

Oct. 1. The models... A column... while the gunners were practicing... hurt.

Oct. 2. A whale was captured in the Bay.

Oct. 3. Arrival of the steamship St. Louis from Panama.

Oct. 7. Amount of cash in City Treasury, $6,207 52.

Oct. 9. Two painters, James Willock and Richard Smith, fell from a staging at Parrott's Bank to the pavement, a distance of forty feet, and are supposed to be fatally injured.

Oct. 10. A French laundry destroyed by fire, opposite South Park.

Oct. 11. Major-General Henry W. Halleck, and Capt. Henry M. Naglee, left for the seat of war, on the steamer... The steamship St. Louis, left for Panama, with treasure to the amount of $999,093 81.... A fire took place at the corner of Washington and Davis streets.

Oct. 15. A portion of the Occidental Hotel fell, burying several men beneath the ruins, although no lives were lost... Hon. J. W. Nesmith, Senator from Oregon, arrived on his way to Washington.... A fire took place in Genard's Restaurant, Washington Street.

Oct. 16. Arrival of the Orizaba from Panama.

Oct. 21. Brigadier-General E. V. Sumner, and other army officers, and U. S. Senator Nesmith, left on the steamer for the East.... Treasure shipment per Orizaba for Panama, $1,006,130 38.... Capt. John H. Lendrum fatally injured by a train of dirt cars at North Beach..... Ship Commonwealth seized by United States authorities as contraband.

Oct. 22. A grand Union Festival is being held at Musical Hall.... News of the shooting of Capt. G. W. Staples, at Portland, Oregon.

Oct. 24. Destruction of the San Francisco Golden Mills by fire; loss $60,000; insured for $100,000.... Completion of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Line—the greatest work of the century.... A fire occurred on Green Street....

Oct. 25. News of the death of Col. E. D. Baker, at the head of his Brigade, at Edward's Ferry.

Oct. 26. The U. S. steam frigate Saranac left for the Southern waters.... The U. S. Court closed, and the Courts all adjourned in respect to the memory of Col. E. D. Baker.

Oct. 26. Capt. Lendrum, U. S. A., died.... George Wright appointed to the command of the U. S. Army Department of the Pacific.

Oct. 27. Arrival of the Sonora from Panama.

Oct. 29. Robert B. Schell shot and killed a black barber named George Gordon.... Fredrick Corless fell dead at the Plymouth Rock House.

Oct. 30. A fire took place at the corner of Merchant and Kearny streets.

NOVEMBER 6. The corner stone of the New Dashaway, on Post Street, was laid with appropriate ceremonies.... Death of George A. Van Bokkelen, a pioneer merchant.... Three companies of volunteers left on the steamer for Humboldt Bay.... Arrival of the Uncle Sam from Panama.

Nov. 11. Departure of the steamship Sonora for Panama, with $969,260 28 in treasure...

Nov. 12. A man named V. Donard, committed suicide at the St. Francis Hotel.

Nov. 14. Opening of books for subscription to the National Loan.... The Russian steam corvette Calavela arrived.... A fire took place at the corner of Jackson and Dupont streets.... James C. Duncan was found dead in his bed on Vallejo Street; disease, apoplexy.... Ten Bactrian camels arrived from Amoor River.

Nov. 16. Completion of the new St. Mary's Hospital, on Rincon Hill.

Nov. 21. $1,200,627 82 in treasure went forward on the steamship Uncle Sam for Panama.... The New York Relief Fund Committee forwarded $4,000 by steamer.

Nov. 24. The I. O. O. F. funeral obsequies of the late Thomas Wildey took place at Platt's Hall.

Nov. 26. The 12th anniversary of the California Bible Society took place.... Death of Caleb Cameron, of Cameron, Whittier & Co., by drowning at Benicia.

Nov. 28. Thanksgiving Day—very generally observed.

Nov. 30. Departure of steamship St. Louis with treasure to the amount of $984,864 58.... A man named Curtis was found dead at the Niantic Hotel.... Angelo Chiarini, one of the Martinetti Troupe, died from injuries received by falling from a rope, near the top of Hayes' Park Pavilion Building.

DECEMBER 3. The steamship Cortes, from Portland, Oregon, brought down $125,615 in treasure.

DEC. 5. Arrival of the steamship Golden Gate with the remains of the late Colonel E. D. Baker.

DEC. 8. The new Catholic Church, St. Joseph's, was dedicated.

DEC. 9. A fire occurred at 426 Commercial Street.... Intelligence of Sacramento City being overflowed from a sudden rise of the American River.

DEC. 11. Funeral obsequies of Col. Edward D. Baker. This was one of the most imposing ceremonies ever witnessed on this coast, either civic or military. Hon. Edward Stanly delivered the eulogy.... Departure of the steamship Golden Gate for Panama with $861,611 49.

DEC. 12. $15,000 were subscribed for Sacramento sufferers.

DEC. 15. Arrival of the steamship Sonora from Panama.

DEC. 18. St. Nicholas Day was duly observed by our Russian residents.

DEC. 19. News of a great flood in Oregon, carrying away whole villages and destroying an immense amount of property.

DEC. 21. Treasure shipment per Sonora for Panama, $1,176,753 98.

DEC. 23. A run was made on Savings and Loan Society Bank.

DEC. 25. Christmas was very generally observed in all the Churches, etc.... An American flag was presented to the officers of the Russian corvette Calavela.