Administrative Team

The Administrative Team: Dr. Mary McLeod, Principal; Sister Sharon Cross, O.P., Vice-principal; Mr. James May, Dean of Studies; Ms. Mardi Hack, Dean of Students. Throughout the year they collaborate to insure the best possible education for each of the students at St. Rose Academy. Pictured at Jackson Park, overlooking the campus and much of the city around it, the members of the Administrative Team, as well as those of the Faculty and Staff, are concerned with the lives and learning of all the students both at school and in the larger society in which we all live.

HELLO WEEK

Hello Week all started out with an assembly on September 16. It was revealed that the following week everyone would return to their childhood. On Monday everyone was dressed as a little boy or girl; at lunch we were all invited to participate in jumprope or jacks!! On Tuesday, there were a number of cowboys, cowgirls and indians running through the corridors at St. Rose. On Wednesday Student Council took us all to the movies (popcorn included, of course!) Thursday at lunch . . . Surprise! Mrs. Fields cookies and milk were provided for everyone who was a good girl. Friday was the infamous Big 'n' Lil' Sister Day.

Mrs. Pinocci has the cutest baby face!

Bubbles for fun at lunch!

Go, Ms. Hack!

Jane Murray— what a pro!

Simon says...jumping jacks!

Amy Barry loves those cookies!

HOLY SPIRIT
MASS OF THE

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Student Council has again been very busy this year. Under the guidance of Ms. Holson and the Leadership of Molly Newcomer, the Council organized the Dance-a-thon; a smashing success for the second year in a row, Hello Week; vital for Freshman survival, which included a special surprise from Mrs. Field's, and Spring Week, to help us make it through the final weeks.

Our beloved leaders in the Rotunda of City Hall with Wendy Nelder, Pres. of the Board of Supervisors. (l.-r.): Kathleen Roldan, Student Body Vice-president; Molly Newcomer, Student Body President; Gabrielle Zaits, Student Body Secretary; Ann Borgonovo, Student Body Treasurer.

CAMPUS MINISTRY ASSOCIATION

CMA is an organization which promotes religious and social awareness. This year they sponsored a Salvadorean family, held food and toy drives, helped with supplies for the Tijuana mission, and organized other activities to aid the community.

HARBINGER

Under the direction of Carolyn Mc Manus and Mrs. Cromey, the HARBINGER has been undergoing a transition period. An effort has been made to upgrade the quality of articles printed. Their efforts proved more successful with each issue published.

Carolyn Mc Manus (editor) is pictured at one of her favorite spots in S.F., Ft. Point.

The Staff is very important to maintain the quality of the HARBINGER. From the artists and typists to the actual writers, each person involved in this publication is vital. All worked to make this year's HARBINGER the best ever.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club is dedicated to bringing parts of various cultures to our school for the Student body to experience. This year the International Club under the direction of Tyrenda Dixon sponsored assemblies in which members of our own Student body displayed their talents by singing traditional songs and doing traditional dances from different cultures. They also held an International Night to which various boy's schools were invited to join in the international festivities.

PEACE AND SOCIAL ACTION

This year P.S.A. was a very active and vocal organization. We often heard the latest news item in the morning announcements because of their concern to have a socially informed Student body. They also organized a Golden Gate Park clean-up, Christmas Toy drive, and, for the Seniors, a Blood Drive. This all happened under the direction of P.S.A. Pres. Maureen O'Keefe and moderator Mr. Farnell.

P.S.A. pres. Maureen O'Keefe poses in front of one of the most picturesque and odoriferous places in S.F., the Arboretum in Golden Gate Park.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Each year students are elected by the faculty and administrators to be a member of this society because of their outstanding scholarship and service to both the school and community. Only a certain percentage of the student body are elected to be in this club each year.

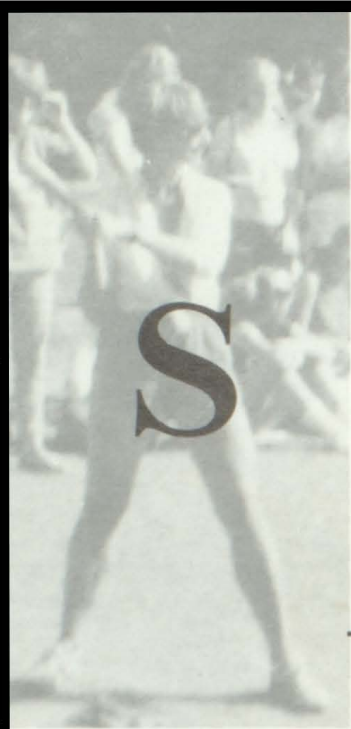

Debbie Williamson, National Honor Society club President.

