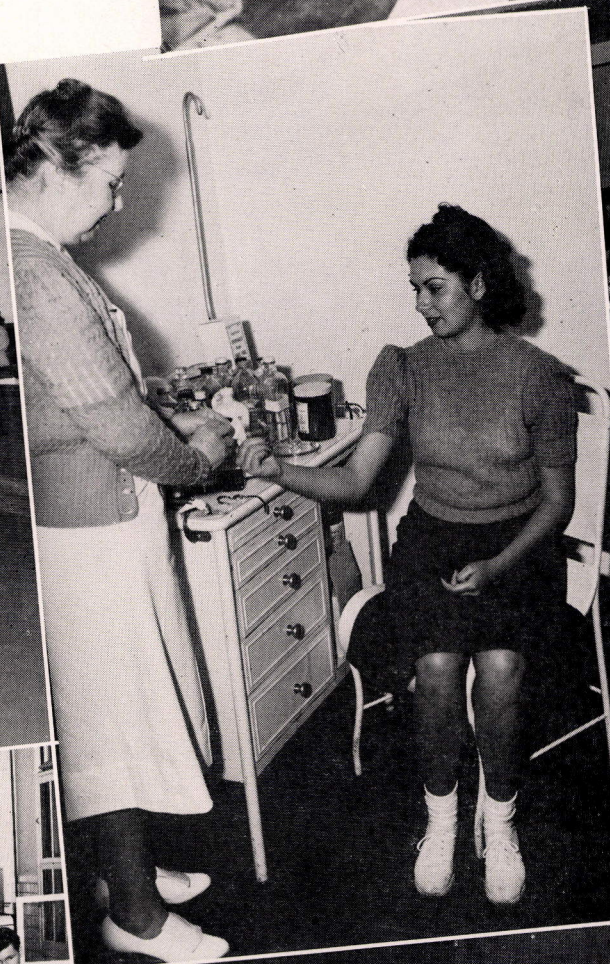

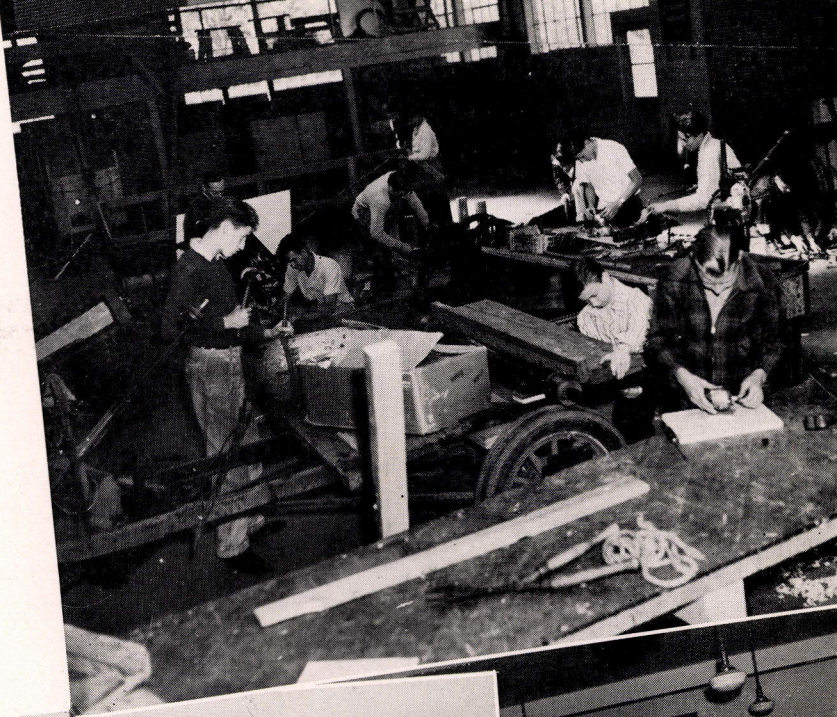

Mr. Roe Barrett, Mr. George Proctor, Mr. James Burke, Mrs. Carl R. Lehman and Mr. Archie Lockhart

Our Day

● Standing around talking till the bell rings . . .
Then to work in shops and classes . . . Visits to Miss Sacry . . . Mumps or measles? Take your choice . . . Hungry boys preparing tasty morsels under Mrs. Merrill's watchful eyes . . . And Mrs. Waters' art students sketching the scene before them . . . This for four years . . . A diploma and freedom . . . Then the teachers begin all over again . . .

FALL GOVERNING BOARD

● After a close election in the spring of '41, Bill Lippincott edged out Ian Lockhart as student body president for the fall term. Other governing board members were: vice-president, Frank Guglielmetti; secretary, Amelia Falco; commissioner of rallies, Allan Mulkey; commissioner of social activities, Nelson Biagi; commissioner of assemblies, Helen Permenter; yell-leader, Fritz Art; and, the Santa Rosan editor, Pat Cowell.

President Lippincott's administration included several exchange assemblies with other North Bay League Schools. A Variety Show composed entirely of S. R. H. S. students, and also, a completely new school constitution was accepted and put to practice. Dances and assemblies were featured throughout the semester.

SPRING GOVERNING BOARD

GUGLIELMETTI

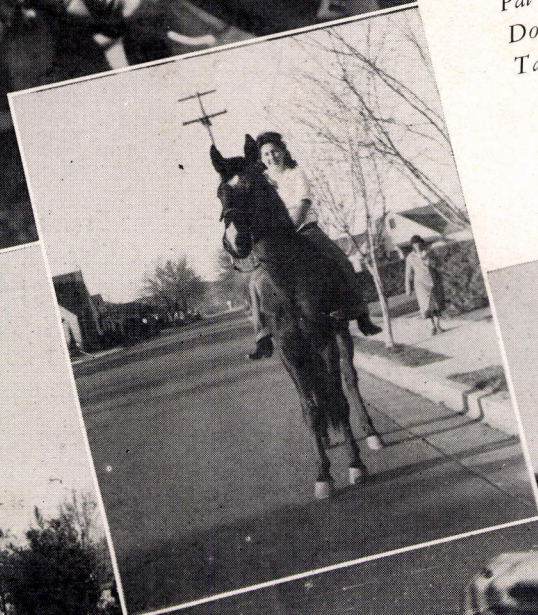

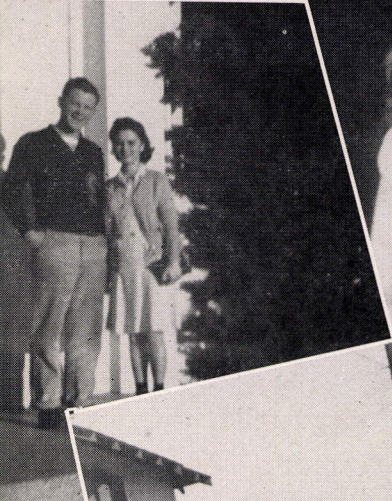

● For the spring semester, ex-vice-president Frank Guglielmetti was unanimously chosen to be student body prexy. Other officers elected were: Jack Townsend, vice-president; Amelia Falco, secretary; Tony Poshepny, commissioner of rallies; Allan Mulkey, commissioner of social activities; Mel Wood, commissioner of assemblies; Fritz Art, who was maintained yell leader; and Norma Flaherty, the new Santa Rosan editor.

The spring governing board started activities with a record-smashing Echo pledge-card sale. Just the governing board and the Echo staff were allowed to sell the cards. Over 900 cards were disposed of, the largest sale in recent years. The three top salesmen were Bill Lippincott, Tony Poshepny, and Fritz Art.

To be looked upon with awe by the frosh. . . With admiration by the sophs. . . With envy by the juniors. . . And when you go away, to know that the school will never be the same without THE seniors. . .

CLASS OF 1943

- The junior class is holding its own well in the field of activities, led by Lee Bollinger, class president, Mel Woods, vice president, and Barbara Baker, secretary. These three students have been busy performing duties of numerous sorts.

Roy Grimm has gone all out for radio work as an emcee on the "Hi School Spotlight" over the networks of station KSRO.

Leading in drama from the junior class are Earl Wood who had the romantic lead in "Our Town"; Bob Quarry who won the first place medal at the State Forensic contests at Stockton for comedy reading; and Sam Wertz who had the main part as narrator of "Our Town."

The C. S. F. claimed a few juniors as its members. Carmen Finley acted as vice president, Marion Ridenhour as secretary. Thelma Wallace, Calvin Tabor, Julia Kennedy and Laurie Lindsay are members.

Juniors holding offices on the Honor S. R. are Roy Grimm, president, Calvin Tabor, vice-president, and Vivian Sorensen, secretary.

