This church was erected in the fall of 1854, at a cost, including the lot, of about $70,000. On its completion, the property was largely in debt, but the debt was gradually reduced, and finally wholly extinguished in the fall of the last year. The whole property is now entirely free from debt, and the income of the church, now some $13,000, from pew rents and Sabbath collections, is ample to meet all its current expenses. During the past summer, a splendid organ, built by Henry Erben, of New York, was put up in the church, at a cost of over $8,000. This is, in all respects, the largest and most costly organ on the Pacific coast, and it has few superiors even in the Atlantic States. It has 46 stops, and over 2,000 pipes. The greatest variety of combinations can be made by the use of the various stops and couplings; and for excellence of workmanship, and sweetness of tone, it has been pronounced by judges to be unsurpassed.

Mr. G. T. Evans, presides as organist. The church building will seat comfortably 1,000 persons. The number of communicants is now about 300; the number of scholars and teachers in the Sabbath School is about 175; number of volumes in the Library, 1,000, which were selected with great care, and form a very complete Library. Connected with the church is a depository of the books of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, in which there is kept a variety of the standard books and tracts published by that board.
