

Sixth. To regulate market houses and market-places.

Seventh. To provide for the erection, repair and regulation of wharves and docks, and fixing the rates of wharfage thereat.

Eighth. To provide for enclosing, improving and regulating all public grounds of the city and county.

Ninth. To prohibit the erection of wooden buildings or structures within any fixed limits where the street shall have been established and graded, or ordered to be graded; to regulate the sale, storage and use of gunpowder or other explosive or combustible materials and substances, and make all needful regulations for protection against fire.

Tenth. To make such regulations concerning the erection and use of buildings as may be necessary for the safety of the inhabitants.

Eleventh. To determine the fines, forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred for the breach of the regulations established by said Board of Supervisors, and also for a violation of the provisions of this Act where no penalty is affixed thereto or provided by law; but no penalty to be imposed shall exceed the amount of value of one thousand dollars, or six months' imprisonment, or both; and all actions for the recovery of such fines, or the enforcement of such penalties, may be prosecuted before the Police Judge in the name of the said city and county of San Francisco.

Twelfth. To regulate and provide for the employment of prisoners sentenced to the public work of said city and county, and if deemed necessary and expedient, to let out the labor of such prisoners, by contract to the highest bidder.

Thirteenth. To license and regulate hackney coaches, carriages, and other public vehicles, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, and property therein, and also to license and regulate porters employed in conveying baggage for persons arriving in, and departing from, said city and county, and to prohibit the exercise of those employments without such license.

Fourteenth. To license and regulate all such callings, trades, and employments, as the public good may require to be licensed and regulated, and as are not prohibited by law. And all licenses granted in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, or the powers therein delegated, shall be signed and issued by the Auditor of said city and county, on production to him of the Treasurer's receipt for the sum required to be paid therefor, which receipt shall also be entered and countersigned by the Auditor, as in case of all other receipts for money paid into the treasury.

Fifteenth. To prohibit and suppress all houses of ill-fame and prostitution, and all occupations, houses, places, amusements and exhibitions which are against good morals, and contrary to public order and decency.

Sixteenth. To provide for the erection of a work-house, house of refuge, or house of correction, and for the regulation and government of the same.

Seventeenth. To direct and control the Fire Department of said city and county, in conformity with the laws.

Eighteenth. To fix the fees and charges to be made by the Surveyor of said city and county for certificates of surveys for buildings or other purposes, on the public streets.

Nineteenth. To provide by regulation, where it may be necessary, for carrying the provisions of this Act into effect.

Twentieth. To provide for the care and maintenance of the indigent sick of said city and county, but not to incur any expenses therefor exceeding the sum of two thousand eight hundred dollars a month.

Twenty-first. To provide for the construction and repair of hydrants, fire-plugs, cisterns and pumps in the streets, for the public security and convenience.

Twenty-second. To provide for the erection of all buildings necessary and proper for the use of the city and county, upon lands belonging thereto, but without the power to purchase either lands, lots, or buildings.

Twenty-third. To provide ways and means for the prosecution of the claims in the name of the City of San Francisco, to the Pueblo lands now pending for the same.
