

entering upon the duties of his office, execute an official bond, payable to the city, in such sum as the Council may direct, for the faithful discharge of his official duties, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the Council, and be deposited with the Clerk. He shall communicate to the Council, semi-annually or oftener, if necessary, a general statement of the situation and condition of the city, together with such recommendations relative thereto as he may deem expedient; he shall be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city to be executed and enforced, and he shall be the head of the Police, and shall exercise a supervision and control over the conduct of all subordinate officers, and receive and examine into all such complaints as may be preferred against any of them, for violation or neglect of duty, and certify the same to the Council. He shall sign all ordinances and contracts made in behalf of the city, and countersign all licences and warrants on the treasury, and have jurisdiction of all violations of the city ordinances, and shall have, within the limits of the city, like jurisdiction as is conferred on Justices of the Peace. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and shall act as City Attorney until the next election, after which he may be appointed City Attorney by the Council.

SEC. 46. The Treasurer shall receive and pay out all moneys belonging to the city, and keep an account of all receipts and expenditures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance; he shall make a monthly statement to the Council, of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding month, and keep all the papers and documents belonging to the city, attend the meetings of the Council, and keep a journal of their proceedings and a record of all their ordinances, and shall do all other things required of him by ordinance.

SEC. 47. The Marshal shall execute, within the city, and return all processes issued and directed to him by the Justice or Mayor, arrest all persons guilty of a breach of the peace, or of a violation of any ordinance of the Council, and take them before the Mayor, or any other legal authority within the city; he shall pay over all moneys into the City Treasury, received in pursuance of the ordinances of the Council, and shall attend the meetings of the Council; he shall also perform the duties of Street Commissioner, and do and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance.

SEC. 48. The officers or persons to whom the receipts or expenditure of the moneys or funds of the city shall be intrusted, shall give security in such amount as the Council may require, payable to the city, and subject to the approval of the Mayor; such bond or bonds shall be subject to the provisions of the law concerning the official bonds of officers. In case such security becomes insufficient, additional security may be required, and if not given, the Council, by a vote of two thirds of the members, may declare the office vacant, and order a new election.

SEC. 49. All fines and other moneys received by any officer