The Girls' League Cabinet claims active duty from three junior class girls. They were Vivian Sorensen, Jane Degner and Margaret Staples. Tony Poshepny is an officer of the Boys' League Cabinet.

Again we have Roy Grimm and Vivian Sorensen as program chairman and secretary respectively of the Swing Club.

Certainly not slighted by juniors is the Santa Rosan staff. Ken Robin is staff photographer while Al Perillat is business manager; Michell Abramson, assistant sport editor; and Jerry Miller advertising manager.

Barbara Baker, Jane Degner, and Peggy Harbold were our "Song Leaders."

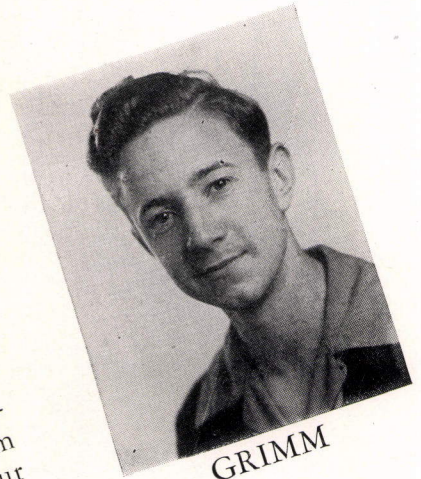

This class has three boys as its members who have for the past three years performed the morning tribute of raising the flag to the tune of two bugles.

Roy Grimm again comes in as manager of the Noon Recreation Committee.

This year's "Variety Show" featured "Smilin' Barney Wilen and his Band" with Barbara Baker as vocalist.

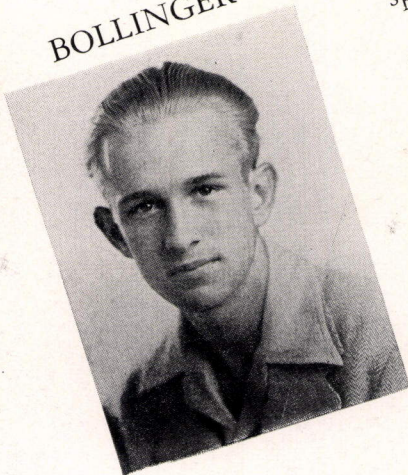

Ruth Opper was a guest speaker at one of our Girls' League Assemblies.

Juniors Fritz Art and Vivian Sorensen served as yell leaders.

CLASS OF . .

● Acting as president of the class, Allen Mulkey, with the assistance of Brook Tozer as vice president and Pat Young as secretary, planned the Freshman Reception. Allen also gave us good rallies while holding the office of commissioner of rallies, not to mention that Pat Young had a lead in one part of this year's operetta.

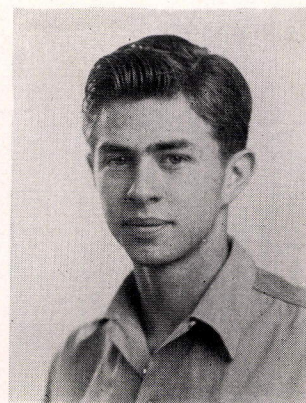

In the sports review we had Bill Rogers, Bill Melby, Bill Cunningham, and Dick Azevedo as basketball players. Bill Rogers along with Bill Cunningham played a bit of tennis. Cunningham was a part of our top-ranking tennis team this spring. On the football squad were Walt Wilson and Marino Biagi.

On the entertainment side of things we had Annabelle Campiglia who had a solo dance in the operetta. Other dancers were Pat Philips, Nadine Wetzler, Shirley Miller, Marilyn Palmer, Janet Schiefelbein, Wanda Ramsey, and Catherine Serva. Catherine also performed in an assembly for the student body. Pat Philips worked as treasurer of the Girls' League Cabinet. The two Penrose sisters strutted as majorettes this term.

In drama, the class of '44 had a very good showing. Ruth Elmendorf won the place of first in the state contest of drama students at Stockton and also played the juvenile lead of Emily Wedd in Our Town. Ruth Jones played Rebecca and Nysa Kramer portrayed the part of Mrs. Webb. Bill Cunningham enacted the choir leader, while Douglas Russell stepped into the part of Professor Willard. Doris Blum was in the choir and also was the lady in the audience who asked questions. On the Santa Rosan we had Pen Whitehead on the business staff.

CLASS OF 1945-1946

● Heading the freshman class of '42 were Charles Lane, president of the class, Gene Dustrel, vice president, and Patricia Webb, secretary.

Lower classmen who were prominent in dramatics were: Charles Metten, winner of the Oratorical Declamation at Stockton in the State Forensic Contest, and also "Joe Crowell" of the school play "Our Town"; Jane Martin, who played a lead in the patriotic play "Mother Buys a Bond" put on at the Santa Rosa Junior College; Modeste Sabraw who played "Si Crowell" in "Our Town." Members of the choir of the play who were lower classmen were: Lenore Carey, Dorothy Carnegie, Lavelle Young and Jane Martin. Leslie Wright played the part of "Wally Webb."

Musical-minded students from the class of '45 - '46 are: Ellen Badger who played the violin in the school operetta "Vodvil for Victory," and also played at the "Mother's Day Tea", Laurel Fahrner who played the piano in the trio at the "Mother's Day Tea"; and Delors Titus, who sang in the Swing Club "Variety Show" and in the operetta. Drum and Bugle Corps members were: Janet Strebel, who also danced in the "Vodvil for Victory" show; Eleanor Alexander, Gene Gardella, who was an officer of this organization; Lorraine Baker, and Dorothy Carnegie.

Bob Morgan was the reader of "I Hear America Singing," a part of the operetta. Two lower classmen of the poetry world are: Colin McKinlay, who has had many poems published in the Santa Rosan, and Lillie Pereira who has had poems published in the "Laureate."

FALL

SANTA ROSAN

● Every fall and spring a new staff is chosen to edit the Santa Rosan. Those on this year's fall staff were: Pat Cowell, editor; Dora Sorensen, assistant editor; Norma Flaherty and Nancy Lilly, news editors; Paul Rued, feature editor; Don Churchfield, sports editor; Ted Dicke, business manager; Jim Staples, exchange editor, and Dolores Diaz and Margaret Dove, girls' sports editors.

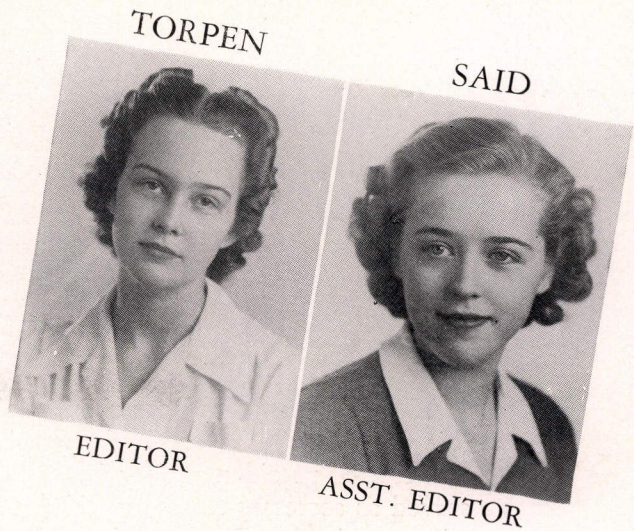

Miss Mary Frances McKinney, new journalism adviser, advocated a new system for editing the paper. New staff positions were added and some old ones omitted for the spring term. Those on the spring staff were: Norma Jean Flaherty, editor; Dora Sorensen, managing editor; Paul Rued, assistant editor; Audrey Wendt, feature editor; Don Churchfield, sports editor; Marion Ridenhour, news editor; Al Perillat, business manager; Jerry Miller, advertising manager, and Kenny Robbin, exchange editor.

ECHO STAFF

● In tune with the times, the Victory Echo reflects the spirit of America of 1942. It is the conception of a staff of hard-working students, who were guided by Mr. Mark Aikin.

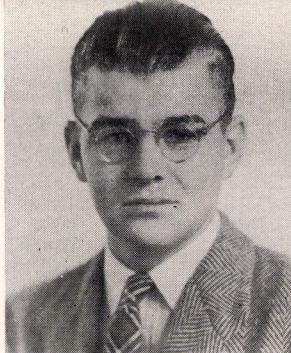

This year's annual was edited by Mary Lou Torpen, assisted by Mary Elizabeth Said. Helen Permenter, edited senior section and the classes. Paul Rued edited clubs, and Dora Sorensen, activities, while Don Churchfield and Helen Bryant were editors of the boys' and girls' sports, respectively. Barbara Bailey was typist, and Alan Bingham, snap-shot editor. The art work was done by Ozzie Schultz. Business manager was Nancy Lilly and Bill Lippincott was sales manager.

