

California Conservatory of Music

SAN FRANCISCO'S OLDEST AND LARGEST SCHOOL OF MUSIC

FRANK MOSS, Pianist

MUSIC

IN ALL ITS BANCHES

~
DRAMATIC ART AND ELOCUTION

~
French, German
Italian and Spanish

~
DANCING:
BALLROOM
and AESTHETIC

Special department for the training of teachers. Complete Normal courses offered. Certificates awarded, and positions secured.

Graduate courses in all departments. Diplomas awarded.

The Conservatory is easily accessible from all parts of the city. The building is admirably adapted to the requirements of the school. There is a very attractive recital hall in addition to the studios and class rooms.

The students' organizations include the California Conservatory Club, the Conservatory Orchestra, the Choral Club, and the Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Orchestra.

Faculty includes Frank Moss, Adolph Rosenbecker, Dr. H. J. Stewart, Foster Krake, Mary Houghton Brown, Ernst H. Heinrich, Marie Sloss, Lucile Alsanon Smith, Charles S. Daniel, Alice Kellar-Fox, etc.

Faculty and Pupils' Recitals are held frequently. Cards sent on request.

Catalog and circulars sent free on request.

CALIFORNIA CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

1509 GOUGH STREET, NEAR SUTTER

Phone West 4935

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA