ANNOUNCEMENT OF LECTURES, Session of 1859.

The regular Annual Course of Lectures in this Institution will commence on the first Monday in May, 1859, and be continued eighteen weeks.

Clinical Lectures will also be given on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, on Practice of Medicine, Surgery, Special Pathological Anatomy, on Physical Diagnosis, Auscultation and Percussion, and upon the Diseases of Women and Children. The Medical Clinic will be under the direction of Professor Morison; the Surgical Clinic under Professor Cooper; the Obstetrical Clinic, including Diseases of Women and Children, under Professor Cole.

REQUIREMENTS AND REGULATIONS.

The examinations will be so arranged as to permit the commencement for conferring degrees, to be held early in September.

The candidate must be of good moral character, and at least twenty-one years of age.

He must have attended two full courses of lectures in some regular and recognized medical school, one of which shall have been in this college, and he must exhibit his tickets, or other sufficient evidence thereof, to the Dean of the Faculty.

He must have studied medicine for not less than three years, and have attended at least one course of clinical instruction in an institution approved by the Faculty.

He must present to the Dean of the Faculty a thesis or dissertation upon some medical subject, in his own handwriting, and of his own composition; and exhibit to the Faculty, at his examination, satisfactory evidence of his professional attainments.

If, after examination for a degree, the candidate, on ballot, shall be found to have received three negative votes, he shall be entitled to another examination;—should he decline this, he may withdraw his thesis and graduation fee, and not be considered as rejected.

The degree will not be conferred upon any candidate who absents himself from the public commencement, without the special permission of the Faculty.

FEES.

The fee to each Professor is thirty dollars, payable in advance. The Matriculation fee is five dollars:—to be paid but once. The graduation fee is fifty dollars.

BENEFICIARIES.

For the purpose of assisting meritorious young men, the Faculty will receive annually, a limited number of beneficiaries, who will be required to pay fifty dollars each, towards the support of the institution, together with the Matriculation fee.

Those who are desirous of availing themselves of this foundation, must present to the Dean of the Faculty, as early as possible, satisfactory evidence, showing them to be of good moral character and of appropriate elementary education, and so circumstanced as to require this assistance.

SPRING, OR PRELIMINARY COURSE.

The Faculty, with a view of increasing the facilities for medical instruction without additional cost to the student, will deliver annually a gratuitous preliminary course of lectures upon subjects of importance, commencing on the first of April, and continuing till the commencement of the regular course.
