

To the Ladies and Gentlemen of San Francisco

THE SUBSCRIBERS,

MESSRS. HARRIS & GARCIA

Desire to call the attention of the San Francisco public to the opening of their

MAGNIFICENT

DINING AND ICE CREAM SALOON,

WASHINGTON STREET,

Next door above Maguire's Opera House, in the building formerly known as Atwill's Music Store.

This magnificent establishment will surpass anything of the kind on the Pacific Coast, and it is the intention of the proprietors to make it the most desirable for Ladies and Families of any in this City.

It will be conducted in the style of the fashionable saloons of Messrs. Taylor and Thompson, of Broadway, New York, and all the delicacies of the season will be served in the most superb style. The Restaurant and Cuisine will be under the especial charge of Mr. THOMAS HARRIS, late of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s steamers, who brings to the department a life-time experience, and whose ability and reputation as a caterer is so well known as to need no further notice.

The office of the saloon will be under the superintendence of Mr. FRANK GARCIA, so favorably known in this community in his connection with the Bank Exchange, during the past six years.

THE BIVALVES

Will be under the particular charge of "PHIL," of whose ability no one disputes, as the best caterer in the above line in this city, and so well known of late years in connection with the Bank Exchange.

To gentlemen taking their meals at Restaurants, the proprietors extend the assurance that everything in this department will be served in a style satisfactory to the most fastidious, and prices shall compare favorably with any first-class Restaurant in the city.

Messrs. HARRIS & GARCIA desire further, to assure Ladies and Families that the conduct of this Saloon shall be at all times of such character as to merit their full approbation and patronage.

THOS. HARRIS, }
FRANK GARCIA, } PROPRIETORS.