 Second row: Sorensen, Bingham, Said, Lilly, Mr. Aikin

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

RUED

• Motto of the Santa Rosa chapter of the California Scholarship Federation this year was, "Scholarship for Service." For last fall's officers Ted Kopp was elected president; Mary Lou Torpen, vice-president; and, Audrey Noall served as secretary-treasurer. Delegates from Santa Rosa attended the district meeting at Petaluma last November. Faculty advisers, Miss Docia Patchett and Mr. Mark Aikin, accompanied the representatives.

For the spring term, scholars chose Paul Rued as president; Carmen Finley, vice-president; Marion Ridenhour, secretary; and, Deane Abramson, publicity manager. The enrollment for the spring term was just double that of the preceding term.

Perhaps the largest project of the club in recent years was playing host to the Northern California regional division of the California Scholarship Federation. Paul Rued served as chairman of the convention. "The members all co-operated beautifully," he reported. A few of the committee members were Ramona Reid, Thelma Wallace, Rena Rossi, Naomi Deffenbaugh, Marion Ridenhour, Calvin Tabor, Janice Van Duren, and Carmen Finley.

• Organized in 1940 by the present faculty advisers, Mr. Rhodes Trussell and Miss Docia Patchett, the Honor S. R. has increased in enrollment until some sixty students are now included. In addition to these, the forty-eight Scholarship Society members are automatically eligible for membership. The Honor S. R. is composed of students who do not quite have the necessary grade points to gain admission into the California Scholarship Federation, but who are nevertheless excellent students. One purpose of the club is to give added incentive in individual school work. Also, extra-curricular activities are considered and awarded points according to merit. Various non-academic and shop students who are outstanding in their work are eligible.

For the fall semester Bill Lippincott was president, and in the spring Roy Grimm was president. Calvin Tabor and Vivian Sorenson served vice president and secretary throughout the year. Among the social activities of this group was a gala picnic and swimming party held at Boyes Springs at the end of the semester.

VODVIL FOR VICT'RY

● A Salute to the Flag and the National Anthem sung by June Laughlin began this year's musical, "Vodvil for Vict'ry."

Act I was "Spring in Vienna," an ensemble of dancers and singers. A duet was sung by Elizabeth Schultz and Ruth Swanets. Solos were sung by Delores Titus and Elizabeth Schultz. A violin duet, "Tales of the Vienna Woods," was played by Ellen Badger and Beverly Benway. First Entr' Acte consisted of the orchestra, the Boys' Glee Club and a tap dance revue.

Act II was "Cupid's Night Out" starring Francis Keegan as William, the likeable fellow who rooms with Fridolp Hallan, played by George Worsfold. Pat Young played Ruth, the pretty young girl next door to William. Her Aunt Lillian was played by June Laughlin. James Moore played Jimmie, a youngster just out of school, and Ken Sharpnack played Bert, the rich boy. A barn gambler was played by Russ Colwell. Three young stenographers were played by Alsa Hoffman, Barbara Baker, and Lois Forsythe. A toe dance solo was performed by Annabelle Campiglia.

Second Entr' Acte consisted of two numbers by the Boys' Glee, mixed chorus and orchestra. Act III was "I Hear America Singing," a musical "Ode to Democracy" based on poems of Walt Whitman sung by the high school choir. Bob Morgan was reader with Nancy Hesse as soloist. Act IV was "Romany Life," a gypsy revel. Pete Copes played two accordion solos, Romona Reid and Vivian Sorensen did a duet dance and Annabelle Campignia danced a solo with Ellen Badger accompanying her on the violin.

For the third Entr' Acte a selected Girls' voice class sang "Angels of Mercy." Act V, "Creatures of Impulse," was a musical fantasy about the age of witchcraft. Peter, a village youth, was played by Francis Keegan. Old Boomlehardt, the miser, was played by George Worsfold. Lucille Whipple, Mary Bonar, and Pat Young were the village girls. Owner of the Inn of the Three Pigeons was played by Elizabeth Schultz. Pipette, her niece, was played by Ruth Swanets. Jim Goggin portrayed Sergeant Klooque, a brave soldier. Nancy Hesse played the mysterious old lady who turned out to be a wicked witch.

The show ended with the orchestra playing "Arms for the Love of America," and the announcement of the show's donation to the Red Cross. $175.00 was appropriated from the show for the production.

Miss Helen Cochrane directed the show with Miss Mildred Turner in charge of the dancing. The scenery was under the direction of Mrs. Clara Waters. Mr. Josef Walter conducted the orchestra while Mr. Hayes Hunter managed the lighting.

Jo Ann Daley served as student reporter and Art Farlander was student manager. Nancy Hesse and Francis Keegan were student directors of "Creatures of Impulse." Lighting was done by Lawrence Herbert, Art Farlander and Walter Troyan.

Three scenes from this smash hit of the year, featuring scores of pretty chorusers and dancers, clever lighting, original scenery, and spectacular costumes

RED CROSS

HOWE

● One hundred and fifty Christmas Boxes donated to wounded service men is the all time record of the Santa Rosa Junior Red Cross group. Men injured in the Pearl Harbor attack also received high quality gifts from this organization. During the school year the club collected joke books, tinfoil and the like. Some twenty-five joke books were sent to the Mare Island Hospital.

Boys in the woodwork classes made stretchers which were used in life-saving demonstrations carried on by the Red Cross. Life-saving instructions to numerous students were advocated by the group. Sponsor was Miss Phebe Struckmeyer. Officers were: president, Helen Howe; vice president, Audrey Wendt, and secretary, Barbara Connelly.

Top row: Titus, Shapiro, Berger, Lake, Thole, Rogers, Campiglia, Bean, Robarts.

AVIATION CLUB

● Outside activities of the Aviation Club have been cancelled on account of the war. Sponsored by Mr. R. Newton, officers included Carolyn Johnson as president, Arthur Workman as vice president and Caroline Gustafsen as secretary. Plans had been made for an extensive trip to Hamilton Field and other points of interest, but had to be cancelled. This was a bitter disappointment to the forty-eight local aviation enthusiasts. Boys of the Aviation Club who take shop built many scale models of planes used by the United States Army and Navy. Others studied communication, navigation and maintenance, and various subjects related to airplanes.

SWING CLUB

● With "jive" as the watchword, the Swing Club again went into session with President Don Churchfield holding the "baton" and Dora Sorensen filling the vice president's chair. Secretary Vivian Sorensen took down all notes and records of the "hepcat" members. Roy Grimm did the job of program chairman which meant getting swing entertainment for the club members each meeting after the business end had been taken care of.

The annual Swing Club Variety Show under the supervision of Mr. Donald Lund was given to the students on November 28. Smilin' Barney Wilen and his band featured several numbers on the program. This included the theme song, "Study in Brown," which opened and closed the program. Wilen presented his version of "Stardust" on the piano while Hans Art played a saxophone solo. Vocal renditions were done by Barbara Baker and Delores Titus. Budd Fullmer and Francis Keegan put on three skits one of which was "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen. Pete Copes played the accordian and Earl Miller played a number on the harmonica. Bob Townsend and Pal Leathers sang "You Are My Sunshine," accompanied by a harmonica and guitar.

FRENCH CLUB

• To give a social background for French students in such a manner as to enjoy and know French customs and traditions in practice, is the purpose of the French Club. Begun in the fall of 1941 by Miss Ruth Parle, faculty adviser, the club now has an enrollment of sixty-four members. Any high school student is eligible who has had French, or who is now taking French. Officers of the club were: president, Jerry Martin; vice-president, Peggy Harbold; secretary, Mary Edna Bonar; and, treasurer, Budd Fullmer.

