SEC. 5. The provisions of section seven hundred and seventy-two of the Penal Code shall be applicable to all city officers to whom the receipt or disbursement of public money is intrusted, and also to the City Engineer and the Superintendent of Public Schools.

SEC. 6. If any officer of the city shall willfully neglect or refuse to perform any of the duties lawfully enjoined upon him, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the County Jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and his office forthwith shall become vacant.

SEC. 7. The Mayor, the Assessor, the Clerk and Treasurer, the Marshal and Tax Collector, the City Engineer, the Superintendent of Public Schools, the Chief of Police, and all officers to whom the receipt or expenditures of the funds of the city, shall be intrusted, shall, before entering upon his or their official duties, and within ten days after their election or appointment, execute a bond, payable to the city, which shall be subject to the law concerning the official bonds of officers, in such sum as the City Council may direct; which bond shall be subject to approval by the Council, by ordinance, naming the sureties thereon, and the amount in which such surety has qualified; and the City Council may at any time require an additional amount, or new sureties, upon any bond which it may deem insufficient.

SEC. 8. No member of the City Council, or of the Board of Education, nor any officer of the city, shall be surety upon the official bond of any corporate officer, nor shall he be directly or indirectly interested with or be surety for any person who may be interested in any franchise, contract, appropriation, or work, or business, or in the sale of anything the price of, or consideration for which, is paid or payable by the city, or by assessments levied under an ordinance of the Council, nor shall any contract be awarded or franchise granted to any person who may be surety on the official bond of any officer of the city.

SEC. 9. In all matters before the City Council concerning the granting of franchises, letting of contracts, auditing of bills, ordering of work to be done, or supplies to be furnished, or whatever may involve the payment of money, or incurring of debt by the city, the vote shall [be] by yeas and nays, and be recorded in the journal.

SEC. 10. No member of the City Council shall vote in the Council upon any motion, resolution, or ordinance, in favor of any franchise, contract, bill, award, or appropriation, in which he may have any pecuniary interest, present or prospective.

SEC. 11. The City Council shall not contract any debt or incur any obligation of indebtedness, which cannot be paid out of the revenues of the current fiscal year (except for prosecuting or defending suits at law, in which the city may be an interested party), unless by ordinance passed by the unanimous vote of all the members of the Council, and approved by the Mayor; and any debt or debts, created contrary to the provisions of this section, shall not be binding upon or payable by the city, but the individual members of the Council who shall have voted for the same may be held personally responsible therefor, and in no event shall the revenues of any succeeding year be anticipated by more than ten thousand dollars.

SEC. 12. The salaries of the city officers shall be as follows: Clerk and Treasurer, eighteen hundred dollars per annum; an assistant to the Clerk and Treasurer, twelve hundred dollars per annum; Assessor, two thousand five hundred dollars per annum—the Assessor shall pay his deputies; Police Judge, eighteen hundred dollars per annum; Clerk to
