

Collector of the City of Oakland, or of any two of them, and of the Auditor, Clerk, and Tax Collector of the County of Alameda, or of any two of them.

SEC. 4. The provisions of the Act regulating the collection of delinquent taxes of the City and County of San Francisco, when not in conflict with this Act, are hereby applied to the County of Alameda and the City of Oakland; and no fees, costs, or charges, except those named in this Act, and in the Acts regulating taxation in San Francisco, above referred to, shall be levied or collected upon the delinquent list.—[See Statutes of California, 1862, page 509; 1866, page 520; also Part 3, chapter vii, Political Code, 1872.]

SEC. 29. It shall be the duties of the City Marshal, the Tax Collector, the Treasurer, the Clerk, and the Assessor, whenever required by the City Council, to make their reports to the said Council, and in the manner required of them, and in their reports to embody all the matters and information required, pertaining to the duties of their respective offices.

SEC. 30. If the Assessor, or the Clerk, or Treasurer, or Marshal, or the Tax Collector, shall willfully neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties enjoined on him by the provisions of this charter, or the duties properly imposed upon them by virtue of any ordinance passed by the City Council, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction thereof, before any Justice of the Peace, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and his office shall forthwith become vacant. [Amended, see Supplemental iii., sec. 6.]

SEC. 31. The City Clerk shall, within ten days after receiving the delinquent tax list, deliver the same, duly certified by him to be correct, as the same appears by the assessment roll, to the City Attorney.

[Sections 32 to 43, inclusive, providing for the collection of delinquent taxes, are repealed and superseded by Act of April 4, 1870. See Supplemental II, page 406.]

SEC. 44. The City Council may require of the City Attorney, as well as of all the officers of trust, a good and sufficient bond for the faithful discharge of all the duties imposed by law or ordinances; and each and all officers who fail or neglect to perform all the duties imposed upon them, shall be liable, upon their official bond, to the city, or to any party aggrieved.

SEC. 45. The Mayor elected under this charter shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute an official bond, payable to the city, in such sum as the Council may direct, for the faithful discharge of his official duties, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the Council, and be deposited with the Clerk. He shall communicate to the Council semi-annually, or oftener if necessary, a general statement of the situation and condition of the city, together with such recommendations relative thereto as he may deem expedient; he shall be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city to be executed and enforced, and he shall be the head of the Police, and shall exercise a supervision and control over the conduct of all subordinate officers, and receive and examine into all such complaints as may be preferred against any of them for violation or neglect of duty, and certify the same to the Council. He shall sign all ordinances and contracts made in behalf of the city, and countersign all licenses and warrants on the treasury, and have jurisdiction of all violations of the city ordinances, and shall have, within the limits of the city, like jurisdiction as is conferred on Justices of the Peace. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and shall act as City