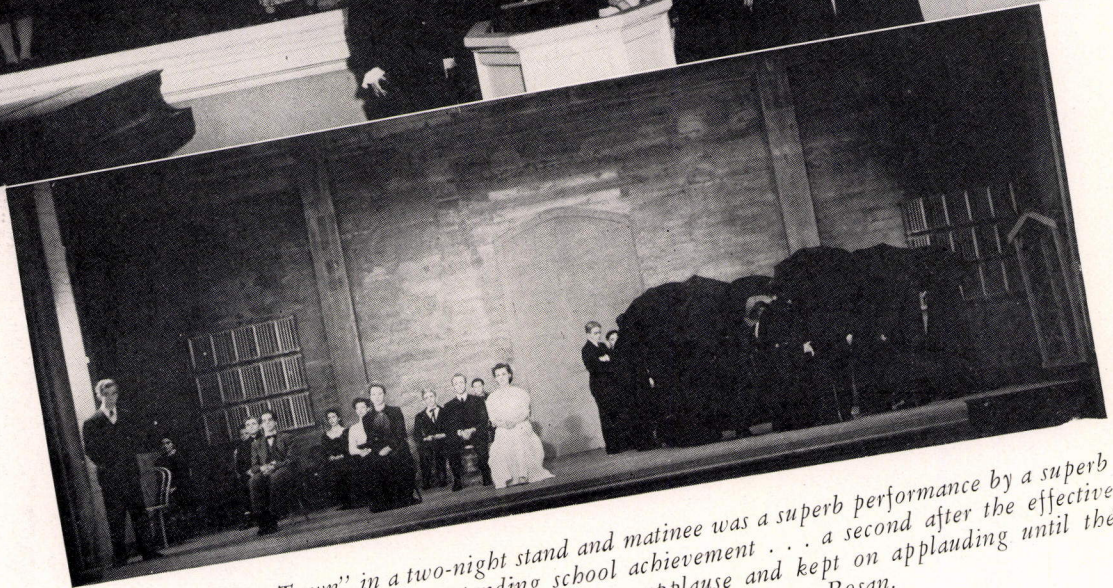

Social gatherings seemed one of the high points of the Frenchies. Their first was a combination dinner and initiation party in October of 1941. A bowling party was held in November and was reported a grand success. Of course a huge Christmas celebration was in order for December! But the highlight to the whole year's socials came in January, when the great French national festival, Mardi Gras was observed here at Santa Rosa. In April, another novel party took place, dedicated to the Chinese. The whole affair honored these Asiatics for the great knowledge they have passed on to the French people. The annual French Club picnic at Boyes Springs in May climaxed the long list of socials.

ANNUAL PLAY

"Our Town" in a two-night stand and matinee was a superb performance by a superb cast . . . This play an outstanding school achievement . . . a second after the effective close the audience broke into spontaneous applause and kept on applauding until the cast had been called back for ten curtain calls."—The Santa Rosan.

OUR TOWN

● Hit of the year was Mr. Glen Guymon's high school production of Thornton Wilder's Pulitzer Prize Play "Our Town."

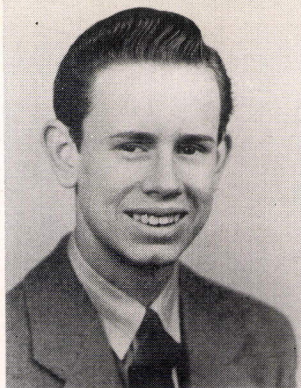

Heading the cast with outstanding performance was Ruth Elmendorf as Emily Webb the small town girl in love with "the boy next door." Sam Wertz played the stage manager who paints a stirring picture of the life in Grovers Corners as narrator of "Our Town." The romantic lead opposite Emily Webb was played by Earl Wood as George Gibbs. It was said that Bill Cunningham "stole the show" with his portrayal of the town drunk and choir master, Simon Stimson. George's kid sister was played by Ruth Jones. Editor and Mrs. Webb were played by Bob Quarry and Neysa Kramer. Doc and Mrs. Gibbs were played by Jerry Martin and Frances Cooke. Paper boy Joe Crowell was played by Charles Metten; Si Crowell by Modeste Sabraw. Little brother Wally Webb was played by Leslie Wright and Jack Stewart each taking the part for one night. Comic Professor Willard was played by Douglas Russell. Mrs. Soames another comical character was played by Hazel Marshall. Budd Fullmer played the part of Howie Newsome and Ken Harp played Constable Warren. Those who spoke from the audience were: Nancy Hesse, as a club president; Lloyd Miller, as a socially conscious citizen; and Doris Blum, as a lady of culture. Sam Craig was portrayed by Bob Davis and Paul Hendersen played Farmer McCarthy. Organist for the church choir was Alan Bingham. People of the town were: Jack Stewart, Dorothy Carnegie, June Laughlin, Jane Martin, Jean Ecklind, Mariory Wood, Bette Brodetsky, Helen Permenter, Ruth Newberry, Eddie Farrel, Audrey Noall, Lovelle Young and Lenore Carey.

Those from behind the scenes on the production staff were: Business managers, Mr. Donald Lund, Marjory Wood, Helen Permenter, and Mary Garrett. Publicity, Miss Mary Frances McKinney, Michell Abramson and Dora Sorensen. Lighting, Budd Fullmer, Larry Hebert, and Walt Troyan. Properties, Alan Bingham and Ken Harp. Sound, Douglas Russell, Charles Metten and Jack Stewart. Costumes, Mrs. Barbara Noel and cast. Programs and records, Doris Blum. Posters, Mr. Douglas Connelly and commercial art class. Make-up, drama class.

DRAMA CLUB

• After presenting the annual school play, members of the Drama Club turned their attention to the state-wide contests in dramatic readings held at Stockton. The twelve students who represented our school all won honors, Ruth Elmendorf, Bob Quarry, and Charles Metten placing first in the face of stiff competition offered by other California schools.

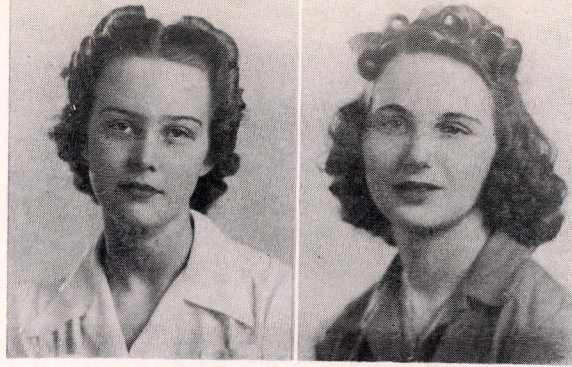

Upon their return, the dramatics students, at the suggestion of their coach, Mr. Guymon, organized a Community Program Service, which introduced school talent to local clubs, churches, and civic organizations, the year's record totaling thirty-eight such performances. During the past term all members of the Drama Club have competed for awards which were offered by the Dramatics Department.

Officers for the fall semester were: President, Budd Fullmer; vice-president, Margie Wood; and secretary, Helen Permenter. Spring president was Ken Harp; vice-president, Bob Quarry; and secretary, Douglas Russell.

RA RAVAS

● During the past year the Ra Ravas members have been extra busy with school activities. The organization went in with the Girls' League and gave a "Turnabout Dance." This type of dance meant that the girls must ask the boys and take them to and from the dance. The members made orange and black pompoms and sold them at the football games. Every Thursday they sold hot dogs to the students after the sixth period. A drive was conducted to collect magazines for the soldiers. Near the close of the fall term the members attended a Ra Ravas convention at San Rafael. Officers for the fall term were: Mary Lou Torpen, president; Helen Wolseth, vice president; Mary Elizabeth Said, secretary; Hazel Marshall, treasurer; Jeanne Badger, sergeant at arms; Elizabeth Schultz, yell leader.

The club collaborated with the Sonoma and San Rafael chapters of Ra Ravas to buy $200 worth of war stamps. Other activities which the members worked on were the decorating of the auditorium for the music festival held in April and sewing on pillow cases for the Red Cross. They also knitted on afghan squares for the Red Cross. The spring convention was held in Sonoma. Officers who served during the spring term were: Jeanne Badger, president; Katherine Klotz, vice president; Virginia Brand, secretary; Thelma Wallace, sergeant at arms; Helen Permenter, yell leader.

● Members of this year's cabinet were president, Helen Bryant; vice president, Virginia Abildgaard; secretary, Jane Degner; treasurer, Pat Philips; decorations, Helene Wolseth; hospitality, Lorraine Lopps; publicity, Margaret Staples; programs, Vivian Sorensen; refreshments, Rena Faletto. On April 10, the girls had their annual jinx, with a "hard times" theme. Prizes were given for the best costumes. At the beginning of each semester, the incoming freshman girls were given a tea.

Members of the boys' cabinet were: President, Nel Biagi; vice president, ony Poshepny; secretary, Jack Townsend. Several outstanding assemblies were held, featuring Ernie Smith, KPO sports announcer, the Naval Recruiting Office and their pictures of the bombing of Pearl Harbor, and the Cal Aggie speakers from Davis.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

LOCKHART

• By winning first sweepstakes in sheep, swine, dairy cattle, poultry, and farm mechanics at the California State Fair, the Santa Rosa Future Farmers got off on a flying start. In October the livestock judging team went to Portland, Oregon, after having won second place in California finals earlier in the year. Those boys comprising the team were Walter Hendrickson, Paul Rued, Ian Lockhart, and Earl Sandstrom. They were coached by Mr. J. W. Jamison. November marked the largest Parent and Son Banquet ever held by the local aggies.

