Some Features

THE HOFFMAN has an admirably appointed Grill Room where Oysters in all styles as well as English Chops, Steaks, Rarebits, Game in season and all the choice dainties so beloved by the Epicurian are served, also a superb Ladies' Café, which taken together is the chief pride of Mr. Sullivan, the proprietor. Eleven private dining-rooms, each one finished in different kind of hard woods imported from all quarters of the Globe.

One of the leading features of THE HOFFMAN is the Mercantile Lunch, which is served in the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Café from 11 A. M. to 2:30 P. M., is partaken of every week day by the representative business men in the wholesale and retail districts. Hot and cold lunches at all hours.

THE HOFFMAN is a model institution of its kind and cost over $80,000. It is one of the noted resorts on the Pacific Coast, and has been pronounced by competent critics, the most artistic and beautiful place of its kind now in existence. Polished wood-work, Mosaic flooring and Electric illumination are aids to set off with good effect the finest collection of oil paintings in any Café in the U. S., a collection from the different Salons of Europe. The statuary, rare specimens of art and antiquity, are artistically arranged and all combine to make THE HOFFMAN the Fin de Siec establishment of the U. S.
