METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

Location, corner Park Street and Central Avenue. Rev. H. B. Heacock, Pastor ; residence, East side Park Street, between Central and Encinal Avenues.

This church was organized in 1853 by Rev. James McGowan, who is still a member. A lot was donated by Rev. William Taylor and Archibald Taylor, on Mound Street near Monroe, and the first church erected thereon in 1854, by Rev. William Deal, its first Pastor.

In 1873 the church building was moved to a new site on the corner of Park Street and Central Avenue, at an expense, including cost of lot, of $1,600. In 1875 an adjoining lot was purchased, the old building removed to the rear of the lot, and the present structure erected instead. During the Summer of last year the old church building was enlarged and improved, and is now used as a lecture and Sunday school room. The total cost of church property is $10,000. The Sunday school connected with the church was organized in 1853 ; average attendance, teachers and scholars, one hundred and thirty-four. Number of volumes in library, three hundred. William H. Codington, Superintendent.

Officers.—James McGowan, A. S. Barber, John Gunn, J. A. Webster, and Levi Jenks, Trustees.