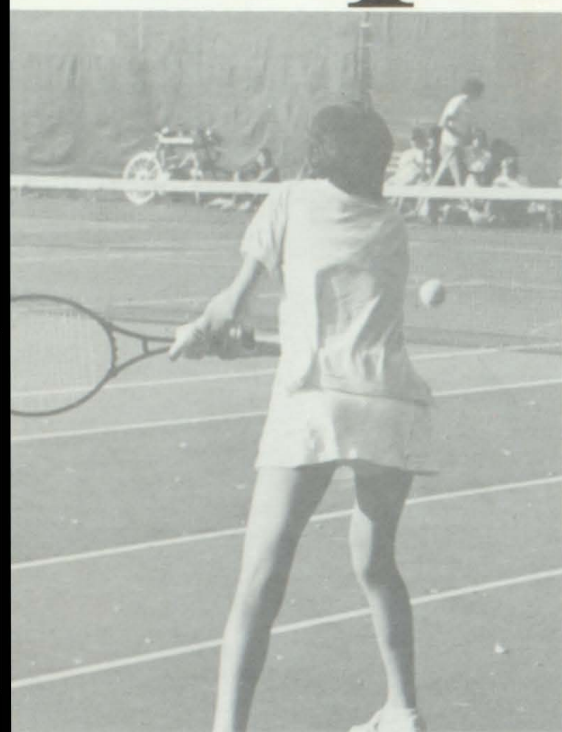

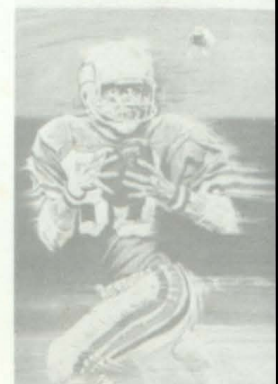

This spring at a special assembly new members were elected to take part in this society for the following year.

JUNIOR VARSITY

BASKETBALL

This year's Junior Varsity basketball team had a great season. It included six freshmen who played very strongly throughout the season, along with its "senior" members, the cornerstones of the team. Their coach Brenda Vizzard led the team to victory!

The Varsity basketball team had a good season despite the early season setbacks due to players' injuries. The seniors were backed strongly by the Juniors and Sophomores on the team. Brian Harrigan led the team to a victorious season.

SWIM TEAM

The swim team is a very small club, but they are very dedicated. Under the direction of Jennifer Pasquini, the team members came together to participate in a sport they all enjoy in a non-competitive atmosphere.

SOCCER TEAM

The soccer team completed its second season under the direction of Maureen O'Keefe. This year members with the added experience of last year's players were able to better their soccer techniques in practices and in competition and have a lot of fun.

October 26, 1983

Fall Frantics is a day of play at Speedway Meadows in Golden Gate Park. The student body enjoyed competing in sports such as volleyball, softball, soccer or touch football. Some students enjoyed a bike ride to Baker's Beach, while others displayed their artistic ability as painters. Pictured here are the traditional class pyramids. Thanks go to the G.A.A. council for putting together such a great day. (It need not be mentioned that the Seniors lost the Senior-Faculty softball game.)

FRESHMAN PLAY

Alice in Wonderland

The Class of 1987 tapped, danced, and sang their way into St. Rose under the direction of Kathy Roldan. Led by Kassy Earhart, as Alice, the freshmen class led the student body to Wonderland. The Cheshire Cat, the Queen, the Mad Hatter and all the rest appeared to bring back a part of our childhood and give us a taste of holiday cheer.

THE RING CEREMONY

The Ring Ceremony, held on Saturday, November 19th, marked the initiation of the Juniors into the St. Rose upperclassmen. The weather was unable to dampen the excitement of the Juniors. The Juniors were ringed by their Senior friends at the Presidio Officers' Club after a delightful lunch. This St. Rose tradition lives on!

And fly. -Triumph

Here is Edward Bear, coming downstairs now, bump, bump, bump, on the back of his head, behind Christopher Robin. It is, as far as he knows, the only way of coming downstairs, but sometimes he feels that there really is another way, if only he could stop bumping for a moment and think of it. -A.A. Milne

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down today.
Nothing gold can stay.

Fortuna Favet Fortibus

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as far,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back!

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

—Robert Frost

If we shadows have offended,
Think but this, and all is mended-
That you have but slumb'ed here
While these visions did appear.
And this weak and idle theme,
No more yielding but a dream,
Gentles, do not reprehend.
If you pardon, we will mend.
And, as I am an honest Puck,
If we have unearned luck
Now to scrape the serpent's tongue,
We will make amends ere long;
Else the Puck a liar call.
So, good night unto you all.
Give me your hands, if we be friends,
And Robin shall restore amends.
