

SWANTON HOUSE,

PESCADERO,

SAN MATEO COUNTY, CAL.

Pescadero is thirty miles from San Mateo; fifty-two miles from San Francisco; and is one of the most delightful places of resort for health or recreation on the Pacific Coast.

It is surrounded with beautiful drives. Its beach, strewn with moss, sprinkled with pebbles and shells, forms a glorious promenade; while for hunting and fishing, no locality offers such abundant inducements.

Nor are its hotel accommodations at all inferior to any of its other advantages; as in the SWANTON HOUSE, we find a hotel, in every respect, of the first-class.

It has apartments luxuriously furnished; a table loaded to repletion with delicacies; and romantically situated cottages, for the use of families and parties.

Here board can be had at from $10 to $12 per week, and every possible attention and courtesy which can administer to one's comfort, is assured by the genial host,

C. W. SWANTON, Proprietor.
