SAN MATEO CO., CAL.

Famed as California is for her climatic conditions, and attractive resorts there is no locality that offers more inducements to the residents and pleasure seekers than HOTEL MATEO. As a noted Traveler said, "There is more comfort to the square inch in San Mateo than in any place I have ever been." In the surroundings of this famous summer and winter resort nature has done much. The scenery is grandly diversified: great shady oaks, clear limpid streams, forests and canyons, beautiful drives, large lakes, and grand mountains in the distance environ this place, so that the visitor may have his own choice of recreation or amusement, and the comforts of that great caravansary HOTEL MATEO, and the cozy cottages arranged with artistic taste and unexceptionable good management by the veteran caterer, W. G. Graham, who is the proprietor and under whose personal management this hotel is kept. As shown in the engravings, it would seem to the practised eye, there can be found no where such picturesque surroundings. Its favored location being within one hour's ride from the Metropolis of the coast, makes it possible for men of affairs to enjoy the dual life of business men and pleasure seekers. Within the last few years San Mateo and vicinity have become the fashionable resort of the elite and wealthy people of the coast.

At this place visitors come in contact with people of leisure and the equitable climate and advantage of select society with one of the best kept hotels on the Pacific Coast. Guests are assured of all the comforts and advantages that favored location can produce, and money will buy. As we have already noted Mr. Graham is an experienced land lord who is always planning and striving alike to serve and please his guests. He has the happy faculty of making his visitors feel as if they were members of a large home circle, rather than as patrons of a conventional hotel. For an ideal home for travelers, for invalids, and persons seeking health, recreation and rest, we know no better resort than HOTEL MATEO.
