

New Brockway Hotel

THE HOT SPRINGS OF LAKE TAHOE

MOST ideal of all Tahoe resorts. Situated at the northern end of Lake Tahoe at the base of Old Mt. Rose, the highest of all Tahoe's lofty peaks. Brockway is conceded to be the finest fishing point on Lake Tahoe. Excellent stream, rod and hand-line fishing. Sheltered by the lofty mountains from the north and east winds, Brockway has the warmest shore on Lake Tahoe.

The hot sulphur springs, the only on Tahoe, have attained fame for their curative properties. The hot sulphur spring water is unrivaled for bathing purposes, softening and beautifying the skin. Very beneficial for rheumatism, etc. Hot sulphur spring water piped to all bathrooms.

Tennis, croquet, bathing, horseback riding, fishing, driving and walking trips are the indulgences of the Brockway guests. Saddle horses trained for mountain climbing and experienced mountaineers for guides, also carriages, etc. Boats, livery, laundry, as well as vegetable garden and dairy run in connection with hotel, assuring best of vegetables, milk, cream and butter for table. Many new improvements have been made at Brockway.

All modern conveniences, electric lights, private baths, etc.

Special attention given to evening entertainment. Casino has been entirely remodeled.

Long distance telephone, Wells Fargo Express. Post-office and News Stand at hotel.

Take Southern Pacific to Truckee, thence Lake Tahoe Ry. and Trans. Co. to Tahoe Tavern, where connection is made for steamer. From June 1st to July 5th take the Brockway launch, which will leave the Tavern wharf every morning after breakfast. From July 5th to September 5th there will be special boat service from Tahoe Tavern to Carnelian Bay and Brockway direct, leaving at 9:45 a. m. daily and returning in the afternoon to connect with evening train for Truckee. The trip around the lake to be appreciated and enjoyed should be made a day's excursion when one is rested. Auto road from Truckee, 12 miles, and from Reno, 20 miles.

Rates are $2.50, $3.00 and $4.00 by the day.

Weekly and monthly discounts allowed. Special rates to families.

For Reservations Address

LAWRENCE & COMSTOCK

Brockway, Lake Tahoe, California