At the Northern California F. F. A. Oratorical Contest at Willits on December 6, J. C. Watson was victor. He was to represent Santa Rosa and the Redwood Empire at a state-wide contest at Fresno in April, but Watson joined the Navy in February along with two other aggies, Randal Nelson and Ed Brown. On February 1, Charles Thompson, Lester Belden, and Paul Rued represented Santa Rosa at the Production Credit Association Quiz Contest. The fellows, as a team, placed second out of some eighty teams.

All spring judging activities were cancelled, much to the disappointment of all concerned. Seven boys applied for their State Farmers' Degree. They were Leonard Halvorsen, George Anderson, Bob Johnson, Ian Lockhart, George Crane, Bud Maccario, and Paul Rued. Applying for his American Farmer Degree was Lee Crane, a graduate of '41. Officers of the Santa Rosa Future Farmers were: Ian Lockhart, president; Charles Belden, vice-president; Jim Otsuka, secretary; George Crane and Bud Maccario, treasurers; and Paul Rued, reporter. Advisers are: Mr. J. W. Jamison, Mr. Don Stewart, Mr. Eston Ahlstrom, and Mr. M. K. Luther.

OSPREY CLUB

- Named for a huge fish-hawk, the Osprey Club is composed of twelve feminine fish enthusiasts.

Sponsored by a faculty member, Mr. Rhodes Trussell, the club chose Gloria Fechter as president for the 1941-1942 school year. Other officers were Lorraine Bauman, vice president; Annabelle Baird, secretary; Barbara Bailey, treasurer; Mary Holland, news reporter.

Each year the Ospreys elect enough new members to fill the places left by graduates. Once a candidate obtains membership, she is subject to the regular initiation service. These are held each year at one of the member's homes. New members this year were Rae O'Boyle and Jean Wilson. Recently the girls went fishing in the Russian River.

LAUREAN CLUB

- With the publication of the Laureate, an annual booklet containing the best poetry written by students of this school, club members concluded a busy year. In the Twelfth Night contest of humorous verse sponsored by the League of Western Writers, Glenn Lewis won first place and Ralph Butterworth second. Honorable mention was given Audrey Noall for her poems in the National Anthology of High School Poetry, which also recognized Deneen Brock. Members worked hard at the two aims of this organization, to create and encourage the creation of poetry. On the staff of the Laureate were editor, Audrey Noall; manager, Deneen Brock; assistant editors, Peggy Rathbone, Delores Wilkinson and Lilli Pereira. Mrs. Mabel Ware was guide and sponsor.

SKATING CLUB

• About the middle of the year several energetic students decided to start a club for ice skating enthusiasts. After getting Miss Mary Frances McKinney and Miss Asta Selchau as advisers the Ice Skating Club was formed.

Newly elected officers of the club were: President, Otto Geiger; vice president, Norman Chavez; co-secretary-treasurer, Vernon Silvershield and Janet Strebel.

It was arranged that every Monday night from 6:00 to 7:30 the members would meet to skate at the Sonoma Ice Arena, Santa Rosa. Top figure skaters among the girls are: Marie Clark, Betty Roohr and Chloe Kay. Top figure skaters among the boys are: Don Cotta, Jack Zeller, Otto Geiger and Gordon Milne. Speed skaters are: Bob Lindeloff and Norman Chavez. A special "Guest Night" was held at which all the members brought invited guests.

TRAFFIC PATROL

● Organized through the co-operation of Captain Clodfelter and Officer Mel Scott of the California Highway Patrol, this group of boys volunteered its services to safeguard the lives of some thirteen hundred students of Santa Rosa High School. The original president of the group was Arnold Hood, but upon his joining the U. S. Navy, a new set of officers took over. They were: president, Joe Antonini; secretary, Ivan J. Fear; and, sergeant-at-arms, Gilbert Vegod. Student advisers were: Ex-Student Body President Bill Lippincott and Ex-Commissioner of Social Activities Nelson Biagi. Faculty adviser was Mr. Hayes Hunter. The patrolmen arranged things so that two different members are on duty each day.

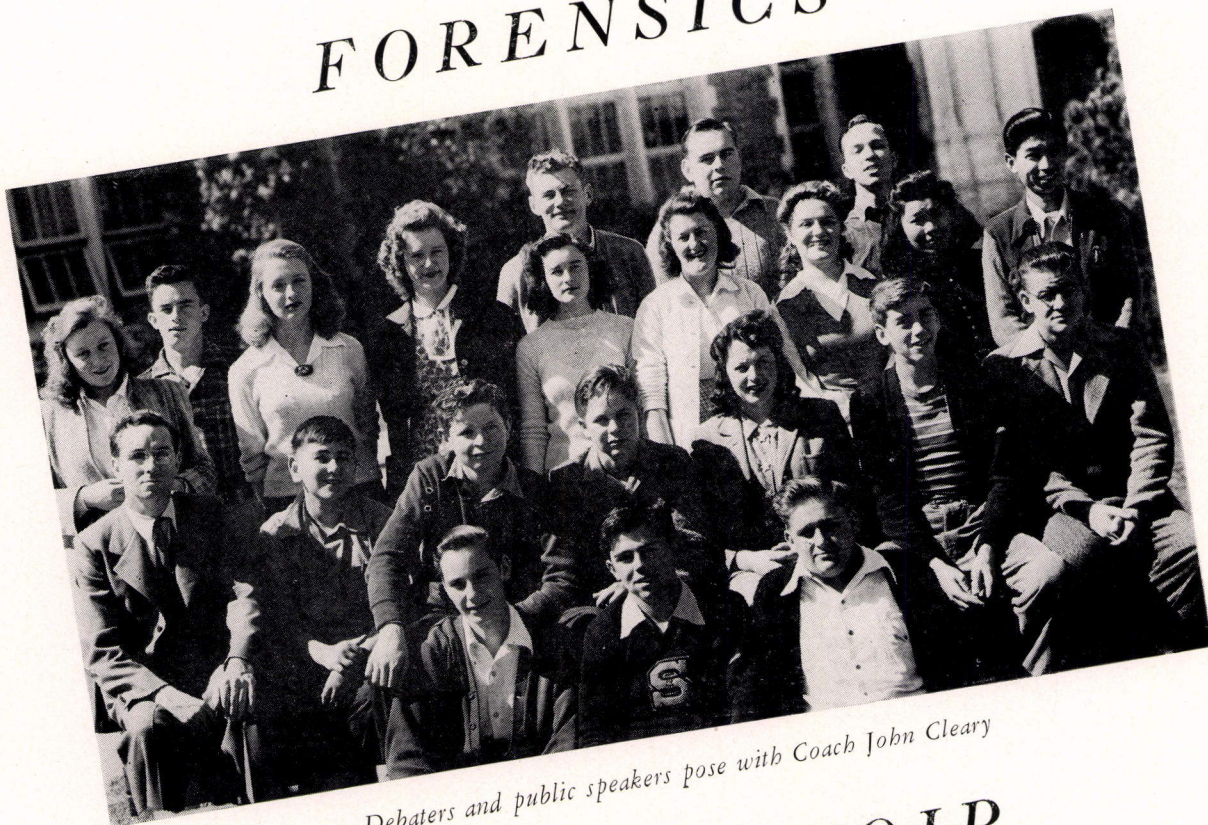

The Exchange Club of Santa Rosa purchased the equipment necessary for patrolling, which included whistles, signs, and rain hats and coats. To repay the boys for their services and sacrifices of time, a downtown theater furnished each one with two passes weekly.

FORENSICS

- Two topics most debated this year were, "The Closed Shop for All Industry," and "Should Boys Between the Ages of Eighteen and Twenty Be Given Compulsory Military Training?" Debating activities were greatly handicapped this year because of tire rationing, and the usual amount of inter-school contests were greatly eliminated. At the practice debate at Los Gatos were Everett Shapiro, Ted Kopp, John Mack, Dean Abramson, and Bob Seymour. In second practice, Lowell High School came to Santa Rosa and competed against Jerry Martin, Pat O'Conner, Everett Shapiro, and Dean Abramson. Taking part in other debate tournaments were Ray Noall, Jerry Martin, Jack Ryerson, Ted Kopp, Everett Shapiro, Bob Seymour, and Eleanor Ann Wells. Outstanding in extemporaneous speaking at Lodi were Kopp, Seymour and Shapiro. The school tournament was won by Ted Kopp and Ray Noall.

