chi and Busbard, Assistants. Location, north side Market between Fourth and Fifth Streets. Masses: Sundays, at $6\frac{1}{2}$, 7, $8\frac{1}{2}$, and $10\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock A. M.; Vespers, 7 o'clock P. M.; week days, $6\frac{1}{2}$ and $7\frac{1}{4}$ o'clock A. M. This church is under the direction of the Jesuits, was dedicated July 15th, 1855, and has St. Ignatins' College connected with it. The old building being found too small for the rapidly increasing congregation, the new Hall of the College is at present used as a church, and accommodates about 1,400 persons. In the basement are the school and class rooms of the College, and fronting on Market Street the residence of the Jesuit Fathers. The church will afterward be built on the site of the old one. The present portion of the institution recently erected will, when completed, cost about \$100,000.

Notre Dame des Victoires.

Rev. FATHER MOLINIER, Pastor; Rev. Father Renand, Assistant. Location, north side Bush between Dupont and Stockton streets. Services at $7\frac{1}{2}$ A. M. every day. Sundays at 7 and 11 A. M.; also, Vespers at $3\frac{1}{2}$ P. M. The congregation was organized May, 1856, and its splendid edifice dedicated on the fourth of the same month. The building was constructed by a society of Baptists, and at the date above given was disposed of to the present owners. It has a ground base of 50 by 100 feet, is a very beautiful and massive brick structure, and with its basement, which is intended for school rooms connected with the church, has a capacity of comfortably seating seven hundred persons.

Mission Dolores.

Rev. JOHN J. PRENDERGAST, Pastor. Services at 8 and 11 o'clock A. M., on Sundays and Festivals. This adobe church is located on the south-west corner of Sixteenth and Dolores streets: was dedicated on the 9th of Octoher, 1776, although projected in 1769, by Father Junipero Serra, the founder of the California Missions. The first Friar who had charge was Francisco Palou, who was assisted in his labors by Benito Cambon. At the organization of this Mission, and for its protection, there were fifteen soldiers located at the Presidio, under the command of S. Flores. A cemetery is attached to the church, in which the first interment was made in September, 1776. The first Indian convert was baptized on the 27th December of the same year. In the introductory portion of the San Francisco Directory for 1862, page 5, will be found further details connected with the history of this Mission. Attached to this church is the Seminary of St. Thomas.

Buckinghan then offici-ated as temporary Pastor until April 5, 1860. The present Pastor, Rev. T. S. King, arrived here with his family April 28, 1860, and commenced his ministrations the following day (Sunday) before one of the largest congregations ever assembled in this city. Since the commencement of Mr. King's labors, and during the period of ten months, this society relieved itself of a debt which had been for years accumulating upon them, and which amounted on the 1st of May, 1860, to very nearly $20,000. The mortgage upon the building, $12,500, has been paid, and the society is now entirely free from debt. The building is capable of seating 1,000 persons, and is one of the most attractive places of public worship in the city. The present church edifice being inadequate to the

The present church edifice being inadequate to the growing wants of this congregation, the society is now engaged in erecting a new building on Geary Street below Stockton.

As the building will be finished about the time this volume will be ready for issue, we give a description of it. The lot measures $112\frac{1}{2}$ feet on Geary Street by $137\frac{1}{2}$ feet in depth. On this lot are erected a church building proper, with a double porch of approach, set back twelve feet from the street, and a school building, set 65 feet back, forming a wing to the church ou the west side, also approached from Geary Street. The buildings are subdivided into accommodations to suit the needs and enstoms of the parish and the denomination to which it belongs.
