Oakland, Alameda Co, P O and incorporated city; is pleasantly situated on the east shore of the Bay of San Francisco, about 7 miles distant from the metropolis. Communication between the two cities is rapid and frequent by railroad and steamboat. The San Francisco & Oakland Railroad commences at Oakland Point, and is completed to San Antonio, a distance of five miles. The climate is remarkably healthy, and a large portion of its population is made up from the business community of the Bay City. Several of the best educational institutions of the State are located here, of which the following deserve especial mention, viz: College of California, Oakland College School, Pacific Female College, Oakland Seminary for Young Ladies, etc.
