Municipal Finances.

The following statement from the books of the City Clerk and Treasurer, Mr. James Dods, will show the receipts and disbursements on municipal account for the year 1879. There is an increase in the receipts over the preceding year of $11,000 ; the aggregate being $458,954 35 against $447,967 78 for the year 1878. The expenditures were $285,688 26, for all purposes except public schools, the latter costing $174,220 81, bringing the total up to $459,910 07, about $20,000 less than for the year 1878. It is noticeable that the sum of $17,000 was paid for teachers salaries in excess of the sum paid in 1878. General current expenses were about the same. A liberal sum was paid to secure the advantages of the Free Library, namely about $13,000. Judiciously managed this is money well expended.
