

ALAMEDA COUNTY DIRECTORY.

OAKLAND
BANK OF SAVINGS.

GUARANTEE CAPITAL, $1,000,000.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

EDW'D M. HALL, P. S. WILCOX, SAM'L MERRITT,
T. B. BIGELOW, WALTER BLAIR.

The statute under which this corporation is organized specially provides concerning married and unmarried women and minors making deposits, "that such deposits belong to them, and can only be withdrawn by themselves or their order."

This Institution was organized for the purpose of giving to all classes an opportunity for a safe and profitable investment of their money, deposits being received from one dollar to any larger amount.

The Stockholders are liable to the depositors to the amount of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, thereby affording a guarantee of absolute safety not possessed by any other institution in this State.

It must be apparent to all that in assuming this responsibility the Stockholders have the fullest confidence in the success of the corporation and of the wants and future prospects of this county. They therefore respectfully invite all to transact their business with an institution which cannot fail to be of profit to themselves and of advantage to the community.

P. S. WILCOX, President.

J. L. BROWNE, Cashier.

OAKLAND, June 15, 1871.