West of Chicago' . . .

THE BULLETIN has the entree of the cultured and wealthy homes. Its Editorials are bright, vigorous, timely and comprehensive, presenting the opinions of able thinkers on the engrossing topics of the day—not following, but leading public opinion. Its News Department keeps you thoroughly posted on all current events, both local and foreign. The Saturday BULLETIN is a special feature, and is a valuable addition to current literature every week. Aside from the current happenings of the day, there are special stories, covering a variety of subjects, by the best writers, and the best fashion and woman's page in the West. Art, Literature and Science are ably treated.
