

SUPPLEMENTAL I.—Amendatory Act approved April 18, 1857.

Sections one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight (amended April 25th, 1857) nine, ten, eleven. See Sections one, six, ten, eleven, nineteen, sixty-seven, seventy-four, eighty-one, eighty-five, eighty-six and ninety-five, of original Act, respectively.

SEC. 12. The second section of this amendatory Act shall not be construed so as to shorten or otherwise to affect the term of office of the officers chosen at the last general election. But all officers then elected shall continue in office and hold office for the same time as if said amendatory section had not been passed.

SEC. 7. By the term "qualification of officers," as used in this Act, is to be understood, their having taken the oath of office, given the official bond, where it is required by law, and complied with all the requisites prescribed by the statutes of this State, to entitle and qualify them to exercise the functions of their offices.

SEC. 8. The Sheriff, Clerk, Recorder, Treasurer, District Attorney, Auditor, Superintendent of Public Streets and Highways, and Dock-Masters of said city and county, shall keep public offices, which must be open, and kept open for the transaction of business, on all judicial days, during the following hours: From March twentieth to September twentieth, from nine A. M. to five P. M.; from September twentieth to March twentieth, from ten A. M. to four P. M. The Board of Supervisors shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to designate the places for keeping the said offices, except the Dock-Masters' office, and to set apart for their use suitable apartments in the City Hall, or other public buildings. The apartments designated for the use of the Treasurer, Auditor and Assessor of said city and county, shall be as nearly contiguous as possible.

SEC. 9. Whenever vacancies occur in any elective office of the said city and county, and provision is not otherwise made in this, or some other Act, for filling the same until the next election, the Board of Supervisors shall appoint a person to discharge the duties of such office, until the next election, when the vacancy shall be filled by election for the term, excepting vacancies in the office of Dock-Masters, which vacancies shall be filled by appointments by the Governor. All persons so appointed shall, before entering upon their duties, take the oath of office, and give bond as required by law. But in an action or proceeding where the Sheriff of said city and county is a party, or is interested, or otherwise incapacitated to execute the orders or process therein, the same shall be executed by a suitable person, residing in said city and county, to be appointed by the court, and denominated an "Elisor," who shall give such security as the court in its discretion may require, and shall execute the process and orders in the same manner as the Sheriff is required to execute similar process and orders in other cases.*

SEC. 10. The Surveyor, Justices of the Peace and Constables, shall continue to receive for their official services (except from the city and county) such fees and compensation as are now, or may hereafter, be allowed by law, and in addition to such fees and compensation, to be collected from private parties, there shall be allowed to the City and County Surveyor one thousand dollars per annum, which shall be in lieu of all fees or other charges for official services, which would otherwise be a city and county charge. The Assessor shall receive for all services required of him by law a salary, at the rate of four thousand dollars per annum, which salary shall be in full for all services required of him as aforesaid, and for all the contingent expenses of his office, except necessary books; and he shall devote his whole time during office-hours to the business of his office, and shall keep his office open to the public during the same hours provided by law for the City and County Auditor. To assist him in making his assessment he shall be allowed from the first of February, in each year, till the first of May, seven Deputies, and from the first of May until the assessment-roll is finally completed and handed over to the Auditor, he shall be allowed but three Depu-

* By the Act of the Legislature, Feb. 19, 1859, the Coronor is authorized to act as an "Elisor."