Tire rationing also affected the public speaking contests this year. Jerry Martin won first in the school contest, sponsored by the Lions Club on the subject, "American Security." Bob Morgan was second; Rosemary Miller, third; and Janice Noonan, fourth. Mr. John Cleary, faculty adviser of both the public speaking and debating clubs, holds high hopes for Jerry Martin, who is planning to compete against the six district winners from California and Nevada at Santa Cruz late in June.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

- The past year has been one of great activity and accomplishment for the high school choir. The highlight of its achievement has been the fine rendition of "I Hear America Singing." It is an ode to democracy based on a poem written by Walt Whitman, and set to music by George Kleinsinger. This cantata has been repeated by request many times and has always stirred its audience to greater patriotic fervor—for a singing nation is a victorious one. Appearing with the choir as soloist has been Nancy Hesse, and as narrator, Bob Morgan.

This year, for the first time, the choir has worn robes, through the operetta profits of the past two years, and at no cost to any other fund. The choir members have been enthusiastic, dependable, and earnest. They have appeared on commencement programs, service club programs, and have furnished entertainment for enlisted men. By singing their way into the hearts of their listeners they have made our victory campaign more real and vital.

The student director for both fall and spring terms was Dan Matheu. The two secretaries were Barbara Baker, during the fall semester, and Barbara Porter, during the spring term. This fine group of singers has been under the very able guidance of our voice teacher, Miss Helen Cochrane.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

• Service has been the key-word of the Boys' Glee Club for the 1941-42 school year. New activities were added to the schedule, the most important of which were the various programs staged especially for service clubs. During assemblies and rallies, much enthusiasm was gained by the appearance of the Boys' Glee Club. Commencement services were also enlivened through their participation. Most patriotic of all performances was the Glee Clubs' part in the annual school operetta, "Vodvil for Vict'ry." Current war songs seemed to be their specialty, according to many compliments received by individuals in this department of our school.

Ten members of the Boys' Glee Club enlisted in the country's armed forces when war struck early in December of 1941. Although this seriously hampered the Club's progress, under Miss Helen Cochrane's guidance, the remaining members have promoted patriotic songs to a successful climax.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

FALCO

● It has been a year of many activities for the Girls' Glee Club, which made its year's first appearance before the bay district meeting of the California and Western Music Educators' Conference. Unanimous acclaim was won by the girls' singing. Honors for solo work went to Elizabeth Schultz, Ruth Swanets, and Delores Titus. Some of the other activities of the club were the Mothers' Day Program, The Vodvil for Victory, Service Club Programs, Commencement Exercises, and the above mentioned Music Conference.

The fall semester officers were: Marie Clark, Ruth Elmendorf, and Violet Hauso, serving as president, vice-president, and secretary respectively. The officers of the spring semester were: Amelia Falco, Doris Stone, and Betty Hauso. The group was so large that two divisions were necessary. Alma Hoffman was chosen to be president of the second group.

In the school operetta, Vodvil for Victory, eight members were attired in Red Cross nurse uniforms and sang Irving Berlin's, "Angels of Mercy." These "angels" were: Mary Edna Bonar, Alma Hoffman, Jo Ann Daley, Bernice Connick, June Laughlin, Lorraine Lopps, Lois Forsythe, and Barbara Baker. The school song leaders, Jane Degner, Peg Harbold, and Barbara Baker were chosen because of their ability as Glee Club members. Faculty adviser of the club was Miss Helen Cochrane.

BAND

- Pep and variety were added to the fall football games by the band's performing intricate and colorful maneuvers alone and with the visiting schools.

First prize was won by the band on November 11 at the "Armistice Day Parade" in Sonoma and they were awarded a large cup as the trophy. The band also participated in the "Conservation Parade" held at Santa Rosa on April 25. The theme of the parade was "save rubber." Horse and bug-gies were featured among the other attractions.

As in the clubs the band has its election of officers, which is held in the fall and in the spring. Those elected for the fall term were: President, Chick Furuye; secretary, Elaine Abildgaard, and manager, Jim Limino. The officers who served during the spring term were: President, Pal Leathers; secretary, Helen Bryant; manager, Barbara Connelly.

The band participated in many school activities over the past year. It played at a general assembly program in May in place of the Annual Music Festival which was to be held in Santa Rosa but was cancelled. Leader of the band during marches in parades and on the football turf was Band Major Bob Mund in the fall and Band Major Ira Lawson in the spring. The whole band is under the guidance of Music Instructor Mr. Josef Wal-ter. All game rallies were greatly added to by the presence of the band. One outstanding rally was built around "My Merry Oldsmobile" of which all musical and sound effects were supplied by the band.

ORCHESTRA

- The high school orchestra for 1941-42 was composed of a complete sym-phonetic group of players. All sections of the required instruments were filled by advanced students under the directorship of Mr. Josef Walters. The group performed for a number of activities throughout the year. They played at the North Bay Music Teachers' Conference which was held in Santa Rosa on April 11. All music for the high school's annual musical, "Vodvil for Victory," was supplied by the orchestra. The Mother's Day Tea, sponsored by the Girls' League, gave a program in which the orchestra took part. The music students also played at the baccalaureate services and the commencement exercises.

In addition to the above group participations, several of the members were called upon to play as soloists at various civic and patriotic programs. The girls' trio, composed of Laurel Fahrner, piano; Dorene Merrill, violin, and Barbara Connelly, cello, played as a feature of the Mother's Day Tea.

As a climax to the year's activities the orchestra members enjoyed a swim and picnic at Boyes Springs.

● Dancing continues to be a popular form of physical education in Santa Rosa High School, enrolling one-fifth of all the girls in the school. Due to a very heavy freshman enrollment, our facilities were taxed to the utmost this year.

A fine spirit of fellowship existed. When the national emergency made it necessary to cancel our Christmas play, the girls turned their enthusiasm temporarily to instruction in first aid and air raid conduct.

The spring of the year found activity in several projects. In early April, the department participated with the Music and Art Departments in the Bay Section of California Western Music Educators' Conference, dancing to the original fantasy "Spring in Vienna."

Later in the month, they aided the Choral Department in the annual music show. Tap, Gypsy, ballet, Grecian and toe dancing helped make this Vodvil for Vict'ry the real success it was. The girls were rightly proud of the help they gave in donating a substantial some to the American Red cross.

In May the girls again shared honors with the music department in the Mother's Day program.

ATHLETICS

PANTHER ATHLETICS

● Following the actions of the aggressive Panther athletes as they ventured into the realm of sports in mid-September, and emerged from their combative engagements in May, we can truly say that the name of Santa Rosa High School has been more than satisfactorily upheld in athletic competition. To those who donned the orange and black for the first time, and to those seniors who have shed the colors of our school, never to adorn them again, we can only offer our esteem, praise and admiration for the ever prevalent spirit of sportsmanship which they have so earnestly kept intact. This is a characteristic which has and always will be revered by athletes of Santa Rosa High School.

Looking over the names of those who leave this month, who have distinguished themselves as representatives of Santa Rosa High School athletic teams, we come across such familiar figures as Frank Guglielmetti, Denny Anderson, Nel Biagi, Bob Fish, Jim McMurdo and Don Grider, February grads; Jerry Bick, Ed Rousseau, Jack Townsend, Ken Harp, Walt Hendrickson, Ozzie Schultz, and many others

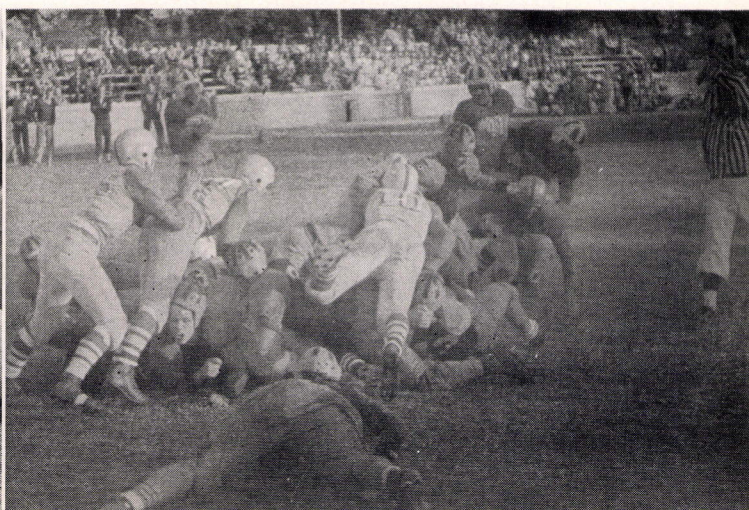

To the coaches, the men responsible for the molding of these boys into fighting, spirited aggregations, our appreciation is extended, with the hope that such teams will continue to turn out under their guidance.

