

APPENDIX.

THE CONSOLIDATION ACT, WITH THE AMENDMENTS THERETO.

AN ACT

To repeal the Several Charters of the City of San Francisco, to Establish the Boundaries of the City and County of San Francisco, and to Consolidate the Government thereof.

The People of the State of California,

Represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The corporation, or body politic and corporate, now existing and known as the city of San Francisco, shall remain and continue to be a body politic and corporate, in name and in fact, by the name of the city and county of San Francisco, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and defend, in all courts and places, and in all matters and proceedings whatever, and may have and may use a common seal, and the same may alter at pleasure, and may purchase, receive, hold and enjoy real and personal property, and sell, convey, mortgage and dispose of the same for the common benefit. The boundaries of the city and county of San Francisco shall be as follows: beginning in the Pacific Ocean, three miles from shore, and on the line (extended) of the United States Survey, separating townships two and three, south (Mount Diablo meridian) and thence running northerly and parallel with the shore so as to be three miles therefrom opposite Seal Rock; thence in the same general direction to a point three miles from shore, and on the northerly side of the entrance to the bay of San Francisco; thence to low water mark on the northerly side of the said entrance, at a point opposite Fort Point; thence following said low-water mark to a point due north-west of Golden Rock; thence due south-east to a point within three miles of the natural high-water mark on the eastern shore of the bay of San Francisco; thence in a southerly direction to a point three miles from said eastern shore, and on the line first named (considered as extending across said bay); and thence along said first named line to the place of beginning.* The islands in said bay, known as the Alcatrazes and Yerba Buena, and the islands in said ocean, known as the Farallones, shall be attached to and form a part of said city and county. Provided, however, That all rights and liabilities of the corporation heretofore and now known as the city of San Francisco, shall survive to, and continue against, the corporations continued by this Act. The district or districts of said city and county, bordering upon the southern line thereof, as heretofore established, shall be extended to the southern line of said city and county, as established in this Act.—[Amendment, April 18, 1857.

* By the Act of the Legislature, April 25, 1860, the boundaries of Marin county have been extended so as to include the Islands of Los Angeles, Dos Hermanos and Marin.—[COMPILER.
