CHURCH OF THE ADVENT—EPISCOPAL.

Location, southwest corner of Seventeenth Avenue and East Fourteenth Street. At present the Rectory is vacant, but the Rev. Hamilton Lee, of Santa Barbara, has accepted a call and will be installed by the date of this publication.

This church was organized May 25, 1860. The Rev. Benjamin Akerly, of St. John's Church, Oakland, was the first Rector, and officiated until February 25, 1866, when he was succeeded by the Rev. Daniel Wills. In 1869 Mr. Wills resigned, and was succeeded by the Rev. Daniel Kendig, who continued in charge until July, 1870; the charge then remained vacant until January, 1871, when the Rev. Sidney Wilbur took charge, and served until January, 1878.

In the Spring of 1860, James B. Larue, Esq., donated to the parish two lots on the corner of Broadway and Adams streets, and the same year the church edifice was erected, at a cost of $2,400. Since that date, the sum of $600 has been expended in improving the building and lots.

The Sunday school connected with the church was organized in 1860. It has an attendance of about one hundred teachers and scholars, and a library of two hundred volumes. Meets at half past nine o'clock A.M.

Officers.—A. F. Rodgers, Senior Warden; ———, Junior Warden; J. West Martin, and L. J. Rector, Vestrymen; Henry Steere, Treasurer and Clerk.

THE BISHOP BERKELEY—EPISCOPAL.

This church was organized during the Fall of the past year. Services are now held in the Berkeley Gymnasium at eleven o'clock A.M. Sundays. Lenten services are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at four o'clock P.M. The present number of communicants is about twenty-five. A call has been extended to and accepted by the Rev. G. W. Mayer, who will be installed as Rector during the month of April.

The church has purchased a lot on the south side of Bancroft Way, near Ellsworth, and will erect a church building during the coming Summer, funds for that purpose being already secured.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

Location, southeast corner of Clay and Fourteenth streets. Rev. R. Bentley, D. D., Pastor; residence, north side of Eighteenth Street, between San Pablo Av. and Grove.

This church was organized in 1862, through the exertions of Rev. C. E. Rich, who entered upon his duties as Pastor in September of the same year, and continued in charge until September, 1864, when he was succeeded by the Rev. C. Miller, who officiated one year. The Rev. H. H. Hartwell next took charge, until September, 1866, when he was succeeded by the Rev. L. Walker, who officiated until September, 1869, when he was succeeded by the Rev. T. S. Dunn, who officiated until September, 1872, when the Rev. W. J. McClay served for one year, and was followed by Rev. C. V. Anthony, and he by the present Pastor. In December, 1862, a small building was erected on the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, and used as a chapel until 1864, when the society