To these boys already mentioned, and other graduating athletes too numerous to mention, but not unknown nor forgotten, we bid a fond farewell, and know that the spirit and love for fair combat which they displayed will remain as an incentive for those who follow.

BLOCK S

● The outstanding event in the Block "S" organization during the fall semester was the initiation of thirty-seven new members into the society on December 16. The initiation banquet was held at the Union Hotel in Occidental, with almost a hundred per cent attendance.

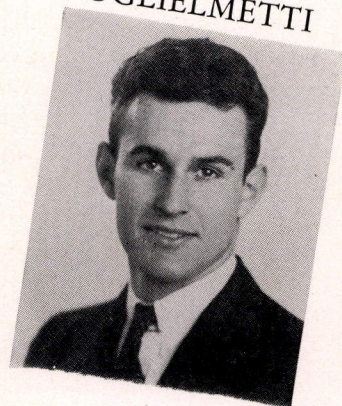

The officers for the fall semester were: Frank Guglielmetti, president; Laurie Lindsay, vice-president; and Jim Fortier, secretary. Nel Biagi, Denny Anderson, and Jim McMurdo made up the board of directors.

Ed Rousseau was elected president for the spring semester, with Lee Bollinger, vice president, and Laurie Lindsay, secretary. The board of directors included Frank Guglielmetti, Nel Biagi and Gene Baldocchi.

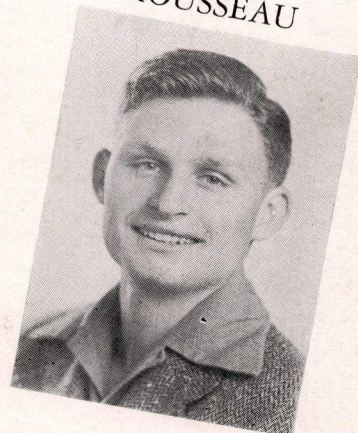

The annual Block "S" dance was again the social highlight of the year, being well attended and enjoyed.

Following the climax of the spring athletic events, the annual spring barbecue and initiation was held at Hilton Beach on the Russian River. Twenty-six new members were initiated, and a good time was had by all.

"Gug" on the loose

Vallejo boys bear down on "Nel."

● The 1941 edition of the Panther grid machine, composed of experienced, rugged veterans and ambitious, spirited newcomers, dove into the N. B. L. pigskin flurry in early October and emerged in late November, finding themselves perched in the second place bracket, behind the league champions, Vallejo.

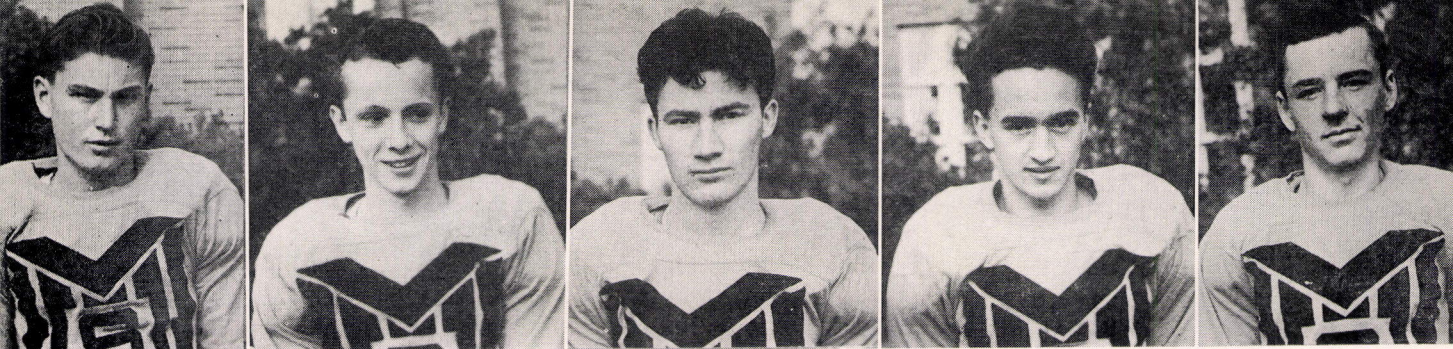

Under the watchful eyes and experienced tutelage of head coach Jim Underhill and his new assistant, Ernie Rothert, from Nebraska, the orange in black gridders never stopped hustling 'til the final gun, and fell just short of donning the championship laurels. Winning all of their practice tilts, the Panthers entered into the six game league schedule with a clean slate. Getting off to a successful start, the locals were later held scoreless twice, battling Tamalpais to a scoreless tie on mud drenched Kentfield, and losing the all important Vallejo game, on Nevers Field, 13-0. The final game of the season, the annual gridiron tilt with the Petaluma Trojans, held in the egg city, was one of the best in years, the score changing hands throughout, and the Panthers finally emerging on the victorious end of a 21-14 score.

Frank Guglielmetti, stellar left end, and "Nimble" Nel Biagi, outstanding left half, were elected as co-captains at the beginning of the season, and proved their ability as leaders very capably. Denny Anderson, ever dependable left guard, was voted by teammates, at the end of the season, to receive the coveted All-American blanket award, an honor which he more than deserved.

● Getting off to a slow start, but improving rapidly as the season progressed, was Coach Reynold's Panther B Football squad. These rugged lightweights, through their earnest and conscientious work, soon developed into a hustling, driving, and highly competitive outfit.

Those boys winning their letters were: Bianchini, Churchfield, Keyes, Baker, Michetti, Smith, Woods, Williamson, Noda, Murakami, Irish, Simi, and Martel.

● Santa Rosa's Varsity Basketeers started slowly this season, but towards the end of the campaign they developed into a sharp shooting aggressive team that resembled the Precision Panthers of old. The starting five, consisting of Ray Maffei, Jack Stone, Ted Taron, Denny Anderson, and Ken Harp, might have won the championship if they could have found their shooting eyes in the early games of the season. The third place, which the lanky casaba tossers took, was a great accomplishment considering the fact that not one of the entire squad had ever been under fire before.

Almost every game that the varsity played this season was close. The Napa game and the first Petaluma game were won by our local lads by only one point and were thrillers all the way. Teams which suffered defeat at the claws of our Panthers included: Petaluma (two games), Napa, Analy, and Healdsburg. However, Vallejo, San Rafael, and Tamalpais, nipped our Panthers in early season games and prevented them from winning the pennant.

Squad members who will graduate in June are Anderson, Furuye, Lockhart, Harp, Baldocchi, N. Biagi, and Guglielmetti. However, returning next season will be Ray Maffei, who was voted by his team mates as the most valuable man on the squad, and lanky six foot four inch Ted Taron.

● Of the five first string Panther hoopsters pictured above, two will leave this June, by graduation, and one in January. Ken Harp, Ukiah transfer, and star bucket defender, and Denny Anderson, staunch guard, are the two June absentees. Jack Stone, captain and most consistent bucket ringer of the group, makes his exit from his hoop career in January.

● This season's Panther light weight basketball club might be termed as a hard luck squad. In almost all of the league games that they played the Panther Cubs had at least one of the starting lineup on the bench with injuries. The starting quintet was the best the league could muster. It was composed of Jimmy Fortier and Dick Azevedo, forwards; Billy Rogers, center, and Al Pierre and Captain Eddie Rousseau at guards. For Rousseau, could toss the spheroid into the net for a healthy share of the points, and steady Al Pierre did a great job on defense work. However, with illness and bad luck the Panthers came in third place. Graduating from the squad this year will be Fortier, Lee Bollinger, a hard fighting center, Ed Rousseau, and Twin Brother George Rousseau.

C BASKETBALL

• Composed of tall, string-bean casaba twirlers was the 1941 C basketball five. This well-rounded aggregation featured one-point thrillers, as their scores show. They came exceedingly close to losing many times, but through speedy defensive action and form-shots, they survived the entire league without a loss.

The sole defeat of the season came in the final game of the season with Vallejo for the N. B. L. championship. The Vallejo lads just had too many guns for the local boys and they doubled our own points. The loss isn't so bad when one considers that the Vallejo C team has remained intact for three years.

