SEC. 7. No person shall knowingly transport or convey, or cause to be transported or conveyed, within the limits of this city, in any hack, carriage, railroad car, or steamboat, or other vehicle or public conveyance, any person affected with small-pox, or the body of any person who may have died of small-pox, except by written permission from the Health Officer.—[Amendment, May 30, 1870.]

— Every person who shall rent any house or building, or land, knowing that the same is to be used and occupied by any person or persons affected with any contagious disease, or any person affected with a contagious disease, to come into and remain in any house occupied or controlled by him or her, except such person be a member of the family, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned one day for every two dollars of such fine. Every day such person so affected is allowed to remain in any such house or building, or land, shall be deemed a new offense. And it shall be the duty of every officer of this municipal government to immediately report to the City Attorney, every violation of this ordinance that comes to his knowledge, and every violation of "An ordinance concerning the Public Health," approved July 31, 1868, and it shall be the duty of the City Attorney to immediately prosecute every such violation. The same fees shall be allowed for vaccination as provided in section ten of said ordinance.—[Ordinance, December 24, 1868, Sec. 3.]

— Every sexton, undertaker, superintendent of a cemetery or burial place or ground, or other persons who shall inter or cause to be interred any human body, or who shall remove or cause to be removed from the City of Oakland any human body, without first having obtained a permit in writing for the same from the Health Officer, or who, having interred or caused to be interred any human body under said permit, shall neglect to report on or before the succeeding Saturday the place of interment, number of lot or grave to the Health Officer, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as provided in this ordinance.—[Ordinance, May 16, 1870, Sec. 3.]

— In each and every case of death within the corporation limits of the City of Oakland, reported to or coming to the knowledge of the Health Officer, where there shall be any suspicious circumstances relating to or connected with such death, he shall cause to be had a post-mortem examination of such person, before being permitted to be buried; at which post-mortem examination it shall be the duty of one or more of the physicians composing the Board of Health of said city to be present and assist in said post-mortem examination.—[Ordinance, May 16, 1870, Sec. 4.]
