

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION

Far more thorough and extensive than which any other institution can offer the public. Such are some of the advantages claimed for our Practical Course of Business Training. Our Graduates, after having passed through the entire course, become

SKILLFUL AND FINISHED ACCOUNTANTS,

And obtain lucrative and pleasant situations. All persons desiring a reliable Business Education, should call and examine the merits of our Institution, after which they will be certain to go nowhere else. Among the many advantages which our school possesses over all others, may be mentioned the following :

It is the largest Business College upon the Coast, and has in attendance about double the number of students that any other school of a similar kind can claim. Our rooms are much the largest and best fitted up for actual practice. We have a better class of pupils, and the school is under better discipline. We have a greater number of teachers employed, and have the best Business Penman upon the Coast to teach our pupils. This is one of the Bryant & Stratton Colleges.

Our Scholarships are good for Tuition in Thirty-Six Business Colleges.

And afford their holders a business connection in the leading cities of the United States and Canada. Our Diploma is the finest artistic production of the kind used in any College on the Coast, and is given free of charge to every student who can satisfactorily pass the graduating examination of two weeks, and to no others. It is also a better recommendation among business men, than that of any single school, and will be recognized in New York, Boston, Chicago or other Eastern cities, as well as upon this Coast.

SESSIONS DAY AND EVENING.

Clerks, Mechanics and others, engaged during business hours, can secure a sound, Mercantile Education, by attending evenings only. There are no class systems to keep the pupil back. Each can advance as rapidly as desired. No particular age or degree of advancement is required to enter the College. We have in operation a

PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

Where all the branches of an ordinary English education are taught, for those who are too young or not sufficiently advanced for the Business Course. Visitors are always welcome at the College. Persons intending to enter our College, are cautioned against paying their money to other schools in the neighborhood by mistake. Be sure that you see the name Heald's Business College, ground into the large glass panel of the office door, and then you will make no mistakes. Don't fail to obtain