The first five basketeters were: Ralph Reine, rugged guard and controller rebounds; Jack Ryerson, hard-fighting center and the scrappiest man on the team; "Buster" Keegan, high scorer in several games and a staunch forward; Kurt Clark, star defensive man, and Don Martel, mite-size guard and a deadly one-hand shot artist.

diamond career, collecting 14 hits in 22 trips to the plate, for a season average of .660, which is the highest league batting average that has been accomplished in N. B. L. competition in quite a while.

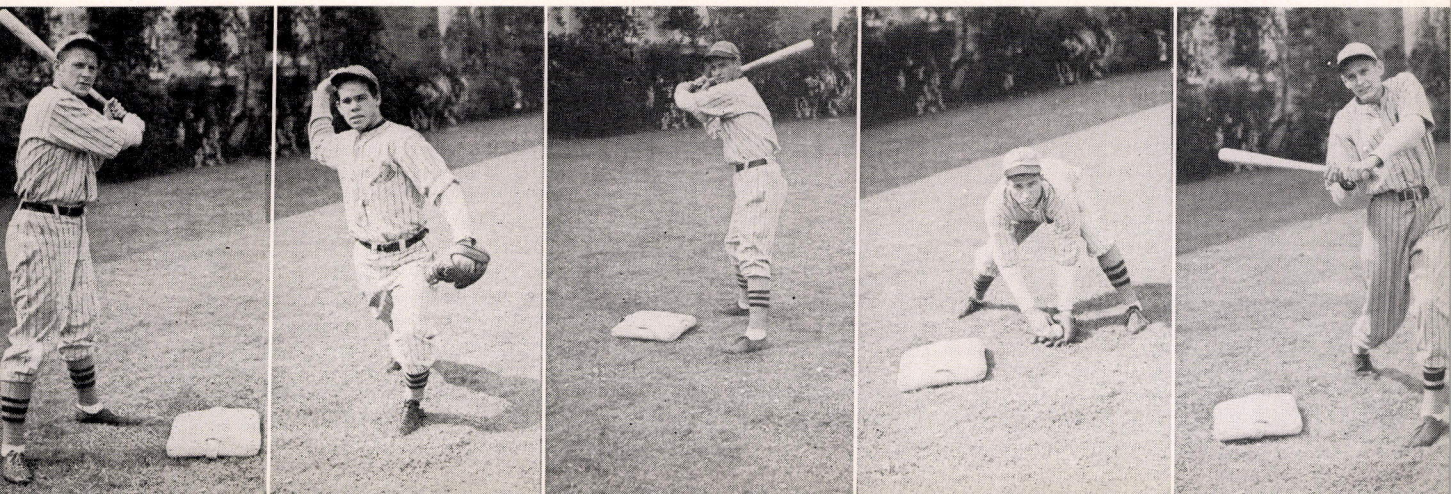

It was only appropriate that Biagi receive the coveted blanket award, and that he did, with Jerry Bick being selected as captain.

Those who will be missing from next year's lineup are, Frank Guglielmetti, Nel Biagi, and Jerry Bick, June grads, and Walt Rogina, who will be ineligible for competition.

These four boys have not only been an asset to the team in their playing ability, but in their valuable leadership as well, and it is not enough to say that their presence next year will be sadly missed.

● Sweeping the Sonoma County meet at Sebastopol and capturing first place in the league finals at Vallejo, this year's contingent of varsity cindermen laid claim to their third successful N.B.L. championship. Following the finals, eleven varsity spikesters were selected to compete in the North Coast Section meet at San Jose. The spikemen who stood out in particular were Townsend, sprints and broadjump; Anderson, shotput; Wood, shotput and discus; Coldwell, high jump; Copes, 440, and Melville, pole vault. Jack Townsend was voted to receive the All-American blanket award, and Denny Anderson was elected as team captain. . . . Led by Bobby Karr, 120 low hurdles skimmer; Gene Service, outstanding B high jumper; Don Mallory, 440 cavorter, and many others, the B's did well by capturing fourth place in the league meet. Karr placed second at the N.C.S., and Service, in his best form, established a new N.C.S. high jump record. Karr was selected team captain. . . . Led by Captain Eddie Noonan, outstanding C class shotputter of the league, the C class ovalmen did their share in upholding the Panther track prestige by capturing second place honors in the league finals at Vallejo.

FIRST and SECOND AWARDS

• Initiations for the new G. A. A. members in the fall and spring were quite the thing, with pigtails, painted freckles and aprons as costumes of the day. Fun followed the next day, when Miss Dorothy Eldred led the group of initiates and old members in various dances. A luncheon in the cafeteria was the following event.

The girls of the First Award group are on their way to work for the four remaining awards, and truly have the makings of the future leaders in girls' athletics.

• After reaching the first step to success, the Second Award group is still working to earn enough points to join the Block SR, and to work on for a plaque. The majority of girls are sophomores, and are enthusiasts in class teams. Many are represented in the sophomore basketball team which had its play day in the fall.

G.A.A. CABINET and BLOCK SR

- The Girls' Athletic Association is a choice group of girls who manage the girls' sports functions and business.

Successful officers of the fall and spring semesters were: president, Marie Clark, Kathryn Hull; vice president, June Gardella, Molly Fujihara; secretary, Earline Hicklin, Ileen Fujihara; point recorder, Amelia Falco, Dorothy Babbini; swimming manager, Jane Degner; volleyball, Mary Holland; tennis, Thelma Kidwell, Mary Jean Ross; basketball, Shirley McCray; hockey, Violet Assini; minor events, Mary Holland, Jean Wilson; speedball, Donna Guglielmetti, Delphine Raviscioni; yell leader, Jean Gardella; baseball, Dorita Rogers.

- Block S. R. members are those girls who have had the ambition to work their way up the ladder to receive the orange and black emblem of a "top-notcher" in girls' sports.

At the top of the ladder this year we find Kathryn Hull and Helen Bryant, and, as their award, they have received a G. A. A. plaque and had their names engraved on the large G. A. A. plaque in the gym.

Officers of the year were: President, Helen Permenter; vice president, Amelia Falco; secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Badger.

GIRLS' SPORTS

● Action and vigor are true expressions of the senior basketball group this year. After four years of learning the rules and putting into practice a few of the old tricks, the girls gave the lower classmen plenty of competition.

Exciting fall days found the juniors really showing their superb ability in the game of volleyball. These girls represent some of the best players in the junior sports division.

Top row: Fiori, Bianchi, Chickenoff.
Third row: Hull, Fujihara, Hauso.
Second row: Permenter, Bryant, McCray.

BASKETBALL BASEBALL

Top row: Kaiser, Klebe, Groskoff
 Fourth row: Badger, Carithers, Marlott
 Third row: McCray, Ramsey, Merrill
 Second row: Messinger, Deffenbaugh, Holtzen
 Bottom row: Raviscioni, Williams

Tennis

Top row:
Malm, Guanella, B. Bailey,
R. Miller, Teel, Permenter.
Bottom row:
Kidwell, Degner, Hull, Bryant,
N. Ives, Ross.

Table Tennis

Top row:
Manager-Wilson, McCray, Fiori,
Fleck, Clark, E. West,
H. Strong, Degner, Bryant.
Bottom row:
Hull, Alcott, Jett, Eisenegger,
D. Babbini, I. Fujihara.

● Indoor fun, throughout the winter season, was climaxed by ping pong—one of America's fastest games. Many a happy hour was spent in these unbeatable upper-class tournaments.

Congratulated senior winners in first place position were: Ileen Fujihara, Leah Dickinson, Rose Kai and Kathryn Hull. Junior winners were: Ella West, Virginia Alcott, Irene Eisenegger and Dorothy Babbini.

● "It's an ace!" was one of the frequent calls in the exciting tennis tournaments of the fall and spring this year. One of the favorites of girls' sports, in gym periods and out-of-class, was enjoyed by many a net-woman.

The finals ended with Helen Bryant as "champ" of all the tennis-loving girls, and Margaret Griffith in a close second.

Other leaders in their respective classes were: Nadine Ives, junior; Connie Wilson, sophomore, and there were no contestants in the freshman class.

Manager for the fall tournaments was Thelma Kidwell, and Mary Jean Ross continued in the spring.

● Real work was exercised by the girls of the Hockey team as the year went by. Unable to use the gym for basketball, this team was formed in the seventh period class to take the place of the unavailing sport. Once every week, fun was added to the routine by meeting the Junior College group in inter-school games. This gave an opportunity for both teams to get practice, and also to meet new friends.

● First Aid, this year, supervised by Miss Asta Selchau, was a very important activity of the girls. The actual practice and the knowledge of what to do at the scene of an accident was studied thoroughly by the students.

These girls have received their Junior Certificates, and are prepared to act in emergencies.
