

sixth street; thence easterly along the center of Twenty-sixth street to a point midway between Pine and Wood streets; and thence southerly and parallel with Wood street to the center of Twenty-second street, the place of beginning; provided, that if, prior to the redemption of the bonds, the limits of the city shall be extended so as to include within the city other lands which shall require the use of said sewer for drainage, such lands shall also be assessed in like manner for the payment of said bonds and interest; and provided further, that no improvements or personal property upon said lands or within said district shall be assessed for any of the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of the City Council each year, at the time of levying the tax for municipal purposes, to ascertain the amount required for the payment of the interest on the bonds for the year, and the Assessor of the city shall thereupon assess said lands equally according to area, for said amount, entering such assessment in the assessment roll, in the same manner as the taxes are entered therein, but in a separate column; and such assessment shall be collected at the time and in the manner provided by law for the collection of city taxes, and shall be applied to the payment of the interest on said bonds.

SEC. 10. After the expiration of five years from the date of the bonds, the Council must in each year, at the time of levying said tax, ascertain as near as may be the amount required to pay one fifth of the bonds, exclusive of the interest, and the Assessor must assess the same equally upon said lands, in the manner provided in the preceding section for the assessment of interest due; the same must be collected as provided for the collection of the interest, and be set apart by the Treasurer as a Sinking Fund, for the redemption of said bonds. If for any reason the Council shall fail to ascertain the amount to be collected for the Interest and Sinking Fund, as required by this Act, it shall be the duty of the Assessor to ascertain said amount, and assess and collect the same, as above provided.

SEC. 11. The Council may redeem any of the bonds prior to their maturity, at the option of the holders thereof, whenever there is money in the Sinking Fund, which, in the judgment of the Council, may be profitably used for that purpose.

SEC. 12. This Act shall take effect immediately.

SUPPLEMENTAL VIII.—An Act to establish and define the powers and duties of the Board of Education of the City of Oakland, approved March 14, 1868, and the amendments thereto, approved March 1, 1872.

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Board of Education of the City of Oakland shall consist of seven School Directors, who shall be elected as follows, namely: four at the next ensuing charter election for city officers for said city, for the term of two years, and three at the next charter election thereafter, for two years; and at every subsequent charter election for city officers of said city there shall be, alternately, four and three School Directors elected, to take the place of those whose term of office has expired; said term of office, in each and every case, to be for two years and until a successor is duly elected and qualified; provided, that the present Board of Education of said city shall exercise, and are
