FIFTY MINUTES' RIDE FROM SAN FRANCISCO

by the ferry and cars of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railroad via Point Tiburon; or by the North Pacific Coast Railroad via Sausalito. Both routes crossing the Bay opposite the Golden Gate and running close to Alcatraz Island. The climate of San Rafael is not equaled by that of any other place on the Coast.

AS A SUMMER RESORT

it is an agreeable change from the fogs and smoke of San Francisco, and its warm equable climate makes it one of the most desirable resorts in California. It has not the oppressive heat of inland towns; yet it is protected from fogs and cold by the surrounding mountains.

AS A WINTER RESORT

for Eastern visitors, or for others desiring comfortable winter quarters, it has not an equal in the world. Its close proximity to San Francisco, the rapid and frequent communication with the large city, its warm winter days, and withal a magnificent hotel with every comfort and convenience that modern ideas can suggest, the RAFAEL has become the most popular Hotel in the State.
