The West's Palatial Picture Palace Dedicated to the Masses

World's Greatest Screen Stars in Greatest Plays

The Standard of T. and D. Perfection Guaranteed. Rare Entertainment at all Times

Pioneers in the World's Greatest Industry

Nowhere in the world is there a more palatial theatre than the Oakland T. and D. It is a palace dedicated to the masses where the magnificent screen masterpieces from the greatest of producers are placed within the reach of all.

Given the stamp of T. and D. standard, the programs are selected with a care to please every taste. In addition, added musical and song attractions give each semi-weekly bill the stamp of perfection.

There is an atmosphere of comfort in the T. and D. theatre that can not be found in any other show house in Oakland. When the T. and D. theatre was built, it was designed to attain the collective improvements contained in the finest houses in the world. And in this desire the T. and D. management succeeded. The result is that Oakland today possesses one of the largest and most beautiful of picture palaces.

Turner and Dahnken are pioneers in the picture game. They have seen it grow from its infancy—from the makeshift theatres of the old days to the present time, when pictures have become an art. And they have kept pace with the development, giving to their theatres the best that time has brought to one of the present day's greatest industries.

To name the stars appearing at the T. and D. theatre is to include the roster of all who are great and have attained pre-eminence in the world over which they rule.

ARTHUR S. WENZEL, Manager T. & D. Theatre, Oakland.
