

THE
WEEKLY ALAMEDA ARGUS!

T. G. DANIELLS, - - - Proprietor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

Devoted to the Interests of the TOWN and COUNTY of ALAMEDA.

THE ARGUS

—IS THE—

Best Weekly Newspaper in Alameda County.

ITS EDITORIAL COMMENT

Upon current topics is full, able and impartial. It discusses all matters of general importance to the public, whether National, State or local, from an entirely independent standpoint, taking a decided stand against all monopolies or encroachments on the rights of the masses.

ITS TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Is very complete, giving in detail all that happens on the peninsula two days in advance of any other paper. A special feature is its carefully-prepared report of the proceedings of the Town Trustees at their regular weekly meetings.

ITS SELECTIONS

Are carefully made, comprising extracts from the most readable matter that appears in the press of this coast and the East. Its tone is pure, and it is essentially a FAMILY JOURNAL. ITS MECHANICAL APPEARANCE is unsurpassed anywhere, it being printed from clear-faced type upon a superior quality of paper.

THE ARGUS

Should be taken by every family in Alameda. It aims to watch over their interests, and to promote the growth of the town by pointing out its advantages to those seeking homes or business locations. As

AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

It is very valuable. It circulates very extensively throughout Alameda and adjoining towns. Advertisements inserted in its columns reach a very large and the very best class of citizens. Dealers should make a note of this.

THE ARGUS

IS NO MERE EXPERIMENT. It is a fixed institution and will improve as its field enlarges and as circumstances require. It asks no special favors from the people, and only desires success as it merits it.

The price of the ARGUS is only $3.00 per annum, payable when the paper has been served.

ADVERTISING RATES made known at the office on Park street, Alameda.

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE is the city official paper.
