

Golden Gate Academy.

H. E. Jewett, A. M., Principal.

Located on Academy Hill, near Telegraph avenue. This institution receives students of both sexes, either as boarders or day scholars. The Department of Physical Culture has recently been added to the school, consisting of Military Drill and Gymnastics. Students are fitted for the best Colleges of the land, and also for practical business life.

Poston's Academy.

Mrs. E. C. Poston, Principal.

Located corner Oak and Eleventh streets. An institution devoted to the education of young ladies. The school was first established in Marysville, and was removed to its present quarters in 1872. During the year past extensive additions have been added in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing number of students. It is deservedly popular with our citizens, and is yearly increasing its number of pupils. For the term ending June 25, 1880, the number of pupils was about 75.

Snell Seminary.

Location, 568 Central avenue.

This institution was first opened for students in July, 1878. It is intended for young ladies, who are received either as boarders or day scholars. The course of instruction is thorough in all branches.

Miss Mary E. Snell and R. B. Snell, Principals. Number of students, 90.

Oakland Business College.

Location, southeast corner Franklin street and Central avenue. This institution has now been established five years. It is designed to afford young men and ladies a thorough business education. In order to obtain this result no pains are spared that will contribute to its usefulness and efficiency. Professor M. K. Lauden, President.

Mills' Seminary.

Located at the foot of the San Pablo Range, five miles from Oakland. An institution devoted to the education of young ladies. Rev. C. T. Mills, Principal.

S. F. LAUNDRY.

Washing called for and Delivered in S. F., Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley.
Office, 33 Geary St., S. F., and 862 Broadway, Oakland.