

his office four years, one President of the Board of Supervisors, a County Clerk, Police Judge, Chief of Police, Sheriff, Recorder, Coroner, Treasurer, Auditor, Tax Collector, Assessor, Surveyor, Superintendent of Common Schools, Superintendent of Public Streets and Highways, District Attorney and one Harbor-Master, who shall respectively continue in office for two years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and in and for each of said districts, by the qualified electors thereof, one Supervisor, and one School Director, who shall continue in office two years and until their successors are elected and qualified. There shall be elected at the next general election, and at the general election every year thereafter, by the qualified electors of the city and county of San Francisco, a President of the Board of Supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, who shall hold his office for one year next after his election and qualification, and until his successor is elected and qualified; and at the next general election, and at the general election every two years thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified electors in and for the Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth and Twelfth Districts of the said city and county, each, one Supervisor and one School Director, who shall each, respectively, hold his office for the term of two years from and after his election and qualification, and until his successor be elected and qualified; and at the general election in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and at the general election every two years thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified electors in and for the First, Third, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth and Eleventh Districts of said city and county, each, one Supervisor and one School Director, who shall each, respectively, hold his office for the term of two years from and after his election and qualification, and until his successor be elected and qualified. And all vacancies in the office of Supervisor or School Director, where the term of office will not expire at the next ensuing general election, shall be then filled by an election in the proper district for the unexpired term; and for the interval between the happening of any such vacancy and the general election next ensuing, any vacancy in the office of Supervisor shall be filled by appointment by the President of the Board of Supervisors, by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the Supervisors then in office; and any vacancy in the office of School Director shall be filled by appointment by the Superintendent of Common Schools, by and with the advice and consent of a majority of the School Directors then in office; and such appointees shall hold office respectively until the general election next ensuing, and the election and qualification of their successors in office. But no such appointment shall be valid unless the appointee be at the time of his appointment an elector of the district wherein the vacancy occurred. Also one Inspector and two Judges of Elections, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and in all elections for Inspectors and Judges of Elections, each qualified voter shall vote for one Inspector and one Judge of Elections only, and that the person having the highest number of votes for Inspector, shall be declared elected Inspector, and the two having the highest number of votes for Judges shall be the Judges of Elections for the respective districts. There shall also be elected at the general election next preceding the expiration of the terms of the present Justices for the said city and county, six Justices of the Peace and six Constables. For that purpose the Board of Supervisors shall lay off the city and county into six townships, in such manner as not to divide any district in the formation of such township, in each of which townships there shall be elected by the qualified electors thereof, one Justice of the Peace and one Constable, to continue in office two years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The Justices of the Peace so elected shall have jurisdiction co-extensive with the city and county, but shall hold their courts within the townships for which they were chosen respectively. Provided, That at the next general election a Constable shall be elected for each of said districts, according to the original provisions of the section hereby amended.

SEC. 7. By the term "qualification of officers," as used in this Act, is to be understood, their having taken the oath of office, given the official bond, where it is
